AN ACCOUNT OF THE
Society for promoting Christian Knowledge.

THE SOCIETY FOR PROMOTING CHRISTIAN KNOWLEDGE, consists partly of SUBSCRIBING, and partly of CORRESPONDING Members. The former contribute such annual sums respectively, as each thinks proper, towards supporting the expences of the Institution. The latter are such persons in Great Britain and Ireland, and other parts of the world, as are recommended or invited to correspond with the SOCIETY, for the purpose of acquainting it, from time to time, with the state of Religion in their neighbourhood; of suggesting such methods of doing good as occur to them; of distributing Bibles, Prayer-books, or any other Books and Tracts recommended by the SOCIETY; and of remitting such occasional benefactions as they themselves are pleased to contribute, or as they are enabled to collect from well-disposed Christians.

Object of the Society.

THE OBJECT of the SOCIETY is expressed in its name. It is the PROMOTING OF CHRISTIAN KNOWLEDGE generally throughout the world.

*Origin of
ciety.*

Early in the year 1699*, a few individuals of elevated station and eminent piety, both among the Clergy and Laity, began to meet together in a voluntary Society, and, as such, with unanimity and zeal, and with numbers gradually increasing†, they exerted themselves to advance the knowledge of true Religion by such methods‡ as

* The first meeting took place March 8, 1698-9, at which were present the Right Hon. Lord Guildford, Sir Humphrey Mackworth, Mr. Justice Hook, Dr. Bray, and Colonel Colchester.

† The records of the SOCIETY exhibit, in a very short period after its institution, the following eminent characters as assisting at the deliberations of the SOCIETY:—Bishop Stillingfleet, of Worcester; Bishop Kidder, of Bath and Wells; Bishop Stratford, of Chester; Bishop Williams, of Chichester; Bishop Fowler, of Gloucester; Bishop Evans, of Bangor; Bishop Smith, of Down and Connor, &c. &c.; Dr. Willis, Dean of Lincoln; Dr. Hayley, Dean of Chichester; Dr. Stanhope, afterwards Dean of Canterbury; Dr. Hare, afterwards Bishop of Chichester; Dr. Kennet, afterwards Bishop of Peterbro'; Dr. Josiah Woodward, Dr. William Nicholls, Dr. John Mapletost, Dr. Ernest Grabe, Sir George Wheeler, Knt. D.D. Sir Richard Blackmore, knt. John Chamberlayne, Esq. Robert Nelson, Esq. William Melmoth, Esq. the Rev. Messrs. Dorrington, John Lewis, Benjamin Ibbott, Arthur Bedford, and Archdeacon Stubbs. And at the like early period the SOCIETY opened and carried on a constant correspondence in Foreign Parts with many eminent persons, as Professor Franck, of Halle, in Saxony; Mr. Ostervald, of Neufchatel; Mr. Wends, of Copenhagen, Mr. Jablonski, of Berlin, &c. &c.

‡ The preamble to their first proceedings is here inserted.

“ WHEREAS the growth of vice and immorality is greatly “ owing to gross ignorance of the principles of CHRISTIAN appeared to them most conducive to that end. Origin of the Society.

 About the middle of the year 1701, at their in-

“RELIGION, We, whose names are underwritten, do agree “to meet together, as often as we can conveniently, to consult (under the conduct of the Divine providence and assistance) how we may be able, by due and lawful methods, to “PROMOTE CHRISTIAN KNOWLEDGE.”

At this time there were two subscription rolls, the preambles to which, likewise, it may be proper to subjoin, as further descriptive of the original designs of the SOCIETY.

“We, whose names are underwritten, do subscribe to pay “annually, by quarterly payments, the several sums to our “several names annexed, for PROMOTING CHRISTIAN “KNOWLEDGE; as, by erecting CATECHETICAL SCHOOLS; “by raising LENDING CATECHETICAL LIBRARIES in the “several market towns of this kingdom; by DISTRIBUTING “GOOD BOOKS; or otherwise, as the SOCIETY shall direct.”

The preamble to the second subscription is as follows:

“We, whose names are underwritten, do look upon the “fixing PAROCHIAL LIBRARIES throughout the plantations, “(especially on the continent of North America, where the “provision for the clergy, we understand, is but mean) as a “design which will very much tend to propagate Christian “Knowledge in the Indies, as it will, in all likelihood, be a “means always to invite the more studious and virtuous persons out of the Universities, and elsewhere, to undertake
 “the ministry in those parts; and will be also a necessary “means of rendering them useful in all the parts of their function, by doctrine, by reproof, by correction, by instruction in righteousness, when they are there.

“And therefore, as we ourselves do subscribe and contribute cheerfully towards the further advance of these Parochial Libraries, so we shall make it our endeavour to obtain “benefactions from our friends and acquaintances respectively, towards the same Christian purposes.”

This latter subscription was not annual: and, after the incorporation of the Society for the Propagation of the Gospel in Foreign Parts, it was discontinued.

