Forwarding copy of a letter to Lieutenant Colonel Burney, Resident at Ava, and, for reason stated, requesting that, without any ostensible preparation, a Regiment of Europeans may be kept in readiness for service on the Tenasserim Coast, should their aid be eventually required. 19th Sept. 1

19th Sept. 1837. To the Secretary to the Government of India. Stating that a Regiment of Europeans will be kept in readiness for service on the Tenasserim Coast, but bringing to notice that after the 15th of next month means of transport cannot be relied on, and that the passage from hence to Moulmein after the setting in of the North East Monsoon will perhaps occupy six Weeks, with a suggestion thereupon. 19th Sept. 2 2nd Oct. 1837. From the Secretary to the Government of India. Stating that in the opinion of the Supreme Government it would be preferable to incur the hazard of delay and of being obliged to send troops from Bengal than with our present imperfect information and with the hope of a pacific termination to existing differences to press for reinforcements from Madras --- 17th Oct. 1.
