—FORT ST. GEORGE, DECEMBER 1758—

Journal of Transactions during the siege of Fort St. George, begun the 12th: December 1758.

Our Army under the Command of Lieutenant Colonel Stringer Lawrence having retreated from the Mount the 10th in the Evening to the Choultry Plain near the Seapoy Choultry the next Evening (the 11th) part of the Forces took post at the House & Gardens now belonging to Mr. Turing, part in the Beetle Tope opposite and in other advantageous places to defend the Passes. Upon the retreat of our Forces from the Mount, the French Army under the Command of Thomas Arthur Count de Lally Possessed themselves of that place and their advanced Gu[ard] took Post at Marmelon. This Morning the 12th: their whole European Force with some Black Troops march'd from the Mount and Marmelon to the Choultry Plain and after a Cannonade of about an hour as they advanced our Army retreated to the Island.

The same Morning a part of the Enemys Black Troops attacked S<sup>r</sup>. Thome where We had some Seapoys Post who retreated in good order and joined our Battallion.

A Party of Europeans We had at Egmore Powder Mill retired at the same time to the Island, and a large party of the Enemys Horse took Possession of that post also immediately.

The whole being joined, Partys of Europeans and Seapoys were detached to defend the Passes of the Black Town and the rest came into Garrison.

The Enemy encamped their main body on [the] Choultry Plain just beyond the Garden now belonging to Mr. Turing, some lay at the Companys Garden House and Horse Stables and some at Mr. Steevens's Garden.

Some of the Enemys Horse having plun[dered] several of the villages to the Northward and advanced as far as] Trivitore Lieutenant Spellman was detached Yesterday with [six] Horse and Forty of the Nabobs Horse and a Field piece [to join] two Companys of Seapoys lying at Trivitore and to Open a [passage] to Pulicat for such of the Black Inhabitants as chose to [leave] this Settlement and retire that way. Upon the retreat [a few words lost] into Garrison orders were dispatched this day to Lieutenant [Spellman] to return immediately which he did in this Evening.

—FORT ST. GEORGE, DECEMBER 1758—

Upon the March of the French [from the] Mount towards Choultry Plain the Nabob who a few [days before] had retired from St. Thomé to the Companys Garden [House came to] the Town with his Family and Attendants this morn[ing and is] lodged in a House the Corner of Charles Street late Doctor [Munroe's].

All the Companys Covenanted [Servants and] Inhabitants are appointed to Superintend or Assist [in the issue of] the necessary Stores and provisions for the Garrison and [Inhabitants] and some Rules and Method to be observed in the [distribution] are Settled.

The Companys Covenanted [Servants and] Inhabitants expressing their desire to bear Arms in [defence of the] Settlements in case of Need, their Service is accepted [and a Fusee] and Cartridge Box with Eighteen rounds is deliv[er]ed to each and] they are desired to hold themselves in readiness [and to assemble] at the Fort House upon all Alarms, the Signal [is to be the Drum] beating to Arms.

By the Account of Deserters [and other Intelli]gence it is judged that the Enemys whole [Force may amount] to three Thousand Europeans Horse and Foot, [about Five hun<sup>d</sup>] Black Horse and Three Thousand Seapoys.

Our whole Force at this [Time amounts] to 1758 Europeans, Horse, Military and [Artillery as per Return] in the Appendix N<sup>o</sup>. 1. and about 2220 [Seapoys besides whom] the Nabob has about 200 Horse which are [very bad Troops as] of little or no use.

[The Quantity of provisions of all sorts] [a few words lost] in for the Garrison upon the prospect of a Siege appears by an [a word lost] in the Appendix N<sup>o</sup>. 2.

For the Quantity of all Military Stores in Garrison, see the General Return in the Appendix N<sup>o</sup>. 3.

This Evening dispatched, advices to Capt<sup>n</sup>. Preston at Chingleput as ¶ Letter in Appendix N<sup>o</sup>. 4.

The Governour having received advice that a large Ship had sailed from Pondichery loaded with Ammunition and Artillery for Mr. Lallys Army and by the last Accounts lay some where near Connemere waiting for an Opportunity to proceed, It is Resolved to embarke the petty Officers of the Triton and Bridgewater who were made prisoners at Fort St. David and have been since Exchanged and are now here in number about 20 with forty Marines on board the Dutch Snow Victoria now in the Road, That Captain Jasper who has Offered his Service to go upon this Enterprise have the command of the Expedition, and endeavour to Board the French Ship, and a Commission is accordingly given him for that purpose with Instructions as in the Appendix N<sup>o</sup>. 5.

This Evening came in one Deserter who had deserted from us about five days ago and reports the Enemy to be about two Thousand Three hundred Europeans.

Wednesday. 13.—Nothing remarkable happened this day. Parties of the Enemys Horse frequently appeared at a distance reconnoitring; our Guard remain the same as yesterday.

Dispatched Letters to Major Caillaud, Capt<sup>n</sup>. Joseph Smith at Trichenopoly Captain Achilles Preston at Chingleput and to Usoff Cawn as ¶ appendix N<sup>o</sup>. 6. 7. 8. 9.

The intention of employing the Dutch Brigantine being communicated to the Captain this Evening he offered to sell her for 10000 Rupees which it was Agreed to give him but he retracted and desired that if We took the Brigantine by force We would give him a Writing to that effect and settle the price with his Owner in Bengal which is promised him and the [a few words lost] provisions as agreed yesterday are embarked this Evening.

Five Deserters came in this Evening [and reported] that the Enemys head Quarters are at Mr. Turings House [and the] main body encamped on Choultry plain, That 55 Men [are posted] at Egmore Powder Mill, that no considerable partys are de[ta]ched from their main body, and that the parties which were [left] near Chingleput have joined their Camp, That We killed [18] Men by the Canonade yesterday, and that the Enemys [People] are in general dissatisfied and are enclined to deesert.

Thursday 14th. --This morning by break of day the Enemy with a large part of [their] European and Black Force having marched round from the [Choultry] Plain by Vipary advanced to the North part of the Black Town [which] our Seapoys posted there abandoned and retreated towards the [White] Town at the same time the Enropeans which had been pos[te]d at some of the Points also retreated and got into the Fort not without [great] hazard of being cut off by the precipitate retreat of the Seapoys. [Thus] the Enemy entered the Black Town in all parts with very little opposition and by Eight of the Clock in the Morning were in full Possession of it and hoisted the White Flag upon the Armenian [Church] and the burying Ground. Between Eight and Nine it was resolv[ed] to make a vigorous Sally with about Six hundred Men. Lieut. Col. D[raper] Commanded the party and marched out at the Western Gate over [the] old Bridge which leads into Peddanagues Pettah. Major Cholmon[dly] Brereton was ordered with 100 Men of the Party to Guard the [passage] by the Old Hospital to prevent the Enemy from cutting off Col<sup>l</sup>. Dra[per's] retreat, whilst the Col. with 500 Men, the rest of the party, and t[wo] Field Pieces advanced into the great Street of the Pettah, where the Enemy had posted the Regiment of Lorrain with four Field pieces. Col<sup>l</sup>. Draper attacked them immediately and a smart action ensued which lasted about half an hour. The Enemy at one time were drove from their Guns and Col<sup>l</sup>. Draper with four Grenadie[rs] advanced so near to take them that the Officer who Commanded them beg'd Quarter, but Unfortunately our Granadiers having suff[er]ed much during the Action being thrown into some disorder did [not] advance with the Colonel, which the Enemy observing rallyed and returned to the charge and obliged the Colonel to abandon those Guns which he had thus in a manner Possessed himself off and a smart firing ensued; in the mean time Notice being bro<sup>t</sup> to the Col<sup>l</sup> that a large body of Lallys Regiment was advanced to sustain the Lorrain he retreated (leaving behind our two Field Pieces) and returned into the Fort. During the action the Count d'Estaing a Brigadier and Third in Command in the French Army being thrown from his Horse was taken Prisoner, and brought into the Fort where he was received by the Governour with all the Civility and respect due to his Rank and his Sword was immediately returned to him. Our Loss in this Action appears by the return in the Appendix N<sup>o</sup>. 10.

The Officers amongst the missing are, Capt. Hume, Capt. Lieutenant Bilhocks, Lieut. Smith, Lieut. Blair, Ensign Cooke, and Ensign Chase, And amongst the wounded Major Polier, in the Leg, Capt. Pascall dangerously and Lieut<sup>l</sup>. Elliot.

The Count d'Estaing being permitted to write to M<sup>r</sup>. Lally to inform him of his being a prisoner, and to desire that his Cloaths, and his Servant might be sent to him, his Letter was dispatched by a Chubdar with a Flag who returned in the afternoon with Several Letters of Compliment from the Principal Officers in the French Army and a Letter from M<sup>r</sup>. Lally as ¶ Appendix N<sup>o</sup>. 11.

Letters were dispatched this Evening to Major Caillaud, Usoff Cawn Capt. Smith at Trichenopoly and Captain Preston at Chingleput advising them of Event of this days Action as ¶ Appendix N<sup>o</sup>. 12. 13. 14. & 15.

—FORT ST. GEORGE, DECEMBER 1768—

Friday the 15th.—[This morning three of Count d'Estaing's Servants came with a Flag and brought him two Letters one from M<sup>r</sup>. Lally & one from M<sup>r</sup>.] Bussy as ¶ Appendix N<sup>o</sup>. 16 & 17.

By the List of Prisoners taken in the Action Yesterday which M<sup>r</sup>. Lally refers to in his Letters it appears that there are in all 95 Europeans and Eight Topasses of whom Eighteen Europeans and One Topass are wounded Besides three Officers wounded and One Volontier Viz<sup>t</sup>. Capt. Humes, Lieut<sup>t</sup>. Smith & Blai[r] and Volontier Halfpenny.

In the Afternoon two of the Counts Servants, returned with a Flag and carried a Letter from the Governour to M<sup>r</sup>. La[lly] and two Letters from the Count d'Estaing one to M<sup>r</sup>. Lally and the other to M<sup>r</sup>. de Bussy as ¶ Appendix N<sup>o</sup>. 18. 19 & 20.

Several Deserters come in this day from the Enemy report their Loss in Yesterdays Action to amount to above three hundred.

We cannot learn that they are erecting any Batterys, We fire at times from our Bastions wherever any appeara[n]ces are observed of Work carrying on, but the Officers are ordered not to wa[ste] Ammunition in firing at a few People, without a great probability of doi[ng] execution.

The Engineer employed in making two Batterys one of three Guns to cover the old North East Bastion and another of 4 Guns on the Glacis to the Eastward a little to the Southward of [the] South Flank of the same Bastion, extending from the Covered w[ay] to the surf, which Work will play entirely along the Beach to the [a word lost] of the Fort. also in making a Pallisade round the Sea Gate and Banquets on the East face of the Demi Bastion.

Saturday the 16th.—The Intelligence brought this day by Hircarrahs is to the following [effect].

That M<sup>r</sup>. Lally's head Quarters are at Tomby [Chitty's] Pagoda, and that most of the Men are Quartered near it That some Tumbrils and other carriages, with Ammunition & Bomb Shells were brought from the Mount and Choultry plain, into the Black Town. That one large gun was brought upon a Transporting Carriage as far [into] the Black Town [River, but there stuck in the Mud, the River being very deep,] but that some Officers and Soldiers with Bullocks were sent to get it out. That they have an Officer's Guard at the old Town Ditch near Tomby Chitty's House, and some Soldiers posted in the Burying Ground, and that a part of the Enemy's Horse and Baggage which lay upon the Choultry plain was removed to day into the Black Town. That their People are working near the Burying Ground Wall, and just on this side the old Town Ditch, where they have thrown up a Mud Wall. That Chunda Saib's Son has pitched his Tent in Tomby Chitty's Pagoda: That there are four Field pieces in front of the Pagoda and four Tumbrils of Ammunition, and in the Street Six Field Pieces and as many Tumbrils and some Bomb Shells, but no Mortar. That the Enemy have a few Europeans, some Moores Horse and Seapoys at S<sup>t</sup>. Thomé, but no Guards or Sentries or any of their People at Triplicane, or the Garden House.

One M<sup>c</sup> Kay, an Irish Deserter, who came in Yesterday seemingly in Liquor being suspected to be sent as a Spy, one of our People who had been a prisoner at Pondicherry and knew him to be the person who was the Chief Agent in engaging the English Prisoners at Pondicherry to enlist in the French Service, was set to converse with him. He soon came to the Point, acknowledged that he was sent by his Major to bring off as many Men as he could, and endeavoured to persuade the Person who conversed with him to speak to his Comrades and to bring off as many of them as he could. This M<sup>c</sup> Kay being examined this day, denied every thing that he had said when in Liquor, but it is however thought proper to keep him a close Prisoner in Irons and to promise him a pardon if he will truly confess who sent & for what purpose, and give Us all other intelligence of the Enemy's design that he can.

A Black Fellow was hanged this Evening at the foot of the Glacis as a Spy. Upon his Examination he acknowledged himself to be a french Dubash, and could give no Satisfactory reason for his being found near our Works.

A Letter was brought in this day by a Flag for the Count d'Estaing, from Mr. De Bussy's Secretary as ¶ Appendix N<sup>o</sup>. 21.

A Flag came in from the Southward with Letters from our Officers who were wounded and taken in the action of the 14. Desiring some Cloaths and money might be sent them, which [was sent accordingly and the Flag returned].

Received a Letter from Usoff Cawn as ¶ Appendix N<sup>o</sup>. 22. The Hircarrah who brought it says that he left him six days ago near Triumallee that he has sixteen hundred Horse with him and three Thousand Colliers besides the Trichenopoly Seapoys.

Dispatched Letters to Captain Preston at Chingleput and to Usoff Cawn as ¶ Appendix N<sup>o</sup>. 23 and 24.

It was resolved to make a Sortie this Night to give the Enemy an Alert, and endeavour to Nail up some of their Guns in the Black Town, accordingly about a Quarter after Eleven of Clock Ensign Crawley marched out of the North Gate with one Serjant, one Corporal, and thirty Six privates, all Volunteers, and forty Seapoys but he Scarcely advanced beyond the foot of the Glacis before he was discovered by the Enemy's Centinels who gave the Alarm and the Enemy immediately beat to Arms, upon which it was not thought prudent, to risk the party and orders were sent to Ensign Crawley to return, which he did.

Sunday the 17th.—The Weather having been so very Tempestuous [since] the Embarkation of the Detachment on board the Snow Victoria the [a word lost] that they could not proceed nor could any Boats or Assistance be sent from the Shore 'till this Morning, the Wind & Surf being abated, a Cattamaran was sent Off with a Note to Captain Jasper to know the State of the Vessel and people on board, at Noon the Cattamaran return[ed] with a Letter from Cap<sup>t</sup>. Jasper, and declaration of Nine of the Petty Officers who did belong to the Frigates that they are unwilling to [Obey him?]. See the Appendix N<sup>o</sup>. 25 & 26.

As the Success of the Intended interprize dep[ends] greatly on its Secrecy and the Resolution of those who were to carry it into execution, it is feared that some intimation of the design may [have] reached the Enemy who in that Case will doubtless have taken precau[tion] to prevent a Surprise. Upon this Consideration added to the unwilling[ness] of the Marriners whose Services and Resolution were chiefly depended on, it is Resolved to disembark the Troops this Evening and drop the intended Expedition for the present, but to detain the Vessel in the [Road to be employed as occasion may require].

The Count d'Estaing having expressed a desire of having some Negotiation set on foot for his Exchange, The Governour after consulting with the Council and the Field Officers, with their Concurrence wrote a Letter to the Count as ¶ Appendix N<sup>o</sup>. 27.

To which the Count d'Estaing returned an answer as ¶ Appendix N<sup>o</sup>. 28.

The Intelligence received this day is to the following Effect. That two Boats arrived at St Thomé this morning with Ammunition and a small Gun in each. That the Enemy have three Companys of Seapoys three hundred Black Horse and a few Europeans there but no guards or Centrys along the Sea Side from thence Northward. That they have sent a great many wounded Officers and Soldiers to Pondicherry and are Still getting Conveyances as fast as they can to send more.

Report of the Garrison.

Nothing remarkable happened in the Garrison this day.

Monday the 18th.—This morning a Flag was sent out with a Letter from the Count d'Estaing to Mr Lally enclosing a Copy of the Governours Letter to him and his Answer. See the Appendix N<sup>o</sup> 38.

Many Inconveniencies being already felt fr[om] the Number of Attendants on the Nabob amounting to upwards of four hundred persons who are to be fed out of the Store of Garrison Provisions besides the great Nuisance arising from a Number of Hors[es] and Cattle belonging to them and which it is difficult to keep in any or[der]. These Inconveniencies alone might be sufficient to make the Nabobs removal a desirable object, but the Safety of his person is still of gre[at] moment, as on that greatly depends the Security of his Debt to the Company should this place be maintained against the French Upon these Considerations the Nabob having been Consulted and Consenting, It is resolved that he and his Wife & Children with as many of his Attendants as can conveniently be embarked on the D[utch] Snow and sent to Negapatam with a Letter of Recommendation [to] the Governour and Council there desiring they will afford him protection and Assistance to pass from thence to Trichenopoly. Th[at] Mr Hugh Norris one of the Council accompany the Nabob to introd[uce] him and support the Recommendation and that by the same Oppor[tunity] twenty Thousand Pagodas be sent under the Charge of Mr Hugh Norris to be forwarded to Trichenopoly for the Service of that Garrison.

It is also proposed that After the Nabobs depar[tur]e such of his Attendants being Horsemen as cannot go with him do ta[ke] an Opportunity to push out to the Southward and make their way to Chingleput and join Capt. Preston.

— FORT ST. GEORGE, DECEMBER 1758. —

Capt Robert Holford is appointed to Command the Snow and after he has landed the Nabob at Negapatam is to proceed directly to Bombay with Advices of our Situation.

The Capt of the Dutch Snow still persisting that he cannot agree on any price for the Vessel but desiring an Obligation from the President & Council to be answerable to the Owners in Bengal for the value, such an Obligation is given him (See the Appendix N<sup>o</sup> 39) At the same time he delivers in an Account of an Anchor some Cordage and others things on board the Vessel belonging to himself amounting to three Thousand Current Rupees (CR<sup>a</sup> 3000) for which he desires a Bill on the President & Council of Bengal as he has no means of Securing that money if paid him here, a Sett of Bills is therefore now given him of this date for CR<sup>a</sup> 3000 upon the President and Council of Bengal.

A Sett of Bills is also now Signed for A R<sup>a</sup> 2790 payable to the order of M<sup>r</sup> Charles Lewis Hagemester being the Ballance of an Account of 344 Bags of Wheat landed here from the Dutch Snow and purchased at the Rate of 10 Rupees  $\text{p}$  Bag amounting to 3440 Rupees of which R<sup>a</sup> 650 have been paid.

A Letter of Advice is wrote to accompany these Bills as  $\text{p}$  Appendix N<sup>o</sup> 40.

One of the Companys Corporal Peons arrived this day from Chingleput reports that Capt. Preston bearing that the French had a Mortar and some Cannon going from Covelong to Madrass detached four Companys of Seapoys with forty Lascars under the Command of Lieut<sup>a</sup> Airey the 14th. Instant to intercept the Convoy, which consisted of about One hundred and fifty Seapoys, that Lieut Airey with his party came up with the Convoy attacked and put the Seapoys to flight but not being able to bring off the Mortar, he spiked it, as well as two small Guns and burnt the Carriages, he took likewise and Carried to Chingleput about Twenty Firelocks and fifty or Sixty Bullocks. This Peon adds that it is reported at Chingleput that Mahomed Usoff Cawn is arrived at Trinomale and that Capt. Preston dispatched Letters to him 10 days ago, That he heard on the Road that Chunda Saib's Son is going towards Poonemallee with three hundred Horse and two Companys of Seapoys.

A Spy sent out last Night returned this day at Noon and brings Intelligence that there are five or Six Europeans and fifteen Horse posted at the Garden House. Another gives the following account, that yesterday Morning Mons. Lambert was sent from S<sup>t</sup> Thomé towards Pondicherry with 100 Europeans foot 100 European Horse and 100 Black Horse and that Rajah Saib (Chunda's Son) went at the same time to Poonemallee with almost all the rest of the Black Hor[se]. That he saw four Guns which appeared to be large lying on the other Side of the Black Town River. That he went all about their Head Quarters at the Black Town this morning and Saw no Batterys Mor[tar] or large Guns, but Seven or eight Field pieces planted in the Several Avenues. That he heard M<sup>r</sup> Lally was at Linga Chitty's House.

Another confirms the Account of Rajah Saibs going with almost all their black Forces to Poonemallee and adds that he had also a hundred European Horse that he heard it reported in the Enemy's Camp that the intent of his going was to meet and engage Usoff Cawn, who they heard was coming down by the Arcot Road, That the large Gun which Stuck in the Mud the other side of the Black Town River, still remains there, and another which came into the Town sticks in the Paddy Field by the Company's Garden. That he saw no other large Guns or Mortars nor any Batterys begu[n].

A Letter dispatched this Evening to Capt. Pres[ton] at Chingleput to advise of the Detachments made by the Enemy judged to be with an intention to oppose Usoff Cawn. See the Appendix N<sup>o</sup> 41.

Our Patroles along the Sea Side to the Northward discovered five of the Enemy and fired upon them and they retired, they then advanced a little further and saw a greater Number coming towards them upon which they fired and retired into the Covered way, nothing else remarkable happened in the Garrison.

It is worthy remark that not one man has Deserted from us, or been seen in Liquor since We have been invest[ed].

Tuesday the 19th.—Last night and the Night before, the Enemy threw up two Breast works behind each other near the Sea Side to the Northward by which it is judged that they intend to direct a Battery against the North face of the old North East Bastion in order therefore to prevent the Ruin of that Work it is thought necessary that the low Flank on the East Wing of the Demy Bastion be raised sufficiently high to cover the North East Bastion from the Enemy's Shott. And to incommode the Enemy at the least expence of Ammunition possible, it is proposed to raise a platform in the North East Angle of the Covered way before the Saliant Angle of the Demy Bastion, high enough for field Pieces on covered way Carriages to fire over the Glacis. It is also thought necessary to close up the opening between the upper and lower Flank of the Demy Bastion in the Securest manner possible, To raise the Saliant Angle of the Demy Bastion two or three feet higher to prevent an enfilade and to make a Traverse on the East Wing for the same purpose. To repair the Parapets, Platforms, and Embrasures of the North Lunette, and put them in a thorough good Condition; all which the Engineers is directed to carry into execution as fast as possible.

The Intelligence received this day is to the following effect. A Man of Jemul Saib's reports—That M<sup>r</sup>. Lambour marched with two or three hundred Europeans from S<sup>t</sup>. Thomé to the Southward, and Rajah Saib went to Poonemallee with almost all their Black Force; that he heard these two were intended to join and march against Usoff Cawn. That in S<sup>t</sup>. Thomé there are now two or three hundred Black Horse, 50 or 60 European Horse, and fifty or Sixty Military. That he saw two Mortars brought up near the Portuguese Church in the black Town, and a detachment of 15 or 20 Seapoys from each Company is employed in bringing Fascines to erect a Battery which he says is begun on behind the Barricade they have thrown up; That he judges the Battery to be intended for the two Mortars. That he saw a large Gun Sunk in the Mud on the other side of the black Town River, and another in the same Condition near the Company's Garden within the black Town. That the Carriages have been broke and repaired two or three times and are now again broke. That he heard some other Guns were Sunk in the same manner in different parts of the Roads from Conjeveram and Carangoly. Another Hircarrah gives the following Account. That he went last Night to the Garden House where an Officer is, with four or five Europeans and half a Company of Seapoys from thence to Trivitashium and this morning crossed the Choultry plain and saw near Turing's House several Tents and other Baggage and only a guard of four or five Seapoys. That he went into the Black Town, by the back of the Hospital and he reports that all the Enemy's European Horse are quartered in the Street from the Elephant's Garden to the small Portuguese Church (near Fracos Garden) the Artillery people and Stores in a cross Street to the Westward of that Garden. Their European Soldiers in the different Streets of Muttal Pattah from Tomby Chitty's Pagoda to an old Pagoda: Between Padre Thom[as's] Garden and the Sea side he saw a Mortar behind a heap of the Rubbish of one of the Houses lately pulled down but he saw no large Gun, That they have no body in Peddanigue's Pettah except a small guard of Seapoys posted at Andeapah's Choultry in Gungaram's Street. That Rajah Saib is gone with a large Black Force, as he heard, to Arcot. That he saw in the Black Town only about One hundred Moors Horse which Stand among the Gardens on this side Padre Thomas's.

A Sally was made at twelve oClock at night with Nineteen Europeans and about 30 Seapoys Commanded by Ensign Bonjour from the Saliant Angle of the Covered way of the Demy Bastion; he advanced as far as the right Flank of the Enemy[s] Line when some of the Seapoys cried out they saw Horse, gave a Scattering Fire and retreated; the Europeans did the same. In the retreat one of his Majesty's Regiment was wounded, one Marine kill[ed] and One wounded.

At one oClock Jemal Saib Commandant of Seapoys march'd out of St George's Gate with one Thousand Seapoys it was intended that he should have pushed thro' the Enemy's Guards about the Garden House (which by the foregoing Intelligence appear'd too weak to make any opposition to this party) and have advanced as far as St. Thomé to beat up the Enemy's Quarters, and endeavour to Spike up a large Gun which was seen lying upon it's Carriages on the Beach. When they came to the Garden House the Enemy made an unexpected opposition which however must have been to little purpose had the Seapoys behaved with the least degree of Resolution, but upon the first Fire of the Enemy many of our Seapoys threw down their Arms and fled, the rest struck with a Pannick retreated in disorder and about two oClock returned into Garrison and it is not known that one man amongst them was either killed or wounded. This shews that no dependance can be placed on the Seapoys; they are however of great use in relieving the European Military from the fatigue of the Garrison Duty in the day time.

Wednesday the 20th.—Last night the Enemy advanced their Trench and Breast Work about 50 Paces; this has the Appearance of their first Parallel.

Working parties, besides Cooleys, are employed in the Works and Repairs discribed and ordered yesterday.

This being the day appointed by the Charter for Mayor and Sherif annually elected to enter on their respective Offices the Council assembled as usual and a Message being brought that the Mayor elect and Sherif are ready to take the Oath they are introduced with the other members and Officers of the Mayor's Court and the Oaths of Allegiance and Office are first administered by the President to Charles Turner Esq<sup>r</sup> who was chosen the 5th. Instant, and then to M<sup>r</sup> Henry Eustace Johnston, who was the same day elected Sheriff both for the Year ensuing.

It having been always usual upon this occasion to Salute the New Mayor with Nine Guns, Nine Guns were shotted upon the Royal Bastion and pointed at the Enemy's Quarters and Works and discharged in honour of the New Mayor, and it is hoped with good Effect on the Enemy.

This morning the Dutch Snow lying at Anchor opposite the Sea Gate distant from the Shore about a Mile was fired at by the Enemy from some Field Pieces, one Shot entered her Bow and killed a Lascar upon which the Commander weighed and stood out and anchored in the Offing at the same time a Boat was discovered rowing from the Southward, as it seemed, towards the Vessell by which it was judged to be an Armed Boat of the Enemy from St. Thomé, It was immediately resolved to send off twenty Marines in two Boats to endeavour to cut off that which was thought to be the Enemy's Boat, but if that could not be effected to embark on board the Snow and remain their [sic] until she could be dispatched. The Boat from the Southward proved to be a Dutch Boat from Sadras and came in here, our Marines therefore Embarked according to order. At Night the Nabob with his Wife and Family and as many of his Attendants as could be, accompanied by Mr. Hugh Norris, embarked on board the Snow. The under-mentioned Letters were wrote upon this Occasion which may be seen at length in the Appendix Viz<sup>t</sup>.

At noon a Messenger with a Flag of Truce brought a Letter from Mr. Lally for the Count d'Estaing and returned, this Letter is on the Subject of his Exchange. See the Appendix N<sup>o</sup>. 55.

The Intelligence received this day, is from a Spy, who was yesterday at the Moorman's Garden just on this side of St. Thomé old Bridge by the side of the narrow Lane. He says, that the Enemy have a hundred Seapoys in that Garden and that he saw two large Guns upon Carriages which the Enemy endeavoured yesterday to bring this way, but could not get them over the old Bridge nor thro' that Ditch. Two others bring the following Account. That this Morning a Detachment of Military, above one hundred, march'd from the Black Town to join Raza Saib, at Poonemallee, with Design, as they heard, to engage Usoff Cawn. That with this Detachment went whatever Moors Horse or other Black Force they could get together. That a Supply of Money came to the French Camp this morning from St. Thomé guarded by about ten Troopers, that they went to Maskelyn[s] Garden where a few Moores Horse & Seapoys were posted; this morning they came into the Black Town where they saw a large Gun near the Portuguese Church. That the Enemy's Soldiers are quartered in the Houses of Mutall Pettah from Tomby Chitty's Choultry quite to the Bound Hedge and they saw parcells of Ammunition and Stores dispersed in different places. Another gives an Account that a great Gun was brought up as far as Trivle[cane] this Morning. Another Harcarrah brings the following Account. That he passed thro' Trivelicane & Trivitashium and saw none [of the] Enemy; some Tents and Baggage he saw near Turing's House, [but] no people. This morning he passed thro' the Black Town in Peddanaigue's Pettah he says the Enemy have posted 100 Seapoys, fifty in the Street leading from the Governour's Fowle House, and 50 in the large Street further north, called Gungaram's Street. That he saw one large Gun and One Mortar near the Portuguese Church. That the French Soldiers are Quartered from Tomby Chitty's Pagoda up to Mallee[sar's] Pagoda. That he heard a Report in the Camp of Raza Saibs being gone towards Arcot and Muzéfer Beg with him to oppose Tondanam's [sic] People. The same Hircarrah went out again at 8 O Clock at Night & returned at Eleven with the following Account. That he went to Trivelicane and in the Buzzars there, saw a large Gun upon a Carriage, the Seapoys & Cooleys were gone to dress their Victuals but the Bullocks were standing by.

All this Night a warm Fire was kept from the Royal Bastion and North Lunette upon the Besieger's Trenches.

Thursday the 21st.—The Enemy advanced in their Paralell but a few paces last night which gives Us reason to think either that they have been prevented by our Fire or that that Work is intended only to amuse Us, and draw our Fire that way while they are erecting Works in some other part, as yet concealed.

The Nabob and his Family having embark'd late last Night on board the Snow, early this morning they weigh'd and by Nine oClock were out of Sight, having first sent ashore the Party of Marines which had been embarked for the Security of the Vessel.

—FORT ST. GEORGE, DECEMBER 1758.—

M<sup>r</sup>. John Pybus is appointed Paymaster and Military Paymaster in the room of M<sup>r</sup>. Hugh Norris who accompanied the Nabob to Negapatam.

Upon the Report brought in last Night by an Hircarrah that he had seen a large Gun upon it's Carriages in the Buzar at Triplicane it was resolved to make a Sortie with 1 Corporal 12 Europeans & 50 Seapoys to endeavour to Spike it up, & at the same time, if it were found practicable, to beat up the Enemy's Quarters about the Garden House and Chindadre Pettah. Lieut<sup>t</sup>. Bannatyne was appointed to command the Party, assisted by Ensign Crawley. They accordingly about ten o'clock march'd out at St. Thomas's Gate along the Sand on the Beach, a Comp[any] of Grenadiers march'd with them as far as the Bar of the River and took post there to cover their Retreat in case of need, at the sa[me] time a large body of Seapoys under the Command of Jemal Saib were Paraded in the Covered way of the West front, ready to Sally out at the So[rtie] of St. George's Gate over the Bridge leading to Peddanague's Pet[tab] to create a diversion that way in case the Enemy should take the Alarm to the Northward; Lieut<sup>t</sup>. Bannatyne advanced by M<sup>r</sup>. Steevens's House into Triplicane as far as the Pagoda, but fou[nd] none of the Enemy there or any Gun, he then Struck off towa[rds] the Garden House intending to have Passed thro' the Lane [which] leads from thence towards M<sup>r</sup>. Turing's House but before he [had] advanced far in it he observed a body of European Infantry dr[awn] up at the end upon the plain and making front towards hi[m] he judged their Number to be about three hundred, which [he] was by no means able to encounter and therefore retreated b[ack] by the Garden House to the foot of the Bridge by M<sup>r</sup>. Powney's House through M<sup>r</sup>. Powney's Garden and so back by the side of the River to the Bar and joined there the Company of Grenadiers and all returned to [the] Fort. Whilst this was doing and about the time they were retr[eating] as aforementioned, two Guns appeared with a long train of Bull[ocks] to each, crossing the Plain from Egmore to the great Mettow by the Moorman's Tomb and the distant from the Fort at least a Mile and an half, our Guns fired upon them and had this good Effect; that the drivers loosed the Oxen from the Carriages and drove them away and left the Guns sticking in the Clay. At the same time the Party of Seapoys which had been Paraded in the Covered way and Jemal Saib Sallied forth over the New Bridge and marched ac[ross] the Island to Egmore Bridge with an intent, if possible, to Spike up the Guns, but the Enemy in the Black Town had taken the Alarm some time before and beat to Arms, their Hussars and Black Horse were seen riding full Speed towards the Place where the Guns were left, upon which it was thought too hazardous for our Party to advance and orders were sent [to] Jemal Saib to return which he did without Opposition. [By] this Sortie the Enemy have been thrown into a General Commotion besides the Good Effect such Sallys may have on our Seapoys by enuring them to danger, the Enemy's People are harrassed and fatigued and their Works retarded. Lieutenant Bannatyne took one European Prisoner of Fisher's Regiment and one Seapoy with twenty five Stand of Arms. he also found a Parcell of Letters amongst which one from Pondicherry mentions that the Employés and Bourgeois are obliged to mount Guard in the Garrison, another from Mazulipatam mentions the landing of the English at Vizagapat<sup>m</sup>. consisting of 300 Europeans and 1500 Seapoys and says that M<sup>r</sup>. De Conflans was at the head of 450 Europeans and 4 or 5000 Seapoys.

This Afternoon a Flag of Truce was sent out with a Letter from the Count d'Estaing to M<sup>r</sup>. Lally in Answer to that received yesterday. See the Appendix N<sup>o</sup> 56.

This Evening dispatched a Letter to Captain Preston at Chingleput as ¶ Appendix N<sup>o</sup> 57.

A Seapoy who was sent out to S<sup>t</sup>. Thomé for Intelligence return[ed] and Reports; that Meer Munsoor, who was formerly in the Company's Service, is there in the Service of the Enemy with One hundred Horse. That he (the Seapoy) asked him if he was willing to come over into the Company's Service again.

—FORT ST. GEORGE, DECEMBER 1758.—

That Meer Munsoor after expressing his great regard for the Company, who had given him a Medal, answered, that he should very willingly come over to our Service again, that if the Governour would order Captain Preston to pay him on his arrival at Chingleput four thousand Pagodas he would go there immediately with his hundred Horse and get Over an hundred more from the Enemy. That the four Thousand Pagodas should be considered only as an advance and be deducted out of their future pay and that the Pay of each be Stipulated at the rate of Thirty Rupees  $\text{₹}$  Month for each Man & Horse, and he offered further to raise a body of Seapoys at the rate of Fifteen Rupees  $\text{₹}$  Man  $\text{₹}$  Month, which he says is what the French al[low.] And as a Proof of his Intentions to return to the English Servi[ce he] has sent his Nephew with the Seapoy to Negociate and Set[tle] this Affair.

It being late at Night when the Seapoy [returned] with Meer Munsoor's Nephews and the foregoing Account the Consideration of it is deferred till the Morning.

The same Seapoy reports further that the alarm was very great in St. Thomé this Morning in so much that Numbers of the Enemy's Camp Attendants ran away tow[ards] the Mount.

Friday the 22<sup>d</sup>.—The Enemys Paralell advances but Sl[owly] last Night a Warm Fire was kept both of Shot and Shells at [their] Trenches.

The proposal of Meer Munsoor to come ov[er to us] with an hundred Horse as mentioned yesterday being thought w[orth] embracing his Nephew whom he had entrusted to Negociate concerning the terms, was told, that the only difficulty We were under was to convey the four Thousand Pagodas required as an advance to Chingleput that if he would accept a part here as an earnest and be content to receive the rest as [soon] as We could find an Opportunity of sending it to Chingleput he might rely on the punctual performance of the terms he proposes; upon which he consented to receive five hundred Pagodas and the rest when it can be sent and engaged [that] Meer Munsoor should join Captain Preston with an hundred Ho[rse] a Letter was wrote for him to deliver to Captain Preston to apprise [him] of this Agreement. See the Appendix N<sup>o</sup> 58.

About four oClock this Afternoon a large S[hip] appeared to the Northward Standing to the Southward, judg[ing] her to be an English Ship, a Letter was prepared to be sent off acquainting the Commander of our present Situation and di[rect] him if a ship of Force to Anchor opposite to the Enemys Trenches and endeavour to enfilade them, but if he should not be of suf[ficient] Force to Anchor close in under the Southermost Bastion. See [the] Appendix N<sup>o</sup> 59. But before the Cattamaran went off the [Ship] brought to about three Leagues to the Northward and at a great distance from the Shore by which it was thought prob[able] that she might belong to the Enemy as we have had Intelligence that [they are in daily expectation] of a ship from Mazulipatam [with ammunition & stores, the Letter therefore was not sent.]

A Return of the Disposition of the Artillery and Lascars on the Several Bations and Batteries may be seen in the Appendix N<sup>o</sup> 60.

The Intelligence received this day is as follows.