Origin of the Society. In consequence, a CHARTER was obtained from his Majesty, KING WILLIAM III. by which many of the then Subscribing and Corresponding Members, with several other persons of distinction in Church and State, were incorporated, by the name of THE SOCIETY FOR THE PROPAGATION OF THE GOSPEL IN FOREIGN PARTS, for the better carrying on of that branch of the SOCIETY'S designs, which related to the Colonies beyond the seas, belonging to the kingdom of England.

But the Charter of that Corporation being limited to Foreign Parts, the Members of our voluntary SOCIETY still continued, in that capacity, to prosecute their benevolent designs at home: and the INCORPORATED SOCIETY confining its operations principally to the British Plantations in AMERICA, the proceedings of this Institution were early extended to India, and gradually into other parts of the world. Our's therefore is a SOCIETY distinct from that Corporation, and is known by the name of THE SOCIETY FOR PROMOTING CHRISTIAN KNOWLEDGE.

In prosecution of this great undertaking,

Education and Schools.

I. THE EDUCATION OF YOUTH in the principles of the Christian Religion, and in habits of useful industry, has ever been an object of the SOCIETY'S especial regard and concern. Its resources therefore have never failed to be liberally communicated for the benefit of CHARITY AND SUNDAY SCHOOLS. And so great was its success, even at a very early period of its history, in procuring the erection and establishment of CHARITY SCHOOLS, that within little more than ten years Education and Schools. after the commencement of its proceedings, nearly five thousand children were taught in and about the cities of London and Westminster, most of them being also clothed, many boarded, apprenticed, &c. This good example, set in the metropolis, was rapidly followed in all parts of the kingdom: and from the Summary View printed by the SOCIETY in the year 1741, it appears that, besides those established in Scotland and Ireland, upwards of sixteen hundred CHARITY SCHOOLS had then been established in England and Wales only, in which about forty thousand poor children were regularly receiving the blessings of Christian Education. And that these institutions might better answer the true purposes for which they were erected, the SOCIETY have not been wanting to recommend, in their correspondence with such of their Members as have been concerned in the support and management of the same, that, together with religious and useful instruction, care should be taken to inure the children to industry and labour, that so they may become good Christians and loyal subjects, and be willing and fit to be employed in husbandry, navigation, or any other occupation. With these views the SOCIETY printed and dispersed many editions of an Account of the Methods used in erecting Charity Schools, together with such Rules for their good order and government as had been approved of by the Archbishops and Bishops, who directed the same to be observed within their respective Dioceses.

While the design of CHARITY SCHOOLS was yet

Education and Schools.

new, the SOCIETY promoted their erection, not only by its advice and correspondence, but also in many cases by pecuniary supplies; by contributing towards the expences of building, to the salaries of masters, and by other methods of a similar nature. But subsequently, these objects, for the most part, were gradually left to the individual exertions of the Members of the SOCIETY, and to other pious and public-spirited persons, in their respective districts: and the SOCIETY itself was hereby better enabled greatly to extend its operations in one particular branch of this very important department. For, of all the schools above enumerated, and of the very many others of a like description, which, from time to time, have since been instituted, by far the greatest portion have been from their foundation constantly supplied through this SOCIETY in whole, or in part, with the Books used therein; and with those copies of the Holy Scriptures, Book of Common Prayer, and devotional or practical Treatises, which, in many cases, are bestowed upon the young persons of each sex, at their discharge from these schools, for their protection and guidance amid the dangers of a sinful world.

Sunday Schools.

About the year 1784, the SOCIETY saw the applications to its repository for supplies of the above description, rapidly and extensively increase by the introduction of SUNDAY SCHOOLS. And, not doubting that DIVINE PROVIDENCE would continue to raise up to them pious benefactors to enable them to meet all the demands, which should be occasioned by such a cause, they listened to Sunday these increased applications, not with feelings of Schools. apprehension for their own stability, but with those of unmixed satisfaction, and with thankfulness to the Giver of every good and perfect gift. The years which are gone by have amply realised their expectations in regard to this very salutary department of Christian education, both as respects themselves and the public at large.

From like considerations the intelligence was National received with similar impressions, that the NA- Society TIONAL SOCIETY FOR THE EDUCATION OF THE POOR for the IN THE PRINCIPLES OF THE ESTABLISHED CHURCH, Educa- instituted in the year 1811, had required, in their tion of the Poor. plan of union with the DIOCESAN AND DISTRICT SOCIETIES and SCHOOLS in connexion with that Institution, that no books of Religious instruction should be admitted into their schools, but which are now, or shall hereafter be contained in the catalogue of this SOCIETY. The applications to our repository for books for the use of schools have already by this determination been very largely augmented, and our expences correspondently increased. Nor is this all. But, as the number of persons able to read, must, through the agency of that SOCIETY, be very greatly increased in every part of the kingdom, it is evident, that the call will be rendered proportionably greater upon this SOCIETY for every other description of books which it distributes. The institution of the NATIONAL SOCIETY therefore supplies a very cogent argument

National Society for the Education of the Poor. for an enlarged patronage to our own. And when this fact has once been pointed out, it may be added that no result is yet contemplated from these circumstances, but what shall redound to the further growth and prosperity of the united cause of piety and charity.

