To the Judges of the —. Calling for their opinion on certain points, directing them to take a suitable opportunity to introduce into the Code a declaratory enactment rendering the decisions of subordinate officers subject to revision by the Collector, if the existing Regulations are understood to preclude that officer now from interfering with them in cases in which they may be illegal; and if Regulations be considered to justify the exercise of such powers by the Collector, to suggest the proper mode of giving effect to that interpretation.
Cons., 17th Nov., No. 24, p. 3183.

From the —. The Court are of opinion that an Officer acting under Regulation IX of 1822 is not competent, of his own authority, to alter a decision which he has passed and promulgated, and doubt whether Collectors can interfere with the decisions of their subordinates, under the said Regulation; think it therefore desirable that all doubts on the subject should be removed by a declaratory clause in a proposed Regulation.
Cons., 19th Dec., No. 24, p. 3519.

To the Judges of the —. Directing them to take a suitable opportunity to introduce a clause into a Regulation explaining that the decisions, etc., of subordinate officers under Regulation IX of 1822 are subject to revision by the Collector.
Cons., 19th Dec., No. 25, p. 3523.
