STUART, LIEUTENANT GENERAL JAMES—COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF.

His Minute— On the impracticability of the diminution of the Military Establishments of Fort St. George and Bombay. January 165

His Minute— On the proposed reduction of the army, delivers his opinion on the four points of reform directed or suggested by the Governor-General recommends with certain modifications an immediate compliance with His Excellency's orders for the reduction of all extra Corps and for the discharge of the supernumerary Sepoys of each Battalion proposes to except the subsidiary force from this arrangement—states that orders have been issued for the discontinuance of Recruiting adverts to the provision necessary to be made in favor of the disbanded Officers and privates—Recommends that the Artillery may be completed, and the Cavalry to remain in its present state—considers the Sibbendies to be a Civil not a Military Corps—depreciates the reduction of any whole Regiment, or the diminution of its strength below that of the Peace Establishment—states that he has taken measures to reduce the number of lascars to that scale according to an abstract annexed and recommends such, as may be discharged to be included in the provision for the disbanded sepoy—states that he has farther retrenchments of military expence in his contemplation in the Staff department—Recommends a gratuity of one month's pay to disbanded sepoy. March 311

His Minute— Refers to his two former Minutes on the subject of Military reductions—states his reasons for continuing to think a farther diminution of the Army impracticable and his opinion that the Bombay troops in Malabar and Canara cannot be returned to their own Presidency states the time when it may be safe to reduce the strength of regiments below that of the peace establishment. .. 348

The President concurs in the opinion of the Commander-in-Chief. .. 352

Resolution thereon. .. 352

His Minute— Submits a plan and estimate for a reform in the works of Seringapatam prepared by the Senior Engineer and Lieutenant Fraser and recommends the execution of the proposed repairs and reform of that fortress. June 451

His Minute— Proposes that Permacoil shall be occupied previously to the restitution of Pondicherry and that an experienced Officer shall be appointed to the Command for the purpose of watching the movements of the French. September 514
