Gentleman _____ 17.

5th Dec^r 20th Feb^y From the - Stating that according to the rules for retiring from the service, Mr. Jeaffreson's service should not be calculated until his arrival at Madras; but as his proceeding to Calcutta was involuntary on his part his being permitted to draw his allowances from the time of his reaching that Presidency depends upon the will of the Government _____ 25

20th 17th D: From the - Stating that the only objection of which he is aware to the Reverend Mr. Stewart's receiving his Salary as Chaplain from the date of his arrival in Bombay is his having taken his passage in a ship bound to that Port instead of one coming direct to Ma-