A Company's Peon who was one of those placed as Tappies upon the Pulicat Road was seized by the French the day they invested Madras and has Worked for them as a Cooley ever since; this morning found means to escape and gave the following Account. That the Enemy have a Battery of four Guns by the Sea side Completed and the Guns mounted, the face of the Battery is in a circular Form so that he judges some of the Guns will bear upon the Road and some enfilade the East front of the Town. From that Battery a Breast Work is thrown up to Tomby Chitty's House behind which, on this side the old Ditch, another

— FORT ST. GEORGE, DECEMBER 1758. —

Battery for Six Guns is almost compleated and three Guns are brought up and placed in the ditch in readiness. The Breast Work is continued from this Battery to Peddanigue's House, close to the burying Ground, where another Battery is begun intended also for Six Guns as he judges. From thence the Breast Work is continued to the Canal lately made by our taking our Clay for the Works and near that they have cleared out a Space where they keep their Magazines of Stores and Baggage, &c. That they began to Work three days ago behind the old Hospital, near the back of Sumpetrows House in Peddanigue's pettah, but having had five or Six men killed there by the Cannon from the Fort they have not continued that Work, but in the other Street at the Back of the old Hospital fronting the Northside of the New Hospital they have begun, and are now busily employed upon, a Circular Battery of Six Guns. This Peon further Reports. That the Regiment of Lorrain lay by their Arms last Night in the great Buzar Street of Peddanague's Pettah and that Fisher's Hussars and the rest of their Horse were in the Street adjoining. That the Battallion of India are quartered near the Portuguese Church and as far as Cachelly Pagoda. That the Croffrys [sic] are in the Company's Garden, and Lally's Regiment in the Old Pagoda further North called Malleazar's Pagoda. That M<sup>r</sup> de Bussy is gone with three hundred Europeans to join Raza Saib in order to Oppose Usoff Cawn.

A Hircarra came in at [ten oClock at Night with the following Account. That he Slept last Night at Triplicane] that he saw nothing there and this morning early he went to St<sup>r</sup> Thomé, that at the sea side he saw several Boats & Cattamarans but no Guns or Mortar, he heard the People there talk that they expect some every day. In the Fort or Redout there he saw two Brass Guns mounted and two more in the Streets, He judges the Force there to be about 150 Europeans two or three Companys of Seapoys, 15 or 20 European Horse and One hundred and twenty Moors Horse, From St<sup>r</sup> Thomé he came to the Black Town by the way of Chindradre Pettah where he saw nothing, he entered Peddanague's Pettah which he found Crouded with Cooleys and Seapoys and a few Europeans chiefly [Gunners]. He saw them at Work and Worked himself for a Short time [upon] the Work in that Street at the Back of the Hospital just below the [upper?] roomed House but he cannot judge whether that Work is intende[d] for a Battery or only a Barricade and Breast Work. he saw two [Guns] in that Street, In Sumpetrow's Street facing the East towards the Burying Ground he saw a Barricade or Breast Work thrown up and one Gun. in a back Street to the Westward towards the River side he observed also a Barricade and Breast Works in some other of the Streets of Peddanague's Pettah. He went from thence to Malleazar Pagoda where he found Soldiers Quartered as usual and saw them relief [e] Guard just before Sunset. He met Seventeen wounded men going in Dooleys thro' Chindadre Petta to St<sup>r</sup> Thomé and heard that few more killed by the Firing of last Night.

Nothing remarkable happened in the Garrison this day.

Saturday the 23<sup>d</sup>. The Firing was kept up last night very briskly, as for some nights past, upon the Enemy's Parallel, as well as upon the other parts where We are informed they are at Work their Parallel seems to be but little advanced but the Trench deepen[ed].

This morning another large Ship appeared to the Northward, the Ship which Anchored to the Northward last Night Still lay there, the Ship which appeared this morning stood for some time to the Eastward and then lay in for our Road upon which the other hoisted French Colours, We soon had the pleasure to observe that the Ship under sail hoisted [the English] Ensign; a Cattamaran was immediately sent Off with a Letter to the Commander acquainting him of our present Situation and directing him to come and Anchor abreast of the Southermost Bastion of the Fort, (See the Appendix N<sup>o</sup> 61) but before the Cattamaran could get on board he Anchored in the Road about three miles distant from the Shore. The Cattamaran returned in the Afternoon with a Letter from Capt<sup>r</sup> Wedderburn to the Gover<sup>r</sup> acquainting him that the Ship is called the Thames. That he left Vizagap<sup>m</sup> the 20th Instant, That Col. Forde had obtained a Compleat Victory over the French and had taken all their Artillery and Baggage with a very inconsiderable Loss on our Side and adds that he has provisions on board for this Garrison a List of which he encloses and is in great want of an Anchor and Cable. See the Appendix N<sup>o</sup> 62.

Before the Cattamaran returned with the above Letter a Boat was sent off with M<sup>r</sup> Alexander Dalrimple to inform the Captain of some Signals, but the Wind and Current being very fresh could not get on board and so returned. In the Evening another Cattamaran was sent off with repeated Orders to the Commander to come close in under the protection of our Guns, but could not reach the Ship and came back at ten oClock at night in the mean time an Anchor and Cable were got ready on the Beach to be sent off the first Opportunity.

As it is reasonable to think that Public Demonstrations of Joy upon occasion of the Victory gained by Col<sup>l</sup> Ford might have a good effect by raising the Spirits of our People and producing the Contrary in the Enemy it was therefore resolved to put the whole Garrison under Arms and to march them into the Covered way, which it was supposed would Alarm the Enemy and bring them to their front post, and so expose them the more to our Shot, and then to Fire twenty one Guns into different parts of their Quarters and Works and give three running Fires from the Covered way of the Whole Garrison, which was executed accordingly.

A Letter is dispatch'd this Evening to Capt<sup>r</sup> Preston at Chingleput as in the Appendix N<sup>o</sup> 63.

The Count d'Estaing having given the Governour a List of the Principal Officers in the French Army a Copy is inserted in the Appendix N<sup>o</sup> 64.

The only advice received this day is from M<sup>r</sup> Brooke at Pulicat who mentions that the French are in daily expectation of a Ship from Mazulipatam called the Harlem.

(The Harlem is the Ship they took from the Dutch in July or August last and the Ship which Anchored to the Northward yesterday is supposed to be the same). He also writes that Five French Officers arrived there 20th the Marquis de St<sup>e</sup> Louis, The Marquis de Malte, Mess. Laws d'hambure and another, the two first wounded, and that M<sup>r</sup> Lally has detached a party of fifty European Horse and 100 Seapoys towards Nellour to quell some disturbance which has been raised that way.

Sunday Y<sup>e</sup> 24th. Our Fire was kept up last Night as usual, and this morning near thirty Dooleys were observed crossing the plain towards Egmore supposed to have sick or wounded Men in them, The Enemys Parallel does not appear to be any thing advanced last night.

This morning a Boat was sent off with a Cable to the Thames which got on board, another was sent off also with an Anchor and a Cattamaran was dispatched at the same time with a peremptory Order to the Captain to come in as near as possible under the protections of the Guns of the Fort, but before the two last could reach the Ship, she got under way, at the same time the French Ship which lay far to the Northward got under sail also; whether Captain Wedderburn thought he could not fetch in abreast of the Southermost Bastion as he had been directed, without making a Stretch off, or whether the French Ship getting under way was his motive for doing so is not yet known, but soon after he weighed which was about ten OClock he laid off close hauled till One when he was Hull to and as far to Leeward at St<sup>e</sup> Thomé, and then tacked and

—FORT ST. GEORGE, DECEMBER 1758.—

Stood in for the Land but the Current was so Strong that He fell to Leeward of S<sup>t</sup> Thomé. He then laked [sic] again to work up but before night he had fallen to Leeward quite out of sight, and carried with him all the Letters he had on board for this Settlement. The French Ship Anchored before twelve a little to the Northward of the Black Town. The Boat which carried off the Cable returned and brought a Letter from Capt. Wedderburn, as in the Appendix N<sup>o</sup> 65.

Yesterday a Soldier was tried by a General Court Martial for Cocking his Piece at his Serjant and threatening to kill him and received Sentence of Death which was executed this day, Severe Examples being thought [sic] absolutely necessary at this time to prevent disorders in the Garrison which might prove fatal.

The Intelligence received this day is to the following Effect. Two Hircarrah who came from Pulicat by the way of Poonemalee Passed over the Choultry plain and between Mackays House and Turings saw great Quantities of Baggage of all Sorts, Bales Tents &c. but no Guard. Another Hircarrah brought the following Account. That the Enemy have a Battery ready at the sea Side with Guns mounted and another also finished by Tomby Chittys House, near which he saw two Mortars and four Guns lying on the Ground. That they are hard at Work upon another Battary behind the old Hospital near Sumpetrows House and he saw three Guns lying near it. The Work in the Street facing the new Hospital near the Small upper roomed House he takes to be only a Barracade and Breast Work. That they have three hundred Black Horse and some Europeans & Seapoys in S<sup>t</sup> Thomé and he heard they expected Boats with Ammunition and Stores, that they have no Body in Chindradre Pettah but keep every night in the Tope at the Back of the Governours Garden a Guard of about 100 Europeans 50 Troopers 100 Black Horse and two or three Companys of Seapoys, but that they are withdrawn in the day.

Monday the 25th. Our Firing kept up briskly all last night as usual the Enemy have added but little to their Parallel.

This Forenoon several Tumbrils, supposed of Ammunition, were observed from the Fort passing over Egmore plain towards the Black Town and several Boats have been passing to and from the French Ship which still lyes a little to the Northward of the Black Town.

This morning a Sail was seen to the Northward under Moors Colours and by her Course seemed to intend for this Road but about Eleven oClock being abreast of the French Ship tho' at a considerable distance the latter Fired a Gun upon which the Sloop brought too, and too [sic] Boats were dispatched from the Ship to the Sloop about twelve they got on board and in the afternoon brought her in and Anchored close to the Ship.

As the Treasure Door might happen to be burst open by Shot or Shells and the Treasure be exposed to pilferage before any Remedy could be applied therefore to guard against an Accident of that kind, it is judged proper to put all the coined Pagodas into the Companys Cash Chest in the Fort House under the Charge of the President as Cash keeper and all the Rupees and uncoined Gold into Chests in the Fort House under the Charge of the Committee of Treasury, and the same is done accordingly.

The Governour and Principal Officers having considered the Situation of the Batteries which, according to the Intelligence received, the Enemy are erecting; Are of Opinion that the most necessary Work to be done at present is to erect Traverses on, and to raise the Parapets of the Royal Bastion, and at the same time or as soon as a sufficient Number of Workmen can be Spared, to close the Opening between the Northwest Curtain and the Blind before the Mint Sally Port, and also to erect a Traverse in the Covered way before the North Face of the Royal Bastion. The Intelligence received this day is from Hircarrahs. One gives an Account that the Enemy have erected a Battery near the sea Side and are at Work upon three others, one near Tomby Chitty's House, one behind the Tombs of the Burying Ground, and one behind the Hospital near Sumpetrow's House. That they have made a Barricade and Breast Work in the Street facing the new Hospital near the Small upper roomed House. That he saw too [sic] Guns and two Mortars lying near Tomby Chitty's House and two Guns near Sumpetrow's House. Another Reports that the Battery near Tomby Chitty's House is finished, and the Guns were lying ready near it. That they are making another behind the Hospital near Sumpetrous House. That to day at Noon he saw too [sic] large Mortars brought up. That their Troops are divided half in Peddenagues Pettah and half in Mutal Pettah. That he saw two or three Companys of Seapoys detach'd, as they said, for Conjeveram having two Officers with them. That he was last night in Chindadre Pettah where he did not see any Body but Passengers on the Road to and from S<sup>t</sup> Thome, That he hear'd Several Elephants and Camels were sent to Pondicherry to bring Stores and Ammunition.

This Night about Nine oClock the Key Serjeant of S<sup>t</sup> Georges Gate deserted to the Enemy, upon which the Parole & Countersign were changed and other proper dispositions made to prevent any Advantage the Enemy might reap from the Intelligence he may give them.

Tuesday 26th.—Our fire last Night as usual, no alterations is observed in the Enemys Parallel.

This forenoon a small Sloop passed by at a great distance without Shewing any Colours.

Nothing Material happened in the Course of this day.

In order to Secure the Fort House from Bombs the Governour ordered a tier of the Companys Wollen Bales to be laid on each Wing and two tier of Bundles of Rattans belonging to himself to be laid on the Centre.

The Intelligence received this day is from a Man who came in this morning from S<sup>t</sup>. Thomé with an Account that two large Mortars drawn by Sixty Bullocks each, which were brought to S<sup>t</sup>. Thomé on Cattamarans, set out from thence at one in the morning and he accompany'd them as far as the passing of the River between the Garden House and Turings where he left them at five. That he heard two large Guns were brought also as far as Condalore. That he Work'd two days upon a Battery the Enemy are making just on this side Sunca Ramahs new House behind the Burying Ground and the day before Yesterday was forced to carry wounded Men to S<sup>t</sup>. Thomé, That a Serjeant and Eleven Men were carried that day and he says the Number of Sick & Wounded there is above 200. That he saw Preparations for another Battery in Sumpetrows Street. That they employ the Blacks to bring the Earth &c<sup>a</sup>. for erecting their Batterys but it is only Europeans that receive and place the Materials, That while the Work is low they carry it on in the day, but when it rises high, only in the Night.

This Night about Nine oClock a Hircarrah arrived and brought a Letter from Capt. Preston at Chingleput and two from Ussoff Cawn by which We have the pleasure to find that Ussoff Cawn was advancing this way and purposed being at Atchavaram which is within a few Miles of Chingleput the 23<sup>d</sup>. This morning dispatched a letter to Captain Preston and another to Ussoff Cawn in Triplicates directing the former to leave a Subaltern with 6 or 8 Gunners and 4 Companys of Seapoys in Chingleput and with the rest of his Garrison to join Ussoff Cawn, and advance to the Mount, And to the same Effect to Ussoff Cawn promising to send them further Instructions for their Conduct. Ten of the Enemys Boats being observed to lye off of St<sup>e</sup> Thomé supposed to be loaded with Ammunition and intended to pass the Road in the night to land their Charge at the Black Town it was Resolved to embark twenty European Military and as many Seapoys in five Boats to lay in a Line across the Road in order to intercept the Enemys Boats, should that attempt to Pass, the Party was accordingly embarked about 8 oClock at Night under the Command of Lieut Meyers assisted by Ensign Bellingham and returned again at one in the morning without having seen any thing of the Enemy.

The intelligence received this day is as follows A Hircarrah from St<sup>e</sup> Thomé gives an Account that the Enemy have withdrawn the greatest Part of their People from thence that he was there yesterday at 2 oClock in the Afternoon passed thro the White Town and up to the Bungaloe and is sure there was not more than 50 Soldiers left with about 100 Black Horse. Another Hircarrah says that the Enemy have an advanced Party at Marmelon Brooke consisting of about 50 Europeans 100 Black Horse and 400 Seapoys, that they have another Party of about 100 or 150 Europeans upon Choultry Plain near Mackays House with 100

Black Horse 100 Seapoys and two Guns, that at S<sup>t</sup> Thome about 5 in the Afternoon he saw heaps of Baggage Bales, and Parcels Packed and lying ready to be sent off, That he also saw there about 100 Troopers and 10 Seapoys but no foot Soldiers. That the whole Town was in Alarm expecting to be attacked by the Enemy from the Mount, and he heard that the Enemy intended to abandon that Place. Another Hircarrah who was Stationed all day yesterday near Turing's House says that between 8 & 9 oClock in the morning he saw about 200 Seapoys and 200 Black Horse come upon Choultry Plain from Egmore or the Black Town, that he judged there were about 30 or 40 Europeans at Turing's House, The [sic] he heard the greatest part of the Enemys Forces from S<sup>t</sup> Thome were come to the Choultry Plain and he saw great Quantities of Baggage of all kinds carried across toward the black Town. Another Hircarrah says that he was at Marmelon and this morning he saw fifteen of the Enemys Troopers carried off wounded. Another was dispatched at One oClock this morning with Letters from Usoff Cawn, but was taken by the French, he however found means to destroy the Letters and make his Escape, he says he saw a french Officer and several wounded Men carried into the Black Town this morning, and this Evening he saw a Party of European Horse go from the Black Town to the Southward. other Hircarrahs give an Account of the Action at the Mount this morning between the Enemy and Usoff Cawn.

Sunday 31st.—A Constant Watch was kept all Last Night for Usoff Cawn's Signal, but nothing was observed.

The Enemys Boats which the party was sent off last Night to intercept appear still at S<sup>t</sup> Thome ashore upon the Point.

In order to Alarm the Enemy and prevent their detaching too large a Force to oppose Usoff Cawn, this morning by break of day a Sortie was made to the Southward with one Company of Granadiers. The Troop of Horse and a thousand Seapoys, Capt<sup>r</sup> Beaver Commanded the Party, the intention was to surprise or drive away the Guards from the Fishing Town just on the other side the bar, at Triplicane and the Garden House. The Party accordingly passed thro all those places without the least opposition the Enemy having withdrawn from those Posts leaving only a few Seapoys Centries at the Garden House about 8 oClock the party returned having intercepted a Parcell of Letters from Pondichery to Officers in the French Camp the most material Articles of Intelligence gained from them are.

That a Frigate (La Fidelle) is arrived at Pondicherry from the Islands and has brought 70 Chests of Treasure and is to return immediately to the Islands. That the Bristol is also arrived at Pondichery. That besides the Harlem (the French Ship lying off the black Town) a Frigate is coming with cannon and Stores for the Siege. That they are in want of Boats to bring their Ammunition having only five that are Serviceable left at Pondicherry the 25th, but that they expected the return of those which had been sent to S<sup>t</sup> Thomé. M<sup>r</sup> Boyellean [sic] (one of the Council of Pondichery) writes thus to M<sup>r</sup> Chevreau the 26 "We have heard with pleasure of the arrival of the Harlem and of her having taken a small prize so now you are provided with heavy cannon and a profusion of money" and in the same Letter. "It is said here you have sent to borrow money at Puli-cat, your success is doubted and it is thought you would have done better to demand it by open Force upon Title of Contribution. pretences seem not to be wanting and even Solid Reasons." M<sup>r</sup> Boyellean writes thus to M<sup>r</sup> DuSaussay "I am surprized at your uneasiness, is it that you see further than me? for here our Affairs seem to be in the most pleasing and promising Situation, money in abundance by the arrival of the Frigate, heavy cannon from the Harlem, our Northern Affairs reestablished, and Mazulipatam in safety since it is assured that above three [sic] Men have rejoined M<sup>r</sup> deConflans." M<sup>r</sup> Delarche advises

M<sup>r</sup> Lally (Brigadier, the Generals Nephew) to put a hundred men on board the Harlem to prevent any English Vessel being placed between Coblou and S<sup>t</sup> Thomé to cut off the passage of the Boats, and adds that he shall send 4000 Rupees by M<sup>r</sup> Delatour Captain of Dragoons who is to set out the 27 in the morning for Madras. M<sup>r</sup> Faure writes to M<sup>r</sup> Lally the Brigadier, that the Captain of a Sloop from Mazulipatam is just come ashore and brings advice that M<sup>r</sup> deConflans was there with 387 Europeans including the Wounded. M<sup>r</sup> de Bausset (one of the Council at Pondichery) writes to M<sup>r</sup> deTumelle the 25 December thus,—“All the Chalingas and Embarkations that are here and on the Coast would not be sufficient to transport the Ammunition and Effects which M<sup>r</sup> Lally demands. You may be persuaded that I shall be very happy if you can meet with an Opportunity of getting something and if I can contribute to it you may depend upon me.” There is a Letter from the same M<sup>r</sup> Bausset to Baron Van Eck chief of Pulicat desiring him to furnish M<sup>r</sup> deTumelle with Chelingas. M<sup>r</sup> deSolminihae writes to M<sup>r</sup> Cossigny the 25 December That the King of Tanjour has released Colonel Kennedy, the Jesuit and the other Hostages, and that they are all at Karical. There is also a Letter from Port lé [sic] Orient of the 5 March 1758 which has this passage. No Vessel has sailed from hence since the Momartelle, it is a Month since this first Division was to have gone but the Weather has been much as it was at the time of your Departure.

At Noon a Letter from the Governour to M<sup>r</sup> Lally was sent out by a Flag of Truce in answer to that received from him yesterday. See the Appendix N 105.

In the Afternoon a large Ship passed by the Road to the Southward but at such a distance that her Colours could not well be distinguished.

The Intelligence received this day is from a Hircarra sent towards S<sup>t</sup> Thomé to see whether any Stores were landed from the Enemys Boats, and he reports that nothing has been landed from them. That he passed thro' S<sup>t</sup> Thomé where he did not see any of the Enemys People. That all the Troops which were there are posted on the Choultry Plain extended as far as Egmore and this morning upon the Sortie from this Garrison they were all under arms. That he crossed the River to the other side of S<sup>t</sup> Thomé and saw Numbers of Cooleys going to the Southward with Furniture parcels of Goods and other Plunder.

The French Boats which in the morning early were upon the Beach, upon our Sortie put out into the Road where they are still lying it is therefore resolved to embark a Party this Evening in the same manner as last Night to endeavour to intercept them.

Monday the 1st January 1759.—The Party Embarked last Night to intercept the French Boats returned without Success and this morning the Boats were seen upon the Beach at S<sup>t</sup> Thomé.

Our Fire upon the Enemys works has been kept up briskly every night, their Work by Sumpetrous Street which is judged to be a principal Battery seems far advanced, several openings appear which by their form are judged to be Embrazures. Their Work by the sea side which was judged at first to be the beginning of a

Last Night arrived a Boat from Sadras and brought the following Letters.

One from Mr Smith Resident at Sadrass advising among other things that a Party of the Enemy Consisting of 20 Foot 40 Troopers and some Seapoys are thier [sic] waiting to be reinforced when they are to escort to the Enemys Camp a large Quantity of Powder & Ammunition which is lodged there. See the Letter in the Appendix N<sup>o</sup> 110.

A Letter from Mr Bodle Resident at Negapat<sup>m</sup> of the 14 December advising that a Moors Vessell from the Nicobars brings an Account that 12 English Ships were there waiting the proper Season to come to the Coast.

Last Night a Cattamaran arrived from Pulicat with a Packet from Mr Brooke Resident there containing Copies of the Advices from Bombay mentioned in this Journal the 27. Ultimo by which We learn that the long expected Grafton & Sunderland and the six China Ships with the Reinforcements for this Coast arrived at Bombay the 15th. November the Letters are dated the 18th. November When Mr Pocock's Squadron had not yet appeared.

The Governour thinking that the News of the expected Succours being gone to Bombay instead of coming here might dispirit the Garrison if it were made Publick, resolved not to make known the Contents of the Bombay Letters to any but the Field Officers, but to Publick [sic] Mr Bodes advices of the 12 Ships at the Nicobars.

This Morning early received a Letter from Capt. Preston and one from Usoff Cawn advising of their being at Trevembore a Village about two Miles to the Southward of St Thomé, wherein they mention the difficulty they are under in procureing provisions for their People and the latter writes that the Allied Troops grow discontented and he refers to the Hircar Shack Ismael for further particulars. See the Letters in the Appendix

From Capt Preston	...	...	...	...	N <sup>o</sup> 111

Shack Ismael says that Usoff Cawn is of Opinion that the taking of St Thome will be of little Use nor can he find Provisions for his People there, He therefore proposes, if We have no particular View or Plan of joint enterprize that his Army be employed in making a large Circle round the Enemy and cutting off all thier Supplies, in that case he will endeavour to take Poonemallee & Terposore and keep Patrols constantly from those Posts to cut off all the Roads both Northward & Southward by this means he thinks his Army may be subsisted and the Enemy be put to difficulties for Subsisting theirs.

The foregoing plan being approved by the Govern<sup>r</sup> and the Fildd [sic] Officers, Letters were dispatched at Noon in Consequence to Captain Preston and Usoff Cawn by Cattamaran to Trivambore with a supply of Ten thousand Pagodas, promising to send them another Supply of 10,000 more in the Evening, and disiring them upon Reciet of the first to give Notice by a Smoke from the Top of Trivambore Pagoda as a Signal. about five oClock in the Afternoon We had the pleasure to observe the Signal appointed and at Dusk another Cattamaran was dispatched with other advices and the promised 10,000 Pagodas. ## —FORT ST. GEORGE, JANUARY 1759.—

INTELLIGENCE.—Two Hircarrahs who were sent away at 11 last night with orders to return immediately came with an Account that they went first to Chindadre Pettah and at the Pagoda there they saw a Seapoy Guard, from thence they went to the Garden House where also they saw a Seapoy Guard and Centry but no Europeans from thence they went down to the River side near to Turings Garden, and by the Beetle Garden to Trivishium & passed through the North Street looked into the Choultry and examined all round but saw no body, from thence they went down the high road leading to Steevens's Garden passed by the Front of that House directly to the Bar and saw a small Seapoy Guard beyond the Hutts, from the Bar they returned by the River side passed by the end of the Garden House Bridge and proceeded again to Chindadre Pettah from whence they returned to the Fort At M<sup>r</sup> Powneys Garden and the Bridge they saw nobody. They saw the Lights of the Enemys Camp extending from the Washing Place behind Munro's Garden up to Egmore.

Tuesday the 2<sup>d</sup>.—In the Night two Letters were received from Usoff Cawn, the first advising his arrival at Trivimbore and that had posted Guards along the sea side, the other acknowledging the receipt of ten thousand Pagodas. See the Appendix N<sup>o</sup>. 121 & N<sup>o</sup>. 122.

This morning by break of day the Enemy began to Fire from a Battery of Cannon opening Six Embrasures Situated a little to the Northward of the old Hospital in an alignment with the North face of the Covered way before the Royal Bastion and consequently intended to inflade that Bastion and the covered way before it as well as to batter the Parapet of the West Flank of the Demy Bastion. This Battery has also one or two Mortars near it, and being the Work of the Lorrain Regiment quartered in Peddanagues Pettah, shall henceforward be distinguished by the name of the Lorrain Battery. They also at the same time began to throw large Shells from four or five Mortars, lodged behind the West End of the Epaulment which they had formed to the Northward from the sea side (and which is beforementioned in this Journal as an Intended Parallel) about 300 feet in length, and Four hundred and fifty Yards from the Salient Angle of the Covered way before the Demy Bastion. As We had near 12 Pieces which fired on the Enemys Western Battery it was soon silenced and two of their Guns knocked to pieces. from their Mortar Battery they continued throwing Shells till near eight at Night and then left off having thrown in the whole about 70 or 80 most of them 13 Inch Shells, without killing one person and only Slightly wounded two or three. Most of the Shells were directed at the Houses and a great many at the Governours Quarters in the Fort House two fell on it and broke thro the first Terras and twelve or thirteen others fell in or upon the Buildings of the inner Fort.

The Intelligence brought in this day by Hircarrahs was confirmed at ten oClock at Night by the Receipt of Letters from Capt. Preston and Usoff Cawn giving an Account that in the Morning by break of day they were attacked by the Enemy whose Force consisted of at least 400 European Foot besides Horse, the Advantage at first was on the Enemys side, but they were soon repulsed leaving two Officers and 30 Europeans dead on the Spot. Captain Preston in a Letter of yesterday received at the same time as the above, mentions that he has received Five Deserters came in this Day from the Enemy some of them were in the Action with Usoff Cawn this morning and agree that the Enemy have suffered very considerably and that many fell on our side also.

Wednesday the 3<sup>d</sup>.—The Enemy have not fired one Shot or Shell since Eight oClock last Night to the end of this day. in the morning it was observed that the Enemy had closed the Embrasures of their Western (or Lorrain) Battery which had been much disordered by our Fire yesterday in order as it is supposed to repair them and wait the Arrival of more Cannon or the opening of another Battery to support the Fire of that, it is imagined that they are not yet ready to begin their Attack and that the Fire of yesterday was only intended to amuse Us while they detached a part of their Force to Attack Usoff Cawn. The Deserters say their Battery to the Northward is to consist of twenty Bouches à feu Cannon and Mortars and another behind the Burying Ground of 8 Pieces.

A Letter was dispatched this Evening to M<sup>r</sup>. Brooke at Pulicat advising him of the Intelligence received from Capt. Preston of the Surprising of Sadras by M<sup>r</sup>. De la Tour directing him to communicate the same to the Baron Van Eck as well as the passage in the intercepted Letter from M<sup>r</sup>. Boyelleau quoted in this Journal the 31st. Ult. See the Letter in the Appendix N<sup>o</sup> 126.

Dispatched two Letters One to Capt. Preston and One to Usoff Cawn Congratulating them on their Success and advising them when they move to Vendalour to throw up an Entrenchment & Breast Work to Secure their Camp from any Sudden Surprise. See the Appendix.

Every thing has seemed remarkably quiet in the Black Town this day, few of the Enemy have appeared on their Works or about the Streets, several Partys of thier [sic] Horse European & Country have observed to cross the plain from Egmore towards their Camp in the Black Town, several of their Boats set out from S<sup>t</sup>. Thomé for the Southward.

The Intelligence received this day is as follows.

A Hircarra who was last Night in the Black Town says that he Slept there, that about 3 oClock in the morning a Party of the Enemy he thinks about three hundred Foot, and two hundred Horse, and a Braminy named Rangopunt with some Black Horse and Seapoys marched out and he went With them as far as Turings Garden. That at their Battery yesterday two Guns were rendered useless and about fifty Men killed and wounded in different parts of the Black Town That about 100 Europeans and some Blacks from Nellour joined the French Army which he heard were the People that were saved after the Battle with the Rajah to the Northward. In the afternoon Mahomed Azam a Considerable Merchant of S<sup>t</sup>. Thomé came from thence, He says that for the last four days, the French have kept a hundred European Horse, a hundred European Foot and two Companys of Seapoys there. That the Battle fought yesterday at Trivembore was a very Sharp one and the Loss of the Enemy great. That this morning a very large Detachment from the Enemy marched towards the Mount, He heard of this from good Hands but the Detachment did not pass thro' S<sup>t</sup>. Thome. He came from S<sup>t</sup>. Thome by the way of the sea Side and saw not a Single Guard or Centinel. He further says that S<sup>t</sup> Thome is given to the managem<sup>t</sup> of Padre Antonio who has hoisted Portuguese Colours, That Ramatulla Cawn Vackeel of Balazarow at Pondiche[r]ly accompanys M<sup>r</sup> Lally, and lived in this Merchants House at S<sup>t</sup> Thome untill three days ago when he went away to the Black Town upon the approach of Usoff Cawn. This Mahomed Azam is returned to S<sup>t</sup> Thomé and has promised to send Accounts of what passes.

—FORT ST. GEORGE, JANUARY 1759.—

This Evening a small Vessell was seen coming from the Northward a Cattamaran was immediately dispatched with a Letter to the Commander informing him of our Situation and desiring him to Anchor close in between the Sea Gate and Southermost Bastion the French Ship lying off the Black Town hoisted English Colours, night coming on before the Cattamaran could reach the Vessell, lights were hung out on the Flag Staff and many Shot & Shells fired at the Enemys Quarters to warn the Vessell that the Town was besieged and that the Enemy lay to the Northward hoping thereby to prevent her falling in their hands, at ten oClock at Night the Cattamaran returned not having been able to reach the Vessell.

Thursday the 4th.—This morning We had the Mortification to see the Vessell a small Sloop which appeared last Night in the offing Anchored close by the French Ship.

This morning four Embrasures at the Lorrain Battery appeared open and Guns mounted, We fired briskly at them for some time upon which they thought proper to draw in their Guns without Firing a Shot, and closed up the Embrasures. Their Work by the sea side seems to be in great forwardness.

All the Cooleys & Working People that can be collected have been constantly and are still employed in the Fortifications, in securing places for the Soldiers off of Duty, the Hospital and other places.

Nothing remarkable has happed [sic] this day. no Letters have been received or sent.

Four thousand Rupees advanced the Governour for presents to Hircarrahs, Spies and other Secret Services and twelve hundred Pagodas to the Military Storekeeper to pay for Gunpowder made & delivered before the Siege.

At Noon came in a Hircarrah who was sent last Night to remain at the pass of Marmelon Brooke he stayed there till 8 oClock this morning and saw nothing go or come except Cooleys & Carts with Firewood Straw &c<sup>a</sup> for the French Camp. He heard a Report from some that Usoff Cawns Camp was moved to Covelon, from others that he was gone to Wendalour. He saw very few People near the Garden House and the Camp which was at Turings Garden has moved further Northward towards Egmore.

Friday 5th.—This morning the Enemy had Seven Embrasures open at their Battery by the sea side but they closed them again upon our firing.

Twenty Boats went this day from S<sup>t</sup> Thomé to the Southward.

Nothing rema[r]kable happened this day.

In the Evening on the Engineers representing that a Battery of four or five pieces mounted on the covered way before the Saliant angle of the Demy Bastion would be of great Use against the Enemys North Battery by the sea side it is ordered to be executed with all Expedition and a Working Party is accordingly appointed to set about it this Night. The Guns on this Battery are to fire thro' Embrasures opened in the glacis which is to serve as a Parapet, The Fire consequently will be low and Grazing, and as the Parapet cannot be ruined must greatly incommode the Enemy.

INTELLIGENCE.—At seven in the morning the Hircarrah who went to Capt. Preston & Usoff Cawn with the Letter of the 3<sup>d</sup>. returned this morning without any Letter he says he delivered those he was charged with about Nine yesterday morning when the Camp was at Wendalour but they moved an hour after towards Condangalattour Capt Preston and Ustoff Cawn ordered him to go to Tribambour and send away three of our Men who were wounded in the Action and left behind when the Army moved. He went there accordingly and found one European and one Black whom he sent away and accompanied them himself as far as the Mount. He heard that the French had sent some People before and carried away five or Six of their own wounded and two of ours. Coming from the Mount to Town he saw nothing extraordinary. At ten in the Morning a Man came in from the French Camp and reports that they had sent a large Detachment to make a third attack upon Ustoff Cawn, but hearing he was moved further off they returned. He heard that Muzeher Beg and other Black Forces were ordered last Night to go to Covelon to meet some convoy of Ammunition and Stores. At seven in the Evening A Hircarra came from S<sup>t</sup> Thomé with an Account that they have landed there from several Boats one hundred Barrells of Powder a large Number of heavy Shot and Shells. That the Powder and Shott were lying upon the sea side this afternoon at 5 and the Shells were carried up near the Bungalo. That Eight Camels are employed in bringing up the Shells four upon each Camel and the Shot are brought four upon each Bullock. Their Force at S<sup>t</sup> Thomé he takes to be about 50 Europeans two Companys of Seapoys and fifteen European Horse. He came here by the way of Trivelicane from thence down to the Fishermens Hutts and across the Bar and saw no Guard or Centry. At ten oClock at Night Two Hircarrahs came from Sadras with an Account that the French took Possession of the Fort and made the Dutch Chief and the rest of the Garrison Prisoners. That they took M<sup>r</sup> Smith, our Resident and sent him to Pondichery. These Hircars were dispatched from hence with a Letter to M<sup>r</sup> Smith which they found means to convey to Chingleput as well as a Letter which was dispatched from hence afterwards by a Cattamaran.

Saturday the 6th.—This morning about five oClock the Enemy Fired five or Six Shells from their Battery to the Northward of the Fort near the sea side supposed to be a Signal for opening their Battery. This Battery is the Work of Lallys Regiment and shall therefore be distinguished by the Name of Lallys Battery. Between Six and Seven OClock the Enemy began to fire from six Guns on this Battery and seven Mortars. From the West or the Lorrain Battery they also Fired from seven Guns three of which bore on the North West Face of Pigots Bastion and four with an Howitz fired against the Flank of the Demy Bastion and enfiladed the Covered way before the North Face of the Royal Bastion, they also had a Mortar or two to the Westward but they threw few shells from thence. The Fire continued pretty warm till Six in the Evening during which time the Enemy threw about 150 Shells and at least two hundred large Shotts The Damage done (except to the Houses in the Town against which their fire seemed to be levelled) is very inconsiderable, the Works having suffered little or nothing, and but one European being killed by a Shell and two Seapoys, one European Mortally wounded on one of the Bastion [sic] and two others Slightly by a Shell, and three Seapoys but several Black People were killed and wounded by the Emys [sic] Shots which passed quite over the Town upon the sand beyond the foot of the South Glacis where they had retired thinking themselves more secure than within the Walls, some Blacks were also killed in the Town. By a Deserter who came in the Evening We learnt that a shell of ours had Disabled one of the Enemys Mortars on Lallys Battery and killed three men. What other Damage We did is uncertain but our fire from Cannon and Mortars at both their Batterys seemed much Superior to the Enemys, and their Batterys appeared greatly disordered. Against Lallys Battery We had seven* Guns (three from the old North East Bastion, three from the North Lunette and four from the Royal Bastion.) Against the Lorrain Battery We had Eleven Guns (four on the Royal Bastion, two on the North West Curtain, two on Pigots Bastion and three on S<sup>t</sup> Georges Lunette) besides seven Guns on the Flank of the Demy Bastion and old North East Bastion which were not fired.

—FORT ST. GEORGE, JANUARY 1759.—

This morning about 8 o Clock a Party of the Enemy consisting of two Companys of Europeans and three of Seapoys were observed to the Southward near the Fishermens Hutts which is supposed to be a Motion made to cover their convoy of Stores from St. Thomé to the Black Town, about 2 in the afternoon 9 Boats went from St. Thomé to the Southward.

A Letter received from Usoff Cawn advising of his removal from Tribambore to Wendelour and that he has sent his wounded People to Chingleput. See the Appendix N<sup>o</sup>. 129.

