Bengal

Consent 12 Jan 1821 - 1. From the Secretary - giving cover to three enclosures - the first a letter from the Board of Trade at Calcutta dated 7 December 1820, stating that Indigo is at present yielding a favorable remittance, superior to bullion or Bells. Considering the subject as having no reference to commercial profit but only with regard to remittance; request if the shipment of Indigo be deemed advisable, that orders on the subject may be received - The second, a letter from the Accountant General of Calcutta dated 14 Dec 1820 stating that the Board of Trade should principally bear in mind the Commercial profit, and suggesting that authority be granted to the Board of Trade to make any investment for the Home Market, which may yield a profit without exciting the orders of Government. - The third, being the orders of Government accordingly - and pointing out the expediency of similar measures as those adopted by the Supreme Government being in use under Fort St. George
