Cons., 2nd June, p. 2139.

Minute thereon.

Cons., 7th June, p. 2141.

Minute of— Dissenting to the resolution for annulling the arrangements made by Captain Watson, because the particularly difficult situation of Mr. Rickards requires the confidence of the Board, is ignorant of any maxim which forbids the employing of persons who have been concerned in actual rebellion to the governing power thinks Mr. Rickards entitled to much approbation if he can withdraw people from the insurgents, thinks we cannot say that Mr. Rickards has made further concessions to the inhabitants than were due to them.

Cons., 17th June, p. 2327.

Minute of— Offering his sentiments on the affairs of Polaveram is confirmed in his opinion respecting the expediency of appointing Letchman Narrain Deo to be zemindar.

Cons., 2nd August, p. 2876.

Minutes thereon.

Cons., 5th August, p. 2884.

Minute of— Observations on draft of a letter from Government to the Board of Revenue sees no inconsistency in Mr. Rickard's former and more recent description of Parbutties all his Regulations formed to reduce the authority of natives, observes that the persons chosen to collect the public revenues were not rebels, but compelled to revolt, and shewed their allegiance when Colonel Montresor's force appeared, the realization of the revenue ought to be a secondary object, the prosperity and comfort of the inhabitants the first and most important object—will have sincere satisfaction of the instructions transmitted to Mr. Rickards are not productive of insuperable obstacles to his success in the suppression of revolt and the restoration of tranquillity.

Cons., 22nd August, p. 3122.

Minute of— Stating that when Mr. Rickards received charge of Malabar the revolt was general but since that time the tranquillity of the place has generally increased He does not personally know this gentleman but thinks he has done honour to His Lordship's choice, who chose him for the most important station in Malabar apprehend there is some mistake in saying the force is greater or has been greater than at any time prior to this.
