Affairs of the Minute by the Hon^{ble} H. Chamber

Esq. - Noticing the difficulties in which the Bank of Madras was recently involved considers the compliance with the appli-cation for Gov^t aid to meet these difficulties open to grave objections. Offers suggestions for restoring the affairs to a healthy state and thinks it advisable that the Gov^t of India should be apprized of all the proceedings of the Institution since its Establishment - Statements from the Secy & Treasurer of the Bank of Madras and from the Acting Acct^y and Sub Treasurers affording the information called for on the subject - "Minute by the President" - Reviewing the transactions of the Bank from its Estab-lishment, noticing the difficulties in which it was recently involved and suggesting mea-sures to prevent their recurrence - Suggested the measures accordingly and required Quarterly Statements shewing the nature and extent of its operations. The opinion of the Law Officers of Gov^t requested on the plan proposed for calling in the Notes of the late Gov^t Bank and the services of the individual appointed to verify them dispensed with.

aid of a qualified Acct^t from England - Minute by the Hon^{ble} J. Bird, Esq. - Does not consider it advisable to report the Books without the sanction of the Hon^{ble} Court and is of opinion that the adjustment of the outstanding Balances may be entrusted to Mr. Stenhouse and that the whole of the proceedings should be reported

 President - Considers Mr. Underwood's observations important as tending to show the character of the Books and of the system of accounts in force and also that he is fully absolved from the charges made against him by the Acct^t General and suggesting that the thanks of Gov^t be tendered to him and to the Committee and that the Committee be dissolved - Minute by the Hon^{ble} H. Cahamier, Esq.
 Cordially concurs in the proposition to entrust the investigation of the old balances to Mr.
 Stenhouse; observes that ^{under the Court's orders} no adjustment was to be made here without further instructions but merely the result of an enquiry com^d to the Hon^{ble} Court. Sees no necessity for reposting the Books and considers that before Mr.
 Underwood is declared fully absolved from the imputations charged against him, the Acct^t General or his Deputy should have an opportunity of replying to his observations.