Sunday the 7th. January.—The Enemy threw many Shells in the Night and at day break began to batter with their Cannon, their Shells all this day continued as before to be directed chiefly at the Houses by which many are already in ruin. Their Fire from Lallys Battery was from seven Cannons and seven Mortars, and from the Lorrain Battery from seven Cannon and one Howtz. as yesterday, they also opened another Battery this morning to the left of the Burying Ground, From whence they fired with two Pieces on the left face of the North Lunette. The Damage done to our Works by the Enemys fire is not very great. The Embrazures and Platforms are more impaired by our own Cannon than by their Shot or Shells the greater part of which flew into or over the Town. A Working Party of 100 Men are ordered to repair in the Night with sand Bags the Damaged Embrazures on the old North East, the Demy, the Royal, and Pigots Bastion and 100 Seapoys to get up two twenty four Pounders in the place of two which have had their Muzzles knocked off on the North East Bastions. The Enemys Works appeared to be much disordered by our Fire. They ceased firing about Six this Evening and our Working party in the Covered way can plainly hear them repairing their Embrazures and Platforms. We have had one European, one Coffree, and one Seapoy killed this day and two Europeans & three Seapoys wounded.

A Letter Received from Capt<sup>n</sup> Preston and one from Usoff Cawn advising that many of Usoff Cawns People having left him and fled as far as Chingleput after the Action at Trivambore they had been obliged to retreat from thence in some disorder to Chingleparmacoil from whence they intended to march back at this day to Wendalour by Usoff Cawns Letter the loss in the Action at Trivambore appears to be, Killed 2 Europeans & 65 Seapoys & wounded 6 Europeans and 121 Seapoys. See the Letters in the Appendix.

In a Letter received this day from M<sup>r</sup> Brooke Resident at Pulicat are these Passages. "I have heard that the French intend to make a Mine in order to blow up the Covered Way to the Northward, it has also been said that an Escalade is intended towards the North East or next the sea." "It is Strongly believed and expected by the French in General, but in particular by the chiefs, that Fort St George will capitulate after a Strong and vigorous Bombardment and in order to induce and bring you to this it is to be proposed that all private property will be Secured and the Companys only be surrendered to M<sup>r</sup> Lally."

The 2<sup>d</sup>. Instant at Night three Massoolah Boats were sent away to Sadrass with several of the Women Inhabitants of this Place before the News had reached Us of the Enemys having Seized that Fort, upon their arrival there, the Officer Commanding for the French received them and their Effects into the Fort (with what intention is not known) and Siezed the Boats, which he afterwards dispatched away with the same Boat People and a French man in each loaded with Military Stores for their army in the Black Town, in the Passage the Boat People Seized and Bound the French Men and brought them in here this morning with the Boats and Stores consisting of 50 Barrells of Gunpowder, Pick Axes, Sand Bags and a parcell of Miners Helmets. As a Reward to the Boat Men the Military Store-keeper is ordered to pay them the full value of all these Stores.

In order to induce the Pollygars to exert themselves in cutting off all Supplies of Provisions from the Enemy and to assist Usoff Cawn in getting provisions for his Army it is resolved to send Antazee Punt the Nabob's Vakeel, a Man well acquainted & Respected in the Country to treat with and Spirit them up, a Letter of Instructions is accordingly now wrote him and the Principal Pollygars also to Morarow the Moratta. This Evening a Flag of Truce from the Enemy brought a Letter from Mr. Lally to the Governour. See the Appendix N<sup>o</sup> 138.

A Hircar sent to the Hospital to observe whether the Enemy were beginning any work there came back with an Account that he saw Fascines and other preparations collected and some black People at Work.

Monday the 8th.—The Enemy ceased firing last night about Sun set and began to throw Shells again between Eleven and twelve and continued so all night, they also began to fire from some cannon about two o'Clock in the Morning and at day light they began to play with the same Guns and Mortars and in the same direction as yesterday with the addition of two Guns more from the Byrying [sic] Ground so that their Battery at that place now consists of four Guns, The Damage done to the Works this day is much more considerable than yesterday, the Enemy having lower'd their Embrazures having probably observed that many of their shots flew over. A Working party of 100 Europeans and two Companys of Seapoys are ordered to repair the Damages done to the Works.

The Repair of the Damages done daily to the Works being a most essential Service, for the better performing that duty it is resolved that a Pioneer Company be established to be composed of Volunteers and to consist of 6 Serjeants, 6 Corporals and 88 private who are to be excused all other Duty and to receive each half a Rupee a day extraordinary Allowance, Lieutenant Meyer and Ensign West are appointed to this Company.

This morning the French Frigate with Stores from Pondichery for the Enemy passed by the Road and Anchored opposite the Black Town.

In the afternoon a Shell from the Enemy fell into a Godown in M<sup>r</sup> Mackays House full of the Companys Salt Petre and Brimstone which took Fire and could not be extinguished for many hours the prodigious Smoke which arose drew an exceeding Warm fire of Shot and Shells upon that Quarter from the Enemy but happily no other damage was suffered than the loss of the greatest part of the Salt Petre and Brimstone.

In the afternoon a Flag of Truce was sent out with a Letter from the Governour to M<sup>r</sup> Lally in answer to that received from him yesterday. See the Appendix N<sup>o</sup> 139.

It being observed that the Enemy are erecting Works to the Westward and Southward by which the Town will be entirely Invested and annoyed on all sides, And as the Enemy will now in all probability be fully supplied with Stores of all kinds by their Frigate arrived this day, so that the Scheme concerted with Usoff Cawn for cutting off their Supplies cannot now be of the intended Use, The Governour and Field Officers assembled this Evening to consider of proper measures are of opinion that a junction should be made if possible with Capt Preston and Usoff Cawn and think it may be effected by the following plan. That orders be sent to them to march from Wendelour to the Mount on Thursday next the 11 Instant so as to arrive there in the Evening and the very next Morning March on to S<sup>t</sup> Thomé by the way of Trivambore so as to arrive there by day break by these quick Marches the Enemy possibly may not get timely Notice to Detach from their Army in the Black Town a Force to oppose them. That the same morning before day light a Detachment be made from this Garrison of 400 Europeans Infantry One Thousand Seapoys and the Troop of Horse to march directly to S<sup>t</sup> Thomé to Attack that Post and Endeavour to push thro and join Capt<sup>n</sup> Preston and Usoff Cawn which it is judged will not be very difficult, as the Enemy's Force there is much inferior to this Party. This junction made, our United Force will it is judged be of sufficient Strength to Force their way back to this Garrison should the Enemy in the meantime have made any detachments from their Army to Support their post at S<sup>t</sup> Thomé. Should this Plan succeed thus far provisions may be furnished from the Garrison Store to Usoff Cawns Army for a few days untill some further Plan of Operations may be concerted which must depend greatly on the Motions of the Enemy if they should not think it advisable to weaken themselves to the Northward, the Country to the Southward may be kept open and provisions brought in from Chingleput, if they should endeavour to hem Us in on that side something may be Attempted against the Northward. Letters were according [sic] wrote and dispatched this Night as in the Appendix.

This afternoon a shell fell into the Sorting Godown and set fire to a parcell of Brown Cloth the greatest part of which was either totally consumed or greatly damaged.

Two large Ships appeared this Afternoon to the Southward endeavouring to Work up but the Wind being adverse they Anchored to the Southward of S<sup>t</sup> Thomé so far that their Colours cannot be distinguished.

INTELLIGENCE RECEIVED THIS DAY.

A Hircar came in from Usoff Cawns Camp at Wendelour without a Letter says that he was informed there that Major Caillaud was arrived near Carangoly and was expected to join the Camp to day or tomorrow. Coming by the way of Marmelon he saw there a Considerable Number of European Horse, from thence he came through S<sup>t</sup> Thomé where he saw some Camels bringing Barrells of Powder and some Bullocks loaded with Shot & Shells. He came from S<sup>t</sup> Thomé as a Cooley with a Basket of Greens which he delivered to the People who were working near the New Hospital and from thence found means to get over to the Fort. Another came from Sadras and Reports that he came from thence the day before yesterday with M<sup>r</sup> Lambert whom he left at Covelon with a large party he judges about 200 Europeans and three or four hundred Seapoys with as many Black Horse. He came by the way of Egmore where he heard Complaints among the Enemys Country Troops for want of Rice. Another brought an Account that the Enemy continue working behind the New Hospital and are making a Deep Ditch or Entrenchment near the small upper Roomed House to the Southward of it. That they are also throwing up a Work to the Southward near the little Portuguese Church where they have brought a Small Gun.

Wednesday the 10th January.--In the last Night the Enemy carried the Trench from their North or Lallys Mortar Battery about 150 feet Westward and from thence begun a Zigzag running S. E<sup>t</sup> towards the sea. They also begun a

TO THE COMMANDER OF ARTILLERY

When any Gun or Carriage is so far wounded as to rendered [sic] unfit for Service, it is immediately to be drawn behind the Merlon and a Report made to the Governour in Writing That another Gun or Carriage may be prepared to be put in its place as soon as the Enemy's Firing ceases.

To fill up with Sand Bags such Embrasures as have no Guns or as are not in Service that the Men may not run the risque of being hurt in passing by them.

To Endeavour to keep a Constant fire upon the Enemy from our Guns & Mortars by firing them Single instead of in Salvos, as it is judged that this method will be more likely to take off the Enemy's Men and Slaken their Fire at the same time will be an Ease to our own Works.

The two Ships which Anchored yesterday to the Southward still remain there, not being able to get up; tis not yet known whether they be Friends or Enemys but the latter seems more probable.

A Hircar came in, in the Midle of the Night with a Letter from Usoff Cawn dated the 5th. he came round by the way of Poonemalee & says that the Enemy have 2 Companys of Seapoys in Garrison there. See Usoff Cawns Letter in the Appendix N<sup>o</sup>. 147.

It is resolved to make a Sally to the Southward tomorrow morning as soon as the Moon goes down which will be between four and five o'Clock, in order to drive the Enemy from their Post just beyond the Bar and at the Garden House, and destroy the Work they are erecting by the Bar, on which they have been observed from the Steeple to work briskly to day. And in order to alarm the Enemy and prevent as much as Possible their carrying on their Works to the Westward and Northward the following Orders are given out this Evening. A Serjeant and eight Men with ten Seapoys to advance from the North East Angle of the Covered way by the sea side and when they get in the direction of the Trench to give their whole Fire and retire, upon this it is supposed the Enemy will stand to their Arms, the Guns in the Covered way, the Ravelin and the Royal Bastion to be ready loaded with Grape and to fire about a Minute after the Infantry have fired. At the same time a like Party of Europeans and Seapoys to advance from the Covered way of St. Georges Ravelin towards the Hospital Bridge as near as possible then to give their whole Fire and retire to the Sortie. The Guns on the Flank of the Nabobs Bastion to be ready loaded with round Shot and the Guns of the Right hand of Lawrences Bastion and those of the left of Pigots with Grape to give fire allowing the time of about two Minutes for our own People to retire, these two Partys to march out at ten o'Clock. The like Alarms to be given in the morning at the same time that the Party marches out for the Sally to the Southward but with larger Numbers, Viz<sup>t</sup> the Subaltern on the North East Angle to march out with twenty Europeans and one Company of Seapoys, and the Officer of St. Georges Ravelin to march out with his whole Guard (except the Centrys and the Serjeant at the Barrier) and one Company of Seapoys, The Guns on the Works abovementioned to be ready loaded as before and to fire. all which was executed accordingly, with what success upon the Trenches to the Northward and Westward is not known, the Sally to the Southward will be Spoken of in the Journal of tomorrow.

INTELLIGENCE.

A Hircar from the Enemys Camp gives an Account that Rice and all sorts of Provisions are exceeding scarce there, that Mr. Bussy has the Command in Peddenagues Pettah and Mr. Lally has his Tent Pitch beyond the Bound Hedge and lives there, that they suffer no black people to go to their Batteries but he hear'd they had lost several Men there, that they have a Guard of 40 Europeans and 200 Seapoys at the Governours Garden but these to day were posted in the Tope at the back of the Garden towards the Bar and have a Field Piece Pointed down the Visto towards the sea.

Friday the 12th January. Pursuant to the Resolution taken yesterday a Sortie was made this morning to this Southward, Major Cholmondeley Brereton who Commanded the Sortie Reports that half an hour after four o'Clock this morning he marched out from the Covered way with One Company of Grenadiers and a Detachment consisting of three Officers three Serjeants and Eighty three Private with four hundred Seapoys. When his advanced Party arrived near the Bar they were fired at by some Seapoys the Enemy had placed behind a Trench who then retired immediately. He then advanced thro the Topes into a Lane which leads to the Governours Garden House and there a Trooper who was advanced before the Party bro<sup>d</sup> him word that the Enemy were posted at the End of the Lane and had one Gun pointed the way our Party was marching up he there upon gave orders for the advanced party of Granediers to move up briskly which they did and gave their fire at about thirty Yards distance from the Enemy. The Enemy then fired their Gun which was charged with Grape and then abandoned it and We took Possession, The Enemy being quite disperced our People were drawing off the Gun, when the Commandant of Seapoys brought Word that their was another Gun pointed towards the Bridge leading to the Island and desired leave to draw it off which they did. The Number killed and wounded of the Enemy is not known, We took Prisoners One Officer (the Chevalier de Militerry a Lieutenant of Lallys Regiment) and four private Men, our loss will appear by the Report hereunder.

— FORT ST. GEORGE, JANUARY 1759. —

The Chevalier de Military [sic] being much wounded and desiring to go out on his Parole that he may be attended by his own People, The Governour wrote to M<sup>r</sup>. Lally that he Should have no objection if it was agreeable to him. To which Letter M<sup>r</sup>. Lally returned an answer in the Evening, but it being too late to send out a Flag the Chevalier's departure is deferred till tomorrow. See the Letters in the Appendix.

After our Party which made the Sortie this morning was returned into Garrison the Enemy returned to their Posts beyond the Bar and were observed to be going on with their Work there and several parties of European and Black Horse were observed at different times in the day crossing the plain by Egmore towards the Southward.

One of the Ships (mentioned in this Journal the 9th. & 10th.) which Anchored to the Southward off St<sup>t</sup> Thomé weighed this morning and endeavoured to Work up but the Wind being too far Northerly She Anchored again, tis not yet known what they are, but this afternoon a Cattamaran was dispatched with a Letter which they were directed to conceal and go on board as Fishermen and if they prove to be English Ships to deliver the Letter, if not, to sell their Fish and return. The purport of the Letter is to acquaint the Commanders of our present situation and the Force of the Enemys too [sic] Ships lying to the Northward, and to direct them to come in & Anchor close between the Sea Gate Battery and South East Bastion.

This Evening dispatched a Letter to Capt Preston and one to Usoff Cawn. See the Appendix.

It being found impracticable [sic] to maintain that Order and regularity amongst the Seapoys under their own Commandants as the Nature of the Service requires, and as their is reason to beleive they may be made more usefull by being put under the Command of a Carefull European Officer, Lieutenant Charles Todd is therefore appointed to that Command and all Applications are to be made to him whenever any Seapoys are wanted for the Works or other Services, and as an Encouragement to them to do their Duty with Alacrity he is empowered to promise them that such as Shall Stand out the Seige shall receive a Suitable reward for their Service and such as shall be killed their Familys shall receive a Bounty.

Saturday the 13th January 1759. The Officer Commanding at St<sup>e</sup> Georges Ravelin last night was ordered to detach a non Commissioned Officer and six Men with ten Seapoys to the Choultry at the Hospital Bridge foot to fire every now and then into the Trench which the Enemy have Stretch'd down to the other side the Bridge and to retire after giving their fire, if Attacked, a Capt was detached from the North Ravelin to the North East Saliant of the Covered way with Orders to keep out a Party of Non Commissioned Officer and Eight Men with ten Seapoys advanced to the Boats by the sea side. Between 10 & 11 the Subaltern under the Command of the above Captain marched out to the Boats with 16 Europeans and 20 Seapoys with orders to advance towards the head of the Enemys approach give fire and retire, While he lay at the Boats the Enemy brought a Field Piece to the Head of their Trench and fired some Grape at his Party which wounded two Europeans and one Seapoy.

about five o Clock this morning the Straw Hutts and Stacks of wood behind Lallys Battery took Fire by a shell thrown from one of our Batterys and continued burning for a long time, about [?] it reached a Magazine and by the greatness of the Explosion and different burstings it is imagined a Considerable Quantity of Powder and loaded Shells must have blown up.

This morning it appeared that the Enemy had in the Night covered the Head of their Zigzag by beginning a Parallel or return near the Beach and carrying it Westward about 100 feet. To the Westward nothing was done so that it is probable the Trench made there is only to secure their Battery near the New Hospital. On the south side of the Bar the Enemys Seapoys have worked hard all day to finish a Breast Work they had thrown up from the sea side quite to the Huts of the Fisherman.

Altho the Passage from Bombay was made at this Season of the Year by Admiral Watson in a Single Ship in one Month, yet as that was looked upon to be very extraordinary the same Success cannot now be reasonably depended on from a Number of Ships in Company, besides as the time of their sailing does not appear to have been absolutely fixed tho' the Admiral mentions it is intended in a few days, it is to be feared they may still be retarded by unforeseen Events procrastinations and delays too common with Shipping as we severely experience in the disappointment and want of these long expected Succours which were embarked in England above 12 Months ago arrived at Bombay the 14th. of November and, tho the Superiority of the Enemy on this Coast and our reasonable expectation of a Siege are so well known there, were not even intended to be dispatch [sic] to Us till some days after the 3<sup>d</sup>. December. however as such News must be discouraging to the Garrison it is thought proper to Publish that these Succours actually Sailed the beginning of December and are daily expected to arrive, but in the mean time to depend on nothing but our own efforts.

By the same Boat M<sup>r</sup>. Brooke has also sent Copies of the advices brought up by the Thames Capt Wedderburne from M<sup>r</sup>. A Non Commission Officer and eight Seapoys were detached from St<sup>e</sup> George's Ravelin about Eleven o'Clock to observe the Enemys Motions, they advanced as far as the Hospital Bridge where they discovered a Party of the Enemy about fifty men advancing towards the Bridge upon which our party gave their Fire & retired the Enemy crossed the Bridge and fired twice which was returned from the Ravelin, and the Seapoys in the covered way. A Constant Fire of small Arms was kept up by the Seapoys posted in the North Front and by Grape Shot from the North Ravelin upon the Enemy's Works the whole Night, but notwithstanding these Interruptions, they extended their Crochet at the Head of their Second Zigzag, Westward, about 15 or 20 Yards at the foot of the Glacis, but left it very rough and unfinished.

INTELLIGENCE.

Some Parties of the Enemy both European & Country were seen at different times in the day crossing Egmore plain to the Southward. In the Evening several Hircars came in from the Enemys Camp and all agreed in a Report, that they have a Design to make an Assault upon the Fort this Night, That the News of our Ships leaving the Malabar Coast and the Approach of Usoff Cawn had determined them to this Attempt. Some of the Hircars say they saw their Men served with Drums and a Number of Hand Grenades prepared for that purpose.

Upon this Intelligence the Whole Garrison was ordered to lay by their Arms at their Several Alarm Posts, And the Company's Servants and Inhabitants did the same.

Thursday the 25th. January 1759.—About 10 oClock last Night a Trooper who was patrolling to the South ward, Deserted with his Horse, upon which the Parole was changed.

In the Evening the Commanding Officer sent a Party of a Serjeant and ten Men from the Guard at the North East Blind, to take post at the Palmira Stockade with orders to Annoy the Enemy in case they Attempted to make any new Approach. they remained in quiet possession some time, till about seven oClock the Enemy advanced up a Body of about 40 or 50 Men, upon which our Party retired, and were again sent out with a Serjeant and ten Grenadiers to support them, just as they were going out upon the Sortie the Serjeant of Grenadiers was Shot, upon which the party was ordered to return. A Constant Fire was kept all Night of Cannon, Mortars & Musketry upon the Enemy's Works, but they notwithstanding pushed their Approaches from the Ridge of the Glacis quite to the Palmira Stockade, in a Line almost Parallel to the Covered way and made a Return behind the Stockade down to the Surf, which they worked hard at all day in spite of all the Interruption We could give them.

At two oClock in the Afternoon a Sally was made by the Guard of the North East Blind with Arms, the Grenadiers in Reserve being ready to support them, and a Party of the Pioneers, consisting of an Officer, one Serjeant, one Corporal, and twenty Men without Arms, with an intent to destroy the Enemy's Works, The Party with Arms gained the Enemy's Trenches and the Pioneers fell to Work; but a Considerable Body of the Enemy coming to support their advanced Guard our party was order'd to retire. In this Sally Capt Black and Lieut<sup>t</sup> Fitzpatrick were wounded, One Serjeant and two Men killed, and two Men wounded.

Several remarkable Smokes were seen this day to the Westward supposed to be made by the Enemy on purpose to deceive Us. Their European and Black Horse were drawn up this Morning by Egmore Powder House, Their European Grey Horse in the Center, Troopers on their Right and Left and their Black Horse on the Wings, in which posture they remained the greatest part of the forenoon and then some parties moved to Capt Maskelyne's House, some remained at Egmore. This Evening the Enemy drew off one of their Guns from the Southward.

Monday the 29th January 1759.—The Enemy did not Apparently during the night Work at their Approaches but about one in the Afternoon they were observed throwing up Earth thro a small Hole near the Banquet at the head of the Ramp on the Eastern Covered way under which they were making a Descent from the Palmira Stockade into the Dry Ditch or else carrying on a Gallery with an intent to blow up the Counterscarp and were discovered by the Accidental falling in of the Earth.

— — FORT ST. GEORGE, JANUARY 1759. — —

About Eleven oClock in the forenoon a Sail appeared in the S. E., The French Frigate hoisted an English Jack at her Main top Mast head, and made ready for sailing, as did also the Harlem, The Frigate at this time lay abreast of the North East Bastion but out of the reach of our Guns, and the Harlem abreast of Lallys Battery. about 3 oClock in the Afternoon the Ship had worked so far in, that We could distinguish her Colours to be a Blue Ensign and a Pendant, and thereupon as well as by her appearance judging it probable that she might be a Companys Ship a Cattamaran was sent off with a Letter to the Commander acquainting him of our being besieged, that the two Ships in the Road are French the one a Frigate of 20 Guns, the other an old Dutch Indiaman taken by them, that as the supplies he may have on board especially Military may be of great Service he must run all risques to get into the Road, and if the Enemys Ships should Attempt to oppose him, he must make a running fight and Anchor under the Guns of the Fort between the Sea Gate Battery and the Southermost Bastion and acquainting him also that two or three Massoolah Boats should be sent off with some seamen left here by the Squadron. After the Cattamaran was dispatched the Governour sent for the petty Officers and Seamen belonging to the two Frigates which were run ashore off S<sup>t</sup> David (these are the same people spoken of in this Journal the 17 December,) and proposed to them to go off in Boats to assist to bring in the Ship and to defend her, in case she Should be Attacked, but they desired to be excused, saying they did not chuse to go off to a Merchant Ship, A Boat was however dispatched and the Governour thought proper to send off M<sup>r</sup> Alexander Dalrymple the Sub Secretary that he might give the Commander all Necessary information with a Verbel Order to acquaint the Commander (if the Ship Should prove an English one) to hoist four Lights in the Shrouds, and that We should hoist three Lights at our Flag Staff, as a Guide for the Ship to Anchor. Night came on before the Cattamaran or Boat reached the Ship & our Lights were hoisted accordingly, about ten oClock the Cattamaran returned with a Letter from Capt Cornelius Inglis, by which We had the pleasure to learn that the Ship is the Shaftesbury from Bombay with 31 Sick Men of the Kings Battalion on board that he left that place the 18th. December in Company of the Queenborough Man of war of 20 Guns, the Revenge (Companys Frigate) of 20 Guns, the Winchelsea, Britannia, Prince of Wales, and Tillbury which Ships have Colonel Drapers 6 Companys on board that they parted from off Zeylon the 7th. Instant and may be hourly expected. before the Cattamaran returned We observed several Guns fired in the Offing. about 11 oClock the Boat returned with M<sup>r</sup> Dalrimple who informed us that the French Frigate had run close up to the Shaftesbury upon which the latter fired a broad side into the Frigate which she returned immediately dropped to Leeward, and the Shaftesbury came in and Anchored under our Guns. The Letter sent off to Capt. Inglis & his answer are entered in the Appendix Viz<sup>t</sup>.

This morning the Enemy opened four Embasures in a Battery on the Crest of the Glacis before the Face of the Demi Bastion with an intent to batter the Salient Angle of that Work but after firing five or Six Rounds from three Guns which threw their Shot quite over the Fort the Enemy found our fire on them so Warm and their Battery so ill Constructed that they closed the Embrasures for the rest of the day.

As the French Frigate dropped away to Leeward last Night after receiving one broad side from the Shaftesbury, it is imagin'd that the Enemy took her to be a Man of War, in Order therefore to continue them in that Opinion the Governour wrote off to Capt Inglis at 5 oClock this Morning that he would Salute him from the Fort with 13 Guns and directed him to keep his Blue Ensign and Pendant flying, which was done accordingly. As soon as the day broke, the Enemy began to fire from 1 Gun in their Trenches to the Northward and their two Gun Battery to the Southward, upon the Shaftesbury and some of their Shot took place which obliged her to go further out, of which Capt. Inglis acquainted the Governour by Letter. About 8 oClock an order was sent off to Capt Inglis to send ashore the hand Granades and Fuzes Consigned for this Settlement, but the Capt wrote for Answer that they were at the Bottom of the Ship and could not be got at without Lumbering the Guns, that however if he is judged to be in no danger of the French Ship's [sic] he will set to Work to get at them. The French Frigate now appeared again in the Offing a Considerable way to Leeward endeavouring to Work in and by 10 oClock had gained so much that it seemed probable she might fetch into the Road by Noon upon which the Governour wrote off to Capt. Inglis that he was Apprehensive the two French Ships would Attack him if he continued at the distant he then lay from our Guns and therefore that he judged it better for him to come close in, in little to the Northward of our Southermost Bastion, Promising to send him such Orders in the Evening as should appear necessary upon the Motions of the Enemys Ships and in the mean time desired his opinion whether he could with Safety weigh in the Night and proceed to Pulicat to which about 11 oClock he returned an answer That if the Frigate Should get in and the other Ship weigh to Attack him he will come in as directed and add that he thinks he could safely go to Pulicat where he could shift the Ship and come at every thing. Between two and three oClock the Frigate had got abreast of the Shaftesbury but out of Gun Shot then tack'd and Stood off near an hour, and then tacked and stood in again, during this interval of the Frigates tacking twelve Massoolah Boats went [were?] sent off from the Black Town; supposed to have Men on board for the Frigate as they made Sail towards her and passed the Harlem, After the Frigate had Stood in again some time the Harlem was observed to be getting under Sail upon which the Governour wrote to Capt Inglis that he would have him take the first favourable Opportunity to Proceed to Pulicat and Wait there for further Orders or untill he Should be joined by the Warren or some other Companys Ships, but before this Letter could get off the Harlem was under Sail Also bearing down to the Shaftesbury who by this time was also under Sail and standing out to get a little Offing in order to fetch in to the Birth Assigned her under our Guns, accordingly after having stood out about a Quarter of an hour, she tacked and Stood in, ther [sic] Harlem at the same time bearing down towards her, but out of the reach of our Guns, they soon came abreast of each other and exchanged many Shot before the Shaftesbury got into her Birth, not one of which to all appearance took place on either side when the Shaftesbury Anchored, the Harlem Anchored also abreast of her barely within reach of our Guns, and the Frigate without the Harlem which last continued firing at the Shaftesbury till dark as did also the Enemys two Gun Battery to the Southward and one Gun from their Trenches to the Northward and several Shot from both these took place, Between five and Six oClock in the Evening Capt Inglis acquainted the Governour by Letter that he could now see no safety in going out and must depend on our Guns for protection that his Rigging is a good deal damaged and that he is of Opinion the Enemy will Attempt to board him in the Night adding that he has 37 Chests of Treasure on board on the Company's Account. To this Letter the Governour Returned an Answer that if the Enemys Ships should [depart?] from their present Station or the Land Wind give him (Capt Inglis) an Opportunity of getting out he would have him by all means proceed to Pulicat but if that Should not be practicable and the Enemy should make any Attempt it would be better to run the Ship ashore than suffer her to fall into the Enemys hands but not till the last extremety, and directed him to send all the Companys Treasure ashore. In Consequence of these directions all the Companys Treasure being 37 Chests were sent ashore and lodged in the Treasury Godown in the inner fort and Capt. Inglis at the same time wrote to the Governour that his Ship had received Several Shot between Wind and water and is much damaged in her rigging and so much exposed to the Enemys Batterys that he Apprehends they will sink her should he continue in his present Birth till day light; that he Apprehends great danger of being taken Should he put out, and therefore Desires positive orders either to make that Attempt or to run the Ship ashore that however Should he not receive any orders he is determined to way with the Land wind and fight his way thro the Ships, he adds that Mr. Brown an Officer of Colonel Drapers Battalion had lost a Leg and an Arm by one of the Enemys Shot to which the Governour replied that he could only add to what he had already said that if he (Capt. Inglis) Should see less probability of escaping than of falling into the Enemy's hands should he weigh it would be by no means adviseable to Attempt it, but that he is of Opinion the Enemy cannot Sink the Ship tho' they may hurt her. At day break the Enemy began to fire upon the Shaftesbury from their two Gun Battery to the Southward and two Guns from their Trenches to the Northward and continued firing at her all day but not so briskly from Nine oClock as in the beginning, many of their Shot Struck the Ship, The Harlem came something nearer in, and fired at the Shaftesbury the greatest [part?] of the morning but to very little purpose by reason of her great distance which made her Shots very uncertain, tho many of them flew into and Some over the Town, We fired at her from our Batterys but to all appearance few, if any, took place; early in the morning the Frigate weighed and Anchored again abrea[s]t of the Enemy's Southern Battery out of the reach of our Guns. At Seven oClock in the Morning an Officer came ashore from the Shaftesbury with a message to the Governour that the People are very unwilling to continue on board, as the Ship is so much exposed to the Enemy's Battery, upon which the Governour wrote to the Captain to encourage his people to Stay by the Ship, as in all probability the Enemy will Slacken their fire when they observe that they are little regarded and upon the arrival of our fleet which is hourly expected the French Ships must move off; and indeed as We have no Bomb proof places the people would be as much exposed to danger here from Shot & Shells as on board. This had the desired Effect for in an hour after, the Captain wrote to the Governour that all his people were determined to Stay by him to the last and adds that he had Received three Shot between Wind and Water. and in another Letter he mentions that his rigging is much hurt that his Mast is wounded and that the Enemy fire red hot Shot. The Enemys Horse were in Motion this day to the Westward, and by the haste with which some of their parties seem'd to move there is reason to beleive either that there has been some Action or that our Black Army is very near.

INTELLIGENCE.

A Seapoy sent out by Kersa Sing into the French Camp for Intelligence a Month ago returned to day and reports that the Enemy obliged him to Work on their Batterys and other Works, that it is generally said they have lost a great Number of men killed and wounded, that they are by all Opportunitys sending away the Plunder of the Black Town to Pondichery both by sea and Land that he made his escape this Morning to St<sup>e</sup> Thomé where he saw about One Company of Europeans and Some Seapoys at the Garden House he judges about three Companys of Europeans are posted to protect their Guns at the Bar. That a party of Seapoys with two Field Pieces have been sent to Trivitore to watch the Motions of Usoff Cawn, That the Enemy have hanged several of the Nabobs Hircars whom they have intercepted with Letters, and he says that they sent some Cannon & Timber on board their Ship.

No advices have been received from Captain Preston and Usoff Cawn of the Event of Yesterdays Action, some parties of the Enemys European and Country Horse were seen returning from the Westward to the Black Town.

The Harlem and the French Frigate continue at Anchor as Yesterday the Shaftesbury remains still close under our Guns not having been able to move for want of Boats to carry out an Anchor the Massoolas being unfit for that Service and the Ship's Pinnace, Yaul, and Long Boat being Stove by the Enemys Shot, but the Capt writes that he has made a Raft with which he hopes to carry an Anchor out and to get further off by the morning.

Sunday the 4th February 1759.—This morning the Enemy again opened the Embrasures of their Battery on the Crest of the Glacis but closed them again after firing a few Shot. In their other Works no alteration appears. About Seven this morning the Gallery under the North Counterscarp being advanced above 70 feet the Earth fell in at the end and the light came thro' but the Minors [sic] stopt the hole so soon that it is beleived the Enemy did not discover it, however the Engineer directed the Gallery to be filled 5 or 6 feet back and the return for the Chambers to be made immediately.

In the Night a Hircar arrived with a Letter from Usoff Cawn dated the 4th. wherein he represents several difficulties in Attempting to Join Us, such as that he is in want of money Ammunition and Flints, that the passes are fortified by breast Works and the Enemy are Strongly posted on all sides to oppose him, that it cost him a Months time to resseemble after the Action at Trivambore and Should he now meet with a Repulse he must expect the same effect, that it is a difficult matter to manage Country Troops, that he is resolved to proceed to the Mount and Wait there for Ammunition and Stores from Chingleput and then make a push however that these are only his intentions, but he will be obedient to the orders he may receive. See the Appendix. N<sup>o</sup> 254.

Upon the Receit of the abovementioned Letters a Hircar was presently dispatched with Letters to Captain Preston & Usoff Cawn pressing them by all means to make a push immediately without waiting for Stores from Chingleput as the Longer they delay the Attempt the more their difficulties for provisions &c<sup>c</sup>.

This Afternoon a Ship under French Colours Anchored off St. Thomé and by her Appearance is judged to be the Bristol (which went from hence the 30th of last Month) with Stores from Pondicherry and as she is supposed to be but of Small Force the Governour in the Evening wrote off to Captain Inglis [sic] that he beleived he might take her without much difficulty, and if he Should be of the same Opinion he would send him off all the People he had landed of his Ships Company with a Detachment of Forty Military. About Nine at Night Capt Inglis answered that he had examined his Officers in regard to the Condition of the Ship and that he found it would be impossible to get under Sail this Night but that if the people were sent aboard he would immediately set about getting the Ship in readiness to execute the Design. Upon the receipt of which Letter the people belonging to the Ship were immediately sent off with a Letter from the Governour recommending it as necessary to get under Sail very early in the morning before the Sea Wind set in and promising to send off a Detachment in the Night, and forty of the Kings Marines were accordingly embarked. ## INTELLIGENCE.

That provisions are very Scarce in their Camp and they depend on their daily Supplies from the Country which can come only from the Southward as Maulrauze and the other Pollygars plunder everything coming in from the Northward.

Nothing remarkably either in the Military, Artillery or Seapoys.

This morning at Five oClock a Hircar brought in Letters from Major Caillaud and Usoff Cawn, both but particularly the first, Offering their Reasons for thinking the Junction with Us upon the plan recommended not only impracticable with the Troops they have, but even that, they may be more usefully employed in harraising the Enemy and cutting off their Supplies, however that Should it be thought adviseable, notwithstanding their Representations, to make the Attempt they will do their best. The Hircar who brought the above Letters reports that he came by the way of St. Thomé Tank but was taking by the Enemys Centrys and carried to their Camp on the Choultry plain where he found their Forces, (consisting as he judges of about 1200 Horse European & Country besides Seapoys with Some Guns) ready to march towards our Army at the Mount; That he found means to make his escape, and passing on by the St. Thomé Road he met between St. Thomé and Triplicane a party of the Enemy Consisting of Seven hundred Europeans and four Guns, That he took Occasion to enter into discourse with the Bullock People belonging to the Guns who informed him that they were to march by the way of Tervembore and Attack our Army on One Side, while Their Forces from the Choultry plain Should Attack them on the other.

At day break a Cannonading was heard and the Smoke of Guns was soon after discovered at or near the Mount, it continued very briskly the greatest part of the forenoon, and the same was observed again in the Afternoon, tho' not so warmly, till dark, between ten and Eleven oClock Three Pickets (about 150 Men) marched across Egmore plain in great haste towards the Southward and Several Tumbrils also passed the same way supposed to be a Reinforcement for the Enemys party at the Mount. From ten in the forenoon till the Evening Horsemen were seen continually passing to and from the Mount or on that Road and many Pallankeens, Dooleys and Cots with Men on them, supposed to be wounded crossed Egmore plain to the Northward.

In the Evening Letters were dispatched to Major Caillaud Captain Preston and Usoff Cawn That to Capt. Preston commending his Conduct, those to Major Caillaud and Usoff Cawn approving their Plan for employing their Forces instead of Attempting a Junction with Us. See the Appendix.

The Enemy seem to use great diligence in unloading their Ship off St. Thomé many Boats having passed to and from the Shore and the Ships Boats have also frequently passed between the Ship and two Small Vessells which lay nearer in shore.

In the Forenoon a Cattamaran was dispatched to Trivembore to land a Hircar there who was charged with a Letter to Major Caillaud purporting that if he Should be in want of Ammunition for his Field Pieces We can Supply him from hence, if he will appoint a place by the sea side, and People to receive it at a particular time. No Advices that may be any wise Relyed on have yet been received of the Event of the Cannonading yesterday by the Mount.

The French Ship which Anchored off St<sup>r</sup> Thomé the 8th Sailed in the Night and was almost out of Sight by break of day, the two Small Vessells which lay off St<sup>r</sup> Thomé, and on board of which part of the Ship's Cargo, it is supposed, was Transported for dispatch, Still lye there; This morning a Schooner appeared at Anchor in the N. E. and from many Circumstances being Judged to be the Companys Schooner Cuddalore from Pulicat, the Governour sent off a Cattamaran with an Order to the Master, to weigh with the sea wind, and, if possible, to reach St<sup>r</sup> Thomé and endeavour to take or destroy the two Small Vessells abovementioned which are beleived to be of no Force. In the Afternoon he accordingly run down to them and after firing several Shot, tacked and Stood to the Northward and Night coming on Anchored abreast of the Bar.

