Military Servants & Corps - The Honourable Company

His Excellency General

Lieut. Alexander Campbell. Bat. & K. C. D.

Commander in Chief

Consult 12 April - 1. His Minute - Giving cover to a Letter from Lieutenant Colonel ^{Fergus} ~~James~~ commanding Arest enclosing an original inflammatory Persian letter, instigating the Troops at Arest to rise and to join on a particular day (the 17th March) with those at Arest & Bellare in the destruction of all Europeans; stating further that this letter, which had been thrown ^{into} ~~at~~ the lines of the C. N. C. had been brought to the Commanding Officer by the Subadar Major to whom it was addressed; & expressing himself perfectly satisfied with the conduct & fidelity of the 6th, 7th & 8th Regt. Light Cavalry composing the cantonment of Arest. ————— 332 310 352 Consult 31 May - 2. His Minute - Protesting (in the case of the new Presidency Cantonment) against the proposed extension of the Governor's authority over troops beyond the limits prescribed to him by his Commission. ————— 380 350 397 6. Resolutions thereon ————— 396 365 413

- Consultt 23 April — 1. From H. J. Grame Esq^r Late Commis^roner in Malabar — States that although Mr. Vaughan's Character comprises many valuable qualities, yet from his distrust of the Natives, from his hastiness of disposition ~~with~~ ^{and} from his want of cordiality towards the suggestions for ameliorating the Revenue System of Malabar which the Commis^roner has offered, he would recommend that the duty of carrying them into effect should be entrusted to other hands. Offers remarks with regard to the length of time which has been occupied in preparing the materials out of which his report of Malabar is composed. ————— 368 332 384

Consult 15 March 4. His Minute - Details the original grant and subsequent resumptions at different times of Altumgha grant to Assem Khan and after his death to his Eldest Son Kulium Ulla Khan; Details also the attempts of the brothers of Kulium Ulla Khan to put aside of the will of the Father in 1813. without success on the grounds of insanity; states that the brothers obtained a decision of the personal property by a decree of Court but ^{twice} ~~then~~ failed in their claim to a share in the Jaghire; Details the proceedings again instituted in the Court by which the North Company were included as Defendants & in which the Defendants were cast, & the brothers brothers entitled to a share in the Agnes, States the grounds on which he thinks this decree (appealed to England) is wrong, combats the opinions of the Chief Justice as erroneous; points out, that by the Charter the Supreme Court is not to interfere in cases of Revenue; and that Altemberga grants are not permanent; remarks on the propriety of the Court being debarred from all cognizance in any shape of the Act of Government & proposes certain alterations in the limits of the Supreme Court with other improvements. ————— 271 261 295