The benefits derived from the early example and influence of our SOCIETY in this essential department of Christian edification, the religious education of youth, spread rapidly into other quarters of the world; and were often gratefully acknowledged from IRELAND, SCOTLAND, WALES, and other parts of the BRITISH dominions; and in HOLLAND, SWITZERLAND, GERMANY, RUSSIA, PRUSSIA, and many other Countries of both Continents; in most of which Societies were speedily instituted upon the same designs, and avowedly after the model of ours.

Bibles, Prayer-books, and other Books, dispersed by the Society.

II. To disperse the HOLY SCRIPTURES, the LITURGY, and many pious and judicious BOOKS and TRACTS in the ENGLISH language on all the leading points of Faith and Practice, has been, from the beginning, another principal branch of this SOCIETY's designs, both at home and abroad: and, in the pursuit of this object, in which a very large proportion of the SOCIETY's funds is annually expended, they have been enabled, through the munificence of numerous benefactors, to send forth an almost incredible number of all these, as they trust, to the great temporal and everlasting comfort of multitudes of their fellow-creatures. Of these books and tracts, and of the reduced prices at which they are to be obtained * by their own Members, a detailed catalogue, with specimens of the types in which the Bibles and Prayer Books are printed, is given in the Appendix.

*Bibles, Prayerbooks, and other Books,
dispersed by the Society.*

The SOCIETY has also from time to time at very great charge procured and aided the publication of the Scriptures, Book of Common Prayer, and various approved devotional and instructive treatises, in the WELSH, IRISH, MANKS, GAELIC, PORTUGUESE, FRENCH, DANISH, GERMAN, and other languages.

In the year 1709, the SOCIETY circulated copies of a new edition of the WELSH Common Prayer Book.

Welsh Impressions.

In the year 1714, they issued proposals for collecting subscriptions towards a new impression of the Welsh Bible; which obtained so extensive a patronage, that in 1718 an edition of above 7000 copies was finished, together with the Apocrypha, Book of Common Prayer, Psalms in Metre, &c. By similar efforts †, like impressions of 15,000, 15,000, 20,000, 10,000, and 20,000 copies were printed in the years 1748, 1753, 1770,

* This is usually done through letters addressed to the Secretary in the following terms:

“ Rev. Sir,

“ I request the under-mentioned books on the terms of the Society, to be forwarded by carrier, from ,” viz.

† Excepting in the cases of the editions of 1799, and 1809, in which no proposal was issued, nor any special benefactions solicited, but the whole charge was defrayed out of the Society's existing funds.

*Welsh
sions.*

1799, and 1809, respectively ; besides sundry separate editions of the New Testament and Liturgy. And though, by some of these very costly undertakings the SOCIETY for a time was greatly reduced in its funds, yet, through the blessing of DIVINE PROVIDENCE, it was ever enabled speedily to regain its former powers, and to continue to prosper in its resources and operations more and more.

During all this period, many of the most valuable devotional and didactic treatises on the Society's catalogue have, as occasion required, been translated into the Welsh language, and printed for distribution.

Irish Impressions.

In the year 1712, the Rev. John Richardson, a corresponding Member of this SOCIETY, and Rector of Annah, in the diocese of Kildare, commiserating the unhappy condition of the Popish natives of IRELAND, made application to the Board in London upon that subject. In consequence of this application they directed 3000 copies to be printed of a book drawn up by Mr. Richardson, intitled "A Short History of the Attempts that have been made to Convert the Popish Natives of Ireland to the established Religion," which they caused to be circulated, together with "A Proposal for the Conversion of the Popish Natives of Ireland to the Protestant Religion, by printing the Bible, Liturgy, and Exposition of the Church Catechism, and other useful Treatises in Irish ; that so they may be instructed, and have the offices of Religion performed to them, in their own language : as also by erecting Charity Schools for the education of the Irish children gratis, in the Irish Im-English tongue and Protestant Religion." A Com-pressions. mittee of Members was appointed to receive subscriptions towards this design: and an edition of 6000 copies of the Book of Common Prayer, the same number of the Church Catechism, with the IRISH alphabet, and elements of the IRISH language for the use of the Charity Schools, and 6000 copies of Lewis's Exposition of the Church Catechism, all in the ENGLISH and IRISH languages in parallel columns, were speedily printed by the encouragement then obtained, and were distributed partly in Ireland, and partly in the Highlands of Scotland.

In like manner, in the year 1763, the SOCIETY Manks issued proposals for printing the Bible, the Liturgy, Impres- and several religious books and tracts, in the vulgar tongue of the ISLE OF MAN; in consequence of which (the undertaking being enforced by the recommendation and patronage of the venerable Bishops Wilson and Hildesley) they were enabled in a few years to disperse gratuitously, a large impression of the New Testament, Book of Common Prayer, Christian Monitor, Lewis's Exposition of the Church Catechism, &c. &c. In 1773 they finished an edition of the Manks Bible and Apocrypha; and in 1776 another of the New Testament. Soon afterwards 3000 copies of the Book of Common Prayer, and 3500 of Bishop Wilson's Treatise on the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper were printed and distributed; and in 1808, at the suggestion of the late Bishop of Sodor and Man, they undertook a third edition of the Book

*Manks

of Common Prayer, which has since been finished, and is now in course of distribution at a charge to the Natives of little more than one-third of the prime cost.

