Pensions undrawn by deceased.—Agent authorized to direct the disbursement in future of arrears of — to the parties entitled to receive them, when such arrears do not exceed a period of six months

Azeezoolah.—Agent states the amount of pension he would recommend to be granted to the children of tender age of the late —. Before passing final orders a report on the circumstances of the Shady daughters and Nicka widows of the deceased, called for

Fatimah Begum — See “Nabob of the Carnatic”

Enayet-oon-Nissa.—Petitions from nephew and dependants of the late — praying for some allowance, submitted; their claims under existing rules, stated to be inadmissible; the helpless and destitute condition of some of the dependants brought to notice and the bounty of Government recommended to be conferred on them. The nephew's claim rejected and he informed that the relatives of a widow pensioned by right of her husband have no claim to any portion of the pension. Confer on the aged dependants of the Begum and of the late Ally Hoossain small life pensions as compassionate grants. Undrawn portion of the Begum's pension, authorized to be paid to the party who performed the funeral ceremony

Gholam Kadir's death, reported.—Pension to lapse

Hussam-ool-Moolk.—A commission from His Highness the Nabob relative to the pensions granted to the family and dependants of the late —, submitted. The Government Agent directed to be guided by the orders of Government, dated 5th August last, which must be considered final

Statements of the variations of these stipends during the years, 1847–48 and 1848–49 received from the Civil Auditor, transmitted to the Honourable Court, and the Civil Auditor requested to furnish those for 1849–50 as speedily as possible

Gholam Moortaza Khan.—Claim of two nephews of — to a portion in the pension of Rs. 10,000, granted in the name of their uncle brought to notice; orders as to whether the stipend is to be divided among the surviving members of the family in accordance with Lieutenant Clive's scale, solicited. The circumstance of these claimants laying claim to, or being recipients of two pensions also noticed.

Lord Clive's Scale.—Non-conformity to — in the distribution of these pensions and other irregularities brought to notice and orders solicited. Minute by the President: States his views and, with a view to prevent fraud, is of opinion that lists should be forthwith called for in every instance of the death of stipends, specifying the total amount of allowances, the terms on which first granted, &c., &c., and proposes the forfeiture of the whole pension in the event of casualties not being duly reported. Minute by the Honourable Mr. Elliott: Is doubtful of the propriety of applying Lord Clive's scale of distribution to the pension granted to G. Moortaza Khan, but concurs with the President in his other suggestions. Minute by the Honourable Mr. Thomas: Thinks it advisable that Lord Clive's scale should be observed as a general rule and exception only made, where sufficient grounds exist. Supports the proposition for calling for lists, &c. The suggestions of the Agent adopted and the proposed lists, &c., called for.
