Recruits – letter from Officer Comg H. Ms' 84th Foot – the opinion of the Company's Law Officers to be obtained on the question, who is the person legally authorized to attest Recruits at Londonderry or at places beyond the limits of the British Territory? – referring also to the 59th Clause of the Mutiny Act for the year 1847. – D^r H. 11 July 28 – D. A. G. H. M.

– unless the authority be given by H. Ms' Warrant to some person to enlist or re-enlist Soldiers into the Queen's Service, no power exists in any person of attesting such Soldiers – the last part of the 59th of the present Mutiny Act authorizes a transfer from any relieved or disbanded Corps to any other Regt remaining at the Station – but neither in this case is there any power given, or any existing necessity, for attesting such transferred Soldiers – Cont^d in Sep^r – Advocate Gen^l 29/30 opinion

Regulations of the Dep^t of Military Buildings which have at different periods been materially altered since their publication in 1822 to be revised – the practice lately adopted by the D^y M.