The Master being come ashore the Account he gives of his ill success is, that the Vessells hauled into such Shoal Water that he could not get nearer to them than he did in the Sloop and his People being all Lascars he could not prevail on them to Attempt any thing with the Ship's Boat, and with difficulty to assist in working the Sloop; So much were they terrified at the Fire which the Enemy kept from the Shore with two Field pieces and a party of Musketeers. The Overture made by the Morattas to Join Us on the terms mentioned in Major Caillaud's last Letter having been Considered, it is judged that, tho' the Fate of Madras must in all probability be decided before they could join Us, yet their assistance afterwards, should the Siege, be raised, may enable Us greatly to distress the Enemy, but as their Treatys and Friendship cannot be relied on, it is Apprehended that Should the Seventeen Lacks of Rupees they demand be paid them down upon their putting Us in Possession of the Countrys now held by the French, an Advantageous Offer from the Enemy would easily engage them to assist in dispossessing Us again, and therefore if a Treaty could be concluded with them on Terms that might bind them to our Interest with equal Advantage to themselves it would be more eligible, and the means which appear the most reasonable to effect this purpose, are, the promise of some ready money upon being put in possession of those Countrys, and an absolute Engagement to be answerable to them for the Annual Chout (of which they have received but little for some Years) so long as they remain under our Management. Upon this Plan Letters were wrote dispatched away this Evening by Hircars to Balazarow & Gopaul Harry the Moratta Generals and to Major Caillaud and Usoff Cawn empowering the two last in case such a Treaty can be set on foot to give an obligation for five Lacks of Rupees to be paid in ready money on our being put in possession of the Contries now in the hands of the French. ## —FORT ST. GEORGE, FEBRUARY 1759.—

all probability must have down [sic] great execution in this Battery, there were found in it 7 Guns 18 & 24 lb<sup>r</sup> with their Carriages all disabled and some of them overset in a very confused manner.

The Lodgment on the East side of the Covered way and behind the Stockade was nothing more than a little Earth thrown up into Some Gabions placed without Order.

The Crochets or Demy Parallels were formed in the same manner as their common Zig Zags, which were a kind of flying Sap about four feet broad.

Near the foot of the Glacis on the Face of a Zig Zag was a Battery of 4 Embrasures intended to ruin the Parapet and dismount the Guns of the Right face of our North Ravelin, but the Allignment of the Parapet was so far from Parallel to its object that it was hardly possible to twist the Embrasures into an opening that the Guns might see our Works. Here lay four 24 lb<sup>r</sup> disabled and their Carriage[s] ruined.

In that part of the 2<sup>d</sup> Crochet to the right of the Zig Zag where the Enemy had fired from three 8 & 10 Inch Mortars they left two disabled Beds but carried off the Mortars.

The Grand (or Lally's) Battery opened 15 Embrasures of which three were directed to the Ravelin & 12 to the Demy & N: E: Bastions. Here were found 6 Guns mounted on their Carriages and tho the Enemy had fired from four of them the 16th in the Evening yet all but one had received considerable Damage on the Muzzles and were in a manner disabled, there were besides 5 Guns with Carriages and some spare ones dismounted and ruined. Behind the right wing of this Battery the Enemy for a long time had fired Six Mörtars of 12 French Inches but afterwards removed them to make room for Guns leaving two disabled Beds.

The Battery a little to the left of the Burying Ground which was well Constructed opened four Embrasures, seemingly intended to enfilade the Right face of the North Ravelin and the Covered way before it but being placed a considerable distance to the Right of the Face produced did not answer the Purpose, its greatest execution was on the face of the Demy Bastion near the Shoulder against which two Guns constantly plaid, the other two throw their Shot at random from the Angle of the Royal to that of the Demy Bastion. Here were found three Guns mounted on their Carriages which had been fired the preceeding Evening but were all damaged on their Muzzles. Five Guns in the Battery and another near lay dismounted and three Carriages by them ruined.

On the side of the old Town Ditch behind a Steep Bank opposite the Portuguese Church, were the remains of four Mortar Platforms and two disabled Beds, from hence the Enemy threw their heavy Shells after they had made their Lodgments on the Crest of the Glacis.

The Battery to the left of the old Hospital called in this Journal the Lorrain Battery was built amongst the Ruins of the Houses and had Six Embrasures from two of which the Enemy for some days battered the left Face of the Royal Bastion but afterwards with four only enfiladed the right face and the Covered way before it, took the Right Flank in Reverse and Plunged into the Demy Bastion, adjoining to this Battery on the left was another in a different direction which opened four Embrasures from when three Guns were fired for some days on the right Face of Pigots Bastion but were afterwards Silent. The Enemy did not leave any Guns or Carriages in this Battery as it was Silent for Several days before their Retreat they had time to draw off those that were good and probably buried those that were disabled. One has since been found buried in a House near the Battery.

The Battery in the Front of the New Hospital where the Company's Garden House Formerly Stood had four Embrasures and as many Guns were constantly fired from thence till within a few days of the Enemys Retreat, its purpose was to ricochet [sic] and plunge into all the Works of the North Front. There were neither Guns nor carriages found on this Battery and 'tis probable none were disabled in it, because as the Guns were always fired in ricochet the Embrasures were choaked in Front so that the Guns could not be seen.

—FORT ST. GEORGE, FEBRUARY 1759.—

In all the Batterys the Platforms were so bad, that 'tis astonishing how the Enemy worked their Guns & Mortars so quick as they did, instead of Sleepers and Plank for their Gun Platforms they had scarce any thing but the Flat Roofs of Houses or a few unequal pieces of Timber laid in the Earth without being Nailed or fastened, and none above 9 feet in length. Their Mortar platforms were of the same Nature, or made of Doors buried in the Ground and a little Straw laid on the Top to deaden the Shock.

Their Gabions were in general bad, the best of them were made of Rattans found in the Black Town, The Fascines were not much better except those which were made of the Leaves (or rather Branches) of the Coco Nut Tree and these answered very well.

All the Enemys Carriages (except 6 whose Flasks were remarkably long) were ill Shaped, extremely Short, and mounted so high that they could not be worked without great Labour.

The whole Number of Guns found on the Batterys in the Black Town, at St. Thomé and other places amount to 52 of which 33 are 18 & 24 lb<sup>m</sup> the rest 9 lb<sup>m</sup> or small Iron Field pieces.

A Great many Carriages Limbers & Tumbrils of different kinds (the Number not exactly known) were found on the Battery's and in the Park of Artillery but few of them serviceable.

Many Thousand Shot of sizes have been collected out of Wells, Tanks and Scattered on the Ground about the Black Town and these added to what have been found in the Town and about the Works will more then replace the Quantity We fired during the Siege.

150 Barrels of good Powder were found in St. Thomé and as many Casks of Ammunition great part damaged, Considerable Quantities of Powder have also been collected out of the Trenches and Batterys in Casks and flannell Bags carelessly Scattered about, and many other Military Stores which the Enemy had not time to destroy.

In the Enemys Hospital were found 44 Sick and wounded Soldiers without one Person to attend them. Mr. Lallys sudden march may account for his leaving these People behind but nothing can justify his abandoning them without leaving a Line to recommend them to our Care, They however found that Humanity in their Enemys which was denied them by their General, immediate Orders were given that the same care should be taken of them as of our own people, and the greatest part have since recovered. The Enemys precipitate retreat prevented the Destruction of the Black Town which was fully intended as appears by Mr. Lallys Letter of the 14th. February; The Houses in general have suffered notwithstanding considerable damage as well by the Loss of Doors, Windows &c, which were usefull to the Enemy as by our Shot & Shells. The Company's Garden House and the Houses belonging to the European Inhabitants in the environs and at the Mount have suffered a severer fate all of them are greatly Damaged some have only the Walls left and nothing but want of time prevented total Demolition of every one.

The Whole of our Loss during the Seige as appears by a General Return in the Appendix N<sup>o</sup>. 317 amounts to

———FORT ST GEORGE, FEBRUARY 1759———

Two Gentlemen supposed to be French Engineers were observed this morning walking on the Island to the Southward seeming to count their paces to Measure the Distance. They Stopped for some time at the Ruins of the old Powder Magazine viewing our Fortifications, but a Single Gun being fired at them from the West front they both run with all Speed toward the Garden House Bridge and disappeared.

Thursday the 14th.—Besides the Count d'Estang four French Soldiers were taken in the Sally this day and brought in Prisoners of War.

Friday the 15th.—The Guards and Out Posts remain as before besides which a Working party is ordered without Arms consisting of 1 Captain 2 Subalterns 2 Serjeants 2 Corporals 1 Drummer & 100 private Men.

The Alarm Posts for all the Troops in Garrison are establish'd & the Men acquainted therewith.

Several Deserters came in from the French at different times and belonging to different Corps who all agree in their reports that their whole Army is Drunk and plundering in the Houses about the Black Town and that they were in the same Condition last Night.

Saturday the 16th.—All the Rounds and Patroles as well in the Garrison as in the outworks for the Field officers Town Major & Officers of Guards & Out Posts are regulated and ordered.

The Enemy seemed very quiet all day and some Deserters report that our Guns having done great Execution and damage, they changed Quarters and retired to the North end of the Black Town leaving only their Guards and Piquets at this end.

Sunday the 17th.—A Coffree who has been 7 Years in the Service and was wounded in the Sally of the 14th. being unable to march in with the party and unwilling to Surrender himself Prisoner to the French hid himself in a House with two other Coffrees who were in the same case, after having remained there three days without Victuals he left his Comrades who were not able to follow him and crawl'd into the fort to join his Company.

Monday the 18th.—This morning when the Flag of Truce went out several Officers and Men of Lally's Regiment came out from behind the Houses at the entrance of the Street to look about, it is supposed their advanced Guard & Piquets are posted there to support their Works, our Guns were therefore pointed and fired at these places after the Flag returned. Some people were at the same time observed, to be Busy at some Works near the Hutt by the Seaside.

Tuesday the 19th.—This day five Boats were seen to come from the Southward & put in at St. Thomé, A Number of Cooleys and Bullocks laden, (probably with Ammunition) passed from St. Thomé to the Black Town.

Monday the 25th.—It is apprehend [sic] that when the Enemy begin to Fire from their Battery upon the Town the Dogs may run mad which often happen they are ordered to be all killed, and a Rupee to be paid for each that is brought dead to the sea Side.

Wednesday the 27th.—Deserters report. that the Battery near Sumpetrows House is to consist of 8 Guns, that at the Burying Ground of 6, and that at the sea side of 16 Pieces Guns & Mortars.

— FORT St. GEORGE, FEBRUARY 1759 —

Thursday the 28th—Yesterday Morning in several places at the foot of our Glacis Papers were observed pasted upon pieces of Board at the Top of Poles stuck into the Ground, they were suffered to remain there the whole day but as soon as it grew dark, Volunteers went out and brought them in, They prove to be Advertisement in French and English in these Words.

“Grace aux Déserteurs François qui rejoindront leurs Drapeaux et part au “Butin.”

“Pardon and part of the Plunder to the Deserters from the French who will “rejoin their colours. Dated the 27th. day of December 1758.”

In Answer to this Advertisement the following was wrote in English and French on several Papers pasted on the same Boards and at Night Planted at a Considerable distance beyond the Foot of our Glacis fronting the Enemys Works. Vizt.

“Answer to the French Gazette of the 27th. December 1758.

“A Bird in the Hand is worth Two in the Bush.

“The Deserters from the French find English money and English Treatment “of greater value than French promises of plunder without pay; And invite their “Comrades to come and better their Fortunes.”

“Reponce ala Gazette Francoise datee le 27 Decembre 1758.

“Un tien vaut mieux que Deux tu l’ aura.

A Centinel of the Company of French Deserters offered to set fire to the Enemy’s Ship the Harlem by applying a Sulphur Shell to the Rudder and throwing Granades into the Gun room. He set out Night about 11 oClock upon a Cattamaran with two Boat fellows having his Combustibles and Utensils in one Pot, and alighted Match in another, Tho the night was dark he was discovered before he reached the Ship and hailed from her, which so frightened the Boat fellows that they refused to go nearer but immediately tacked about and returned without Success.

Friday the 29th.—The Enemy having Affected to send frequently Flags of Truce and to delay ours when sent out, to Stop our firing which hitherto has done them great damage in all appearance and retarded their Works, it was ordered that the Flag of Truce on such Occasions Should go only half way to receive or deliver the Message and return immediately desiring those of the Enemy to do the same by these means our firing will be Stopt but a few minutes and if any Flag of Truce Should come from the Southward the fire from the North Front is to continue notwithstanding.

Wednesday the 3<sup>d</sup> January 1759.—Deserters from the French Camp report that about 20 Europeans arrived from Nellour who had been left behind Sick when M<sup>r</sup>. Bussy came down from the Northward—This Account seems more probable than that given by the Hircars as inserted in this days Intelligence.

Sunday the 7th.—We learn’d from the Count d’Estaing that M<sup>r</sup>. Lally resolved to undertake the Siege of this place suddenly upon receiving Advice that our expected Squadron with the Land Forces were arrived on the Mallabar Coast, Judging that several months would elapse before they could come round to Us. From many other reports and Circumstances it appears that M<sup>r</sup>. Lally himself forms but a mean opinion of our Garrison and flatters himself that a body of Merchants unprovided with Bombproofs Lodgments cannot long resist the Terror of his Shells and Shot. Whether this Opinion be just or not the event must prove. The Count d’Estaing seems to be of a different Opinion, he entertains but Small hopes from the Shot and Shells which are thrown into the Town instead of the Works, hearing them Whistle by his Window "there is no Liberty for me (said he) in these Shot."

—FORT ST. GEORGE, FEBRUARY 1759—

Tuesday the 6.—A Man belonging to the Pioneer Company who has been missing a fortnight no body being able to give any Account of him returned from the Enemys Quarters says he was made Prisoner in the Enemys Trenches in a Sally about the 23 January, that he has been confined ever since till this morning when he made his escape with two others who intended to come over to Us but that in jumping over a Wall and running towards this place he lossed [sic] them.

Compiled during the Siege.

TO MAJOR CAILLAUD

December 13th 1758

Yesterday Morning the Enemy's whole Force mov'd from the Mount and Marmelan. Our Army which was incamped upon Choultry Plain gave them some Opposition with Field Pieces, and then retired to the Garrison and Black Town.

The Enemy are encamp'd near the Garden House and have also possession of Egmore. It is said they have got two Eighteen Pounders. Other heavy Stores they expect to come by Sea to Covelon.

—APPENDIX No. 6.—

TO USOFF CAWN

I have not received any Letters from you since that dated the 5th at Tricolor. Yesterday morning the whole French Army mov'd from the Mount and Marmelan and after some Opposition from our Troops upon Choultry Plain in which Thirty or Forty of their Men were killed and several Wounded they encamped near the Garden House and our People retired into the Fort and Black Town.

Captain Preston at Changleput will acquaint you whether any Party of the Enemy is sent to oppose you, if their [sic] should, I do not doubt but you will defeat them, and advance as near as you can to this Place that We may concert together a Scheme for attacking & Routing their Army at an appointed time.

They are already much distressed for Provisions and you will easily prevent any Supplies comming to them from the Country.

Herewith is Copy of what I wrote you Yesterday. This Morning the Enemy attack'd the Black Town with the greatest part of their Force both Black and White. Our Parties thereupon retired into Garrison and about an hour after, a Sally was made upon a Body of the Enemy which had advanced as far as the Burying Ground. A very warm Action insued and the Loss of Killed and Wounded was very considerable on both sides, at length the Enemy retreated as far as the Portuguese Church, leaving Count D'Estaing and twelve or Fifteen Men Prisoners. I am informed that their Intention is to lodge their whole Force in the Black Town. If so the Communication on the South side will be open X and our Correspondence will be easily carried on.

FROM USOFF CAWN

I lately address'd you a letter advising you fully of my taking the Gady of Elwanasore, enterring Tercalore, want of Money for Expences and ruinous State of the Country. On the 17 [2] I attacked the Strong Gady of Tercalore, fought a whole day very warmly and about 8 o'Clock that night, the Enemy's People Demanded a Cowle which I accordingly granted, and I set them at Liberty with their Effects. I seized about 50 Firelocks, 2 Small Guns, Ammunition &c. In our Army 55 Men were wounded including Tondamons People and 15 Killed. Aulem Cawn and Mukendran Subadars were also wounded. In the same manner the Enemys People Suffered. I have also Delivered over this Country to Kishenraw Amuldar of Jagada. This day being the 8 I halt in this Place and am in great want for the Expences of the Army. Yesterday about 200 Horse 1500 Colliers and 250 of the Rachevars arrived in the Army, News was brought that the Tanjour Troops were set out to this side on their arrival I shall advise you.

I had the happiness to receive your Letter advising of the Examination of the Accounts of Tinnevely and Madura being finished & of the Departure of Major Caillaud and to act in conjunction with him and likewise not to pay Batty to the Troops in the Fort of Madura and Palamotah and to Punish the Enemy. As soon as the Major comes, I shall accordingly act in Conjunction with him. Concerning the Examination of the Accounts being finished, I desire you'll grant me a Separate Discharge which I shall esteem a great favour. I dont find any means for the Satisfaction of the Savacars Money. As to the Tennevely Country it has been constantly involved in Trouble on all sides. Notwithstanding, I stayed there, Now I need not urge much to you on that Head. If the Seapoys are not paid their Batty, they will on no Accounts Stay in that Country, because there are always troubles, having no time in the Fort, and nothing but pains & troubles both Night and Day, besides which Provisions are Dear for which reason the People will not agree to it you may therefore do as you please.

CAPTAIN PRESTON

Sir

Yesterday and to day nothing remarkable has happened. The French are moving all their Stores and Baggage from the Southward into the Black Town. I have received just now a Letter from Usoff Cawn advising of his having taken Tricolour the 7. My Answer is inclosed and I desire you will send it on by the same People, When he arrives at Chingleput and marches this way I would have you give him some Gunners a part of your Military, and some Seapoys if he thinks it necessary. I am informed the French intend to send away the Prisoners they took in the Action of the 14 to Pondicherry to morrow Endeavour to get intelligence on this Subject and if it be possible make a Push to retake them as I conclude they cannot afford a very strong Guard. I am surprised that I receive no Letter from you, Hircars may now easily get in from the Southward.

TO USOFF CAWN

Just now I received your Letter of the 8 advising of your having taken Tricolour, which gave me great pleasure. I have already wrote you of the Enemy's marching this way and lodging themselves in the Black Town, and of the Battle which was fought the 14 Instant in which Count D'Esting a Brigadier General was taken M<sup>r</sup> Riboux & Soubinet Killed and several other Officers were killed and Wounded; By some Deserters which are come over from the Enemy since I am informed that their loss of Men, killed and Wounded was betwen. [sic] four & five hundred. Nevertheless they are so rash as to remain in the Black Town.

I desire you will come to Chingleput where Captain Preston will order some Europeans and an Addition of Seapoys to join you, you will then proceed hither with all Expedition, and as soon as you are at a proper distance We will attack the Enemy on all sides with our United Forces so that, not one of them shall escape.

Concerning Money I have already wrote you that if it be necessary I can send a supply by Boat to Sadrass and as soon as I receive your Answer how much is wanted I will dispatch it to you. As to the Batta in the Forts of Madura and Tinnevely, if you think it necessary on account of the Dearness of Provisions, or the Disturbances of the Enemy it may be continued for the Present.

FROM CAPTAIN JASPER

Victory Madrass Road 17 Dec: 1758.

Sir

I am under the greatest Concern imaginable that I am obliged to inclose to you the determination of the People belonging to the Kings Ships, I have made use of every Argument that could excite men who had the least fire in them to proceed on the Enterprize with Chearfulness and Spirit, but to no purpose, for they appear to be insensible to every thing that carry's the face of Fame or Reputation.

In the several conferences I have had with these Men, I gave them to understand [sic] that what they was about amounted to Mutiny, and that they must Know the Consequence attending the Voilation of Order and Discipline and in what a despicable Light they must stand in the Oppinion of M<sup>r</sup> Pocock when he heard of their behaviour, in short, they was deaf to all I could urge.

—APPENDIX No. 25.—

After weighing and Considering well this unaccountable Step, I concluded it was much better to let you know it than to use the Authority that I have by confining them as Mutineers which would Create disorder and Confusion, and might embarrass you & myself. I therefore beg leave to recommend that a Boat may be sent off as soon as possible for these Men without Hearts

I propose sailing the first Moment the Wind and Weather will permit, with the Marines. We should have got under Sail on Thursday [sic] Morning, but with all the Force We could use it was impossible to get our Anchor up, I was once about giving Orders to cut the Cable, but think it very happy I did not, as We have only another Anchor & Cable to trust to. We have taken all the Care imaginable to cover our Men from the sight of the French by hanging Sails from the Fore to the main Shrowds I think myself extremely happy in having M<sup>r</sup> Holford with me for I persuade myself he is a Young Man of Spirit.

From our Glasses We cannot discover any Works that are throwing up opposite were We lay.

Monsieur

L'estime et mon devoir m'ont dicté les foibles marques d'attention que J'ai donné a vos compatriotes : si je n'étois pas votre prisonier je vous dirois que l'amitié personnelle que J'ai pour eux étoit d'accord avec ce que je devois. Vous faites beaucoup plus, vos politesses et vos attentions sont excessives, c'est la seule chose dont je puisse me plaindre, l'unique demande que J'ai eu a vous faire a été d'y mettre des bornes ; il ne m'est pas encore, permis de me nourrir a mes depends, et une des chambres les plus comodes de votre gouvernement me sert de prison ; vos visittes, et celles de Colonel Drapper me la rendent agreable ; il s'est efforcé de deviner, et de me faire rendre les plus petites choses que j'avois perdu dans l'action, soyes persuade Monsieur que ma reconnoissance égale des procédés aussi genereux. Vous n'ignorez pas ma façon de penser sur ce que M<sup>r</sup> le Comte de Lally a eu la bonté de m'écrire le 14 : vous avez vu la reponce que je lui ai fait, et ce que J'ai marqué a M<sup>r</sup> de Bussy, la proposition de M<sup>r</sup> Lally étoit dictée par l'interest qu'il daignoit prendre a ce que me regarde, elle m'étoit adressée uniquement ; c'étoit une lettre de consolation pour adoucir le premier instant de mon infortune : il ne parle plus de meme dans sa seconde lettre, il m'écrivoit dans l'inde : vous scavez Monsieur tout ce que J'ai eu l'honneur de vous dire il est inutile de le repetter, croyés je vous supplie que je regretterois de n'avoir pas reçu tous les coups qui ont porté dans mes habits si l'on m'changer oit contre autant de braves gens, je les estime trop pour y consentir, je crois qu'ils ne changeroient rien au sort de la place, mais je me reprocherois éternellement la mort de ceux qu'ils pourroient immoler en la défendant, j'ignore si M<sup>r</sup> de Lally a désapprouvé ce que j'ai mandé a M<sup>r</sup> de Bussy, je le crains : si vous vouliez, cepandant, Monsieur traiter de ma liberté sur cette baze et avoir la bonté, de me marquer ce que vous en pensés, j'hasarderois de l'en instruire, il me semble que cette proposition est totalement a votre avantage, vous vous assureries par la un moyen d'échange pour des Officiers principaux : la tres médiocre valeur de ma prise deviendroit certaine : elle paroît, maintenant, au moins douteuse, la place prise elle est nulle ; si ce que je crois impossible arivoit vous n'y perdriés rien, l'échange seroit constaté, il n'y auroit donc d'autre équivalent en faveur de M<sup>r</sup> de Lally qu'un retard fort court ; la certitude du peu que je vaus, et votre demande exorbitante m'ottent toutte esperance, et ettouffent l'extreme desir que J'ai d'etre échangé : pour quoi ? n'est il plus permis de payer soi meme sa rançon ? on le fesoit autre fois : j'offrirois a M<sup>r</sup> le Colonel Drapper le modique bien que j'ai, peutetre qu'il s'en contenteroit vous aves desir que je vous repondes en Français mas rapelles vous, je vous prie, que je vous ai répellé ; that in Business a Prisoner is like a Dead Man : mettes moi dans l'endroit qui serat le plus exposé et la moins incomode ; et surtout perméttés moi de faire acheter ici, ou de faire venir de notre camp, le peu qui serat nécessaire a ma subsistance.

AT BOMBAY.

Gentlemen

Ist Inclosed is Duplicate of our last letter dated 2<sup>d</sup> Ultimo The Oppinion We there gave of the Enemy's Designs proves to be very just, for in the beginning of this Month as soon as the heavy Rains were over there whole Force march'd directly for Madrass, the 12 after about an hours Cannonading upon Choultry Plain, they advanced as far as the Garden (late M<sup>r</sup> Munro's) about a Mile and half from the Town and there encamped. The 13th they remained in the same place, and the 14 they marched round, and entered the Black Town, the small Parties We had posted at the Different Aveques retir'd into the Garrison, and soon after a Sally was made & a very sharp Action insued ; Consequently the Number of Killed and Wounded was considerable on both sides : Major Polier is among the latter, but not dangerously. On the part of the Enemy Count D'Estaing a Brigadier General is taken, Ribout Captain of Granadiers Killed. Soubinet mortally wounded & several others Killed and Wounded as M<sup>r</sup> Lally himself writes to the Count D'Estaing. They have fixed their head Quarters at the Portuguese Church in the Black Town, and seem to be beginning upon some Works on that side. We hope We shall soon give you an Account of the Arrival of the Fleet from England and of the Enemys disappointment.

But even if We should be so fortunate, We think it will nevertheless be for the General Good that you send Us as large a Reinforcement as possible, to enable Us to make head against the French on this Coast and thereby put it out of their power to give any Disturbance to other parts of India.

From various Reports we have Grounds to beleive that Colonel Forde has defeated the French Army to the Northward.

—APPENDIX No. 29.—

We request you will also supply Us largely with good Gunpowder our Mill being in possession of the Enemy who will doubtless destroy it if they should be obliged to retreat.

If you have an Opportunity of Writing to England by Sea or Land, please to acquaint our Honble Masters with the Contents of this Letter.

To GEORGE POCOCK Esq<sup>r</sup>.

VICE ADMIRAL OF THE RED AND COMMANDER IN CHIEF OF HIS MAJESTY'S SQUADRON IN INDIA.

Sir

We have the satisfaction to hear of your passing Anjengo by your Letter to the President of the 5 November. You will find by that which We had the Honour to write you the 2<sup>d</sup> November of which a Duplicate is inclosed that We suspected the Enemy had Design's against this place; and our suspicion is verified, for in the beginning of this Month as soon as the heavy Rains were over their whole force marched directly for Madrass. The 12th after about an hour's Connonading upon Choultry Plain, they advanced as far as the Garden (late M<sup>r</sup>. Munro's) about a Mile & a half from the Town and their encamped the 13th; they remained in the same place, and the 14 they march'd round and entered the Black Town. The small Parties we had posted at the different Avenues retir'd into the Garrison, and soon after a Sally was made, and a very sharp action ensued. Consequently the Number of kill'd & Wounded was considerable on both sides. Major Polier is among the latter but not dangerously. On the part of the Enemy Count D'Estaing a Brigadier General is taken: Ribout Captain of Granadiers Kill'd Soubinet mortally wounded & several others Kill'd and Wounded as M<sup>r</sup> Lally himself writes to the Count D'Estaing. They have fixed their head Quarters at the Portuiguze Church in the Black Town, & seem to be beginning upon some Works on that side. We have no news of the Warren, nor of the Fleet under the Command of M<sup>r</sup>. Tiddeman but hope to see them in a few days and to have the satisfaction of advising you that the Design of the Enemy is frustrated.

But we have represented to the Select Committee at Bombay that although we should be so fortunate as to defeat this Attack of the Enemy, it will nevertheless be necessary for the General Good that they reinforce us with as many Men as possible, to enable Us to keep up the Opposition upon this Coast and thereby prevent any attempt upon the other Settlements: We are persuaded that you will agree in this Reasoning and enforce our Representation to the Select Committee.

Our last Letter was dated the 27 of October and has been transmitted in two Copies by Sea. To CHARLES CROMMELIN Esq<sup>r</sup>

CHIEF AT ANJINGO

Sir

We have received your favor dated the 8th November with Copy of a Request made to you by our Commandant at Pullumcota, the arrival of M<sup>r</sup> Lally oblig'd Us to withdraw all our Europeans from the Southward Countries, which is the reason the application made to you was not so regular as you expected; however it may be of great Consequence that you supply our Officer whether European or Seapoy with any material Article of Military Stores he may have occasion to apply to you for and We have already frequently made this Resquest [sic] both to the Presidency at Bombay and your Predecessors at Anjengo.

The Enemy having collected together their whole Force marched directly for Madrass the beginning of this Month the heavy Rains being over the 12th after about an hour's Cannonading upon Choultry Plain they advanced as far as the Garden (late M<sup>r</sup>: Munro's) about a Mile and a half from the Town: and there encamp'd. The Bearer of this is Mootoo Pilla Vakeel of Usoff Cawn. He is going forward to his Master and I desire you will furnish him with a Horse, and any other Assistance that may be necessary for his Journey I have already wrote you that when the Army under his Command arrives at Changleput and proceeds towards Madrass you must assist him with a few Gunners, as well as some Europeans and Seapoys if he thinks necessary; Nothing remarkable has happened to Day.

and raise a Disturbance even in the Pettah where they have fixed their Quarters. Our Troops march'd out and engaged them the 14th: when one of their Generals was taken, several other Officers Kill'd & Wounded and a Great Number of Men. On our side also some Officers and Men were Kill'd and Wounded. Major Caillaud & Usoff Cawn Commandant are on their March from Trichenopoly with the Company's Seapoys, & some Europeans and Artillery, also the Tanjours and Tondiman's Troops are with them. On their Arrival We shall attack the Enemy on all sides and then I shall acquaint you of the Event. Several days ago I sent your Vakeel, along with Garmazey Punt with the necessary supply for the March of your Army. If you send them soon with orders to join Major Caillaud & Usoff Cawn, they may have a share in the Victory which by the Blessing of God will soon be gain'd over the Enemy.

As you are a faithful Servant of the Circar, and a Friend to the Company I write this to acquaint you that Major Caillaud and Usoff Cawn Commandant are marching this Way with a large Army of Horse and Foot; You should therefore now give a Proof of your Zeal and Fidelity by yielding all the necessary Assistance to the said Serdars and joining them with your Troops. The Enemy have been so rash as to raise a Disturbance in the Company's Bounds and to fix their Quarters in the Pettah. You will hear in a few days that a just Punishment has attended them.

I send herewith a Copy of the Letter I wrote you Yesterday. To day nothing extraordinary has happened I have wrote to Bandary Polygar of Wantavalam to assist and join you and to Morarow that in case he sends his Horse according to the agreement of his Vakeel who was dispatch'd to him with the necessary supply of Money, that he should order them to join you. I hope you will very soon be within a small Distance of the Garrison that We may agree upon a Scheme of attacking the Enemy on all sides the Money you want may either be sent to Sadras as I before proposed or may be sent out directly to your Army when you come near, as the Enemy will then be oblig'd to withdraw the small Guards they have at St<sup>h</sup> Thomé and other places to the Southward.

TO CAPTAIN PRESTON

18 December 1758

Sir

The Peon Veerannah, who returns to you with this Letter, brought me at noon the Account of your success against the French Convoy the 14th: at night. The loss of those Stores will interrupt them much, and I persuade myself that when Usoff Cawn joins He will be able with your Assistance to block up the South Road intirely and draw as near to our Garrison as may be necessary for the Execution of any Enterprize that may be agreed on between Us. Nothing remarkable has happened here since the 14th: Intelligence is brought me that M<sup>r</sup>: Lambert marched Yesterday Morning from St: Thomé to the Southward with One Hundred European Foot, 100 European Horse, and 100 Black Horse, and that Chunda Saib's Son went at the same time to Poonamale with most of their remaining Black Horse. Lambert I suppose is intended to cover some Convoy; you will spare no Pains or Expence to get good Intelligence, and take every advantage that offers over the Enemy.

TO THE NABOB

December 19th: 1758:

As you have long been desirous of proceeding to Trichenopoly and an Opportunity now offers of going by Sea to Negapatam, I think it most advisable that you embark with your Family, and as many of your attendants as possible, You may waite at Negapatam untill an Escort from the Garrison of Trichenopoly arrives there. I have directed Captain Smith immediatly to send one and I have wrote to the Governour of Negapatam to furnish you with whatever you may require during your stay there. Both those Letters are sent you herewith. In case the King of Tanjour has not already sent his Forces along with Major Caillaud I do not doubt but your Influence will prevail on him to do it, and you may either accompany the said Forces or remain at Trichenopoly for the regulation of the Countries to the Southward.

I have already wrote you what I thought necessary on that Subject, and which I hope you will comply with; that, is to assign and pay to the Company's Officer out of the Revenues of Trichenopoly and Syringam the sum of Fifty Thousand Rupees Monthly to defray the Charges of the Garrison and the Remainder to be divided between the Company and the Circar. Madura and Tinnevelly should be left under the management of Usoff Cawn's People untill the Debt and Arrears are discharged, and then the necessary Sum must be assign'd for the expence of the Troops and the Remainder, be equally divided between the Circar and the Company as before mentioned. I have wrote also to the King of Tanjour and Tondeman, and have sent the Letters herewith. I hope you will have a good Voyage and that I shall soon have the pleasure of hearing of your safe Arrival.

TO HUGH NORRIS Esq<sup>r</sup>:

Sir;

The Nabob having determined to proceed with his Family to Trichenopoly, and being very desirous that one of the Council should accompany him as far as Negapatam, We have appointed you to this Service; You will waite upon the Governour of Negapatam along with the Nabob, and enforce the Request made in our General Letter that he may be furnish'd with such Conveniences and Assistance as may be requisite during his Stay there.

We have taken the opportunity of sending in this Vessel a Chest with Twenty thousand Pagodas for the use of the Garrison of Trichenopoly. It goes consign'd to you, and in case of your absence to M<sup>r</sup>: Bodle and is to be forwarded when the Commandant sends a proper Escort for it.

OF THE COUNCIL AT NEGAPATAM

Gentlemen

The Occasion of this Address is to make known to You that the French Army has lain before this Place since the 12 Instant and the Nabob with his Family having had long Intentions to remove to Trichenopoly we make use of this Vessel as the most favourable Opportunity to Transport them thither. He will have the Honour to pay his Compliments to your Governour, and We are to request that You will supply him with such Conveniences as he may require untill an Escort from the Garrison of Trichenopoly shall meet him. We will make ample Recompence to the Owners of this Vessel for the Freight of her and We beg you will be assured that nothing but so urgent an Occasion could have induc'd us to make Use of her without their previous Consent.

Our Communication is pretty open both to the Southward and Westward and We are in daily expectation of making it very soon much more so: if not intirely; We hope therefore that We shall have the Honour of hearing from you in reply to this. Either Our Resident at Sadrass will be able to forward it to us by land or our Resident at Puliacat by Sea.

M<sup>r</sup>. Hugh Norris one of the Council at this Presidency accompanies the Nabob to Negapatam and We shall esteem every favour you are pleased to shew him in a particular degree.

To CAPTAIN JOSEPH SMITH

19 December 1758

Sir;

Inclosed is Duplicate of what I wrote you the 14 since which nothing material has happened except that a Detachment from the Garrison of Changleput defeated a Party of the Enemy's Seapoys who were escorting a large Mortar and two Guns with about Fifty Bullocks loaded with Ammunition. They spik'd up the Mortar and Guns, burnt all the Carriages, and carried the Bullocks into Changleput I have not heard from Usoff Cawn since the 8th: when he was at Tricolor. By this time he must be near Changleput and I hope Major Caillaud his [sic] joined him.

The Nabob with his Family being desirous of proceeding to Trichenopoly and the Number of their Attendants being very inconvenient in the Town, He will embark this Evening in a Brigantine for Negapatam from whence M<sup>r</sup>. Norris will forward to you this Letter, on Receipt of which you will order an Escort of Seapoys with a few Europeans to meet the Nabob and I have desired the King of Tanjour to send a Party of his Troops at the same time.

As the Shroff's People may be unwilling to supply you with Money during the present troubles I thought this a good Opportunity to send a Sum to Negapatam; and have accordingly consign'd to M<sup>r</sup>. Norris and in his absence to M<sup>r</sup>. Bodle Twenty thousand Pagodas which you may order to be sent up to you with the same Escort that conducts the Nabob.

Out of this you must supply the Army under Usoff Cawn if he or Major Caillaud should draw upon you and the Nabob has further promised to comply with what I have desired of him in my Letter of this date, of which I send you a Copy, so that I persuade myself you will not be in future under any Difficulties about Money.

TO THE KING OF TANJOUR

19 DECEMBER 1758

The Nabob being desirous of going to Trichenopoly for the Regulation of the Countries to the Southward, now proceeds by the way of Negapatam, and you will have the happiness of paying each other a Visit. As you will have the satisfaction of discoursing with him concerning the proceedings of the Enemy and the Situation of Affairs here I need not say much on that Head. After ruining the whole Country they march'd with all their Force to Madrass and on the 14 Instant entered the Pettah; at that time a part of our Troops from the Garrison march'd out and attack'd them. A very warm Engagement ensued in which the Enemy had one General taken Prisoner. Mr Soubinet and five or Six other Officers kill'd and as many wounded, and three or four hundred Soldiers Kill'd and Wounded; on our Side also Major Polier was wounded, with some other Officers and several Soldiers Kill'd and Wounded. However the Enemy are so rash as to remain in the Pettah, You will hear what happens after the arrival of Major Caillaud and Usoff Cawn with the Company's Seapoys; and yours and Tondamon's Army.

Our Commandant at Changleput took two day's ago a large Mortar and two Guns with several Bullocks loaded with Ammunition belonging to the French. As the Enemy are now making the last and greatest [sic] Effort It is adviseable that you should do what is necessary for their Disappointment and the General Good of the Country I doubt not you have already complied with what Major Caillaud recommended and that you will now do whatever the Nabob shall desire and represent to be necessary. You should order a good Officer with a Party of your Troops to go along with the Escort Capt<sup>n</sup> Smith will send from Trichenopoly, to conduct the Nabob from Negapatam.

