Converts, Christian, of the Church of England.— Resident submits report on the statements made by the Secretary, Church Missionary Society, in regard to certain privileges stated to be denied to — by an edict issued by the Dewan. Minutes thereon by the Members of Council. Consider that the Revd. N. J. Moody has attached too much importance to the edict and that it would be, for reasons stated, inexpedient to direct its revocation. The assumption of the Missionaries to act as the patrons of their converts and to advocate their cause, objectionable, and the practice to be strictly prohibited. The tone observed by the Missionaries in speaking of the highest authorities, commented on. The