In the years 1793 and 1794 the SOCIETY contributed 150*l.* towards the printing a translation of the Liturgy into the GAELIC language, for the use of the natives of the Highlands of Scotland; and in 1803 they gave 300*l.* towards an impression of the Bible in the same language, printed under the direction of the SOCIETY in Scotland for PROPAGATING CHRISTIAN KNOWLEDGE.

*Danish, Swedish,

In the year 1808 the SOCIETY defrayed the charge of an edition of 2250 DANISH Prayer and Psalm Books, for the use of the Danish prisoners, and other indigent persons of that nation, in Great Britain, and grants have frequently been made for procuring SWEDISH and FINNISH Bibles and Prayer Books, for the use of seamen in the British service, and others; and consigned to the care of the Pastor and Elders of the SWEDISH Church in London.

Religious Missions.

III. A THIRD great branch of the SOCIETY'S designs has been to diffuse the blessings of Christianity by the establishment and support of RELIGIOUS MISSIONS, and other expedients necessary to that end: and, accordingly, while it has been careful to provide for the spiritual welfare of a few small islands near our own shores, it has also extended its regard to the destitute condition of the natives of AFRICA, and on a more enlarged scale towards those of ASIA.

In the year 1752, the SOCIETY accepted a trust Scilly Mission. from the Rev. Mr. Hartshorne, Rector of Brosely, Salop; and from that trust, aided by the special contributions of many other charitable individuals, but yet not without a considerable additional charge upon the general funds, they have been enabled to open Schools, and to support two Clergymen, as established Missionaries in the SCILLY ISLANDS.

IN FOREIGN PARTS, (besides numerous other Protestant Mission in the East Indies. occasional undertakings, and benefactions for special purposes) the SOCIETY has for many years, and at very great expence, sent out, supported, and aided Missionaries to preach the Gospel to Europeans and Natives in the EAST INDIES: and it has from time to time contributed largely towards the translating and printing of the Scriptures and other books in several Eastern languages; and also to the establishment and encouragement of Charity Schools, and the erection of Churches in that quarter of the world.

In 1710 the SOCIETY undertook the superintendence of such charities as should be intrusted to them, for the support and enlargement of the Protestant Mission at TRANQUEBAR: in pursuance of which resolution, they published the same year, (1710) a Proposal inviting benefactions for an impression of the NEW TESTAMENT in PORTUGUESE, and to enable them to set up CHARITY SCHOOLS among the heathens in MALABAR; both which objects were speedily effected: and a correspondence was settled with many persons of sion in

worth and influence in the most eminent places subject to Great Britain in INDIA: by which expedient the SOCIETY is informed from time to time of the state of religion, the conduct and success of their Missionaries, and other particulars connected with the propagation of the Christian Faith in those regions. Since the date above specified, (1710) the Mission has gradually been extended to Madras, Cudalore, Trichinapally, and Tanjore.

To the assistance derived from this SOCIETY by its regular transmission of money, printing paper, presses *, and other requisite materials, it has likewise been in a great degree owing, that the Missionaries have been enabled at different times to translate and publish several editions of the whole or parts of the Holy Scriptures, the Book of Common Prayer, Psalter, and many books and tracts connected with Religion and civilization in the Tamulian, Bengalee, and Portuguese languages †: in which department, as well as in every thing else relating to these Missions, the views of the SOCIETY were for many years very successfully promoted by the active services of their lamented Missionaries, the apostolical Swartz and Gerickè ‡.

* A printer, types, printing-press, &c. were sent first in the year 1712.

† Among the earliest efforts of this kind that appear on the records of the Society, is a translation in 1734 of the whole Bible, &c. into the Warugian or Telinga dialect by the Missionary Schultze.

‡ In the year 1801, the Rev. Mr. Gerickè, the Society's Missionary at Vepery, transmitted the following letter from the Rajah at Tanjore:

In the year 1720, the SOCIETY extended their regard to the GREEK CHURCH in Palestine, Syria, Mesopotamia, Arabia, and Egypt; and for their Arabic Impressions, &c.

“ To the Honourable Society for promoting Christian Knowledge.

“ Honourable Sirs,

“ I have requested of your Missionaries to write to you, their superiors and friends, and to apply to you in my name, for a monument of marble to be erected in their Church, that is in my Capital and Presidency, to perpetuate the memory of the late Rev. Father SWARTZ, and to manifest the great esteem I have for the character of that great and good man, and the gratitude I owe to him, my father, my friend, the protector and guardian of my youth; and now I beg leave to apply to you myself, and to beg that, upon my account, you will order such a monument for the late Reverend Missionary, Father SWARTZ, to be made, and to be sent out to me, that it may be fixed to the pillar that is next to the pulpit from which he preached. The pillars of the Church are about two cubits broad. May you, Honourable Sirs, ever be enabled to send to this country such Missionaries as are like the late Rev. Mr. SWARTZ.

“ I am, Honourable Sirs,

Tanjore,
May 28, 1801.