GEORGE PIGOT.

[See page 10.]

TO TONDAMAN

19 DECEMBER 1758

I have heard from Usoffs Cawn of your people's joining him and very much approve and commend your Zeal & Fidelity. As soon as they come near enough to stop the Road to Pondicherry we shall with our United Strength attack & destroy the Enemy, whose whole Force have lodged themselves in the Pettah, with a view to raise a Disturbance against the Fort.

As the Nabob has long been desirous of going to Trichinopoly in order to regulate the Countries on that Side he now takes an Opportunity of proceeding with his Family by way of Negapatam and Tanjour. You will therefore have the Happiness to pay him a Visit and to give him further proofs of your Fidelity.

On the Day which the Enemy entered the Pettah a Part of our Troops went out of the Fort and engag'd them, took one of their Generals, kill'd five or six of their best Officers and wounded as many: and about three or four hundred of their Soldiers were killed or Taken; On our Side also One Major and some other Officers were Wounded and Several Soldiers were killed or taken. The same day our Officer at Changleput defeated a French Party and took a large Mortar and two Guns with several Bullock Loads of Ammunition. As you are a firm Friend I thought proper to acquaint you with the Affairs here, and hereafter what may happen I shall also advise you.

GEORGE PIGOT.

Au Camp dev<sup>t</sup> Madrass ce 20 Xber 1758FROM M<sup>r</sup>. LALLY TO THE COUNT D'ESTAING

Je n'ay pû faire Reponse hier Monsieur a la Lettre que vous m'avez fait l'honneur de m'écrire ou étoit incluse celle de M<sup>r</sup>. Pigot, parceque je ne scavois pas au jûste les noms des Officiers Anglais Prisonniers qui sont a S<sup>t</sup>. Thomé J'avois toujours pris la precaution de les y faire rester tous, quand J'ay envoyé les Soldats á Pondicherry. Je n'ay gardé de me departir de ce que J'ay une fois avancé ce seroit la premiere fois de ma vie et trop de Motifs d'ailleurs m'y engagent. Il ne m'est pas même venu en Tête en proposant vôtre échange de rappeler la Conduite que J'avois tenu en relachant deux Captain de Vaisseaux, Colonels, et le Commandant du Fort St David Lieutenant Colonel contre des Cap<sup>ains</sup> des Lieutenants et même contre rien.

Au Reste Je viens de recevoir une Lettre de M<sup>r</sup>. De Leirit qui me marque que les Allies des Anglais s'étoient approchés a cinq Lieues de Pondicherry et qu'ils ajoutoient le meurtre des Aldiens a l' Incendie de leurs Villages ; cette façon Maratte de faire la Guerre que je ne connoissois pas, m' autorise á des represailles qui vont devenir Sanglantes et J'envoie demain des Ordres pour bruler le Grand Mont et á Six lieues á la ronde de Madras avec défense de n'épargner ni femmes ni Enfants.

— APPENDIX No. 55. —

J'ay ordonné en même tems, et je vous prie de le luy dire, qu'on epargnat la Maison de M<sup>r</sup> Stewens, dont Je suis faché que l' on avait apporté les Clefs trop tard.

Quant aux nouvelles de nos blessés il n'y a, a Ajouter a l'etat que je vous ay envoyé qu'un Officer et trente sept Soldats Anglais de plus dont trois ont été brulés dans la Poudriere avec sept de nos Cepayes.

De notre Coté il n'est point mort d' Officiers, Soubinet est hors d'Affaires, mais Je crains toujours pour Tilcourt et Sessac, le reste sont des Blessures Ordinaires qui ne demandent que du Tems.

Pour ce qui est Soldats nous en avons cinq<sup>te</sup>. Six des deux Affaires actuellement á l' hopital, ce qui n'est pas en proportion ordinaire avec trente deux que nous avons eu de tués sur la Place.

Je vous laisse le Maitre de faire votre disposition du Retour et de celui des Officiers Anglais, Comme vous le Jugeres a propos.

J'ay l' honneur d'etre avec un sincere Attachm<sup>t</sup> Monsieur, Votre tres humble et tres Obeissant Serviteur.

FROM THE COUNT D'ESTAING

To M<sup>r</sup> LALLY.

Monsieur,

AU FORT ST<sup>e</sup> GEORGE CE
21 Xber 1758.

J' avois prié M<sup>r</sup> Pigot de reflechir sur la Lettre que vous avez eu la bonté de m'écrire hier il l' a fait et pense toujours de même voici sa réponse; il m'a dit de vous en rendre compte; elle me met au desesperoie pendant elle m'a etonné encore plus qu'elle ne m'afflige.

M<sup>r</sup> Pigot ne veut plus m'échanger contre tous les Officiers. il s'embarasse peu qu'ils soyent libres ou non; ils sont blessés, ils lui seroient a Charge; mon échange n'est plus en son pouvoir depuis que vous avés renvoyé les Soldats a Pondichery, il les comprenoit dans votre proposition. Je me suis efforcé de le convaincre, que cela ne pouvoit être, que jamais vous n' avies imaginé échanger un seul homme contre une Troupe entiere que vous le voudries en vain que j'eus cur [?] cet Article jusqu' á la desobeissance que cela étoit sans exemple, que vos bontes pour moi vous fesoient deja sacrifier trop, et qu'il vandroit autant comprendre aussi dans le Mot, tout es Posttes dont vous vous êtes emparé; j'ai rapellé inutilement la facilité avec la quelle vous aves relaché les deux Capitaines de Vaisseau; M<sup>r</sup> Pigot m'a dit que cela regardoit M<sup>r</sup> Pocock, qu'ils n'avoient que rang de L<sup>e</sup> Colonels, et que M<sup>r</sup> Powllier n'étoit que Major, je lui ai fait concevoir qu'un brigadier n'étoit qu'un Officier particulier roulant actuellement en Europe avec les Colonels Alle-mans, je lui ai donné l'Etat de tous les Officiers principaux qui sont sous vos Ordres pour lui faire sentir combien peu je vous étois necessaire, et que l' Amtie seule vous gu doit; le Tableau de sa Situation presente, des evenemens futures, et vrais-ambablement tres prochains ne l' ont point fait changer quand a moi je l'ai assuré qu'il pouvoit exécuter ce qu'il m'a fait entrevoir, et m'envoyer par son Vaisseau a Bombye, dans le Gange, ou en Europe, que je ne m'en plaindrois pas; et que les bons ou mauvais traitements devenoient oesormais indifferents a quelqu'un qui voudroit mille fois etre Mort.

M<sup>r</sup> Pigot m'a assuré qu'il étoit tres affligé des meurtres, et des Incendies que les Alliés des Anglois ont commis a cinq lieues de Pondichery; il m'a prié de vous dire que cela étoit contre ses Ordres et contre ses Intentions, il m'a prié a votre generosité la vie des pauvres Aldiens qui n'en sont pas coupables, ainsi que a destruction des Maisons; M<sup>r</sup> Pigot m'a dit que M<sup>r</sup> Duplex les avoit fait truller sans cause de représailles peutetre seras ce un Motif pour vous Monsieur pour les laisser subsister pardonnez moi cette reflexion, je la hazarde, je connois votre façon de penser; soyez je vous supplie tres tranquile sur la mienne et sur mon etat: j'envie celui du pauvre M<sup>r</sup>. de Tillecourt, et de M<sup>r</sup>. de Se-sae je ne scaurois trop vous remercier de ceque vous daigne me marquer des autres blésés, j'en ai été dautant plus aise qu'on m'avoit annoncé la Mort de Saubinet au milieu des regrets les plus amers, et des reflexions les plus tristes ma premiere et presque unique inquietude est de conserver vos bontes; M<sup>r</sup>. Pigot m'a promis de faire scavoir a M<sup>r</sup>. Stevens ce que vous m'ordonnés de lui dire permettes moi d'embrasser M<sup>r</sup>. de Crillon.

TO THE COMMANDER OF THE SHIP
COMING IN FROM THE NORTH-

22<sup>d</sup> December 1758

Sir,

The French have invested this place for these ten days past, if you Command a Ship of Force you may disturb them much in their Trenches if you bring too [sic] a little to the Northward of the Fort, those Trenches will appear clearly to you by a Brest [sic] Work thrown up about fifty Yards to the Southward of the Black Town, But if your Ship is of little Force it will be more prudent for you to come to an Anchor abreast of the Southermost Bastion of the Fort the Enemy being unable to Invest us on that Side. You may entrust this Cattamaran with any Letters you may have for me and if you are so weakly man [ned] as to make you apprehensive of danger, as they are masters of three Massoolah Boats you will let me know, and I will send you off a Detachment of Marines.

Sir

The French have invested this place for these Eleven days past, and last Night the Ship you see to the Northw<sup>d</sup> came to an Anchor there and I suppose is loaded with Cannon & Stores I dont apprehend she is of any Force although she be a large Ship, I would however have you come to Anchor abreast of the Southermost Bastion of the Fort, the Enemy being unable to invest us on that Side. Dispatch this Cattermaran immediatly back to me and acquaint me what Consignments you have for the Settlement that I may send Boats to land them. The first Boat I send off to you shall have an English Gentleman on Board who will direct you to make the Signal I shall give him; which Signal being made the other Boats shall be immediatley [sic] sent off.

23rd. December 1758

To CAPTAIN PRESTON

Sir,

This Morning the Ship Thames from Vizagapatam anchored in the Road and brings an Account of the Total Rout of the French Army in Golconda by Colonel Forde the 7 Instant. Of 500 French only 150 escaped and he took 35 Pieces of Cannon with all their Baggage and Equipage both publick and private.

Nothing remarkable has happened here. The Enemy advance their Trenches somewhat nearer to the Fort on the North side every Night; but have not as yet opened any Battery.

I have not received a Letter from you nor Major Caillaud & my last from Usoff Cawn was dated the 8th: I hope he is advancing this way, and desire you will advise him continually of the Intelligence you receive from me or other hands. I wrote you the 18 of Chunda Saibs Son being gone to Poonamalee with the greatest part of the Enemy's Black Forces, in order, as I was informed, to oppose Usoff Cawn, whom you will assist upon Occasion with as large a Reinforcement as possible from Your Garrison.

I wrote you also long ago to acquaint me whether you could safely get up Money from Sacrass, if I were to send it thither by Sea. I want to contrive some Means of sending a supply for your Garrison and for Usoff Cawn. I judge indeed than [sic] when he comes near we shall find no Difficulty in keeping the Communication on the South Side entirely open in which Case the Sum necessary both for you and him may be sent directly from hence.

I am

Sir

Your most humble Servant

GEORGE PIGOT.

Yesterday I had the Misfortune to loose my Anchor and have only the one
 We now ride by and a small stream Anchor remaining.

As the weather seems to Moderate I beg the Governour will send of another Cable and Anchor, for should We part the Anchor we now ride by, we have nothing left but to put to Sea and endeavour to work up to Pulicat, where I im-imagine I may be supply'd, but should the Cattemaran be able to get on board with Anchors I will immediatly run in as near the Shore as possible. I beg you'll send off two Cattemarans to weigh the Anchor we parted Yesterday.

I have many Letters on board for the Gentlemen in the Garrison, I beg to know If I shall send them ashore.

P.S.

Should I be necessitated to put to Sea and afterwards return I will hoist a Red Flag at the Foretop Masthead & two Guns.

Sir

In this Boat I send a Box with Pag<sup>s</sup>: 10,000 consign'd to you, Advice Captain Preston of its Arrival, and forward all the Money to Changleput under Charge of such Escort as he shall send for it. Forward also the Inclos'd Letters to Major Caillaud, Captain Preston, Captain Smith & Usoff Cawn. I think it strange that I have not heard from you, especially as a Boat from Sadras call'd here some days ago. You must get Hircars, Boats or Cattermarans at any Expence to come here with your Advices.

The Ship Thames arrived two days ago from Vizagapatam with the News of a compleat Victory gain'd by Colonel Forde the 7 Instant over the French Army Commanded by the Marquis de Confians. Of five hundred French only 150 escap'd, and thirty five pieces of Cannon with all their Baggage & Stores were taken.

I am

Sir

Your most Obedient Servant

GEORGE PICOT.

P.S.

Do not detain the Boat a Moment after the Money is out. Write what news you have from Major Caillaud, Usoff Cawn & Changleput, and send her back immediatly.

The Thames loosing her Anchor Yesterday was set so far to Leward that she could not fetch into the Road again and this Morning is out of Sight. If she stops at Sadras You will acquaint the Commander my Orders are, that he make the best of his Way hither & upon his making the Signal mentioned in his Letter to the Secretary, I will have an Anchor & Cable sent off to meet him.

I hope you have had a safe Passage to Negapatam and from thence will proceed with success to Trichenopoly. He took 35 Pieces of Cannon with all their Baggage, Stores &c & only 150 Europeans escap'd out of their Army which consisted of 500.

TO MAJOR CAILLAUD

25th: December 1758

Sir:

I wrote to you the 13th and 14th of this Month but have not yet heard from you. The 21st: the Nabob and his Family with a few Attendants [went] in a small Vessel to Negapatam from whence he will proceed to Trichenopoly I took the opportunity of Sending 20,000 Pagodas to be forwarded to Captain Smith at Trichenopoly, and I now send 10,000 to Sadras to be forwarded to Captain Preston at Changleput. From ether [sic] place as may be most convenient You or Usoff Cawn may draw supply's as you want.

Nothing very remarkable has happened here since the 14th. The Enemy have opened Trenches to the Northward and advanced them within 500 Yards of the Crest of the Glacis. We hear they are at Work upon some Batteries behind the Houses near the Burying Ground and upon the Hospital Hill. They have yet got up but four or five pieces of heavy Cannon, but the day before Yesterday a large Ship came and Anchor'd of [f] Trivatore, which we imagine to be the Ship M<sup>r</sup>. Lally took from the Dutch and is said to be loaded with Stores and Cannon.

It is long since I heard from Usoff Cawn or even from Captain Preston. I hope you have by this time joined the former, and will be able to come upon the back of the Enemy. They have a small force at S<sup>t</sup>. Thomé, where they keep their Hospital; and have no other Post to the Southward. Raza Saib went away some days ago with most of their black Force and I hear some Europeans are gone also, They are designed no doubt to oppose Usoff Cawn, but I am under no Apprehensions for the Event, especially if he be join'd by the Reinforcement Captain Preston may spare him.

A Ship arrived two days ago from Vizagapatam with the News of Colonel Forde's having totally routed the French Army commanded by the Marquis De Conflans the 7 Instant. Of 500 French only 150 escap'd; all their Stores & Baggage, both Publick and Private, with 35 Pieces of Cannon were taken I have not yet got my Letters ashore, so that I know not whether Mazulipatam was likely to fall or not.

To CAPTAIN JOSEPH SMITH

25 December 1758:

Sir

Inclosed is Duplicate of the Letter I wrote you the 19 Instant by the Vessel which carried the Nabob and his Family to Negapatam I hope they are safe-arrived and that you have received the Money I consign'd you by the same Opportunity.

Nothing remarkable has happen'd here the Enemy are carrying on their Approaches on the North Side and are said to be erecting some Batteries behind the Houses of the Black Town. A Ship which I beleive is the same they took from the Dutch anchored this Morning off the Black Town and I suppose is loaded with Cannon and Stores.

By a Ship which arrived here two days ago from Vizagapatam we have received the agreeable News of a Compleat Victory gain'd by Colonel Forde the 7 Instant over the French Army in Golconda. To USSOFF CAWN

25 December 1758

I have not received any Letter from you since that dated at Tricolur. Your Vakeel Mootoo Pilla set out the 17, and I hope has reach'd you safely. Nothing remarkable has happen'd here since. The Enemy remain in the Black Town, and I hear they are making some Batteries behind the Houses. To the Southward they have no Post except a small Guard at St Thomé. Raza Saib went some days ago with all their Black Force to Poonamalee, and I hear Mr Bussy is gone also with some Europeans. Their Design is no doubt to oppose your March this Way, but I am persuaded you will defeat them, especially if you be join'd by the Reinforcement Captain Preston will send you from Changleput. If you can then draw near upon the Back of the Enemy we may concert together a Scheme for a General Attack.

The 21st of this Month the Nabob and his Family with a few Attendants went in a Small Vessel to Negapatam from whence he will proceed to Trichenopoly. I took the opportunity of sending a large supply of Money to Captain Smith at Trichenopoly, and I now send a good supply to be forwarded to Captain Preston at Changleput. You may therefore draw from either of those places as may be most convenient.

A Ship arrived two days ago from Vizagapatam, with the News of Colonel Forde's having totally routed the French Army in Golconda the 7 Instant. Of 500 French only 150 escap'd and all their Stores and Baggage both Publick and Private with 35 Pieces of Cannon were taken.

I hope Mr Lally will soon meet with the same Fate.

FROM CAPTAIN PRESTON

Your not having acknowledged to have received any of my Letters since the 10th makes me apprehensive of their having been most of 'em intercepted.

I am in much want of Money; not having sufficient by a great deal for the next Months Pay of the Seapoys only. You'll please to consider too that every Excursion I make is attended with an Extraordinary Charge. Should there be any Risque in the Way by Sea to Sadras, there no Doubt are private stocks lodged there by one or other of our Gentlemen, from which I might be amply supplied.

Rajah Saib left Conjiveram 4 Days ago with a 100 European Foot 200 black Horse & 400 Seapoys, I am told he is going to Carangoly The accompanying Letter is just come from Usoff Cawn, with one to myself. He only tells me that he has forwarded your Letters to Major Cailland, and Captain Smith; and that his making the best of his Way here.

FROM USOFF CAWN:

This Day being the 21st Ins<sup>t</sup> I had the happiness to receive 3 Letters from you, Two by the hircars and One by my Vackell Moota Pilla and observe every particular in full both by those Letters and by the Verbal Account given me by the Vackeel. I must observe to your honour that the reason of my Detention so long was Occasioned by Rain, however I took care to Ruin and lay Waste all the Countries round Pondicherry that they get no Provisions. This day about 300 of the Tanjour Horse arrived in the Army. To Morrow I shall move and continue my March Night and Day to arrive to your parts. Look upon me as If I am in your Place. You'll not be under any concern but make yourself easy. As the Tanjorians had punished the French, how is it that we dont do it. I shall come and Punish all the French properly.

As they are insignificant, 'tis not great matter to punish them.

Yesterday I addressed two Letters to your Honnour by which I suppose you are acquainted with the Matter. This Day I marched from Balapore alias Walaporum and arrived at a great Distance. By the Blessing of God to morrow being the 23<sup>d</sup> I shall get to Achervacam. The Tanjore Troops and those of Tondamon are with me. The army is in great want for the Expences which induces me to desire you'll on receipt of this Letter send a supply of 20,000 Pagodas by a Boat to Sadras which will be better for as I shall proceed to your parts, it is necessary to encourage the Army by paying for their Expences. I shall soon be there and hope you'll send the Money with all possible speed.

TO CAPTAIN PRESTON

27 December 1758

Last night came in your Letter of the 23<sup>d</sup> which is the only one I have received from you since that dated the 29th: Ultō: Ustoff Cawn must by this time be with you, or on this Side of you, I would have you leave in Changleput a Subaltern Officer with Six or Eight Gunners, & Six Companys of Seapoys and march yourself this way with all the rest of your Garrison. On your Arrival at the Mount, let fly a red Flag at Top of the Church or if in the Night make a Fire at Top, I will write to you again presently of what is thought best to be undertaken, that having a plan Settled we may act in Concert. I sent ten thousand Pagodas in a Boat to Sadras three days ago, and hope it will arrive safe, but the Risque is great as the French have a Number of Boats passing. As soon as the Communication is open, which I doubt not we shall be able to effect I will send out Twenty Thousand Pagodas. One of the Enemy's Jemidars from St Thomé has engaged in our Service to go and join you with 100 Horse. I advanc'd him 500 Pagodas & gave him a Letter for you I have wrote to Ustoff Cawn to endeavour to draw of more of them.

Last night I had the pleasure to receive your Letters dated the 21st & 22<sup>d</sup>. Proceed to the Mount and on your Arrival there hoist a Red Flag at Top of the Church or if in the night make a Fire at Top, I have directed Captain Preston to accompany you with all the Garrison of Changleput except Six Companies of Seapoys and a few Europeans. I sent ten thousand Pagodas to Sadras by a Boat three days ago but have not yet heard of it's arrival. As there are many of the Enemy's Boats passing backwards and Forwards the Risque is great. In two or three days I doubt not the Communication will be free when I will immediatly send out 20,000 Pagodas. Endeavour to draw of as many as you can of the

27 December 1758

Sir

I wrote to you this Morning to march this Way along with Usoff Cawn leaving in Changleput One Subaltern with Six or Eight Gunners and Six Companies of Seapoys, and I despatch'd that Letter in three Copies. This will contain the Necessary Instructions for your Conduct after your arrival at the Mount. The very next morning the attack of S<sup>t</sup> Thomé is proposed; Usoff Cawn and you are to march so as to begin the Attack at Day break and to carry with you the whole Force with you excepting such a Number of Horse as you judge may be spared; those are to be detach'd, so as to arrive before Day break upon Choultry Plain, & to post themselves behind the Tank in front of the White Choultry, call'd Woodundy Choultry, just at this End of the Avenue leading to the Mount. There they will be covered from any Cannon, The Enemy may have about Turing's Hous, and will be in readiness to fall upon any Party that may be moving either to or from S<sup>t</sup> Thomé from whence the Enemy will endeavour [sic] to Retreat by that Road, if your Attempt succeeds. In such Case do you stay in S<sup>t</sup> Thomé Fort with the Europeans belonging to Changleput, four Companies of Seapoys and Fifty Horse; let the rest of the Foot march on to Trivetashium, the Village on this Side of Choultry Plain and take Post there, and the Horse join the others on the Plain, Your Attack on S<sup>t</sup> Thomé must be made on the South and West Sides. A large Detachment of Seapoys with some Europeans and a few Horse from hence shall attack at the same time on the North side, and another shall take post at the Garden House. Our People both Horse & Foot, Europeans and Seapoys shall wear a green Branch in their Hat or Turband, let yours do the same by which they will distinguish each other from the Enemy, Our whole Garrison shall be under Arms and Measures taken to prevent the Enemy's sending any large Detachment from the Black Town, or to take some advantage of them if they should venture it.

The French Hospital at S<sup>t</sup> Thomé and some of our own Wounded Officers and Men are there, Take all possible care to prevent their being Molested, and give the best protection you can to the Inhabitants in General.

—APPENDIX No. 84.—

I have sent 10,000 Pagodas to Sadras as I before advis'd you ; but the Risque is great by reason of the Enemys Boats. If the Plan here laid down succeeds our Communication will be immediatly open, and Twenty Thousand Pagodas shall be sent out the same day, for the Payment of Usoffs Cawn's People & Yours

I am

Sir

Your most humble Servant

GEORGE PIGOT.

Your Letter of the 25th is just received

As your People may be fatigued and want Refreshment, & some preparations may also be necessary for the Attack of S<sup>t</sup> Thomé, it may be inconvenient to execute it the day after your Arrival. I leave it therefore to Usoff Cawn and you to fix the day which You may make known to me, by lighting four fires at Top of the Mount, one immediatly after the other, the Night before By this Signal I shall understand you intend the Attack next Morning, and give Orders accordingly to the Troops here.

N. 85.

[See page 18.]

To USOFF CAWN

27 December 1758

I wrote to you this Morning in three Copies that I had received your two Letters of the 21st & 22<sup>d</sup>. The Plan I have concerted for the attacking the Enemy must be executed the very next Morning after your arrival at the Mount in this Manner, take with you all your Foot and as Many of your Horse as you may think necessary to make an Attack upon S<sup>t</sup> Thomé to the Southward and detach the rest of your Horse to lye upon Choultry Plain to out of the Enemy's retreat should you succeed at S<sup>t</sup> Thomé. You must observe to be ready to make your Attack at S<sup>t</sup> Thomé by break of day, at the same time I will send out from hence a strong body of Seapoys with some Europeans and a féw Horse to move along the Sea Side and make an Attack on the other side or to the Northward of S<sup>t</sup> Thomé, and another party to take Post at my Garden House to act as I may see Occasion. I shall also have the whole Garrison under Arms to prevent the Enemy from making any large Detachments from hence or if they should to take all advantages of their Motions. There is upon Choultry Plain at the hither end a White House where I believe the Enemy have some Cannon it will be proper therefore to discribe the Ground to you ; thus when you enter upon the Plain you will find a Road from the Tank with a Row of Trees on each Side, this leads you to a Small Tope on the right hand, as you advance in which is a Choultry call'd Woodundy's Choultry with a Tank in the Front, the Banks of which will cover your Horse from the Cannon at the white House. Let all your People put a little green Bow in their Turbands and I will order mine to do the same that they may by this Mark distinguish each other from the Enemy. If you should succeed in your attempt upon S<sup>t</sup> Thomé leave the Changleput Europeans in the Fort there with four Companies of Seapoys and 50 Horse, and with the rest move forwards immediatly and post all your Infantry in Trivitashium a Village on the Left as you come by the great Road from S<sup>t</sup> Thomé, and send all your Horse to join the other Party upon Choultry Plain, The Enemy have some sick and Wounded People at S<sup>t</sup> Thomé, and some of our Officers who were taken Prisoners and are Wounded are also there, give strict Orders to your People if you succeed no [sic] to treat them ill, and let the Inhabitants in general of the Villages be protected. I told you in my Letter this Morning that I had sent Money to Sadras if our present Plan succeeds I will supply you fully from hence as the Communication will then be Open.

Hofible Sir

Agreeable to your Letter of the 16 Instant, I immediatly on the receipt of it, sent Hircars out to watch particularly for the Enemy's Escort, that might be fetching away the Prisoners they had lately taken at Madras. On the 19th I had Intelligence of their being arrived at Covelong; that the Escort consisted of about 200 Europeans, foot & Horse, besides black Horse and Seapoys; that their [sic] was a Field peice at Covelong ready to attend them and that there was 2 more on the way after them: That this Escort was to proceed directly to Pondicherry, & after being reinforced there with a few more Europeans, and several more Companies of Seapoys, it was then to oppose Usoff Cawn, & to be joined by Rajah Saib, who was marching round by the way of Conjevaram for that purpose. I immediatly ordered the best part of the Garrison to be got in readiness with two Field Pieces and without waiting for any further Intelligence (being convinced there was no time to be lost) I set out with them about  $\frac{1}{2}$  an Hour past 11 at Night and marched directly for Shevandaw Chitty's Choultry about 6 Miles to the Northward of Sadras in the high road; it being the only place (by what I could learn of my Hircars) from whence we could have the least chance of intercepting the above Escort. We reached this Choultry, after a very fatiguing March (the Roads being excessive bad) yesterday Morning about 10 OClock, we had scarce been there an Hour before a Hircar came running to me with an Account of some of the Enemy being very near Us; but upon sending out to reconnoitre 'em, I could only learn that they were some Europeans, as well as Blacks, both Foot & Horse, on the same Road with ourselves, and about 3 Miles from us, there was only this Road, and the one by the sea Side, they could possible [sic] pass through; but unluckily there was a large body of Water for several Miles between them, that was only fordable at a particular Pass: & I was informed that it was there mostly above 4 Feet deep the way thro this Pass too to the Sea Side I was assured by my Hircars, was about Six Miles, which was too great a Distance for us to divide, and for all of us to have gone over there could no more have prevented the Enemy from avoiding us, than our remaining as we did. However upon having Intelligence of about 20 Europeans and some Seapoys being in motion on the other side the Water with some Stores I despatched Lieutenant Airey after 'em with 4 Companies of Seapoys: He happened tho' to be too late for 'em & keep wandering on the other side the water till it was dark, without seeing any thing of the expected Escort with our Prisoners. about 3 in the Afternoon we could discover about 4 Companies of the Enemy's Seapoys, with a few Europeans, and a Body of Black Horse advancing towards Us, till within the Distance of Us of about  $\frac{3}{4}$  of a Mile; and they then filed off seemingly to endeavour to cross the Water: Not knowing but the French might have been coming after with our Prisoners, I only detach'd some Seapoys to endeavour to get within Reach of 'em, so as to prevent 'em from coming round us; which at the same Time effectually prevented them from gaining the Pass. This made them retire, and they left six Horses behind 'em. I soon after had the Mortification to understand from M<sup>r</sup> Smith at Sadrass, that our Prisoners were carried into that place about 4 oClock, by about 150 Troopers, 40 Military, a few black Horse, & some Seapoys, so that they must have pass'd us before M<sup>r</sup> Airey had crossed the Water. I likewise had understood from M<sup>r</sup> Smith that they were 25 more of their Military, and some Seapoys, waiting at Sadras to escort some stores to their Army. I therefore though [sic] it most prudent to make the best of my way back again, having a very ugly wood to return thro' of a considerable Length, that with our Guns was but barely passible. I am thus particular, Sir, to convince you that I used the only means in my power for the attempt of rescuing our Prisoners with the least Probability of Success. Had I known in Time that they were escorted without a Gun, I'd have ventured without one too, but, as they were little or no time at Covelong, to have waited here for more perfect Intelligence than I had would have been waiting too long, Immediately on my Return here I despatched a Hircar with a Letter to Usoff Cawn, advising him of the Strength and Situation of the Enemy's Escort with our Prisoners: and desiring him to endeavour all he 'can (if they proceed by Land) to fall in with 'em.

Your Letters of the 12, 13, 14 & 15 are the only ones I have not acknowledged. The 3 first were many days on the Road.

I am with perfect Respect

Hofible Sir

Your most Obedient humble Servant

Achilles Preston.

Sadrass 26 Decem<sup>r</sup>: 1758

Hofible Sir

I have received your favour of Yesterday with the Money, and have advised Captain Preston thereof. I have likewise received M<sup>r</sup> Van Sittarts of the 24th, and all those inclosed shall be forwarded directly. I hope you will excuse your not hearing from me, as it is occasioned only by miscarriage. I having taken every opportunity of forwarding all Advices to you; the Cattamaran I dispatched the 19 Instant was taken off Covalong, and my Servant destroyed all the Letters. I hope those I sent you the 22<sup>d</sup> are duly received, the Boat shall be returned this Evening.

—APPENDIX No. 90.—

I this Morning received a Letter from the Nellour acquainting me he was safely arrived at Chingleput and I hope he will move this way, as he may easily intercept everything passing by Land to the French Camp; he tells me his people are fatigued & in want of Refreshment; at present great quantities of Cooleys &c daily passes for the Enemy, and the day before Yesterday 14 Boats and a Sloop to the Southward. I have heard nothing of the Thames nor of Major Caillaud since he left Tranquebar, tho' I have sent several Letters to him.

Captain Preston some time since took a 13 Inch Mortar from the Enemy, and endeavoured to intercept our Prisoners as they pass'd towards Pondicherry, but was too late by half an hour, I sincerely congratulate you on Colonel Fordes Success, the French make very light of it, & say that they conquered the first time & only retreated the Second: may they always meet with the same Fate!!

I hear there is a Frigate arrived at Pondicherry from the Mauritius, which brings advice that their Squadron was to sail the beginning of next Month, & that she brought 200,000 Dollars, but this I look upon to be French Gasconade. It is reported here that 10 Ships have lately been seen to the Southward of Pondicherry, but I dont give Credit to it.

I am respectfully

Honble Sir

Your most obedient humble Servant

CHARLES SMITH.

I had the Honour and Hapiness to receive two Letters Dated the 16 & 17 Instant on the 24th advising me to proceed soon to your Parts, after my arrival at Chingleput to take some of their Troops there that you sent for Morareys Army &c this day being the 24th I arrived near Carongoly 1½ Coass Distance of this Side the Village of Wayever and By the Blessing of God I hope to arrive at Chingleput tomorrow. I must inform your honour that I march'd every day 10 or 12 Coass and met with many Tanks, Rivers and Swamps for which reason our Troops and Horsemen underwent great hardships. I sent 3 Letters to Captain Preston Yesterday and one to Day but I have not yet received any Answer.

This day on my arrival here News was brought to me that Razally Cawn son to Chunda Saib marched with a Party with a Design to oppose me and arrived Yesterday in Planes of Salavaca, but on hearing the Dread and Terror of my large Army made his flight by night and got to Wandawash. Monsieur Lambou with another Party was on his March but he being also struck with fear ran away to Pondicherry by the Sea side. Kishenraw Amuldar of Tagada being ill having a Boil on his Back and being unwilling to proceed further took leave of me and returned with his Troops from Balapore alias Walaporam.

I lately addressed several Letters giving you a full Account of matters which I suppose you are acquainted with, you'll be pleased to send the Money to Sadrass that I may be freed from the necessity I am under.

I observe the Signal of your Arrival at the Mount. The Enemy have moved only their Moors Horse to the Number of three or 4 Hundred and five or Six Companies of Seapoys from the Black Town. These are posted round Egmore and the Villages of the Choultry Plain In St<sup>e</sup> Thomé I am advised they have about 200 European Foot; and 50 European Horse besides a few black Horse and Seapoys. Yesterday afternoon they began to remove their Sick from thence to the Black Town, and it is reported they design to withdraw their Men.

Whenever you intend to proceed to the Execution of what I mentioned in my Letter of the 27 You will observe to make the Night before the Signal I desired from the top of the Mount that the Troops from hence may move to support you in the Manner proposed in that Letter.

Last Night I had the pleasure to receive your two Letters dated the 27 at Codangalore. I hope both those which I wrote you the same day have reached you safely as they will acquaint you fully with my Intentions. According to my Intelligence the Enemy's Forces are at present disposed in the following Manner. About 200 European Foot, and 50 European Horse in St<sup>e</sup> Thomé. All the rest of their Europeans in the Black Town. Their Moors Horse to the Number of three or four hundred, with about Six Companies of Seapoys round about Egmore and Villages upon the Choultry Plain As soon as I observe the Signals I appointed you to make I shall order the Troops here to be in readiness to execute their part of the Designed Scheme which I doubt not will meet with Success.

Since Writing the above I have discovered the Red Flag upon the Mount by which I understand you are arrived there.

This Morning about day break, the Enemy appeared to us from Seedah Pettah ; what their exact Number was I cant as yet say. They seemed to be about 150 Troopers, above 100 Europeans Foot and about 600 Seapoys, with a considerable Body of black Horse. They had 4 Guns with'em, & after a pretty smart Cannonading, we made a Push, & took two of'em. This Party I understand is commanded by Col: Kennely. Just now I had the pleasure to receive your Letter, from the Mount dated this day. The two you mention to have wrote me Yesterday have not reach'd me. One of the Hircars by name Venkatanaranapa arrived this Afternoon and inform'd me that having been stopt by the Enemy's Guards he was oblig'd to destroy the Letter; The other Hircar is not arrived.

The Victory you gain'd over the Enemy, and your taking the Guns, has thrown them into great confusion, and oblig'd them to draw towards their Main Army in the Black Town. Their Camp was fixed this Evening beginning from the North side of Egmore, to the Choultry Plain; consisting of Black horse, European Horse, and some European Foot. With Regard to the plan of Action proposed in my Letter of the 27th the Time is left to you. The Troops here will be ready at the appointed Signal; and in the mean time we shall undertake something on this Side to prevent Reinforcements being sent to the Troops ordered to oppose you. I shall advise you constantly of the Motions of the Enemy in these Quarters.

They took a Packet of Letters from Pondicherry by which I find that M<sup>r</sup>. Our Sally this Morning caus'd the Enemy to send out a Detachment from their Quarters in the Black Town; and after our Troops return'd into Garrison I saw that Detachment march into Egmore Fort, consisting I think of about 200 Men. I am inform'd they have another party of Europeans upon Choultry Plain, and the Camp of their Country Forces extends from the North Side of Egmore Fort to Woodundee's Choultry, commonly called the White Choultry, at the Bottom of the Avenue leading to the Mount.

M<sup>r</sup>. Latour with 140 Troopers I hear is gone to Carangoly and is to join Sahandah [sic] Saib who I am informed is somewhere thereabouts with 2000 Seapoys. standing by your honours favour, I with great pains used all means to encourage the Men to fight a Battle and Punish the Enemy properly, of which your honour is informed I have sent both Bullocks and Men towards Chingleput to bring provisions and when they return I shall be certain of having them.

From Walaporam to these parts all the Villages on the Road have been ruined by reason of the Enemy's Army passing to or fro' and the Inhabitants are Fled. Now by our Army's coming [sic] they are quite ruined, in so much that there is not a single grain to be got from any place. I don't see any Method to get provisions in future for the Army. Before the Army is supplied with Provisions and refresh'd We can't proceed to St. Thomé The Auxiliary Troops will not step forward. As I am subject to your orders, I am ready with my Soul to execute what you may be pleased to order. Shaick Esmail who knows our Situation here and is come to you will inform you fully. Maulraz Pulligar has sent his Vackeel here, and he says that if the Army comes to those parts he will gather together all the Polli-gars and stop the Enemy's Provisions, By which means the whole of the Enemy's Army will be ruined in some Days. TO CAPTAIN PRESTON
Sir

1st: January 1759

I received your Letter of the 31st with one from Usoff Cawn in which he likewise writes of your Difficulty in getting Provisions. We have an exceeding good stock in the Garrison, but not sufficient for the supply of so large a Number of people. You must therefore keep Yourselves in such a Situation to have the Country open for your own supplies and to cut off those of the Enemy I believe upon the whole this is the best plan you can act on, for the Enemy by this means must soon be put to great Difficulties, and as to the Fort we shall be in no Danger; let them carry on their Attack till our expected Fleet arrives and then you may draw near and we will make a General Sally. You must try to drive away the Enemy's People from Covelon and keep your main Body so posted as to prevent any supplies coming to them by that Road, for great Quantities both of Stores and Provisions have been sent and are yet expected that way. I should think Wendelour a good situation for your main Body, you will there easily draw your Supplies from Chingleput & Covelong and will be near enough [sic] to prevent any thing passing the South road. From thence your Horse & Colleries may patrolle as far as Conjeveram, Poonamalee and even Terposore; how far it may be prudent to attempt the Conquest of either of those places, you will best judge from the Intelligence you will receive of the Force the Enemy keeps there.

