Aitchison , Major-General, Commanding the Mysore Division of the Army, holds the rank by Brevet from the Crown, of Major-General from the 23rd November 1841, Allan, C. B. Major-General, holds local rank as Major-General in India from 10th January 1837, and the latter officer in virtue of G.O., 6th March 1800, claims the privilege of corresponding direct with Army Head-quarters. With a view of removing all doubts on the subject, either the G.O. above referred to may be modified, or the necessary steps may be taken to obtain for Aitchison, Major-General, local rank answering to that which he holds by Brevet. The Government concur with the Commander-in-Chief in considering it to be necessary for the public service that the Troops serving in Malabar and Canara should be under the general control of the Officer Commanding the Mysore division and are of opinion that the temporary rank held by Allan, C. B. Major-General, should not be allowed to interfere with this arrangement — the case of Major-Generals Allan and Sewell appear to be sufficiently provided for by G.O., 11th February 1840, No. 25, under the terms of which they have the option of continuing to serve under Major-General Aitchison or of resigning their Commands.	5th „	79, 80	Adjt.-Genl. of Army.

Military Board have very properly punished Mr. Kline through whose carelessness the original error in the stock statement of valuation of ordnance stores for 1842-43 was made, and Mr. Francke through whose dishonesty the error was kept back from correction, by ordering the dismissal of both from their situations. The Government will defer passing any observations upon the subject of any alteration in the system of accounts, as proposed by the Brigadier Commandant of Artillery until the receipt of a further report which the — will submit as soon as practicable of the measures proposed to be adopted for ensuring a more certain means of check. The Government do not approve of the course followed by the Military Board upon this occasion, of constituting themselves a Court of Inquiry for the investigation of the conduct of the office clerks, such a procedure being calculated directly to interfere with the proper authority of their Secretary, &c.— Vide "Ordnance Stores."	1845. 29th July	72, 73	Mily. Pay tables . With reference to the Military Auditor-General's letter, M. C., 31st July 1845, submits that with the exception of its first suggestion that the amount of the allowance attached to the order of British India may be inserted in its column as Rs. 2 a day, and the items referred to in paragraphs 4 and 7 which affect recruits now entering the army, the others do not appear applicable to the purpose for which the — are intended. The pay tables are intended for the purpose of ensuring that all men entering the service in future shall be distinctly informed of the amount of pay, allowances and pensions to which they or their heirs will be entitled. It is therefore unnecessary and it appears to Government to be also inadvisable to include the rates of pay, etc., applicable to men who entered the service prior to 1837. — attached to the Chief Engineer's office. Complaining of supersession and praying that he may be appointed head draftsman in succession to Mr. Ignatio pensioned. Certain observations recorded. It appears to Government that the claim of Mr. Rodrigues to succeed to the situation of first draughtsman ought not to be passed over unless the Chief Engineer may be able to show that he is not equal to the actual duties of the appointment. The difference between the salaries of the two appointments is disproportionately great arising out of the circumstance of Mr. Rodrigues having been only a third draftsman at the time of his selection for his present situation.