“ Your's faithfully and truly,

“ SERTOOGEE RAJAH.”

The SOCIETY concurring in opinion with the East India Mission Committee, resolved thereupon that the contents of this letter from the Rajah of Tanjore did bear strong testimony to the high character of the late worthy and invaluable Missionary, Mr. SWARTZ; that it would be proper to comply with the request of his Highness; and that steps should be taken by the Committee to have a suitable monument constructed, and sent out to Tanjore to be placed in the Mission Church there.

Another monument was erected by the Honourable EAST INDIA COMPANY to the memory of the Rev. Missionary SWARTZ, in testimony of the high sense which they also entertained of his long and eminent services.

use printed in the ARABIC language an edition of above 6000 Psalters, 10,000 New Testaments, and 5000 Catechetical Instructions, with Osterwald's Abridgment of the History of the Bible annexed, at an expence amounting to nearly 3000l. to which his Majesty King George I. in testimony of his approbation of the proceedings of the SOCIETY, was a bountiful Contributor by a gracious benefaction of 500l. Most of these books have been sent to those parts; into Syria by means of the SOCIETY's correspondents at Aleppo, by the Patriarch of Antioch, &c. &c.; into Egypt, by the Patriarch of the Greeks at Grand Cairo; into Persia through their correspondents in Russia; into India through the hands of their Missionaries; and into Africa latterly by means of the Sierra Leone Company.

Recently (1809, &c.) the SOCIETY have been liberal contributors to the Arabic Bible, begun by the late Rev. Professor Carlyle, which is now finished, and is ready for distribution as opportunity shall arise.

*Other objects and undertakings of
ciety.*

In addition to the above three-fold division of the principal designs of the SOCIETY, there yet remain some other undertakings of a more specific character, highly interesting to every friend to religion and his country, which cannot therefore be passed over in silence, even in a brief abstract like the present.

Lending Libraries.

About the year 1709, the SOCIETY, consulting the benefit of the Clergy and others, throughout the Principality, established four Lending Libraries in Wales, viz. at Carmarthen, Bangor, Cowbridge, and St. Asaph, being one for each of the four dioceses; and shortly after they sent out to the East Indies, two Collections of Books, to constitute the foundation of two Libraries of the same description at Fort St. George and at Calcutta, to be under the charge and superintendence of the Rev. Chaplains of the Hon. East India Company.

Libraries.*

In the beginning of the year 1732 the SOCIETY, when they heard the melancholy account of the sufferings of the Protestants in SALTZBURGH, having first obtained his Majesty's leave, resolved upon doing all that lay in their power to raise collections for their persecuted brethren. To this end, about the middle of the same year, they published An Account of the Sufferings of the persecuted Protestants in the Archbishopric of Saltzburgh, and appointed certain of their Members to receive and collect contributions. Afterwards they published a Farther Account of the Sufferings, &c.; and thirdly, An Extract of the Journals of Mr. Commissary Von Reck, who conducted the first Transport of Saltzburghers to GEORGIA, &c. (1734.) These Accounts, being enforced by the generous example of many noble and honourable persons, as also by liberal contributions, and earnest exhortations from the Right Reverend the Bishops and their Clergy, had, through God's blessing, so good an effect upon the minds of charitable and well-disposed Christians of every rank and denomination, that the SOCIETY, besides making many large remittances to GERMANY, was enabled to send over to the English colony in GEORGIA, in four different years, four transports containing more than two hundred Protestant emigrants, chiefly Saltzburghers, who, with two Missionaries and a Schoolmaster, settled themselves at EBENEZER, upon lands assigned to them by the trustees for establishing the said colony.

The revolution in America ending in a separation between that country and this, the Mission is now discontinued; and the funds which the SOCIETY had appropriated to its support, have been applied to the general designs. The last Missionary still continues to receive an annual pension from the SOCIETY.

*Army
Navy.*

From a very early period of our operations the spiritual necessities of the ARMY and NAVY have constituted one important department of the SOCIETY'S concern; and from its stores copies of the Holy Scriptures, and certain other books, have frequently been granted to both those great National Establishments. In the year 1701, 3000 Soldier's Monitor, and the same number of a Pastoral Letter from a Minister to his Parishioners, were sent over to the English Army in Holland: and in the same year the Seaman's Monitor and some other tracts were very extensively distributed in the Navy. In the year 1722, the SOCIETY projected another very large distribution of the Soldier's Monitor amongst his Majesty's land forces. The design was communicated to some individuals of the Privy Council, and upon their encouragement and approbation a large impression was prepared. Army and Navy.

 In the following year similar proceedings were instituted with respect to the Seaman's Monitor for the Navy; and so acceptable were both these undertakings to his Majesty King George I. that he directed the whole charge of the printing, binding, and distribution of those works, amounting to nearly 500*l.* to be defrayed from his Majesty's treasury.