I have sent by this Cattamaran 10,000 Pagodas, & will send as much more by another some time to day. This will I hope enable you to encourage the country People to bring in provisions to your Camp, and to draw off the Country Forces of the Enemy. Let Usoff Cawn write, and you at the same time to Maulrauze and the other Polygars to assist in supplying you with provisions and cutting off the Enemy's Supplies.

It is reported here that Major Caillaud is as far on his way as Villenur with a Body of Tanjour Horse and Polygars Forces but I have no Letters from him if you receive any advice where he is forward him a Copy of this Letter that he may know how to co-operate with us.

I have sent 10,000 Pagodas by this Cattamaran and will send as much more by another some time to day. I supply you with this plenty of Money in hopes that it will enable you to subsist your Army with plenty of provisions and every thing necessary and to draw of [sic] the Enemy's Country Troops. I heard from Shaik Ismael of the Scheme you proposed and I think it is a very reasonable and advantageous one; and if you can so far succeed as to prevent the Enemy's receiving any supplies, it will soon put them under great Difficulties. The South Road is that by which all their supplies come, if you can take Covelon and keep your people there it will be a great advantage. Wendelour seems to me to be a good post for your main Army to lay, it lies convenient for you to receive supplies from Covelon, and Changleput and for preventing anything coming to the Enemy. From thence your Horse, Colleries & ca light Troops may patrol as far as Conjeveram, Poonamalee and even Trepasore. In short let it be your object to distress the Enemy by cutting of their supplies & drawing away their country Troops, by such means as appears to you most effectual, and as to the Fort there is no fear; we shall easily resist all attacks of the Enemy, and when our Fleet from Europe arrives; which is daily expected I shall advise you, that we may make with our United Force a general Attack upon them.

When you receive this Letter make a Large Smoak [sic] at Top of the Pagoda of Trivambore. You may write to Maulrauze and the other Polygars to assist in supplying you with Provisions & cutting off the Enemy's supplies.

As to the Ports of Poonamalee, Terpasour and Conjeveram it is left to you to attack them, or not as you may judge most proper after you have got good intelligence of the Force the Enemy keeps there.

Received 1st January 1759

I had the happyness to receive two Letters one Dated 31st December 1758 at 12 o'Clock in the Forenoon and the other dated this day at 3 o'Clock in the Afternoon. Agreeable to your order I halted this Day at Trevambore Affairs here are the same as Yesterday and whenever you send a Boat and order I shall act accordingly I posted a good Guard towards the sea side. According to your orders I have sent hircars to bring intelligence of the Enemy's supplies.

Except the Scheme I proposed to you by Shaick Esmail, there appears no other means for punishing and ruining the Enemy, but it is left to your pleasure as I am subject to your orders.

Received 2 January 1759

I had the happiness to receive your Letter dated this day being the 1st Instant in the Evening with a supply of 10 Thousand Pagodas at Trevambore and observe the particulars therein contained and I shall act agreeable thereto. We shall take Lally and his European Army in the same manner we did Chenda Saib in the fight at Trithinopoly Your honour may therefore be easy and take care of the Fort. As I am a Servant of the Company and your honour is my superior I shall advise you with whatever may be beneficial to the Company and you'll take it into consideration and give directions. As the Enemy are insignificant 'tis not a great matter to punish them.

Trevambore January 2<sup>d</sup>. 1759

Honble Sir

This morning the Enemy attack'd us again, before Day break. Usoff Cawn, with his people, laid on the North side of the Pagoda; and I with ours on the South Side: We were at first alarm'd on both sides: but of a sudden we were convinced the attack was entirely on the North side Usoff Cawn's Seapoys stood it extreemly well for a while; which gave us time to assist 'em very opportunely. For we had scarce got sight of the Enemy before they had all of 'em given way; and left their Guns, we happened luckily to be within Grape Shot of the Enemy, before we perceived 'em; and giving them our whole Fire at once, they soon made off in Confusion, half of Usoff Cawn's Gunners whom they had taken, as well as the Guns, we recovered.

Our Horse were but badly prepared for acting in this Affair, as it was but a little after Day-break before the Enemy made the best of their way thro' the Paddy Fields; & indeed if they had been ever so well prepared. I should have expected but little from 'em by the manner of their behaving at the Mount, as it was very remarkable they there only wounded such of the Enemy as had fallen by our Shot; I mention this Circumstance, Sir, now, because I have the mortification to understand that at Madras it was thought we could do more that day than we really did. In the affair of this morning the Enemy had at least 400 European Foot besides their Troopers. The number of Killed and Wounded on both sides, was very considerable. I myself have seen a Captain of the French Troop, & a foot officer, with about 30 of their Europeans dead on the Spot; & I am well assured that there are more of 'em lying in the Tope & Paddy Fields.

I beg, Sir, you'll supply us immediatly with a Case of Instruments compleat for our Surgeon; his own being carried off this Morning.

I am

Honble Sir

Your most respectful Servant
ACHILLES PRESTON.

FROM USOFF CAWN

Yesterday I addressed your Honour acknowledging the Receipt of the Money. This day being the 2<sup>d</sup> Instant in the Morning, The Enemy with an Army consisting of 1000 Soldiers and some European & Country Horse as also Seapoys marched and attacked my Troops early in the Morning and a sharp engagement ensued about 100 of our Men were killed or Wounded. The Enemy met with the same loss. At length I kept my Post firm and the Enemy retreated. I remain here to this Hour being 3 oClock in the afternoon but the Enemy are not returned. I shall now move from hence to Wendalore.

APPENDIX No. 126.

N. 126.

[See page 26.]

TO MR. HENRY BROOKE

3<sup>d</sup>. January 1759

Sir

Captain Preston writes me under date the 1st Instant that he had received advice of the French having taken Sadras; That Mr. Latour under pretence of reviewing his Command took an Opportunity of seizing upon the Centries and Arms of the Garrison and made every body in it Prisoners.

I desire you will immediatly acquaint Baron Van Eck of this Intelligence shewing him from what authority I have it from, and tell him I am the more inclined to think it true from some other Informations which have fallen in my way.

One is an intercepted Letter from Mr. Boyelleau at Pondicherry to Mr. Chevreau, Treasury General of the French Army in which is the following remarkable Passage.

L'on a dit icy que vous aviez envoyé emprunter de l'argent a Paliacatta; on doute du Succès et l'on pense qu'il eut été mieux d'en demander de vive force a titre de contribution, il semble qu'il n'e manquoit pas de pretexte, et meme de raisons fondées.

And another Circumstance is that upon the application of some of our Ladies for Passports to go out of Town Mr. Lally first permitted them to go to any place except Sadras and Puliacat and afterwards gave them Permission for Sadras, but by no means to Pulicat. This Change we conclude was made upon his receiving the news of Sadras being taken, and from hence it is to be feared he designs to act the same Part at Puliacat.

There was a Letter for the Baron came in the same Packet from Pondicherry which shall be sent by the first Cattemaran. The Contents of it as I perceive from one of the French Letters are only to desire him to furnish a Chelunga.

I am

Sir

Your most humble Servant
GEORGE PIGOT.

N. 127.

[See page 26.]

TO CAPTAIN PRESTON

January 3<sup>d</sup>. 1759

Sir

About 10 last night the Cattamaran arrived with your Letters of the 1st. & 2<sup>d</sup>. The Action of which you give an account in the last gave me great pleasure and does much honour to you and your party. The Behaviour of the Seapoys is also to be commended for making so vigorous an Opposition against so strong a Detachment of the Enemy. Country Horse I know are not to be depended on for regular attacks, especially if before day light, and I never did nor shall regard their Backwardness as a matter in the least connected with your Conduct, the which I entirely approve from the Beginning of the Expedition.

The large Detachments the Enemy have been oblig'd to make against You has very much harrass'd their People and kept back their Work, however they fired upon us Yesterday morning from seven Guns and five Mortars, more I beleive with the Design of keeping off our Attention from their Attempt upon your Camp, than as the beginning of an Attack, upon the Place. Two of their Guns were presently render'd unserviceable by our Shot and they drew of [sic] the rest. Their Mortars continued playing all day, but did not hurt one of our people. As you may remain some time at Vendelour it may be adviseable to strengthen the Post by fresh Entrenchments or Works as you shall judge best; and have strong Parties always ready to attempt the Cutting off the Enemy's Convoys, the Chief of which must come by the way of Covelon.

TO USSOFF CAWN

3<sup>d</sup>. January 1759

Last night I had the pleasure to receive your Letter dated the 2<sup>d</sup>. Instant. Your success over so large a Detachment of the Enemy does great honour to you and all your Army, and will gain you great Esteem from the Company. The Enemy by being obliged to send such considerable Detachments to oppose you are very much harass'd and fatigued; and retarded them from carrying on their Works against the Fort; nevertheless they began to fire yesterday from seven Guns and five Mortars. Their Gun Battery was soon silenced two of their Guns being broke by the Shot from the Fort but they continued all Day to throw Shells; however none of our People received any Hurt. When you come to Wendelour, as you may stay there some days, it may be adviseable for you and Captain Preston to take notice of the Situation of the Place and then make an Entrenchment or Breastwork that your Camp may be strongly guarded.

The Enemy's grand supplies of Stores and Ammunition are brought by the way of Covelon as I before advised you I doubt not you will endeavour to get good and early Intelligence of their Rout and do your utmost to cut them off; for this purpose you must keep a strong Body always in readiness, while your Horse, Colliers &c disperse themselves round the Country to bring you supplies and cut off the Enemy's.

I only receiv'd your Letter acknowledging the Receipt of the firt [sic] Supply of Money sent by the Cattamaran. I suppose your Letter concerning the second supply was sent by the Peon Shaik Aly, who is not yet arrived although the Cattamaran return'd safe.

On the 2<sup>d</sup>. Instant I address'd a Letter to you from Tervambore after the Engagement with the Enemy giving you an Account thereof which I suppose you are acquainted with. On the 3<sup>d</sup>. I with the Army and Captain Preston, arrived at Wandalore. This Day being the 4th I remain at the said place. At the time of the Action all the Bag and Baggage &c were carryed to Changleput and they will be brought again to the Camp. I send Shaick Esmall to you who will inform you concerning the above engagement. I have sent the wounded men to Changleput. I shall consult a Method in this place about what may be necessary to be done and act accordingly.

Honble Sir

I am sorry to acquaint you that in the Afternoon after the Action, at Trivambore, I was obliged to attend USSoff Cawn from that place, without either burying all the Dead, or bringing away all our wounded. Several Hundred of his Seapoys, with almost all his Colliers, & a considerable Number of his Horse, who had forsaken him in the Time of the Action, all made the best of their way to Changleput with a Notion that we were entirely routed. And those who remained with us being under a good deal of Consternation and extreemly discontented for want of Provisions; we found it necessary to march directly for Vendaloor. We were in hopes there, at least to have collected our scatter'd Seapoys; but not succeeding as we expected; and many more of the Horse having deserted after the rest: and besides not having a single Cooley or Tool to employ in making an Entrenchment; we then thought it most prudent to come on here. We are now tolerably well recruited; and shall set out again to-morrow morning.

I am inform'd that Mr. & Mrs. Morse with several other Ladies are fallen into the Hands of the French at Sadras. But that they're extreemly well treated, & have had nothing at all taken from them.

I am with perfect Respect

To CAPTAIN PRESTON

7 January 1759

Sir

Very early this Morning I received your Letter of the 6th: I have for the present no particular operation to recommend [sic] to you, but to be extreemly diligent & watchful in procuring advice of any of the Enemy's Convoys and endeavouring to intercept them. I hope also that Maulrauze and the other Polygars will assist you in preventing Supplies of Provisions going to them by the roads of Permadore & Poonamalee. This deserves the more attention at this time as the Season for cutting the Grain is now beginning.

—APPENDIX No. 132.—

Yesterday & to day the Enemy have kept up a very brisk fire; We have suffer'd very little as to our Works or our People: What may have been the Enemy's Loss is not known. The Three Boats which carried Mr. Morse &<sup>ca</sup> to Sadras were loaded by the French with Ammunition and dispatch'd for St Thomé with one Man in each whom the Boat people Secured and brought with the Ammunition to Madras.

January 7th 1759

Last night I received your Letter dated the 4th. Instant and this Morning came to hand that of the 6th. Yesterday and to day the Enemy have kept up a very smart Fire of Shott & Shells, as well as the Fort. On our Side very little damage has been done; what the Enemy has Suffer'd I have no certain Accounts.

I hope that by your Vigilance & Diligence all their Supplies coming by land from Covelon will be intercepted, and that Detachments from your Army will be able in conjunction with the Polygars to stop all Provisions by the road of Permadore, Poonamalee &ca ispecially as the Time of Cutting the Grain is now beginning.

GEORGE FIGOT.

To ANTAAZE PUNT

7th. January 1759

As you are well acquainted with all the affairs of this Country and the several Polygars and other Powers will pay a regard to what you recommend to them, I think it may be serviceable [sic] that you go and reside at Changleput or thereabouts and use your endeavours to get the Polygars to join their Forces and cut off the Enemy's supplies. Endeavour at the same time to assist the army under Command of Captain Preston and Usoff Cawn with the necessary supplies of Provisions.

You are acquainted with the agreement made with Morarow, whose Troops ought in consequence to have arrived here before now. I have wrote a Letter to him which I herewith deliver you and desire you will forward it and write him to order his Troops to come soon. As you have an Influence over many of the Jemedars in the Enemy's Camp you will endeavour to bring them over to our side and let them go & join Usoff Cawn, as their Wages shall be paid by the Company as you may settle.

The time for cutting the Paddy is now at hand, use your Endeavours that the Enemy may not gather it in, but get it carried to Changleput & Usoff cawn's Camp. Send me continually what news you hear which will give me great pleasure.

GEORGE FIGOT.

N. 135.

[See page 30.]

To MORAROW

7 January 1759

It was a long time since I sent your Vackeel with a Letter and a supply of Money in order that you might send your Army to join ours, but by reason of the Delay in their coming the Enemy have increased their Disturbances to the highest pitch and ventur'd even to besiege the Fort. It is necessary therefore that you order your Troops to come soon that in conjunction with the Reinforcement expected from England and those from Mazulipatam which is taken by our Army, we may fall upon the Enemy and rout them.

—APPENDIX No. 155.—

You may order your Troops to join Major Caillaud and Usoff Cawn who are encamped with an Army near Changleput in readiness to act in conjunction with you. For other matters I refer you to Antazey Punt's Letter.

GEORGE FIGOT.

N. 136.

[See page 30.]

TO MAULEAUZE

7 January 1759

As the Enemy have now carried their ambitious Designs to the highest Pitch and ventured even to besiege the Fort, it is a proper time for you to exert yourself in order to gain a good name and to merit the Company's future favor. You should use your endeavours to collect together all the Polygars, enlist a large number of Peons, and employ them in cutting off all stores or Provisions going to the Enemy, disturbing their Camp by night &c. You should at the same time assist in sending Provisions to the Army under Command of Captain Preston and Usoff Cawn, who will remain within a small Distance from your Pollam until the Arrival of our Ships with a large Reinforcement of Soldiers, which we expect every day, and then the Enemy will be attack'd with our United Force, and routed. Already they have been dispossess'd from all their Countries to the Northward, and I am advised that Mazulipatam is also taken, and the English and the Rajahs Army Marching to these Parts. Antazee Punt who carries this Letter will acquaint you with further particulars, and with what I would have you undertake against the Enemy.

Regard what he says as my own words and act accordingly; and I on my part shall confirm and approve whatever he may agree to.

GEORGE FIGOT.

N. 137.

[See page 30.]

TO RANGAPA NAIG VERDAPA NAIG

7 January 1759

I have sent Antazee Punt to inform you of the Enemy's Disturbances, and of the Reinforcements we expect daily by our Ships from England and from Mazulipatam after whose arrival we design to make a general attack upon the Enemy and give them a total Rout. In the mean time it behoves you to exert yourself in sending provisions to the Army under Usoff Cawn and Captain Preston and preventing any supplies going to the Enemy. If you are diligent and Watchful in the Execution of what I desire of you and of all that Antaza Punt shall recommend, you will thereby merit the Company's favor, & meet with Encouragement & Reward, and whatever Antozee Punt shall promise you on my part I shall entirely approve and confirm.

To M<sup>r</sup>. LALLY

8 January 1759

Sir

I have had the honour to receive your Letter of Yesterday and am oblig'd to you for the Care you have ordered to be taken of the Cloaths and Linnen of the deceased Captain Hume and for the Civilities that have been shewn to M<sup>r</sup>. Morse and the ten English Ladies at Sadras they and their Effects as well as the money found in Captain Humes Scrutore are in your hands and must be subject to your pleasure, however, since you have been pleased to quote the Transactions at Chandernagore, I must beg leave to remind you of M<sup>r</sup>. Watsons Conduct towards the Inhabitants of that place. I have only to add on this Subject that the pressing Intances [sic] of the Husbands & Friends of those Ladies and my own Concern of what regards them induces me to request the favour of you, Sir, to let them, as well as M<sup>r</sup>. Morse remain at Sadras during the Siege of this place.

After the Seizure of the Dutch Ship Harlem, your resolutions in regard to the protection of the Dutch Flag, and your possessing yourself of Sadras do not surprize me so much as that any intercepted Letter should speak of Design formed by me on that place as no such design ever had being nor has any such Letter ever been wrote by me or to my knowledge, I hope therefore you'll let me have a Copy of that which you mention, but if the Letters of private persons can be taken as Evidence of the Designs of Government, The Extract, which I have the honour to send you herewith, of one which fell into my hands a few days ago will sufficiently shew that your disregard of the Dutch Flag does no [sic] take its rise from M<sup>r</sup>. Pococks Conduct; this however is a point which it does not belong to me to Controvert.

I have communicated to the Count D'Estaing that Paragraph of your Letter which relates to him and he has desired me to convey to you his Answer which is inclosed.

—APPENDIX No. 139.—

May I request of you Sir to permit the accompanying Letters for the Ladies at Sadras to be forwarded & to favour their Friends here with a Pasport for a few Baskets of Liquors to be sent them.

I have the Honour to be very perfectly

Sir

Your most obedient and most hum<sup>e</sup> Servant

GEORGE PIGOT.

[See page 31.]

Sir

A small Ship having arrived this Morning from Pondicherry with Artillery and Stores, which will enable the Enemy to push the Siege without depending on their Convoys by land, the advantages propos[ed] by your stay at Wendelour no longer subsist and I have come to a Resolution to endeavour to effect a Junction with you & Usoff Cawn which done frequent Atta[cks] & Alarms must intercept the Enemy's Works. S<sup>t</sup> Thomé I think the most proper place for our push to be made, Your motions must be quick that the Enemy [may] not have time to make any Attack upon you before you are near enough to be supported by us. The following is what I propose. March from Wendelour to the Mount on Thursday the 11th Instant in the Evening; and the very next morn[ing] march from thence by the way of Trivambore to S<sup>t</sup> Thomé, so as to enter it by the sea Side to the Southward, Begin your march so early as to be there by Day Break; A Detachment from hence of 400 Europeans & 1000 Seapoys shall march the same morning and enter S<sup>t</sup> Thomé to the Northward, & shall be there also by Day Break. This seems [to] be the most advantageous Disposition; for as the Enemy hearing of your Arrival at the Mount may perhaps detach as they did before three or four hundred Europeans to attack you there, you by marching by the way of Trivambore will avoid this attack, & our Junction will be form'd between that Party & their Army by which means we may have a Chance of cutting them off. Our Communication open, I can supply your whole Army with Provisions for a few days if necessary & during that time if we can maintain [sic] our Post at S<sup>t</sup> Thomé & keep open the Road to Changleput, Supplies may be coming in from the Country.

By the last Accounts the Enemy's force at S<sup>t</sup> Thomé is but small if I should learn any thing to the Contrary I will immediatly advise you.

Return me an Answer immediatly by the same hand, with your oppinion of this Plan.

I am

Sir

Your most obedient Servant

GEORGE PIGOT.

To USOFF CAWN

N. 141.

[See page 31.]

This Morning a French Ship arrived from Pondicherry and as I have reason to beleive has brought the Enemy not only a good store of Artillery and Ammunition but of provisions also this will render the Scheme We had concerted for your spreading your Army round so as to cut of [sic] their supply less usefull than it would otherwise have been, it is necessary therefore to fall upon some other Plan that may now immediatly distress them and I think nothing can be more effectual as the opening a Communication and joining your Force to ours. We may then act the more vigorously in conjunction and by continually allarming and Harrassing the Enemy oblige them to abandon their Enterprize, We shall be able for a short time after the Junction is made to supply your Army with provisions from hence and if we should be able (as I doubt not we shall) to keep the Country open to Changleput supplies may be had from that Quarter.

—APPENDIX No. 141.—

As the Enemy plainly see the bad consequences that would attend them should you join us they will undoubtedly if the [sic] have timely notice endeavour to prevent it by making a large Detachment from their Army to oppose you as they did before, to prevent which it is necessary that the plan be carried into execution, after it is once begun, with rapidity and the Method I propose is that you March with your whole Force from Wendelour on Thursday next the 11th Instant so as to arrive at the Mount in the Evening, stay there some hours to refresh your people and then march directly to S<sup>t</sup>. Thomé by the way of Trivambore on the sea side so as to arrive there by day break on Friday Morning the 12th Instant. I will at the same time detach from this Garrison a body of 400 Europeans and 1000 Seapoys to oppose any Force the Enemy may have at S<sup>t</sup>. Thomé, and with this push thro' them & join you, this done our United Force will undoubtedly be more than sufficient to repel any Detachment the Enemy may make to prevent our Return into this Garrison, what Measures will then be proper to take may be best concerted according to Circumstances, If you think this plan of Action can be executed in this Manner return this Hircar directly with your Answer, you may depend on a Vigorous push from hence to Support you.

GEORGE PIGOT.

Dated the 5th & received January 10th 1759

I had the honour to receive your kind Letter in Answer to that of mine advising me and Captain Preston to observe the situation of the place we may encamp at, to be careful and endeavour to stop the provisions &c of the Enemy. Yesterday I addressed a Letter to you by Shaick Esmail which and the verbal Account which may be given by him will explain the matter fully to you.

I must inform your honour that at first I received Pagodas 10,000 from you and on the same day I also received another Sum of 10,000 for all which I returned Answers to you by the Boats which I suppose did not come to your hand. I and Captain Preston march'd from Wendalore and arrived at Singapermallis Covils [sic] not far from it, this we did to collect or call together all necessarys Bag and Baggage after which we shall enter into a proper resolution, and then wherever we may march I shall advise you. It is talked that a large Quantity of provisions, ammunition &c of the Enemys lay in Conjiveram and that Razally Cawn Son to Chendu Saib with a Body of Troops arrived in the French Army.

Sir

I take the Liberty to inform you that I anchored this Evening in Puliacat Road, and received a Chit by Cattamaran from M<sup>r</sup>. Brooke, and soon after he came on board himself and shewed a Letter from M<sup>r</sup>. Vansittart of the 8th. Instant to him containing Instructions for Ships to Anchor at Madras: considering the defenceless state of our Ship not having above Six Europeans in all and thirty Short of the Complement of Lascars, I look upon it impossible for us to lay there, as it will be always in the power of the French Ships to drive us ashore, or oblige us to cut, by anchoring on the offside of us, by which means they will be skreen'd from the fire of the Fort and as I do not find that you are in immediate want of provisions, M<sup>r</sup>. Brooke is of opinion as well as myself, that our proceeding to Massulipatam to join the Hardwick and any other Ships we may meet with from Bengal or elsewhere; to embark Colonel Forde with his Detachment for the releif of your Garrison, which I look upon can be accomplished in 10 or 12 Days at farthest, and may be of the Utmost consequence to the Honble Company's Affairs, therefore shall proceed thence with the utmost expedition. On my return should I appear in the day time in the Offing, I will make the former Signals, if in the night those of M<sup>r</sup>. VanSittarts Letter of Instructions. I remain with due Respect

I wrote you in my last of our being obliged to make a Motion this way as the only means to encourage our Horse to abide by us. I was in Hopes that after giving them an Opportunity of plundering about Conjeveram, they would be prevailed on to attend us to Vendalour. I even promised to detain them that way but a Week more and then to assist them in every means of procuring them Gram for their Horses. They seemed with this to be a little satisfied. But upon our moving this Afternoon towards Triparmadore, they every Man of 'em abandoned us. We soon turned back again, in Hopes that they 'd do so likewise. But not one of 'em have we seen since I have wrote to the Officer at Changleput to endeavour to stop them; and humbly think it for the good of the service to join immediatly in a manner of Usoffs Cawn's for raising others that will be of more service to us.

I am glad to acquaint you that I arrived here with the Squadron under my Command the 25th of last Month and found the Grafton and Sunderland and six of the Company's Ships in the Harbour with Major Monson and the Kings Troops on board: They got in the 14th but I had much rather they had been at Madras, however we must do the best to get them round, for which purpose I intend they shall sail in a few days under the Convoy of Three Frigates and hope they will be with you in about a Months passage, and enable you to obstruct M<sup>r</sup>. Lally in his Designs.

The time we shall be ready to sail for the Coromandel Coast is uncertain, as a great deal of work is to be done to the Ships and some must be Careened, as the Dock is not ready to take in the large Ships.

I shall be very Anxious to get round for many reasons which needs no explanation to you, May good success attend all your proceedings; and believe that I am very truly

Dear Sir

This Moment I received you [sic] favour of the 6th and am much obliged to you for the care you have taken in my Affairs, for which I shall always retain a grateful Remembrance.

The Action of the 7th: has been attended with as much Success as our most sanguine Friends could have expected; Yesterday at day break, my Seapoys got to the River side, just time enough to seize all the Bullocks, fifteen Europeans, and a great Quantity of Publick as well as private Stores. A Boat load of Men had just put off, and our people fired at them for half an Hour, and must certainly have killed numbers of them; upon our firing they abandon'd 4 Guns and a 13 Inch Mortar they had got at the other side of the River, so that they have not saved either Gun, Mortar, or Ammunition belonging to their whole Army, by all accounts there have not more than One hundred and fifty French pass'd the River. their Army consisted of five hundred Europeans, the day of the Battle & five thousand Seapoys with Europe Arms, besides horse & Country Troops; And Ours about four hundred and thirty Europeans Officers included and eighteen hundred Seapoys besides the Rajahs people. The Rajah himself is the greatest Paltroon I ever saw, and the greatest fool also neither he nor one of his people (except Bristow alone) stood about five Minutes after the Cannonading began; they got into a large Tank in our Rear, but when they saw us pursuing the French, and that we had beat them away from their Guns, they began to venture out, but all I could say or do, not one of their Horse or foot would pursue the Enemy, one foot faster than we advanced; if they had not been worse than Cooleys, we must have taken every man of the French Army. He would not march with us the next day, but staid to bury his dead. And I have not seen him nor any of his people since; He is near Peddapore and writes me word that he must wait there till Narrader Row comes to pay him homage otherwise he must fight him.

If Samson is not yet gone order him away immediatly with or without the Sloops, and turn M<sup>r</sup> Hilliard out of his Sloop & put in the person you mention in your Letter

14 January 1759

Sir

Late last night I received your Letter of the 10th. As you do not mention the Receipt of what I wrote you the 8th: I imagine the Hircar has been taken or stopp'd The Desertion of the Tondaman's and the Tanjour Horse might indeed have rendered you less capable of executing the Plan therein proposed. I long ago directed Useff Cawn to enlist as many good Horse as he could meet with, I now write to him again to the same purpose, and desire you will give him all the assistance in your power. With or without Horse I hope as this is the time of cutting the Grain that you will be able to get provisions for your Army, and take some good Post as near to us as possible. If it be attended with no other advantage, but that of drawing off a Part of the Enemys attention, and their Troops, it is no inconsiderable one, and it may possibly be of more important Service as I shall endeavour to find an Opportunity of attacking them jointly.

—APPENDIX No. 162.—

on the Assistance of any who are not in the Company's Service and I should therefore be very glad if you could find a Method of inlisting a Body of good Horse as I before desired. As this is the time of cutting the grain in the Country I hope you will have no difficulty in laying in a Stock of provisions for your Army; which done, the nearer you move to us the better as it draws off the Enemy's attention from the Siege and obliges them to make Detachments from their Army. This is a great advantage; besides which if your Army is near, an Opportunity may be taken of attacking them jointly and as the Enemy have brought their Stores by Ships your Remaining further off with a view of intercepting Convoys cannot be of the Service it before was.

Honble Sir

11th Jany 1759

Last night the Tanjour Horse returned to us; and as we are now within a Days march of a Place that will supply them with all they want, I hope this Trip will prove but very little out of our way.

I last night received your Letter of the 7th. Maulrauze and the other Poligars we have wrote to twice: They seem to promise fair; & I hope will be of great service to us.

I am

Honble Sir

Your most humble Servant

ACHILLES PRESTON.

TO THE COMMANDER OF ANY COMPANY'S SHIP
OR OTHER HAVING ENGLISH TROOPS ON BOARD

Sir

You will be inform'd by M<sup>r</sup>. Brooke, Resident at Pulicat that Madras has been invested by the Enemy above a Month and that they have four Ships lying off the Road. One the Harlem an old Dutch Indiaman, one the Bristol a Privateer of 26 Guns taken last War from the English, one a Frigate of 24 Guns, and the other a Country Ship. The last has no Guns nor Europeans. The two first are said also to be very ill mann'd, and in bad condition: And as it is of the utmost Consequence that the Troops you have on board be joined to our Garrison, We write this to direct that you are at all Events to endeavour to run into the Road in the Night and anchor close under the Guns of the Fort making the Signal M<sup>r</sup> Brooke shall appoint you, whereupon we shall be ready to give you the necessary Protection from the Batteries, all other English Vessels that are at Pulicat may accompany You. Their appearance may check the Enemy if they should discover you but you are not to be detained on that Account, nor will it be necessary for you to pass so near as to be seen, for as they lie at least three Miles to the Northward of the Fort, you may keep sufficiently without them, putting out all Lights. You will distinguish the Fort from the Enemy's Camp in the Black Town by the different Ranges of the Shells.

You may take a Copy of this Order, but deliver the Original back to M<sup>r</sup> Brooke to serve for any Ship that may come after you. Dated in Fort St George the 16th: January 1759.

TO CAPTAIN PRESTON

16th: January 1759

Sir

Your Letter of the 11th: did not reach me till the middle of last night. I am glad to find the Horse return'd to you and hope that your March towards Conjeveram will enable you [to] collect a good store of Provisions. I have already wrote you that as the French have brought up all their Stores by Sea your Remaining at Wendeloor cannot be attended with the proposed advantages, and that I would have you advance as near as you can this way taking possession of such Post as you judge to be most defencible, and convenient for receiving Provisions. This done, an opportunity may possibly be found of making a joint attack upon the Enemys whole Force, [which] I am informed is much diminuesed [sic] by their Attacks upon you, the Sallies from the Fort and the Fatigues of the Siege.

I desired in my last that you would write to me more frequently, and that you would forward all the advices you receive to Major Caillaud from whom I have not heard since his Departure from Tranquebar.

The Enemy keep a brisk fire from twenty four peices of Cannon, and seven Mortars, but we have suffer'd much less than could be imagined, both as to our Works and our People. They have advanced their Trenches by the Sea Side within 100 Yards of the foot of the Glacis.

TO USOFF CAWN

January 16th 1759

In the middle of the night I received your Letter of the 11th advising of your March towards Conjeveram to seize the Enemy's Provisions, and of the return of Tondeman's and the Tanjour Horse to your Army. I hope you will be able to collect sufficient Provisions to enable you to advance this way, and post yourself in such Situation as you shall judge strongest and at the same time most convenient for keeping your Army supplied with provisions. Your approach will very much interrupt the Enemy as it did before, and oblige them to detach a Part of their Force towards you, which may give us an opportunity of forming some Scheme for attacking them; their Loss of Men since the Beginning of the Siege in the two Engagements with you, the several Sallies from the Fort, and by fatigue & Sickness is computed at one Thousand; On our part we have lost very few by the Enemys Attack, nor are our Fortification much damaged although they keep up a brisk fire from Twenty four Cannon and seven Mortars; and have advanced their Trench within 100 Yards of the Foot of the Glacis.

TO CAPTAIN PRESTON

17th: January 1759

Sir

As the Enemy have advanced their Trenches to the Foot of the Glacis, and will probably very soon form an Attack upon our Cover'd way and out Works, it becomes absolutely necessary that you make a Vigorous Effort to join us. You are therefore upon the Receipt hereof to march with the Company's Troops, whether Tondeman's and the Tanjourians will accompany you or not, and by a brisk attack endeavour to possess yourself of S<sup>t</sup>: Thomé and to proceed by the way of the Sea side to join us. Or if, when you are advanced within five or Six miles of us, you hear that S<sup>t</sup>: Thomé is two [sic] strongly Garded, make a Forc'd March in the Night direct for Madras, by such Road as you shall understand to be but weakly defended. And in order to divide the Enemy's attention it may be well to have a small Detachment or two make feign'd March[es] by different Roads from that which you design to come. If you can apprize us of the Road you intend to take, and the time your push is to be made, it shall be seconded by a Sally from the Fort. For this purpose dispatch five or Six different Hircars with so many Copies of your Letter which should contain nothing more than the road you resolve to come by, and the day & hour when you shall begin your March. And in order to conceal your intention from the Enemy in case any of them should be intercepted, Make use of the Inclosed Cypher.

The present Force of the Enemy at S<sup>t</sup> Thomé is said to be one Company of Europeans, and two of Seapoys, should you be repuls'd it cannot be without considerable Loss to the Enemy and taking them off from their Works against the Fort which will be a great service done, but I have great hopes You will be able to carry your point and Effect a junction. At all events you must attempt it without Loss of time, and if you succeed we can supply you with Provisions from the Fort.

I am
Sir

GEORGE PIGOT.

To USOFF CAWN

17th January 1759

As the Enemy have advanced their Trench to the Foot of the Glacis, and may in a few days form a general Attack upon the Fort, it becomes absolutely necessary that you make a vigorous Effort to join us. Accordingly on the receipt hereof you must march with all the Companys Troops, whether those of Tanjour and Tondeman will accompany you or not and by a sudden attack endeavour to possess Yourself of S<sup>t</sup> Thomé, and from thence by the way of the Sea side to join us. Or if on your arrival near, you are advised S<sup>t</sup> Thomé is too strongly garded, you need not attack it but make a quick March in the night direct for Madras by such Road as from your Intilligence you shall judge to have the smallest Guards. At the same time in order to divide the Enemy's Attention it may be advisable to have a small Detachment or two sent by different Roads from that which you intend to March. If you can acquaint me of the Road you intend to take, and the Time your Push is to be made, it shall be seconded by a Sally from the Fort. Should you be repulsed it cannot be without considerable Loss to the Enemy and taking them off from their Works against the Fort, which will be an important Service, but I have great hopes you will be able to succeed so far as to effect a junction. At all events you must attempt it without Loss of time, and if you succeed I can supply you with Provisions from the Fort.

You will consult with Captain Preston, and let him advise me of the Road you are to march and the Time when, as I have furnish'd him with a Cypher, that it may be conceal'd from the Enemy, in case they should intercept the Letter.

AT A COUNCIL OF WAR HELD THE 19TH JANUARY 1759.

Present

GEORGE PIGOT ESQ<sup>r</sup>. GOVERNOUR

LIEUTENANT COLONEL STRINGER LAWRENCE

LIEUTENANT COLONEL WILLIAM DRAPER

MAJOR CHOLMONDELEY BRERETON

The Enemy being now advanced as far as the foot of the Glacis, The Governour proposes to the Council for their Consideration and Opinion, Whether from the appearance of the Enemy's Works as they now stand it is their Intention to erect another Battery or only to cover themselves till they can approach so near as to facilitate an Assault.

We are of Opinion from the Appearance of the Enemy's Works and Method of proceeding that they intend to work on by Sap till they reach the Crest of the Glacis on the Sea Side and from thence make an Assault, or else make a Mine and blow up the Covered Way and Counterscarp near the North East Salient Angle, and make their Attempt immediately after, but it is not apprehended that they intend to proceed so regularly as to erect a Battery on the Glacis against the Flank of the Royal Bastion or to make any Lodgment in the Cover'd Way and therefore it is judge[d] most advisable to Secure the works on the North East part of the Fort and the Sea Line, at the same time to drive several Rows of Pickets in the Dry Ditch before the East Curtain.

This being the Opinion of the Council the Governour further proposes for their Consideration and Opinion Whether, on the one hand considering the reasonable Hopes We may entertain of the Arrival of our long expected Succours if it be adviseable by all means to endeavour to gain time, and as the most effectual Means to make Sallys in order to destroy the Enemy's Works, and retard their Approach, and if so, what should be strength of such Sallys and what the properest time. Or, Whether on the other hand Considering the hard Duty of the Garrison, that it will be impossible to make Sallys of any considerable strength, and at the same time spare working Parties sufficient to repair in the night the damage done to the works in the Day, if it be more adviseable not to make any Sallys upon the Enemy but confine ourselves wholly to the keeping our present Works in repair, and erecting such others as may from time to time be judged necessary and annoying the Enemy from our Works.

We are of Opinion that great advantages might attend the making of Sallys by retarding the Enemy's Works, and that they may occasionally be hazarded, but should an Attempt of that Nature be attended with any considerable Loss of Men it is to be apprehended that our Numbers may be then insufficient to carry on the necessary Repairs and Man our Works with a proper Complement of Men as from Sickness and the Accidents the Garrison is considerably diminished, in so much that the Men who come off Guard have sometimes been obliged to assist in the Repairs instead of taking their natural rest agreeable to the usual Custom of most Garrisons, add to this that there are no places Bomb Proof for the protection of the Soldiers when off Duty. The Hospital only excepted.

