From the Secretary—. Reports on the letter from the Board of Revenue relative to several points connected with the reduction of duties on goods exported to England, and to the adjustment of duties on the Company's investment. The Board of Trade consider unnecessary the specification of the amount of duty levied at each particular station, proposed by the Board of Revenue to be entered in the certificates under which drawback is claimed; and they are of opinion that the certificates for drawbacks should be granted by the Collector of Sea Customs at the place of export; and the drawback be paid at the nearest General Treasury. With regard to the charge of duty on the Company's investment they submit, that as it is all exported to England that charge should be adjusted by a single entry of the duty of 2½ per cent on its tariff value at the place of exportation.
Cons., 8th June, No. 10, p. 4084.

To—. Their opinions with regard to the reduction of duties on exports to England to the mode of calculating, paying and adjusting the drawback; and to the charge of duty on the Company's investment concurred in and adopted by Government.