With regard to the NAVY, especially, the SOCIETY was for a great many years, and at a very considerable annual expence, accustomed regularly to furnish to the Commanders of vessels, gratuitously, on their special application, for the use of the crews under their command, Bibles, Common Prayer Books, Psalters containing the Church Service, and some short select practical Tracts, in proportion to the number of each ship's company; and while these, together with similar applications from the Commanders of the shipping of the Hon. EAST INDIA COMPANY, have, especially of late years, kept continually increasing to the very great increasing charge upon the funds of the SOCIETY, the Board have had peculiar satisfaction in observing, that this branch of their designs has, through the Divine blessing, in many instances been productive of very salutary effects.

In the year 1812, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, in token of their approbation of the SOCIETY's past services in this department, and with a desire that the benefits of Christian knowledge might be still more extensively diffused throughout the NAVY, through the medium as heretofore of this SOCIETY, were pleased to direct a communication to be made to the General Board, that their Lordships had ordered the Commissioners of the several Dock-yards to receive such books as shall be sent to them by the SOCIETY, on the suggestion of the Chaplain General, and to form depôts; which books are from time to time to be given to the Captains of his Majesty's ships in the proportions directed by their Lordships. And their Lordships have further signified their pleasure, that a special account be kept by the SOCIETY of all books thus issued, for the purpose of defraying the expences of the same. This pious and beneficent purpose promises to be attended with the happiest effects: and every good man will rejoice at the contemplation of the enlarged opportunities thereby afforded of the consolations and the instructions of Religion to the defenders of our Country.

*Hospitals,
Work-houses,
Prisons,

In like manner, from the earliest period of its institution, the attention of the SOCIETY has been directed, as occasion required, and their means would allow, to the religious wants of the poor and afflicted in HOSPITALS, PRISONS, WORK-HOUSES, ALMS-HOUSES, and other public institutions. In the year 1710, they promoted a subscription for fixing large 4to. Bibles, and other Religious books, in the PRISONS in and about the cities of London and Westminster. In 1725, they presented a packet of books to every COUNTY GAOL in the kingdom; and in the year 1731, and at other periods, they exerted themselves, not without considerable effect, (printing in 1732 one thousand copies of a Proposal, &c.) to promote the introduction of Divine Service into those institutions: as they did about the year 1729, and at other times, to establish family prayer, and to set up schools for the education of poor children in WORK-HOUSES. And, with regard to all those establishments above enumerated, which are not provided with any proper fund for the purchase of books, the SOCIETY, desirous that a repository should be known to which they might have the power to resort in the hour of necessity, did in the year 1811 extend to them also its offers of gratuitous supplies; not doubting but that upon a public representation (should such representation at any future time become necessary) any extraordinary pressure upon the SOCIETY hereby occasioned, would speedily be relieved by the bounty of the charitable and well-disposed: and still further, from the same motives, and with similar hopes, it invited the making of enquiries generally, through the parochial Clergy and other Members of the SOCIETY, into the wants of the indigent and labouring classes in all parts of the kingdom, in order to a removal of those deficiencies, so far as the means reposed in its trust should allow, by grants of the Holy Scriptures, and other publications of the SOCIETY, at the usual reduced prices.

The sources from which the SOCIETY has hitherto been enabled to carry on all these and other important and extensive designs, have been the annual subscriptions of its Members, together with the legacies and occasional donations of very many pious and charitable Benefactors: and the General Board, when they adopted those very considerable enlargements of the beneficent and gratuitous undertakings last mentioned, did not take that step, but in the humble trust that the same GRACIOUS PROVIDENCE, which for so many years has enabled them to carry on their designs for PROMOTING CHRISTIAN KNOWLEDGE, and edifying the body of CHRIST, will still furnish the means whereby those objects may be pursued with increased activity and vigour.

An extended list of the principal Benefactors to the SOCIETY will be found below in the Appendix: it may not be improper, however, to record some special benefactions in this place.

The first is a generous legacy of 4000*l.* bequeathed, in the year 1728, by Mrs. Elizabeth Palmer; the interest of which is from year to year applied to such branches of the SOCIETY's designs as most stand in need of aid.

In the year 1733, Mr. Edwin Belke, a native of Chilham, near Canterbury, having perused a printed account of the SOCIETY's designs, first published in that year, in testimony of his approbation of the same, gave to the SOCIETY 1050*l.* New South Sea Annuities; and afterwards further left ten acres of land, situated in Romney Marsh, towards establishing a perpetual fund for distributing Bibles, New Testaments, and other religious books in Great Britain, and in the East and West Indies; and particularly for the use of the Religious Societies, and of Prisons, Hospitals, and Work-houses; requesting also that the English at Stockholm, in Sweden, might not be forgotten. Benefactors, &c.

The Rev. Dr. Thomas Carter, Vice Provost of Eton College, (besides the payment of 436l. 3s. 9½d. in money) bequeathed in the year 1746, 295l. 5s. 11d. New South Sea Annuities, and 110l. Bank Stock, all to establish a fund, besides other purposes, for printing and distributing in the Eastern languages, Bibles, the Old, or New Testament, or such parts thereof, as the SOCIETY should judge proper.

In the year 1760, Samuel Percival, Esq. of Pendarves, in Cornwall, bequeathed 1000l. for the propagation of Christian knowledge in foreign parts; which was appropriated by the SOCIETY to the support of the Protestant mission in the East Indies.