Your favour of the 17 Ultimo I received this Day and have forwarded a Copy of it by Sea and another by Land to the Committee at Calcutta, from whom I every day expect orders relating to your representation of the 4 November. I have not heard a word from Bengal since I set out on this Expedition and fear much the communication by Land is stopp'd by Narandieu a Rajah near Sittacool; two of your Letters of the 4th. November I dispatch'd by Land, and one by Sea by Captain Lewis; a few days ago the accompanying Letter from Colonel Clive to M<sup>r</sup> Pigot was brought me by the Hircarrahs who say they have been 4 Months Prisoners with Narandieu.

I most heartily congratulate You on the succesful Sally made the 14th: which will certainly convince M<sup>r</sup> Lally he is not to expect Childrens play I have the honour to be

Vous me demandez par votre Lettre des nouvelles de la prise du Fort S<sup>r</sup>. David, alors un detail circonstancié auroit pu vous faire plaisir, mais apresent cela est vieux.

Vous parlerai-je d'une malheureuse expedition que nous venons de faire dans le Tanjour? les mauvaises nouvelles interessent, mais content á celui qui les racante. Nous avons fait le siege de Tanjour, nous y avons fait breche et nous avons été obligés de nous retirer faute de vivres et de munitions, en y laissant 9 pieces de cannon, dont 8 de 24, L'Armée a souffert la faim, la soif les veilles et les fatigues. Nous y avons perdu pres de 200 hommes tant par la desertion, que par le boulet, ou les Calérés qui nous ont tué bien des traineurs. Cet echec nous fait bien de tort, tant pour notre réputation, que par les pertes réelles que nous avons faites. Ajoutés á cela le depart de l'Escadre qui a mis hier á la voile pour aller aux îles y refaire et reparer ses batimens assés maltraités d'un second combat qui s'est donne le 3<sup>d</sup> aout: nous avons perdu á ce dernier plus 350 hommes.

— APPENDIX No. 178. —

“Pauvres Francois, ou en sommes nous ? quels projets ne nous croyons nous pas en etat d’execution ; & combien sommes nous dechus de l’esperance que nous avoit donnée la prise de Fort St David ? je plains notre general ; il doit avoir la tete bien embarrassee quelque vaste que soit son genie. Sans argent, sans escadre, ses troupes tres mecontentes, le credit de la nation perdu, sa reputation chancellante, la mauvaise saison aprochant et nous forçant a depenser pour subsister, sans pouvoir tenter d’interprise qui nous procure des fonds, que pouvons nous devenir ? je ne crains pas pour moi, mais je vois avec peine que nous ne brillons pas.”

“On dit que Mr de Bussi desient : qu’il se depeche, qu’il amene des hommes, qu’il apporte de l’argent surtout : sans cela il ne fera que hater notre misere. Le pays est ruine, et ne fournit presque plus de vivres. Les consommations de l’escadre, celles de l’armee, la desertion des habitans ont bien encherri toutes sortes de denrées.”

“J’oubiais de vous dire que plus de 20 Officiers des differens Corps ont repassé sur l’escadre, & que si Mr de Lally avoit voulu permettre de s’en aller a tous ceux qui le lui demandes la plus grande partie se seroit embarquée, tant ces Messieurs sont degoutés.

20, January 1759

Your Letter of the 16th reached me last night, but I have not received what you mention to have wrote me the day before. Nothing but the most unavoidable necessity should have carried You to so great a Distance from the present scene of Action. The Enemy’s advanc’d Trench is now within 80 Yards of the North East Angle of our Cover’d Way ; you will therefore act with all Expedition according to the Orders I sent you the 17th of this Month.

The Enemy have placed two large Guns upon the Sand beyond the Bar to the Southward and have posted a strong Detachment from the Lorrain Regiment at the Garden house.

I am

Sir

Your most humble Servant

GEORGE PIGOT.

My Letter of the 17th was forwarded in two Copies let me know if you have received them both.

20th January 1759

I received last night your Letter dated the 15th advising of your setting out for Chittour to bring Abdul Vahab Cawn. As the Enemy have now advanced within a very few Yards of the Fort, You must not delay even an hour to execute the Orders contain’d in my Letter of the 17th of this Month. If Abdul Vahab Cawn with a good Body of Horse accompanies you it will be esteem’d a Mark of Friendship to the Nabob and the Company, but if he is not ready you must proceed without them and march with as much expedition as possible.

Yesterday being the 19th Instant, I address'd a Letter to you advising of my return to the Army at Lalapatta jointly with Abdul Bob Cawn. I must inform your Honour that Abdul Bob Cawn out of regard to the old Friendship and Union being inclined to perserve his Amity with the Company and while they are fighting to support his Family in the Government of the Country under great hardships, not caring to withdraw himself at such a Juncture joined my Army in order to punish and expell the Enemy. I on my part encouraged him greatly, You'll be pleased to write him a Letter of Friendship and encouragement. I thought it necessary to request you on this head.

By the Blessing of God a Strong Army is now gathered as well as a good store of provisions and I shall march from hence and arrive in 3 Days to act against the Enemy which shall by no means be Delay'd. I have sent Maliah Mahomud Asselam Cawn and Govenderam Vakeel of the Marattoes to Gopal harry agreing to pay 60 Thousand Rupees provided they brought 3000 of the Morattoes horse in 15 Days towards Valore. If any thing happens here after I shall advise you.

Sir

Early this Morning I received your Letter of the 19th. and observe with pleasure that Abdul Vahab Cawn had joined you and that you intended to move this way with all expedition. I approve the agreement you made with the Morattoes whose Assistance will always be of service but our Operations must not wait for their arrival. We must pursue immediatly vigorous Measures, by which either we shall Effect a Junction or by the Enemy's dividing their Force have an opportunity of taking some advantage over them. I shall have people constantly looking out for the Signals mentioned in your Letter, or if the Cypher I sent with my Letter of the 17th has reached your hands you may acquaint me particularly of the Rout you intend to take and the time when and dispatch that notice in several Copies as the Enemy will discover nothing, if any of them should fall into their hands. As soon as I receive advice of your designs, I will take such measures for promoting your Success as shall appear most expedient upon Information of the Enemy's Motions. The Night before last a small party from the Garrison made a Sally upon the Enemys Advanced Trench which they abandoned in Confusion, and our people kept possession long enough to overset many of the Gabions and for one of our Engineers to examine the Nature of the work, which was the Chif [sic.] design of the Sally. the Trench was found a very weak one and no appearance of a mine which they had reported to be in forwardness, they have been employed since in deepening and Strengthening their Trench, and making a Battery upon the North East Angle near the Foot of the Glacis, where they opened this Morning Three Guns direct against the North Ravalin.

I am informed they have withdrawn all their Men from St Thomé, as well as the Detachment they had at the Garden house, excepting about Sixty Europeans, & some Companies of Seapoys. I have ordered some Hircaras from hence to go into the Enemys Camp and carry you the news of any Motions; Useff Cawn no doubt has also some good Spies of his own, I have wrote to him again about bringing over the Enemy's Country Forces in which Abdul Vahab Cawn may be very assisting, If you can draw any further Assistance from Changleput without leaving the place in danger of a Assault from small parties you must by all means do it that you may be as strong as possibly for so important a Push.

I am

Sir

Your most obed<sup>t</sup> Servant
GEORGE PIGOT.

TO USSOFF CAWN

January 23<sup>d</sup>: 1759

Last night I received your Letter of the 19th advising of Abdul Vahab's Cawn's joining you at Lalaput with his forces, and that your Army being now well reinforced and plentifully supplied with Provisions, you should march from thence and arrive here in 3 Days. This gave me great pleasure for as the Enemy have advanced their Works very near to the Fort and erected a Battery upon the Glacis, our United Efforts must be made as soon as possible. I shall keep people to look out Constantly for the Signal mentioned in Captain Preston's Letter of the 19th, and you may also acquaint me particularly of your Designs by means of the Cypher I sent to Captain Preston with my Letter of the 17th: Instant.

I have wrote a Letter to Abdul Vahab Cawn according to your Advice, commending his Behaviour on this Occasion, and he may be assured of all marks of the Company's Esteem and Friendship in return for the Instance he is now giving of his Readiness to Assist in their Affairs against the common Enemy. I approve of your sending for the Morattas and of the agreement you made with the Vakeel but we must not wait for their Arrival; we must endeavour first to remove the Enemy from hence and then with the Junction of the Morattas we may be enabled to cut off their Retreat. Perhaps you may succeed with the Assistance of Abdul Vahab Cawn in drawing of [sic] the Enemy's Country Troops. The Parties of Europeans which they kept at St Thomé, and the Places to the Southward are now drawn into the Black Town excepting a small Detachment at the Garden House. As soon as I have advice of your approach, if they send a large Force against you I will take the opportunity of destroying their Works near the Fort, if they do not send any Force against you, there will be no Difficulty in your joining us by the way of St Thome and the Seaside.

The Instances you have given of your Bravery and Zeal for the Company's Service are very many and that which you are now to give will exceed all the rest by reason of the Good Consequences that will attend it.

GEORGE PIGOT.

TO ABDUL VAHAB CAWN

23 January 1759.

The Instance you have given of your Friendship to the Company, & your regard for the Welfare of the Country by joining USSoff Cawn and Captain Preston with your Army in order to act against the common Enemy at this Time of Material Business has given me the greatest pleasure and satisfaction, and you may be assured that I shall always keep the Remembrance of it and upon all Occasions give you marks of the Company's regard.

By the long continuance of the Siege the Enemy have lost a very considerable Number of Officers and Men Kill'd and Wounded, as well as through Sickness and Fatigue, wherefore if an Opportunity can be found for our Junction it will be no difficult Matter to cut off the Remains of their Army. I have sent a Cypher to Captain Preston, by the means of which he may acquaint me with your advice and Intentions without and [sic] danger if the Letter should fall into the Enemy's hands as they will not understand it. You will therefore consult with him & USSoff Cawn and let him advise me of your Resolution in several Copies; that I may at the same time do what may be necessary on my part to destroy the Enemy and Effect a Junction with your Army. I have been advised that most of the Enemy's Country Forces are discontented, and am of opinion that by your means the greatest [sic] part of them might be drawn over to our Side considering that many of them have heretofore been Servants under your Government and may be inclin'd to act according to your advice. It is a great happiness to me that the Union between you and the Company is renewed [sic]. By the Blessing of God it will increase daily and remain as long as the Sun and Moon endure.

I think it necessary to inform you of two Schemes which occur to me the First is that I proceed according to your Orders and endeavour to Punish the Enemy in a proper manner, the Second that if you should be involved in great Troubles and think it impossible the Fort can hold out in such case to order all your heavy stores to be destroyed reserving Money and small Guns which may be trasported [sic] by Men the Money may be delivered in small Sums to the Seapoys and Europeans to bring along with you and take as many of the small Guns as possible & leave a few Gunners & Seapoys in the Fort and the whole Body of the Inclosed is Duplicate of what I wrote you Yesterday. During the Night the Enemy push'd forward some Gabions quite up to the Crest of the Glacis. Our people pull'd several of them into the Cover'd way and killed some of their working Men.

January 24th: 1759

I received last night your Letter of the 22<sup>d</sup> The Preservation of this Fort is of the utmost Consequence to the Company's Welfare and must be regarded above all other considerations. The Number of Shott & Shells that have been fired against it is very large and the Enemy have ad[vanced] close to the Cover'd way, nevertheless the Walls are in good Condition, and the same number of Guns mounted upon the Bastions as in the Beginning. My Resolution therefore is to defend it to the last extremity and I am persuaded it will not be in the Enemy's Power to take it. You on your part will exert yourself with the utmost Diligence and Bravery in order to effect a Junction. The particular Plan for your Operations and the Road by which you may best succeed is left to your own Determination upon the Intelligence you receive of any Parties of the Enemy that may be sent to oppose you, and when I hear what Rout you resolve on I will take such Measures as shall appear most expedient to promote your success. I have sent herewith Duplicates of the Letters I wrote Yesterday to you and Abdul Vahab Cawn, As he has a great Influence over the Polygars I am in hopes he will engage them to give Disturbance to the Enemy and to assist you in what you may require.

I have just now received your Letter of the 20 Instant. The Safety of Madras has been my only Consideration; And I hope you'll soon be convinced that by attending Usoff Cawn as I have, I have done much more towards it than even if I could have remained all along with both our Parties any where near you, in my last I inclosed you a Letter from Major Caillaud; wherein he mentions the Arrival of our first Division of Ships which sailed from Anjengo the 31st of December and some other advices in Cypher. All that he has wrote to me as to any Purpose, is only that his principal Intintions was to endeavour to join me. He tells me that he has had no Letters from Madras since the 25th Ultimo, nor does he acknowledge so much as one Letter out of 4 which I have wrote him since the 10th Instant. Your Letters of the 14 and 16 I have received. We gave what Interruption we could to the works by the Fire from the Fort and it was the 2<sup>d</sup> of this Month before they returned a Single Shott or Shell. That Morning they began to play from three Guns and Six Mortars. The Guns were soon silenced but they continued throwing Shells the whole day. Changleput, had advanced within Six Miles of us. The 6th: They opened their Batteries against the Fort and ever since we have had a Continual fire both of Shott & Shells which have laid almost the whole Town in Ruins, disabled 26 pieces of Cannon and 3 Mortars, but have not had the Effect of destroying our Defences; The Enemy have nevertheless advanc'd their Trenches quite up to the Crest of the Glacis, where they are now making a Battery in Breach; Our Situation is therefore exceeding critical.

Two Pattamars from your Place have arrived safe at Pulicat with your Letters of the 18th November and 2<sup>d</sup> December. - After the frequent Representations made to you of the Enemy's Designs against this Settlement and the Necessity of your sending us timely Reinforcements, we should naturally have imagin'd that you would not have suffer'd the Ships which, through an unaccountable Deviation, carried to Bombay the Troops destin'd for this Coast, to remain there one Moment longer than was absolutely necessary. Had they sailed by the 25 of November which is allowing them ten days for Refreshment (Time sufficient considering they had before made some stay at Goa) they would probably have arrived here long ago, and their Junction, even without the Addition of any Troops from your Garrison, would effectually prevented [sic] the Danger to which this Settlement is now exposed, and the immense Loss which the Company and every Inhabitant will sustain whether the Place is taken or not. For the Cloth Warehouse and almost every Building in the Town have been destroyed by the Shells and the Goods that were in them either consumed by the Flames or buried under the Ruins.

In short Mr Lally has had the Good Fortune to see every one Circumstance turn out exactly as he could have wish'd to favor his Attempt. About the 1st of December he received advice from Goa of our Squadron under Command of Mr Tiddeman being there and it was this determined him to march directly against Madras; Before any Vessel of ours appeared, the Ship he expected from Mazulipatam with Artillery and Stores join'd him. The next day the 23<sup>d</sup> December the Thames Captain Wedderburn loaded with Provisions for the Garrison came without opposition into the Road, the French Ship being neither in the condition nor the Intention to mind any thing except the Landing her Stores, but upon her getting under Sail the 24th: to run nearer into her Station, The Thames weigh'd also and disappeared. Fortunately we had laid in a sufficient stock of Provisions. The 8th: Instant a Frigate of 20 Guns arrived from Pondicherry, and the next day the Bristol and a Country Ship all with supplies of Stores. The Warren, for what reason we know not, went to Bengal with the Detachment of King's Troops She had on Board for this Garrison, and we are advised, was to leave that place for Madras the 20th Instant but it will be impossible for her to get into the Road unless the Captain acts with a different spirit from that which he has shewn before, or is joined by other Ships sufficient to master those of the Enemy, which block us up. The Ganges, Captain Duncan, who appeared off Pulicat the 20th would have been of some use in such an attempt, but he no sooner heard of our Circumstances than he stood off the Coast again; and Colonel Forde notwithstanding his Success in Golconda is so positively forbid to come here, that he writes he must wait for fresh Instructions from Bengal although he has advice of our being actually besieg'd.

Under all these Discouragements we have the pleasure to see the Whole Garrison do their Duty with the utmost cheerfulness and Spirit. Our Loss to this time is much less than might have been expected from so long a Siege and so warm a Fire as we have sustain'd, especially as we are not provided with any Bomb Proof Lodgments except that which we have made an Hospital. We doubt not our Men will persevere [sic] the same Spirit to the last extremity, and if the Place should at length be reduced, we flatter ourselves it will be so dear a Purchase to the Enemy as will put it out of their Power to undertake any thing against the other Precedencies.

But we hope our Efforts will be attended with Success and frustrate the Designs of the Enemy. In such Case all the supplies you can possibly spare us of

By a Pattamar from Bombay which came lately to Pulicat we had the Pleasure to receive advice of your Arrival there on the 25th November, it would have been exceeding fortunate if you had order'd the Squadron which through an unaccountable Deviation carried to Bombay the Troops destin'd for this Coast, to proceed hither immediatly. They might have join'd us in time to prevent the imminent Danger to which this Settlement is now expos'd and the immense Loss which the Company and every Inhabitant will sustain whether the place is taken or not. THE HONBLE ROBERT CLIVE Esq<sup>r</sup>
AND THE GENTLEMEN OF THE SELECT COMMITTEE
AT FORT WILLIAM

Gentlemen

Our Letter to Colonel Forde of the 17th: December of which he has forwarded Copies to you will acquaint you of our being Invested by the French Army. The Houses of the Black Town not being yet demolish'd to the intended Distance gave them an Opportunity of opening Ground and erecting their first Battery with [in] 450 Yards of the foot of the Glacis, We gave what Interruption we could to their Works by the Fire from the Fort and it was the 2<sup>d</sup> of this Month before they returned a single Shott or Shell. That morning they began to Fire from 3 Guns and Six Mortars the Guns were soon silenc'd but they continued throwing Shells the whole Day this however appeared to be intended only to cover an Attack they made that Morning upon a Body of Seapoys from Trichenopoly which join'd by a few Europeans from Changleput had advanc'd within Six Miles of us. The 6th: they opened their Batteries against the Fort and ever since we have had a Continual Fire both of Shott & Shells which have laid almost the whole town in Ruins disabled 26 Pieces of Cannon and 3 Mortars but have not had the Effect of, destroying our Defences; The Enemy have nevertheless advanced their Trenches quite up to the Crest of the Glacis where they are now making a Battery in Breach; Our Situation is therefore exceeding critical.

Two Pattamars from Bombay have brought us Advice of the Arrival there of Mr Tiddeman's Squadron on the 14 November and Mr Pocock's on the 25th: of the same Month. The first is a most unaccountable Deviation but if they had been order'd to leave that Place again after a few days Refreshment, which we think might have suffic'd as they had made some stay at Goa they might yet have arrived here in time to prevent the Danger to which this Settlement is now exposed, and the immense Loss which the Company and every Inhabitant will sustain whether the Place is taken or not. For the Cloth Warehouse and almost every Building in the Town have been destroyed by the Shells, and the Goods that were in them either consum'd by the Flames or buried under the Ruins?

The Warren's going to Bengal with the Detachment of Kings Troops she had on board for this Garrison, is another extraordinary Proceeding and her long stay there will expose not only those Troops but the Ship and Cargoe to the Risque of being taken by those of the Enemy which now block up our Road. In short Mr Lally has had the Good Fortune to see every one circumstance turn out exactly as he could have wish'd to favor his Attempt. About the 1st: December he received advice from Goa of our Squadron under the Command of Mr Tiddeman being there, and it was this Determined him to march directly against Madras; Before any Vessel of ours appeared the Ship he expected from Mazulipatam with Artillery and Stores joined him. Fortunately we had laid in a sufficient stock of Provisions. The 8th Instant a Frigate of Twenty Guns arrived from Pondicherry, and the next day the Bristol and a Country Ship, all with supplies of Stores. The Ganges Captain Duncan who appeared of [sic] Pulicat the 20th: might have been of some Service if she had waited there & join'd the Warren and any other Ships that may arrive, but he no sooner heard of our Circumstances than he stood off [sic] the Coast again with all the sail he could set. Colonel Forde has received advice of our being actually besieg'd but he write [sic] Us the frhis Orders from you so positively forbid his coming here that he must wait for fresh Instructions?

—APPENDIX No. 199.—

Under all these Discouragements we have the pleasure to see the whole Garrison do their Duty with the utmost chearfulness and spirit Our loss to this time is much less than might have been expected from so long a Siege & so warm a fire as we have sustain'd, especially as we are not provided with any Bomb Proof Lodgments except that which we have made an Hospital. We doubt not our Men ever preserve the same spirit to the last extremity, and if the Place should at Length be reduced we flatter ourselves it will be so dear a purchase to the Enemy as will put it out of their Power to undertake any thing against the other Precedencies.

But we hope our Efforts will be attended with such Success as to oblige the Enemy to raise the Siege, In such Case all the supplies you can possible [sic] spare us of Gunpowder, Shott, Shells and other Military Stores will be very necessary, as well as a Reinforcement of Men, unless Colonel Forde is already order'd to join us. These Supplies will be necessary to repair our Losses and enable us to make head against the fresh Armaments the Enemy expect this Year from Europe.

Large Supplies of Provisions will also be very necessary as the Ravages the Country has Undergone threaten a severe Famine.

I have received no Letter from you since the 22<sup>d</sup>. but we perceiv'd the day before Yesterday about 10 in the Morning a large smok to the Westward and a Fire at night which we Concluded to be your Signal. I have therefore been in continual expectation of receiving notice from you of your Intentions, but I fear some of your Letters have been intercepted; Intelligence is brought me that the Enemy has detached Three hundred Men, besides their Horse, to oppose you; but I conclude your own People will give you more certain accounts both of their Numbers and Rout as they will go backwards and forwards with Less Difficulty than the Hircars from hence can.

I wait with Anxiety for Information of your Designs, that I may do what may be expedient to promote your Success.

I intend to leave the Bag &c Baggage under the Shelter of Maulraze's Woods, and before you take pains to make a Push to find an Opportunity to fall upon Lally's Mourcha whose Quarters is at Tomby Chitty's Pagoda by night thro' the Road of Tervatore and punish him, because the Enemy's Attention is towards the Fort & myself, wherefore if I on a Sudden march behind to punish him, I hope it will be agreeable to you. TO CAPTAIN PRESTON

Sir

Last night I received your Letter of the 25 & just now your two Letters of the 27th: have reach'd me the attack you propose upon the Black Town may be attended with great Difficulty as the Streets are all baricaded, whenever it is undertaken it must be seconded by a General Sally from the Garrison ; but as our Letters are liable to be intercepted by which one or the other might not be apprized of the Plan and appointed Time, I think it will be more adviseable first to effect a Junction and then we might concert together with Exactitude and certainty a Time for the joint Attack. The Enemy have sent all their European and Black Horse to the Mount imagining you would march that way ; now upon Intelligence of your coming to Trimlwash they have assem[bli'd] upon the Plain to the Northward of Maskelyne's Garden and there encamp'd. They are also withdrawing the Guns they had to the Southward from whence I conclude their Design is to collect their whole Force in the Black Town and the plain without it. I would therefore have you make your Push where they are least prepared ; you may march in the Night and making a Little Circuit round Egmore, enter by the Choultry Plain and Marmelan, take possession of S<sup>t</sup> Thomé and join us by the way of the Sea Side.

—APPENDIX No. 208.—

To divide the Enemy's Attention it may be well to send a small Party or two of Horse to begin Skirmishing to the Northward at the same time that you are marching the other Road. The sooner you make this Push the better, if you receive this Letter in Time & can get every thing in readiness it may be done even this Night, giving Notice to what you Expect from Changleput to join you at S<sup>r</sup> Thomé. This is the Plan we think the most expedient according to the present Situation of the Enemy's Troops, but if you find the entering of S<sup>r</sup> Thomé attended with any inconvenience which we do not foresee, it is left to you to join us by any other Road you think less difficult; but it is certainly adviseable that our Junction be effected before an Attempt on their Camp in the Black Town be undertaken, as the necessary Measu[re] for our joint Operation will be better concerted.

FROM USOFF CAWN

Dated 28 Received 29 January 17[59]

I had the happiness to receive the Duplicate of your Letter dated the 27th Instant on the 28th at 3 oClock in the Afternoon, Yesterday I received the Original Letter and return'd an Answer at the same [time by] the Nabobs Camel Man by which you'll be acquainted with [matters] there is nothing material at present to acquaint you. If any [thing happen] hereafter I shall advise you. By the Blessing of God the En[emy will] be regularly punished. Maulraze Polligar and Antazee Punt [join'd] me Yesterday but this Day they return'd again to the Pollam. [I intreated] Antazee Punt to stay here but he would by no means agree to it; [on the] Contrary went away to the Pollam along with the Polygar, because [it was] a time to gain Profit for himself had he found any Prospect of [advantage] he would have stay'd here. I must repeat that he came along [with] Polygar & return'd again.

What can I say more ?

TO THE COMMANDER OF THE SHIP COMING IN FROM THE SOUTH EAST

Sir

Fort St. George has been for seven Weeks invested by the French Army and both the Ships you see are French which came Loaded with Stores, one an old Dutch Indiaman which they took, the other a Frigate of Eighteen Guns. The former seems to have about twenty Guns mounted but has very few Europeans on board. As the supplies you have on board, especially Military, will be of great service to us you must run all risques to get into the Road. If the Ships weigh to oppose you make a Running Fight and anchor under the Guns of the Fort between the Sea Gate and the Southermost Bastion by which you will be sufficiently protected. I write this upon the supposition that you are a Merchant Ship, if on the Contrary you have [sic] a Ship of War you will have no difficulty in overcoming both those of the Enemy.

I shall send off presently two or three Massoolah's for fear the Cattamaran should be intercepted by the Frigate the Boats will have in them some Seamen left here by the Squadron.

I am

Sir

Your most humble Servant
GEORGE PIGOT.

I judge that the Enemy, by the appearance of your Ship last night, took her for a Man of War. It will be usefull if we can keep them still deceived, for which purpose I intend to fire a Salute of 13 Guns at Sun rise, and you will return the same Number. They have a Single Gun to the Southward near a Mile off from which you may expect a Random Shot or two.

We shall fire from the North Front of the Fort Remember to keep up your Blue Ensign and Pendant.

Sir

I beleive the Ship to the Southward is the French Frigate upon the Return if you continue at the Distance you are from the Shore I think the two Ships will certainly attack you. It will be better therefore to run or warp in again you may lay much nearer than you was before and Anchor a Little to the Northward of our Southermost Bastion; The Shot from the Southward may do you some Damage, but their Battery is at so great a Distance it must be a very uncertain Fire; In the Evening I'll send you such other Orders as shall appear necessary upon the Metions of the Enemy's Ships. In the mean time give me your Opinion whether you can without Danger weigh in the Night and proceed to Pulicat where I hourly expect the Warren, Hardwick & other Ships, I have just received your Letter by the Cattamaram and am

I have just received the Letter you sent me by your Officer. The Boats you was Apprehensive of, went away to the Southward without calling on Board their Ships, I do not think they will attempt to Board you; they have no men to spare for such Enterprizes as there is besides a great Chance of their not succeeding. If the Enemy's Ships should move, or the Land Wind give you an Opportunity of getting away I would have you by all means proceed to Pulicat, but if you find that not practicable, [sic] and any Attempt should be made by the Enemy, it will be certainly better to run the Ship ashore when you find yourself hard pres'd, than suffer her to fall into the Enemy's hands however the longer you can Ride it out the Better as every hour may be expected to bring in the Rest of the Fleet; as well as those which are coming from the Northward as I

This Boat brings 10 Chest of Treasure, one of which Iron Bound with Locks containing 9614 Arcot Rupees, I take the Liberty to recomend to your Care on my Account. The Marks and Numbers of the Company's Chests I cannot possible [sic] send you as I think it improper to have any Lights on board neither could I send Buoy or Buoys Ropes as I should otherwise have done in another Situation. I beg you'll send me your possitive Orders with respect to moving to night, the Enemy's Ships will not move to night, & If I lye here till Day Light the two Batteries must sink us, as we have had Several Shot this Evening between Wind and Water, and our Rigging much Damaged, if we go out there is a great odds against us of being taken by the two Ships, whether you think that risque, or running the Ship ashore most adviseable, I shall impatiently wait your determination and Orders. If I do not hear from you I am determined to Weigh with the Land Wind & fight my way thro' the two Ships unless you send me Contrary Orders, for the Batteries tear us all to Peices. M<sup>r</sup> Brown of Colonel Drapers Battalion talking to me this Afternoon on the Quarter Deck had a Leg & Arm broke by the Southern Battery, his Leg is cut off.

I have received the Letter you wrote me this Evening by the Boats which anded the Treasure. I can only add to what I have before said to you that if you see less probability of escaping than you apprehend danger of falling into the Enemy's hands, by Weighing from the Place you lay, it will not be adviseable to attempt it. The Enemy will I think not Offer to Board you, I return the Boats to you continue to land your Cargo as you find opportunity's, keep your Men as much as possible below or even send part of them ashore in the Day. The Enemy may hurt your Ship, but cant I think sink her, & will I beleive soon be tired with using their Ammunition that way.

Your Officer has informed me that your People are unwilling to continue on Board, it is natural that they should be a Little Alarm'd, but as I observe the Enemy have slakened their Fire from the Northern and Southern Battery's and the Shot from ther [sic] Ships must be very uncertain, your People will I hope with your Good Example resume their Resolution. The Enemy I am persuaded have not any superfluous Ammunition and when they observe that you seem to pay but little regard to their Fire, will desist. I would not have you imagine I think too slightly of your danger, but at the same time I beleive your people would suffer much more here from Shot & Shells as We have no Bomb Proof Places.

Sir

As both the French Ships have stood away to the Northward, I should think that if you find your Ship in Danger from the Shott of the Batteries you may venture to haul a Little off leaving an Anchor by which you may be able to warp in again in the Evening, in case the wind should not serve. If you can join two or three Cables together, it will carry you pretty well out of Reach of the Batteries, or at least by altering your station you will get out of the Line of Fire, and it may be some time before they will find the Direction again.

We are in want of Spikes, Hammers, small scales & Weights and Muscovy Lights and other Lanthorns. I shall be oblig'd to you if you will supply us with what you can spare; also all the Venegar that is to be found in Your Ship which will be of great use in our Hospital.

I should be glad of a Massoolah to tend the Ship Day and Night in case of any accident for these Red Hot Shot or the Shells they throw at us in the Night may sett us on Fire & I have no Boats to save the People's Lives. FROM ABDUL VAHAB CAWN

This day your Letter to Captain Preston was brought safe he read it to me, and I was exceeding glad to know the Contents of it. I have firm hopes in God that the rest of the Ships will soon arrive. It was advisable for us to take possession of the Enemy's Districts in our way hither, in which Case they would have been Distressed and the Provisions easily brought to the Camp, but as your Letters came repeatedly to Captain Preston, advising us to come with all possible speed, we arrived here by long stages but they did not act from any place. Now it is very difficult to get provisions, for which reason the People of the Army suffer great hardships. As to the Enemy they dont move from the place of their Encampment. That we may engage them, they only come in a small number as Patrolling or Flying Parties and they are punish'd by us. The 29th of the last Month and the 1st Instant February we seized about 40 Horse of the Enemy there has happened no other engagement than that with the Flying Parties. For want of Provisions the People of the Army suffer very much. I need not urge to you concerning the Polygars Friendship, for they are Friends for Food only. As to the Country Troops it is well known that if they are put to hard Duty, they will disperse, then it will be a hard matter to collect them again, you must be sensible of this wherefore it will be advisable to put them to their Duty on an Easy footing. By the Blessing as the coming of the Ships is now begun You'll order Soldiers to be Landed on the sea Side towards our Camp, that they may easily join our Army then we can both do a great deal, I write to you what I thought proper, but you may let me know what you think advisable that I may act accordingly.

What can I say more.

For other Matters I refer you to the Letters sent to you by Usoff Cawn & Captain Preston Please to send an Answer soon.

I was exceeding Glad to hear of the Arrival of a Ship By the Blessing of God the other Ships will arrive in a Day or two and the Enemy will meet with deserv'd Punishment, and be sent into the abyss of Hell. I march'd from Termel-washe! and arrived at Colatore but could not proceed forward by reason of the Paddy Fields and Morasses wherefore I return'd from hence to the Village of Polley. This day being the 1st of February, some European and Black Horse appeared in sight but we punish'd them severely and kill'd about 40 Black and 4 or 5 of the European Horsemen took Ten Black Horsemen Prisoners and seized 24 Horses besides which we Wounded some Men and the rest not being able to hold out made their Retreat. In the same Manner I seized about 15 Horses of the Enemy the Day before Yesterday. Had the Enemy come with a Body to oppose me, I would have punish'd them in a regular manner, but they dont detach from their Quarters, for which reason we must wait for an Opportunity to act accordingly, for you must be sensible of the Circumstances of the Country Troops and I take easy Measures to employ them were they put upon hard Duty and any thing happens to them it will be attended with great Difficulty to gather them again wherefore we should by easy Methods engage them to do their Duty. There is a great scarcity of Provisions in the Camp and if any part of the Country remained under our Government, Provisions will be undoubtedly brought, and the Business is carried on to this Day with whatever Provisions we brought along with us. I beg leave to inform you of what occurs to my mind upon the Occasion, To wit, As the road for the coming in of the Ships is now open you may land some Soldiers and send them by the Sea side that I may join them & punish the Enemy. There is no Occasion to send out Soldiers from the Fort. The Ships may seperately land Men to join us by the Road on the Sea Side which will be attended with a great advantage; I took the Liberty to advise you what I thought, but believe me to be obedient to your Orders to act as you may direct, Antazee Punt came to us and on the same Day he return'd again, he brought not a Polygar to join us nor could supply us even with a Guide or two which I thought fit to acquaint you. Whatever Bullocks I had with me I sent to Different places to bring Provisions. just now my Hircar brought me News that the Enemy with a Design to attack me by Night had made preparations and were arrived near the River, if they do it shall be my endeavours to punish them.

I and Antazee Punt paid them a Visit on the 27th of the last Month & we all arrived at Termelwashel on that Day. We shall employ our Amuldars in the neighbouring Districts to put a stop to the Enemy's supplies. I am now enlisting Troops and hope to deuide our Forces in two or three Different Parties in a Day or Two to attack the Enemy's Army. You'll second our Attack by sending out your Troops from the Fort. When we once fall upon the Enemy, God will grant us Victory. You may be assured that I am a firm Friend and well wisher to the English. Let them support me in such manner that I may always be in readiness to serve the Company with 2,000 Peons.

Undoubtedly the rest of our Ships will arrive in a Day or two, and the Enemy will be totally ruined. In the mean time it is necessary that you should press them hard with your Army to prevent their carrying on their Works against the Fort. The Battery they last open'd was very near to our Walls but we made so warm a fire upon them that they could not maintain it. About  $\frac{3}{4}$ <sup>rs</sup> past 4 they retreated with some Confusion leaving 9 Europeans & Eighteen horses dead upon the Spot, & carrying with 'em, as I am informed several wounded. Your honour is sending Letters to me and Captain Preston advising us to come to you which we are very ready to do, but it will be very Difficult to proceed with the Army for the Enemy are strongly Posted on all sides of the Fort and under Shelter of the Houses and Brest Works in the Streets, should they remain in one place or Plain we should not regard it, besides they [sic] Enemy are appearing to face us wherever we move and bring great Guns with them, If we resolve to venture there is no Ammunition & Flints. When I came away from Trichinopoly I brought with me 1000 Flints some Ammunition and Cartridges, but all is expended, The latter became useless by Reason of the Difference of the English and French Muskets and even that is all expended. I brought some Cartridges from Tercalore and Elvanasore and Captain Preston supplied with some fit for English Arms and these are also gone. I have hitherto omitted to acquaint you with the foregoing Circumstances by reason of the Dangers on the Road and apprehensions that the Letters might be intercepted by the Enemy. I am hitherto employing the Troops on their Duty in an easy way, if they were put to hard Duty and the Affair takes a Wrong turn, it will be a difficult Matter to keep them together. After the Battle at Tervambore it took up a Month with great pains and trouble to collect them again if the Affair takes a bad turn at Present (which God forbid) it will take up about as much time as before and what ever Horses have now been collected are new enlisted for when they heard the sound of Guns they grew almost senceless. You are well acquainted with the Manners of the Country Troops which it is needless for me to mention. Of the Seapoys who came along with me about 350 Good and old Servants have been kill'd from the time of my setting out from Trechenopoly. In short we must keep the Army safe and get them to serve partly by easy Methods and partly by contrivance and Terror, if you require it I and Captain Preston can arrive ourselves with you but to come with the Army at once will be attended with great Difficulty. At present I labour under so many hardships on account of the Expence of the Army as is impossible for me to express herein to you. As the Troops are Friends for Money, how long can I appease them by disappointments. The supply of Money which I received before was paid to the Seapoys, Horsemen, Kellersies &c At time of my setting out from Trithenopoly there was an Arrear of  $1\frac{1}{2}$  Month due to the Seapoys which I acquainted you with lately by a Letter. I resolved at Present to go to S<sup>t</sup> Thomas's Mount and from that place to send for Ammunition Flints &c Stores from Changleput and then endeavour to do the Business soon I write to what I design but am obedient to your Orders. Yesterday the Enemy march with a large Force and opposed us but met with a severe Punishment which gave great Courage and spirit to the Army By the Blessing of God their courage will be increased and the Business will be dispatchd according to your Orders. This Day 2 French Deserters came hither they tell us as well as our Hircars that Mous<sup>r</sup> Lally, Bussy, Razally Cawn &c were present in the Action Yesterday an [sic] the head of an Army consisting of all the Moors and European Horse as well as all the Seapoys and 800 European Foot with 6 Guns and that many of them were killed which I thought fit to advise you.

