Cons., 8th May, No. 3, p. 1598.

To the—. Observing with reference to their Secretary's letter of the sixteenth ultimo that when reasonable terms are offered to the ryots and the views of Government are fully understood by them, it is not apprehended that in almost any instance they will finally refuse to come to a settlement with the Collector and authorizing when altogether unavoidable the renting of a village to strangers for one year, a hope is also expressed that it will seldom or never be found necessary to exercise this authority.

Cons., 8th May, No. 4, p. 1615.

From the Secretary to the—. Reporting the steps which have been taken towards the introduction of the system of renting the land customs.

Cons., 8th May, No. 5, p. 1616.

To the—.