In the year 1775, the Right Rev. John Thomas, Lord Bishop of Winchester, and the Rev. William Buller, (afterwards Lord Bishop of Exeter) as Executors of Mrs. Ann Maynard, spinster, having a sum of money to dispose of, in such ways as they judged most likely to promote the glory of God and the welfare of mankind, gave to the SOCIETY the sum of 300l. towards the support of the Scilly mission.

In the year 1791, Peter Huguetan Van Vryhouven, Lord of Vryhouven, in Holland, died at London, bequeathing to the SOCIETY, by his last will, after the payment of many other very considerable le-

Benefactors, &c. gacies, two-thirds of the residue of his personal property : consisting of

The particulars of this important will being submitted, by the Executors, to the direction of the Court of Chancery, the Court made a final decree in the business, in the year 1796, when property to the amount above-mentioned was transferred to the SOCIETY'S three Treasurers, in trust for the general designs of the SOCIETY.

1805. By a decree of the Court of Chancery, transfers were made of the residue of the personal estate of the late Rev. Richard Canning, formerly of Ipswich, consisting of the following items :

1811. Mrs. Mary Kynaston bequeathed for Benefac- the general designs of the SOCIETY, 1000*tors, &c.*l.

And in 1812, the Rev. William Blencowe bequeathed a similar sum for the same purposes.

Besides these particular Legacies and Benefactions, there have been received from time to time various others; the particulars of which will be found after the List of the Subscribing Members.

Lastly, while the General Board, grateful to Diocesan Almighty God for past support, desire further to and Dis- will not have been made in vain, but will continue to call forth from year to year the cordial aid of many pious and public-spirited Benefactors, it must not be omitted, that among the instrumental means for the accomplishment of these its expectations, and for success in all its undertakings, the SOCIETY looks with peculiar hope and satisfaction to the permanent zealous aid and co-operation of the DIOCESAN AND DISTRICT COMMITTEES, which, in compliance with the Resolutions of the SOCIETY bearing date June 12, 1810, and March 5, 1811, and under the direction and approbation of our Prelates, have been established in almost all parts of the kingdom †.

* A list of these Committees, their Secretaries, &c. is given afterwards.

† It may here not be improper to observe the importance which in its very infancy the Society attached to this system of co-operation, for we find in its earliest minutes the follow-

The end aimed at in these Institutions was, to extend the usefulness of this Society; to increase its influence; and to promote the union and co-operation of the Clergy and Laity throughout the kingdom, in all its sundry important charitable designs.

In prosecution of these purposes the Committees have provided for their meetings on a certain day in each quarter of the year, and oftener as occasion may require. They have severally appointed a Secretary and Treasurer. They receive and transmit to this Board voluntary benefactions and donations, annual subscriptions, and payments for packets of books. They transmit requests for books and tracts dispersed by the SOCIETY; and the usual recommendations of persons proposed to become Members; which, by their means, have been very largely augmented. They promote annual or occasional parochial or general contributions throughout their respective districts; in return for which they obtain books to the amount of two-thirds of the sums so raised, at the usual reduced prices of the SOCIETY; whereby the capital annually devoted to pious uses is incalculably increased; the number of persons united in bands of co-operation and sympathy with this SOCIETY proportionably enlarged; the sphere of charitable offices extended; and the pecuniary pressure upon ing Resolution:—Nov. 2, 1699, “Resolved, that this SOCIETY will establish a correspondence with one or more of the Clergy in each county, and with one or more in each great town and city of England, in order to erect one of the same nature with this throughout the kingdom.”

the parochial Clergy greatly diminished, at the same time that their means of doing good are multiplied. In one word, these Committees direct their attention to such objects within their several districts, as occupy on a larger scale in London the deliberations of the General Board.

In fine, no one can be able to form an adequate estimate of the importance of this SOCIETY to the prosperity of Religion and Charity, but by taking into the calculation that such as the transactions are of this Board, as imperfectly detailed in the present account, such likewise, according to their measure, are the proceedings of the several Diocesan and District Committees, wheresoever dispersed throughout the kingdom.

And when it is considered, that by these means, in many districts almost every clergyman is a Member of this SOCIETY, and thus stands at the head of his parish, in that situation, in which the providence of the Great Head of the Church has placed him, in a capacity by associating to himself the most respectable part of the Laity as subscribing members, or as contributors to the parochial, or other local collection, to extend effectually to all parts of his charge the many spiritual advantages which are to be obtained in connexion with this SOCIETY; and when it is further considered, that these members, both of the Clergy and Laity, are occasionally brought together, beyond the limits of their own parishes, to the meetings of the Committees, to lend their aid to provide for the necessities of their respective districts and neighbourhoods; to consult upon the promotion of religious education; upon the dispersion of books of Christian edification; and upon a provision for the spiritual wants of the afflicted and needy in work-houses, hospitals, prisons, and other public institutions; and when at the same time all this is prosecuted in strict conformity with the principles of the English Constitution both in Church and State, and for the purpose of preserving the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace, no true friend to our country and our Religion can, it is presumed, contemplate the whole scheme without feelings of devout thankfulness to the Author of all good, and without looking forward with cheerful hope to the enlargement and stability of the inestimable interests of peace, and piety, and true religion.

