Mr Chamber

Stating that he was surprised to hear it announced that the Rev. Mr Plenkensop one of the Government Chaplains would preach a sermon in the Cathedral in aid of the Sanyasporam Mission in Tinnevely, and as the proceeding is improper, suggesting that it be intimated to the Chaplains that they are not at liberty to make use of the Pulpit for such purposes, and to the Collector of Tinnevely that the Government disapprove of his participation in the objects and pursuits of missionaries - Stating further that he has observed in the Public Papers that Soolocherian's school at which the Minor Zemindars of Orellamoody and Otterkany were improperly placed by the Revenue Authorities of Tinnevely has been made over to the Missionaries, and if the two Zemindars are amongst the scholars transferred without the consent of their relations, the proceeding will have the character of an improper exercise of the control over Menors vested by the Regulations

23 Aug. 22 Oct. No 11

4069 Minute by the Honble Mr. Chamberlain

Remarking upon the proceedings of the Collector and Magistrate of Malabar for educating under Christian Superintendence and maintaining at the cost of Government the children of the emancipated slave population of the Country, and submitting that he should be requested immediately to abandon the measures he has commenced - Requesting attention to his Minutes on the prevailing disposition of the public servants to promote the conversion of the Natives, and begging that if the Government are not prepared to take any steps upon them, they may be communicated to the Government of India and the Honorable Court without further delay.

9 Aug. 22 Dec. No 14

4075 Minute by the Honble Mr. Bird

Stating that, unless it should be considered expedient to abandon altogether the measure adopted of maintaining and educating at the public charge a certain number of Children, Mr. Conally should be restricted to the partial trial contemplated by the Government of India, and observing that the instructions furnished by that officer relative to the manner in which scholars are to be obtained appear to be very objectionable.

10 Aug. 22 Oct. No 15

4078 Minute by the Honble Mr. Chamberlain

Stating that the Honorable Court on perusal of his Minute will have no doubt as to the party to whom the remarks "Enthusiasm and injudicious haste" apply, and that the Government referred to is the British Government from its earliest date.
