From Ditto— Enclosing copies of two letters from Colonel Hawkins, the first relating to an intercourse between Fakeer Mahomed Shah and a confidential servant of the late Prince Moheeoodeen, the second to the death of that Prince, and requesting that enquiry may be made relative to the Character of Mahomed Shah.	1 st . May D ^o .	180
To— Transmitting several letters from the Acting Resident in Mysore and the reply of this Government.	3 ^d . June D ^o .	271
✓ From Fort William— Reasons in stating their sentiments on the proceedings of the Acting Resident in Mysore with respect to the late change in the administration of that Country—The arrangements described in M ^r . Cole's letter of 24 th . November proper, but not attended with the solemnity and sanction of Government requisite on such an occasion to give them precision and solidity calculated to preclude the occurrence of the late unhappy disagreement between the Rajah and the Dewan which may be partly referred to the defect of an accurate definition of relative obligations and a deviation from the spirit of the agreement, do not defend the conduct of Poorniah, but think that he was unnecessarily exposed to humiliation—their admiration of Poorniah and regret at his disgrace—think that a private conciliatory admonition would have been sufficient—A reconciliation not to be expected now—Poorniah should be allowed to retire in the enjoyment of every possible distinction and indulgence and with a Provision in addition to his Jagheer—Their satisfaction at the character, qualifications and disposition of the Rajah as reported by the Acting Resident.	7 th . D ^o . D ^o .	273

March D ^o .	329
To— In reply.	30 th . Sept ^r . D ^o .	329
✓ To— Respecting the differences between the Rajah of Mysore and His Minister—That the disagreement is to be attributed to the Minister—That there seems to be no doubt respecting the expediency of Poorniahs retiring from Office, recommending that every indulgence should be shewn to Poorniah on his retirement—Requesting the sentiments of His Excellency on those points.	17 th . Oct ^r . D ^o .	426
From— Requesting that one of His Majesty's Regiments may be kept in readiness for eventual embarkation—and that a native regiment may be posted favourably for the eventual passage to Ceylon to supply the place of European Regiment which may be sent from thence.	26 th . Sept ^r . D ^o .	501

Subject.	Date of Letter or Cons.	Page.
BENGAL— cont.

To— . In reply	29 th . Oct ^r . 1811	514
✓ From— . Acknowledge receipt of the dispatch from this Government of the 17 th . October on the subject of the late changes in the administration in Mysore—although the violence of Poorniah's temper might have disturbed the arrangement effected by M ^r . Cole that arrangement might have been more permanent if adopted under the sanction of the Government—admit the inaccuracy of the terms used in a former dispatch in noticing the degradation of the Dewan; but think that a private remonstrance would have been more suitable and effectual than the mode pursued—the Acting Resident was placed in circumstances peculiarly difficult and delicate and the impression entertained of some defect of address under these circumstances is still consistent with the most favorable opinion of his general ability the conduct of the Rajah extremely satisfactory—the provision intended for Poorniah liberal—suggestions regarding the letters to be addressed to the Rajah and Poorniah.	8 th . Nov ^r . D ^o .	614