COLLECTS

TO BE USED BY THE

Society for Promoting Christian Knowledge,

WHEN THEY BEGIN TO DO BUSINESS.

PREVENT us, O LORD, in all our Doings, with thy Collects, most gracious Favour; and further us with thy continual Help. Direct and prosper all our Consultations and Endeavours, to the Advancement of thy Glory, the Good of thy Church, and the promoting of Christian Knowledge in the World; that Peace and Happiness, Truth and Justice, Religion and Piety, may be established among us for all Generations; and that, in all our Works, begun, continued, and ended in thee, we may glorify thy holy Name, and finally by thy Mercy obtain everlasting Life, through JESUS CHRIST our Lord. Amen.

BLESSED LORD, who hast called Christian Princes to the Defence of thy Truth, and hast made it their Duty to promote the spiritual Welfare, together with the temporal Interest of their People; most heartily we beseech thee to preserve, and bless our most gracious sovereign Lord, King GEORGE; grant Him in Health and Wealth, long to live; endue Him plenteously with heavenly Gifts; and so rule his Heart, that he may, in all Things, seek thy Honour and Glory. Together with Him, prosper, with all Happiness, our gracious Queen CHARLOTTE, His Royal Highness GEORGE PRINCE of WALES, and the whole Royal Family; that they, by the Grace of thy Holy Spirit, Collects. may all become blessed Instruments of advancing true Religion and Virtue upon Earth, and finally be made Partakers of thy Glory, in the Kingdom of Heaven, through JESUS CHRIST our Lord. Amen.

O GOD, whose never-failing Providence ordereth all Things both in Heaven and Earth, and who has promised to preserve thy Church, that the Gates of Hell shall not prevail against it; Save and deliver us from the Designs of those, who endeavour to propagate Atheism, Infidelity, Popery, and Schism, amongst us: Cause them to see their Errors; graciously turn their Hearts; and grant both to them, and us, thy humble Servants, the Light of thy Spirit, that we, having a right Judgment in all Things, may be established in the Truth of thy holy Gospel, and persevere in thy Faith and Worship, unto our Lives End, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD: In whose blessed Name and Words we conclude these our Prayers.

OUR Father, which art in Heaven; Hallowed be thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy Will be done in Earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this Day our daily Bread. And forgive us our Trespases, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into Temptation; but deliver us from Evil. For thine is the Kingdom, and the Power, and the Glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

The following COLLECTS are to be used at the Breaking up of the SOCIETY.

OUR Father, which art in Heaven; Hallowed be thy Name. Thy Kingdom come. Thy will be done in Earth as it is in Heaven. Give us this Day our daily Bread. And forgive us our Trespases, as we forgive them that trespass against us. And lead us not into Temptation; but deliver us from Evil. For thine is the Kingdom, and the Collects Power, and the Glory, for ever and ever. Amen.

O LORD, who has taught us that all our Doings without Charity are nothing worth; send thy Holy Ghost, and pour into our Hearts that most excellent Gift of Charity, the very Bond of Peace, and of all Virtues, without which, whosoever liveth, is counted dead before thee. Grant this, for thine only Son JESUS CHRIST's Sake. Amen.

O MERCIFUL GOD, who hast made all Men, and hatest nothing that Thou has made, nor wouldest the Death of a Sinner, but that he should be converted and live: Have Mercy upon all Jews, Turks, Infidels and Hereticks, and take from them all Ignorance, Hardness of Heart, and Contempt of thy Word; and so fetch them Home, blessed LORD, to thy Flock, that they may be saved among the Remnant of the true Israelites, and be made one Fold under one Shepherd, JESUS CHRIST our LORD, who liveth and reigneth with Thee and the Holy Spirit, one God, World without End. Amen.

O GOD, from whom all holy Desires, all good Counsels, and all Works of Piety and Charity do proceed; Prosper, with thy Blessing, the Designs of this SOCIETY; Comfort, with thy Grace, those Benefactors who contribute to its Support; Sanctify the Endeavours of such as are engaged in spreading the Knowledge of true Religion in this Kingdom;—And further the pious Labours of those Missionaries, who are promoting the same in Foreign Parts. And may thy Holy Spirit direct all our Consultations, to the Advancement of thy Glory, and the Good of thy Church, through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

ALMIGHTY GOD, Father of all Mercies, we thine unworthy Servants, do give Thee most humble and hearty Thanks, for all thy Goodness and Loving-kindness to us,

Collects. and to all Men; More particularly, for that providential Support, by which this SOCIETY hath been enabled to spread abroad the Knowledge of thy sacred Truth; But, above all, for thine inestimable Love, in the Redemption of the World by thy blessed Son; for the Means of Grace, and for the Hope of Glory, which Thou hast given us in our Saviour JESUS CHRIST: To whom, with Thee and the Holy Ghost, be all Honour and Glory, World without End. Amen.

THE Grace of our LORD JESUS CHRIST, and the Love of God, and the Fellowship of the HOLY GHOST be with us all evermore. Amen.
