VERDACHELLUM, JUDGE AND MAGISTRATE OF.

From — With a return of foreigners residing in that Zillah.	31 st . December	1815 84
From — Reports that of the 5,970 Pagodas advanced to the inhabitants of Verdachellum at the recommendation of his predecessor Mr. Cockburn the Sum of Pagodas 772.25.57 has been recovered, that no doubt is entertained of the recovery of Pagodas 1,794-41-63 of the balance ; but that the recovery of the remainder amounting to Pagodas 3,402½ is very doubtful. Enters into an explanation to shew that the omission to take sufficient security for the refund of the advances is imputable not to Mr. Cockburn but to the Revenue servants of the Collector—With reference to an allusion of the Court of Directors to the probability of its being found expedient to remove the Seat of his Court to Cuddalore, bears testimony to the expediency of the situation of its present seat and to the good effects that have been produced by the advances to the Inhabitants.	8 th .