I have wrote in Answer to Usoff Cawn that his Difficulties as to Money & Provisions will increase daily and that our immediate Junction is the only Remedy, I am well persuaded that a Vigorous Push to do the Business at once without stopping any where would succeed as the Enemy would not have time to collect together a strong Force and post themselves in your way. Upon the sight of your Flag at the Mount I ordered * twenty of the Troop to be got ready and to make a Push under Command of Captain Vasserot to join [sic] you. Each Man carries five hundred Pagodas to supply the present Occasions of your Army: The French Horse remain'd encamp'd to the North West and no Motions of Consequence have been observed to Day. Their Posts to the Southward are at present all weak, and I would have you for that Reason make your Effort this Night by the way of S<sup>t</sup>. Thomé or any other Road you shall judge best from your Intelligence. If you defer it the Enemy will have time to assemble and Strengthen their Posts besides which you may be distress'd for Provisions. The two French Ships, and all their small Vessells sailed this Morning. We do not yet know the Occasion of it but have good Reason to hope is it [sic] from Intelligence they have received of the Approach of our Fleet. I am.

Sir

Your most Obedient Servant

GEORGE PIGOT.

Ship Shaftesbury 5th Febr<sup>y</sup>. 1759

Sir

We have had a good Riddance of the French Ships this Morning, and hope the Fleet will arrive before they can Return, I thought it better to return the two Boats with what is come to hand & Nine more men, to make up the Number in the Charter Party, than keep them along side all Day, and shall have a Loading for them when they return in the Evening. We are repairing our Long Boat on board, & beg you'll please to order her Oars off by the Boats in the Evening. As you are so good as to order Beef off for us every Evening 110 lb<sup>s</sup> will be sufficient for us at present every Day; having enough for to morrow shall not want any before to morrow Evening.

Sir

Honble Sir

2 o clo : P.M.

I received this Day at Noon a Letter from Major Caillaud wherein he advises me of the 29th Ult<sup>a</sup>: at Teegody, that he expects to be the first Inst<sup>t</sup> at Velliparum, so I expect that he will be here the 5th or 6th at furthest: Ensign Deyman is at Chinna Piernole with Ammunition and a Party to join Captain Preston: I have ordered him to stay till the Major Arrives, as then it may go with safety, he having orders from Captam Preston not to proceed till he hears from him. I am

Honble Sir

P. S.

Ensign Deyman has made three Attempts to pass to Captain Preston since the 28 Ult<sup>a</sup> and has been oblig'd to retreat; The Enemy being of too great a Force to his Party or any I could send from hence.

I am

TO MAJOR CAILLAUD
Sir

February 7th: 1759

This Morning I had the pleasure to receive Information from Captain Hart at Changleput of your Arrival at Tagada, which is the first certain Account I have had you [sic] since your leaving Tranquebar. I hope you will soon join Captain Preston and Usoff Cawn and effectually open our Communication to the Southward. You will hear from them the most Interesting particulars of the Siege. The Enemy many day [sic] ago advanced their Trenches and made a Lodgment within the Salient Angle of the Cover'd way. The 23<sup>d</sup> of Last Month, they opened a Battery of four Guns at the foot of the Glacis to play upon the North Ravalin, and the 31st another of the same Number of Guns upon the Crest of the Glacis to batter the North East Bastion in Breach, but both these were so ill constructed, that they had very little effect and were at the same time exposed to so heavy a fire from the Fort that they were oblig'd every day to shut up their Embrazures an hour or two after sun rise. By the Report of Deserters they lost many Men, and had several Guns disabled upon these advanced Batteries. Now they seem to have entirely abandoned them and they begun this Morning to fire afresh from their first grand Battery by the Sande 450 Yards distance.

We observe [sic] about two hundred European Horse three or four hundred Country Horse and some Seapoys upon the Choultry Plain and a Hircar has brought me Intelligence that three Companies of Foot are also detach'd to the Southward with 4 Guns, these no Doubt are intended to oppose your Efforts, but I shall be perfectly easy about the event of your meeting with them.

It is necessary on all accounts that you make your push as soon as possible, You know the Difficulty of keeping together such a Number of Country People & of supplying them with Provisions &c.

Our Expected Fleet cannot certainly be far distant. The Shaftesbury which parted with them off Ceylon the 7th January has been here these eight days.

I am

Sir

Your most obedient Servant

TO CAPTAIN PRESTON

7th February 1759

Sir

By the Signals which were observed the Night before last, I conclude that Captain Vasserot arrived safe with the Troopers but I have not heard from you since. This Morning I recei'd a Letter from Captain Hart acquainting me that he had one from Major Caillaud dated at Tagada the 29 January. I hope he is near you by this time and that That is the only reason for you not having already made your Push; inclosed is a Letter for Major Caillaud which you will forward to him. It is left open for your perusal. You will there see what Force we are informed the Enemy have prepared to Oppose you. In case you have not the strongest Reason to think that Major Caillaud will join you in a Day or two, you must not delay the intended Effort. If the Enemy's Detachment is posted in any strong Pass which it may be difficult to force you may avoid them by taking a little Circle, or at least oblige them to quit their Post and engage you on more equal Terms.

TO USSOFF CAWN

I hope the Troopers and Money I sent the day before Yesterday reach'd you safely, and I expected that you would have mov'd this way with the Army either yesterday Morning or this Morning. I imagine the Occasion of the Delay is the near Approach of Major Caillaud who I am informed was at Tagada the 29 Ultimo, & I hope will join you to day or to morrow, that you may use your united endeavours to execute the intended Scheme without Loss of time. We observe about two hundred European Horse, three or four hundred Country horse and some Seapoys upon the Choultry Plain and I am inform'd that three Companies of Foot are also detach'd to the Southward with four Guns Their Camp extends from Turing's house to Woodundee Choultry, In case Major Caillaud cannot join you in a day or two, You must endeavour to execute the intended Scheme with your present Army as a Loss of time must be attended with bad Consequences. It gives the Enemy an Opportunity of forming strong Detachments to oppose you and puts your own Army under Difficulties for want of Provisions &c.

The Enemy not being able to maintain the two Batteries they erected [sic] upon the Crest of the Glacis very near to the Fort, have begun to day to fire afresh from their first Battery 450 Yards distant. By the Blessing of God and our United Endeavours they will soon be oblig'd to raise the Siege, after which they will find it difficult to make their Retreat to Pondicherry.

Sir

This Morning I received your Letter of the 3<sup>d</sup> and the News it contained concerning Major Caillaud gave me great Satisfaction. You will continue to forward what Intelligence comes to your knowledge. The Enemy have been oblig'd to leave the Advanced Battery they had erected upon the Crest of the Glacis, and this Morning began to Fire afresh from their first Battery 450 Yards distant.

MOUNT February 6th 1759

HONBLE SIR

Your Letters both of Yesterday and the Day before, I have Received, Captain Vasserot likewise arrived safe last night with his 10 Troopers, and the Money. He had only to consult with Ustoff Cawn upon the necessity you seem'd to think there was of no longer deferring the Execution of your last Plan. I was all ready for it. Tho' I could'nt but be of opinion that (as our People had been much fateegued [sic] by marching from 10 the preceding Night till 9 in the Morning, and that as M<sup>r</sup> Deyman was on the March to us with a Reinforcement of Seapoys, & a Quantity of Ammunition which we stood in great want of) it was best to postpone it for a Chance of the same Opportunity to Night. This Morning tho a strong Body both of the Enemy's Troops and Black Horse appeared o'this Side, Sidepettah; and I am informed that the Guard at your Garden House was at the same Time reinforced with about 300 European Foot and 6 or 7 Companies of Seapoys: We are therefore now desirous of having another Letter from You while we are here: All I can say is, that we are notwithstanding much more capable of making our way good now, that M<sup>r</sup> Deyman has join'd us than we were last night. Ustoff Cawn desires me to acquaint you that he can Answer for our standing a much greater Chance of succeeding in any Enterprize whatever in the Day time, than we shall in the Night: And indeed from the Little experience I have had with the Seapoys & Black horse, I am much of his Opinion. Major Caillaud I have great reason to beleive is arrived at Chingleput. I am

Honble Sir

Dated 5 Received February

I had the pleasure to receive two Letters of Congratulation from you upon the Victory we have obtained. May God grant you as well as myself joy upon this Occasion and effect a Compleat Victory :—The Sardars of my Army, Usoff Cawn, and the English have exerted themselves to that Degree that it is more than I can express to you. This Day being the 5th we arrived at St Thomas's Mount agreeable to your Direction. On the same Night an Officer with 10 Troopers came & inform'd me fully of all Circumstances, By the Blessing of God whatever may be for the good of the Company's Affairs & those of the Circle shall be done and God grant us success.

What can I say more.

FROM USOFF CAWN

Dated the 6th Received 8th
February 1759

I had the happiness to receive your kind Letter on Monday the 5th Instant at past 9 oClock at night advising me to come to you, of your sending Ten Thousand Pagodas an Officer and some Troopers, who also arrived safe, at the same Time with the Money, and the Officer has fully made known to me your Directions. I have paid the above Money to the Troops. By the Blessing of God I shall in a Day or two encourage and get them refresh'd & make a Gallant push by Day to arrive with you, which you'll discover by our Flags, for these Troops are not in a Capacity to march by night, had they a European Force with them they would willingly move, but otherwise they can't move by night, of all which your honour is very sincible, and it would be needless for me to urge to you on that head. I have received Advise that the whole Body of the Enemy's Troops are gathering together near Egmore Fort with a Design to Attack my Army by Night if they do they shall be properly punish'd. I have received advice also that Major Caillaud is arrived at Changleput. The Ammunition which I sent for from Changleput arrived safe here this Day.

Sir

I arrived here this Morning about two o Clock : Capt<sup>n</sup>: Preston has communicated your Orders, & tells me he has wrote his Opinion. Permit me to say, I cannot help agreeing with him, as far as I see yet, I think it not to be effected with Country Horse &c<sup>e</sup>. However what can be done shall be done you may depend on it & tomorrow you shall know Sir my resolution.

A Letter just come in from Changleput, from the Officer who informs me he had just received a Letter from Sadras, acquainting him 5 Ships were seen in the Offing, And that the Enemy had hoisted Dutch Colours at the Fort. To morrow I hope will decide this & confirm it our Fleet. With every good wish Sir for your Success

This Morning about two oClock I wrote you word of Major Caillaud being arrived here, but the Letter was returned to me about Noon, The Hircar not being able to reach you with it. This is just to advise you of my having delivered over my Command to the Major. I can with great Satisfaction say, that its [sic.] equally in as strong and as good a Condition, as when I first march'd with it, from Changleput, and as for the Condition of Usoff's Cawn's even that I may say is much better than when I first joined him. I sincerely wish to see Major Caillaud find Less difficulty than I did in executing your Last Plan. I am with perfect Respect

I have just received your Letter and have order'd your own People to be immediatly sent off that they may assist in getting your Ship in Readiness. If by working all Night you could be prepared to sail about Sun rise or any time in the Morning before the Sea Wind sets in, you would be up with the French Ship before much could be landed from her. At Noon 8 February 1759

Sir

Your last nights favour is safe arrived, and I hope mine of the same Date is received. The Attempt you are desirous we should make as a Positive order shall be complied with if the following representation which I take the Liberty of Laying before you cannot make you alter your Resolution. By intelligence and what we can see of the Enemys situation they have reinforced all their Posts to the Southward, the right of their Black Infantry, & Cavalry at Maskelyns house Extending their Left to the Bar they have 400 Europeans & 4 Pieces of Cannon on Choultry Plain and the 3 Pickets you mention. All the roads leading to their Posts strongly barricaded & lined with Cannon and these are to be attack'd by Seapoys and 60 Europeans. For our Horse is out of the Question, They will not stay by us, as on our Arrival near Madras They cannot remain in any Place unattackd. You must be concious Sir what can be expected from Seapoys. The best I have ever seen them do, is to maintain a Post under Cover or attack in their stragling manner Against Seapoys or when supported by Europeans, Not that they can succeed against a regular Force, well posted, is not to be expected. The least Check or stop puts them into disorder, what hopes then they will ever rally again or be able to retreat all the Enemy's Post joining together. That body is gone without resource, & without making such a resistance as would compensate for their Loss, by what the Enemy might suffer in the Affair. You are pleased to say a sally shall be made from the Garrison at the same time to support us & favour our Effort. You cannot I presume [sic] Sir spare that Body long out of the Garrison, in case we succeed and take Possession of the Garden house We may expect to be attacked again immediatly. I will suppose we succeed & join you must from experience know Sir by the behaviour of the Seapoys with you what can be expected from those I could join you with: But I hope the Releif of Madras does not depend upon such Circumstances. From some time serving with these kind of Troops I know them well, & know that for the service you might expect or require on such an Occasion, that you would be much disappointed. I own I always apprehended that the only use this Body would be of, would be, by continually moving near the Enemy, keep up their Attention, and Endeavour to distress them in their provisions and such Convoys as they might receive by Land. In this I think still we can be of service, leaving us at Liberty to act. The arrival of our Ships which we may expect every hour, and such a Body as ours, intire of horse and Infantry may be of great use, should the Enemy raise the Siege, when our reinforcement comes, but all this will be out of our Power by the step you propose, as our Cavalry certainly disbands, And what will Seapoys avail without them, Against an Enemy who have a Body of horse we know will act.

—APPENDIX No. 279—

One thing more, The Man who is the soul of all these Black People Thinks badly of the Scheme & that it is throwing away the People to no purpose, who otherwise may be usefully employed, he himself will follow & some of his people, but the Majority, if he can't answer for them who can I though [sic] it my Duty Sir to lay my thoughts before you with freedom & on that Account hope you will excuse it. I leave it now all to your better judgment. In the mean time I shall make a Proper Disproportion [sic] for the Attempt and wait your Answer, which if not contrary to your former Resolution, you may depend on me for be assured Sir I will do my best to approve myself worthy of your good opinion and how much I am

FROM USOFF CAWN

Dated the 8th Received February 9th 1759

I had the happiness to receive your Letter Dated the 7th on the 8 Instant. I am very ready to come to your honour but the People of the Army hearing of our Intention to do so are very much affraid. If I march from hence by Force, whoever is honest and has a regard for his Honour, Credit and Duty to his Superiors will accompany me but the rest will have no regard to these Intances [sic] nor proceed with firmness, for all Mens inclinacions [sic] are not the same, I have hitherto employed the Army by Political Contrivances. In future If I observe the same Method and employ them in the Field the Affair may be certainly executed and endeavours used. If any Accident happens to the Army (which God Forbid) so as to return it will be attended with bad Consequences. I advised you lately of my proposal to go towards Tervatore and embrace an Opportunity of Punishing the Enemy properly for they are Careless on that side and have kept their Powder and Balls their so that we may find an Opportunity to Punish them. I must mention their should be no Delay for me to come to you but the Circumstances of the Army are as before mentioned. There were only 9 Companies of the former Seapoys in the Army. You'll be pleased to consider how many may have been killed out of them During the War to this Present time and how many are left, and the remaining Part of the Army are People who have been enlisted in Trichenopoly and these Parts. If some of the Former Troops only accompany me what great Service can be expected from it and what advantage Occrue [sic] should this large Army remain in the Field against the Enemy who will in all Likelyhood Detach 1000 or 500 Europeans with all the White and Black Horses against it (in which Case, there will be a Less Number of People at their Batteries) then you may meet with a fair opportunity to execute your Design; If the Enemy be free from Apprehensions of an Army in the Field they will keep the whole Number of their Troops at their Batteries. Please to consider that a large Sum of the Company's Money hath already been expended on Account of this Army and if nothing is done by it what advantage can it be of, We should therefore enter into a Political Method to manage the Business so as to punish the Enemy in a Proper Manner. I took the Freedom to advise you of the Scheme we had formed but it is left to your Pleasure. I am Obedient to your Order and will act according to whatever Directions you may send. For other Matters Major Caillaud has wrote to you fully to which I refer.

the 8th. containing your Opinion on the Subject of the Troops under your Command. It is very certain that upon the Plan you recommended [sic] they have already been of great use by drawing off the Enemy's Attention, and obliging them to make at several times considerable Detachments. The Reasons you Offer for continuing to act upon the same Principle have great Weight I readily adopt them, and with Satisfaction leave it to your own Discretion to make the best use you can of the means in your hands towards harrassing and distressing the Enemy. I am told that all their supplies of Provisions come from the Southward as the Polygars plunder every thing that attempts to pass on the North Side. Their heavy Stores are brought by Sea which certainly must very soon be put a Stop to by the Arrival of our Fleet.

The Hircar who brought your Letter told us he met a large Party of the Enemy marching towards the Mount and we have seen & heard Cannonading for some hours. I shall be uneasy till I hear of the Event which if it prove favourable must very much discourage the Enemy.

FROM USOFF CAWN

I had the happiness to receive your Letter Dated friday the 9th on the 10th Instant in the Evening advising that in regard to a proper Method to be taken with respect to the Enemy you have left it to me and Major Caillaud and we shall act according to your Directions. Yesterday a large Army of the Enemy consisting of Europeans, Troopers, Black Horse &c: march'd with large and small Guns of 18, 12, 9, and 6 Pounders and an Engagement begun at 5 o'clock in the Morning and lasted the whole Day without ceasing. We also with large and small Arms push'd and fought them at close Quarters with Bravery and pun[ish'd] the Enemy who not being able to maintain their Ground fled, a great Number of Europeans, Troopers, Black Horse &c: were killed, Wounded, and put to Flight. In our Army some Seapoys were killed and some Wounded, some of our Horses &c not being able to keep their Post by reason of the Shot were Dispers'd. Our old Seapoy[s] Horsemen &c: only remained and exerted themselves. Abdul Bob Cawn remain'd al[one] with firmness with only 100 of his Men and exerted himself to the Utmost. This [day] with the advice of Major Caillaud I march'd from the Mount and Arrived at Wende[lour] in order to collect again the Dispers'd horsemen &c By the Blessing of God, I shall gather the whole Force, act against the Enemy & Punish them. I shall not neglect to exert myself to the Utmost of my ability nor shall I leave the Enemy whilst they Live, you may make yourself perfectly easy in every Respect and I shall soon [come] towards you.

I Received this Afternoon your Letter of the 10th: and am much pleased with your Success for the maintaining your Post a whole Day, against so large a Force of the Enemy must be esteem'd a very considerable Advantage, nor could they come off without the Loss of Many Men. I have left it to you and Usoff Cawn to Employ the Force under your Command in such Manner as [you] shall judge Best for the Service, Or if in Consequence of what I wrote you the 10th: you should find a Road to come here I leave it to Captain Preston and Usoff Cawn. To USOFF CAWN

This Afternoon I had the pleasure to receive your Letter advising of the Victory you obtain'd over the Enemy on the 9th Inst<sup>s</sup>. Their Loss of Men in these several engagements and what they loose daily in their Batteries and Trenches by the Fire from the Fort has weakened them to that degree that they will not long be able to carry on their Attack. If we should be so lucky as to have our Ships arrive before they make their Retreat it will be difficult for them to get safe to their own Place. By the Blessing of God the [sic] will be cut off in the way. I am sensible that you have always exerted yourself with Bravery & Diligence for the Company's Service, & that you will continue to do so on all Occasions. If we succeeded [sic] at Sadras from thence it will be easy executing if not, by the means you mention, Two days will decide this. This Evening Letters from the Nabobs Vackeel with the Morattoes came in. Their Assistance they offer on the following Terms: Their whole Force which are now near Tripety with Ballegerow will march, If you will give Seventeen Lack of Rupees But this not to be paid untill the Enemy have rais'd the Siege, & given us possission [sic] of all the Country the French now have. If this you will think proper to agree to & give it in writing, the Nabob will set out & bring them in very little time. You will please to let us know your pleasure on this as soon as possible. The Enemy by all accounts have suffered Yesterday and are now breaking down all the Garden Walls behind which we maintained ourselves so long, & indeed but for the want of Ammunition, & not knowing but we might have been attack'd again before a supply could come we should not have left.

February 13th 1759

Sir

Last Night I received your Letter of the 11th and although it is most probable the Fate of Madras will be decided before the Morattoes can come & join, Yet I think their Assistance afterwards if the Siege should be raised will enable us to distress the Enemy very much. You will observe by the Copy of my Letter to the Moratta that I would have the Treaty put upon a different Foot from that which you mention. After advancing the Seventeen Lack the very same Morattoes would upon an Offer of present Gain from any other Power join in disposessing Us again of the Countries, or plundering them. The Punctual Payment of the Yearly Chout would keep them always in our Interest and to this Promise I empower you, and in Case of your Absence Captain Preston, jointly with the Nabob & Usoff Cawn, to add an obligation for five Lacks of Rupees to be paid in ready Money, on our being put in Possession of the Countries now in the Hands of the French. I understand that there is to be no Demand for pay or Batta untill the Possession of the French Countries is obtained.

We were alarm'd this Morning at 2 o Clock by a small Party of the Enemy advancing from their Trenches towards the Facine Battery. Two or three discharges of Grape repuls'd them and they left five men upon the Spot.

In case of your Absence Capt<sup>n</sup> Preston will execute the Contents of this Letter.

TO BALAZAROW, AND THE SAME TO HIS GENERAL GOPAUL HARY

February 13th 1759,

I have already frequently represented to you the Disturbances and wicked proceedings of the French and told you what the Consequences would be if a timely Punishment was not inflicted on them. Accordingly they have taken Possession of the whole Country for themselves and set up a new Government in Opposition to all the Laws of the Mogul Empire and in Prejudice of the Portion or share of the Revenues which ought to be remitted to your Court according to the Regulation of the Chout &c. At length their Pride increas'd to such a Degree that they ventured to march against this Fort and to that end posted themselves in the Pettah or Black Town. It is now above two Months they have remain'd in the same place, and they have fired a prodigious Number of Shells and Shott against the Fort, We also have fired briskly against them and kill'd or Wounded a Large Part of their Army which is now reduced to a small Force so that it is impossible for them to succeed in their Design. I wait only for the Arrival of some Ships which sail'd from Bombay fifty Days ago with a Large Reinforcement of Men. As soon as they are join'd we shall march out of the Fort and destroy the Remains of the French Army. As your Troops are now arrived near the Canama, it will be agreeable to your Friendship with the Company as well as a means of putting the Country under a proper Regulation, If you come and join us. In such Case the Disturbers will be easily routed out and deprived of all the Possessions they now have in this Country, and as soon as the said possessions are delivered over to the Company's Managers I will promise and be answerable to pay to your Court the Chout &c. Duties according to the Regulations of the Empire every Year as long as the said Countries shall remain in our Possession. Besides the Troops in the Fort we have an Army in the Field consisting of Europeans, Horse & Seapoys Commanded by the Nabob, Mahomud Usoff Cawn, Commandant and Major Caillaud, or in Case of his Absence Captain Preston. Your Troops should go and join the said Army and for any Agreements which may be necessary to take place immediatly upon the Countries being put in the Company's Possession, I leave it to be settled by those three jointly Viz the Nabob, Usoff Cawn, and my Officer being either Major Caillaud or Captain Preston; and whatever may be agreed on by those three Jointly I shall approve and perform.

Ship Shaftesbury 14th February 1759

Sir

The Two first Boats bring the 2 Guns, the others Wine and Iron the nearest Ship to the Southward seems to stand in for St. Thomé Road possibly with Stores. If the Governour pleases to send my Men on Board with an Order to do what I can to prevent her landing them, shall do my best but as I scarcely can Weigh our Anchor, my Decks are all clear and am ready to execute whatever Orders the Governour shall please to send me. I would rather [sic] they were Friends but that is as it shall happen.

Sir

The Vessel which Anchored this Afternoon off of St<sup>e</sup> Thomé I take to be the Frigate returning from Pondicherry with Stores, by her manner of acting when here before, I cannot judge her of any great Force and therefore have warm hopes you may be able to take or destroy her. Whatever may be the Event I am persuaded from your Readiness to make the Attempt [sic] you will perform all that can be done and so I leave the Conduct of the Enterprize to you. I now send you off all your own People with Twenty Marines and some of the Petty Officers belonging to his Majesty's Ships and have directed Capt<sup>n</sup> Baker of the Cuddalore Schooner to accompany you & follow your Orders, if you think it necessary to appoint any Signals between you and him you will send him Your Orders.

Your favour of the 10th I answered from Vandelour from which place I march'd hither and to Sadras this Night; if we can succeed, well, if not, I intend taking good post near it, the Enemy may endeavour to send a few Europeans more by Sea to secure it for by Land we stop them. I therefore think if Bakers Sloop can come there it would prevent that and you might, Sir, send Us what We want, Pagodas and three pound Shott. This may be done as I propose or by Boat and then I can come as you desire, let the Sloop or Boat come two or three Miles North of Sadras, if by Day make a Signal by a Red Flag I will answer by

Sir

16th February 1759

At noon I received from Pulicat the Duplicate of your Letter of the 13th Instant. I immediatly order'd twenty Thousand Pagodas and four hundred three Pounder Shot to be put on board the Cudalore Schooner, and I have directed Captain Baker to make the Signals proposed in your Letter. As soon as you have executed your present Intention you will embark on board the Cuddalore for Madras leaving the Command of the Army with Captain Preston and Usoff Cawn with the same Discretionary Power of acting in such manner as they shall judge most effectual against the Enemy advising them only in General to keep at all times as near as possible to the Enemy in order to draw a Part of their Attention.

In my last of the 13th I acquainted you of an unsuccessful Attempt made by the Enemy that Morning against our Facine Battery the Night following they endeavoured to advance their Sap towards it, whereupon it was thought proper the 14th at day break to make a Sally to endeavour to destroy their New Work, which was executed with Success and a warm fire being kept upon the Enemys Trenches which were filled with Men upon the Alarm it is judged they must have suffered some Loss. They fire now from only Six Guns and One Mortar.

The Frigate came to St<sup>e</sup> Thomé two days ago with a supply of Stores, but the Shaftesbury bearing down upon her she did not stay to land them.

I am
Sir
Your most Obedient Servant

P. S.

Since closing my Letter Six Sail of Ships have appeared which I judge must be our Fleet. We shall see to morrow what Effect this will have upon the Enemy. For the Present I have only to desire you will remain with the Army and advance this way, that you may be in readiness to harass the Enemy upon their March if the [sic] should quit their present Enterprize: or to cooperate with us should they continue the Siege.

February 16th: 1759

Major Caillaud having acquainted me with your Intention to march for Sadras, I have dispatched the Company's Sloop with a Supply of Twenty Thousand Pagodas, and four hundred three Pounder Shot. In case of Major Caillaud's coming [sic] away for Madras, he will leave the Command of the Army with you & Captain Preston as before and you will continue to act in such manner as you judge most likely to distress the Enemy. The Affairs here go on very well. The Enemy fire now from only Six pieces of Cannon and one Mortar. Either their Guns have been destroyed by the Shot from the Fort, or else they are in want of

16th: February 1759

I send you in these Boats two Boxes containing twenty Thousand Pagodas, and four hundred three Pounder Shot all which are to be delivered to Major Caillaud who is lying with an Army at Sadras or a few Miles on this Side of it. You will weigh Anchor in such time as to be off Covelon at Sunrise to morrow morning. If you observe any Ship or other Vessell which you apprehend may be too strong for you in Sadras Road, you must keep sufficiently to Windward of her and hoist a signal of a Red Flag at your Mast head which Major Caillaud will answer by a large smoke. Wherever you observe such smoke there Anchor if you safely can and deliver the Money and Shot after which you will receive Major Caillaud on board and make the best of your way for Madras.

Should any Accident prevent your executing this in the Day time, your Night Signal is to be the firing of a Rocket which you are to do when you judge yourself about Midway between Covelon and Sadras. This Major Caillaud will answer by firing a Rocket from his Camp, when you are to Anchor as near to it as possible, and deliver the Money and Shot as before mentioned.

TO THE HONBLE RICHARD BOURCHIER Esq<sup>r</sup>
AND THE OTHER GENTLEMEN OF THE
SELECT COMMITTEE AT BOMBAY;

Gentlemen

This accompany's a Dupplicate of our Last dated the 27th: January. The 31st of the same Month arriv'd the Shaftesbury with the Sick of Colonel Draper's Regiment [sic]. The two French Ships which were lying a little to the Northward of the Road, taking her as we imagine for a Man of War, did not oppose her coming into the Road, and she was afterwards secured by the Cannon of the Fort. She parted with the rest of the Fleet off Galle the 7th: of January, but they do not yet appear neither the Warren or any other Ship from Bengal.

We advised in our last that the Enemy were so far advanced as to be erecting a Battery on the Crest of the Glacis. This Battery consisting of 4 Pieces of Cannon they opened the 31st January but after two or three hours were oblig'd by the Superior Fire of the Fort to close their Embrasures again. The Same thing happened for five Days successvely, after which they abandoned it intirely [sic], and began to fire again from their first Grand Battery four hundred and fifty Yards distant. By the Accounts of Deserters their Loss of Officers and Men in their advanc'd Battery was very considerable and they had several Pieces of Cannon disabled since they were oblig'd to quit it, their fire has been considerable decreasing. From 23 Pieces of Cannon which they had at one time they play now from only Six Pieces, but they have advanced their Sap along by the sea side so far as to embrace entirely the North East Angle of our Cover'd way from whence their Musquetry has oblig'd us to retire our People. In this Situation things have remained several Days without any material Alteration they endeavoured to open a Passage into the Ditch by a Mine which however they sprung so injudiciously, the passage being open to the Fire of several of our Cannon, that they could make no advantage of it,

—APPENDIX No. 309.—

If the Fleet with Colonel Drapers Regiment has met with no Accident, nor gone to another Port we doubt not but we shall be able to maintain the Fort till their Arrival, & then oblige the Enemy to raise the Siege unless their Reinforcements should join them first. Major Caillaud has taken the Command of the Body of Seapoys & country Horse with a few Europeans collected from the Garrisons of Trithenopoly and Changleput commanded before by Captain Preston and these has been of great Service by keeping at a few Miles distance and stopping the Roads which has obliged the Enemy four [sic] several times to make large Detachments to oppose them, and on each Occasion they have lost several Men.

Upon the whole the Enemy's Numbers are undoubtedly much reduced and on our Side also you may imagine that during so long a Service the Kill'd, Wounded & Sick must be a great Many. It will be absolutely necessary that you send us by the Squadron a Reinforcement from your Garrison as well as a plentiful Supply of Gunpowder Mortars heavy Artillery with Carriages Field peices, shot, shells and all sorts of Military Stores, for our Expence of Stores has been exceeding large and we have had a great Number of Guns & Carriages renderd unserviceable. We shall be glad if you can contrive also a Supply of Timber and Plank for the whole town is absolutely in Ruins.

The French Ships which were in the Road, went away four or five days after the Arrival of the Shaftesbury. The Bristol has since return'd and landed a Supply of Stores at S<sup>t</sup>. Thomé and the Frigate came two [days] ago with the same Design but the Shaftesbury having repaired the Damage she received from the French Batteries went down to attack her upon which the Frigate made off without delivering her Cargo.

Captain Inglis highly merits the Company's favour for the great spirit with which he has acted and we Cannot sufficiently recommend the Behaviour of all the Officers and Men in the Garrison throughout this Long Fatigue. In firm hope that it will soon be brought to a happy Issue we remain

They endeavoured to open a Passage into the Ditch by a Mine which however they sprung so injudiciously, the passage being open to the Fire of several of our Cannon that they could make no advantage of it.

If the Fleet with Colonel Drapers Regiment has met with no Accident nor gone to another Port we doubt not but we shall be able to maintain the Fort till their Arrival and then oblige the Enemy to raise the Siege, unless their Reinforcements should join them First. Major Caillaud has taken the Command of the Body of Seapoys & Country Horse with a few Europeans collected from the Garrisons of Trithenopoly and Changleput Commanded before by Captain Preston and these have been of great service by keeping at a few Miles Distance and stopping the Roads which has oblig'd the Enemy four Several Times to make large Detachm[ents] to oppose them, and on each of these Occasions they have lost several Men.

Upon the whole the Enemy's Numbers are undoubtedly much reduced, and on our Side also you may imagine that during so long a Service the Kill'd Wounded, and Sick must be a great Maney [sic]. We have wrote to the Gentlemen at Bombay that it will be absolutely necessary they send us a Reinforcement from their Garrison as well as plentiful Supply of Gunpowder, Mortars, heavy Artillery with Carriages, Field pieces, Shot, Shells and all sorts of Military Stores, and we request of you Sir the favor to receive what you conveniently can on board the Ships of the Squadron or the Tenders. You will no doubt be sensible of the Necessity of being upon the Coast as early as possible to prevent the second Attempt which will undoubtedly be made against this Place if the French Fleet from the Islands should arrive before you. It may be necessary to apprise you that a great part of the Salt Provisions you left here has been broke open by the Shells and serv'd out to our Garrison, the Rest also we are making use of as we see Occasion.

—APPENDIX No. 311.—

The French Ships which were in the Road went away four or five Days after the arrival of the Shaftesbury. The Bristol has since returned and landed a Supply of Stores at S<sup>t</sup>. Thomé, and the Frigate came too [sic] [days] ago with the same design but the Shaftesbury having repaired the Damage she received from the French Batteries went down to attack her upon which the Frigate made off without delivering her Cargo.

Captain Inglis highly merits the Company's favor for the great Spirit with which he has acted and We cannot sufficiently commend the Behaviour of all the Officers & Men in the Garrison throughout this long Fatigue. In firm hope that it will soon be brought to a happy Issue, we remain with the most perfect Respect and Esteem

Au Camp devant Madras ce 14
Fevrier 1759.

Il y auroit un beau coup à faire ici Monsieur il y a un Vaisseau en cette Rade de 20 pieces de Canon chargé de toutes les Richesses de Madras et qu'on dity devoir rester Jusqu'au 20 ; l' expedition vient d' arriver mais M<sup>r</sup> Gerlin n'est point homme à l' attaquer puis qu'il l' a deja fait fuir une fois ; Le Bristol d'un autre Coté a á peine paru a S<sup>t</sup> Thomé sur la nouvelle vague des 13 Vaisseaux de Porto Novo il a pris l' epouvante et après avoir débarqué les munitions dont il etoit chargé il n'a Seulement pas voulu Se donner le tems de reprendre 12 pieces de son Canon qu'il nous avoit preté pendant le Siege.

Si J'étois Juge du point d' honneur des Officiers de la Compagnie Je le Casserois comme un Verre ainsi que quelques autres : Ou la Fidelle ou le Harlem ou ce meme Bristol avec ses 12 Canon de plus Suffiroit pour se rendre Maitre du batiment Anglais S'il pouvoit parvenir á gagner le vent Sur luy dans l'obscurité de la nuit. Maugendre et Tremillier, Sont dit on tres bons et ne deussent ils servir qu'au transport de 200 Blésses que nous avons ici, le service seroit d' importance.

Nous sommes toujours dans la même position la breche faite depuis 15 Jours, toujours à 15 toises des Murs de la place et jamais n' levant la tete pour la regarder ; Je Compte qu'en arrivant a Pondicherry nous chercherons tous a apprendre quelqu' autre metier, car celui de la guerre exige trop de patience.

De 1500 Cipays dont l' armee est censée Composée J'en compte á peu près 800 Sur la route de pondicherry chargés de Sucre et de poivre et autres Marchandises, Quant aux Coulis ils sont tous employés pour le même objet depuis le Jour que nous Sommes arrivé ici.

Jé prendrais mes mesures des aujourd' buy pour embrazer la ville noire et faire Sauter la poudriere.

Vous n' imaginerez Jamais que ce sont 30 deserteurs Francais, et une 100 de Suisses qui tiennent en arret 2000 hommes de troupe du Roy et de la Compagnie qui sont encore ici existant, malgré les états Surchargés que chacun fait ici a Sa guise de la boucherie qu'on en a faite, et vous seres encore plus surpris que si je vous disois que sans les deus Combats et les 4 batailles que nous avons essuvé, et sans les deux batteries qui ont été manquées, ou faites de travers pour parler pour clairement, nous n'aurions pas perdu 50 hommes depuis le Commencement du Siege Jusque aujourd' buy.

J'ay ecrit A Monsieur de Larche, S'il persiste a ne point venir ici, tirera de l'argent qui voudra des poligars, ce ne sera pas moy et je renounce, comme je vous en ai déjà prevenu il y a plus d'un mois me mêler directement ni indirectement de tout ce qui peut avoir raport a votre administration soit civile soit militaire. J'irai plutot Commander les Caffres de Madegascar que de rester dans

tres Obeisant Serviteur

LALLY.

P.S.

Je suis obligé de vous prevenir que Monssieur De Soupire ayant refusé de prendre le Commandement de cette Armée que je luy ai offert et auquel il est autorisé par la double de mes expéditions que la Cour luy avoit remis il faudra que Malgré vous et vos conseil, vous vous en chargé Je m'engage Seulement á vous la ramener soit á Arcatte soit á Sadras envoyes y vos ordres, ou portez vous y vous-meme pour la Commander car Je la quitte en y arrivant.

From the Camp before Madras

A fine stroke might be made here Sir; there is in this Road a Ship of Twenty Guns with all the Riches of Madras on board and it is said, she is to remain here till the 20th the Expedition is just arrived but Mr. Gulin is not the Man to Attack her, since she has already made him run away once. The Bristol on the other hand scarce appeared at St. Thomé but on the uncertain Report of the thirteen Ships off Porto Novo he took fright & after having landed the Stores with which he was loaded he would not even give himself time to take on board 12 of his Guns which he had lent us during the Siege.

If I were judge of the Point of Honour of the Company's Officers I would break him like Glas [sic] as well as some others now either the Fidelle, or the Harlem or this same Bristol with her other 12 Guns would be sufficient to take the English Ship if she could get to Windward of her in the Obscurity of the Night. Maugendie & Trimelle they say are in very good Condition (sont dit on tres bons) & should they only serve to carry off 200 Wounded that we have here, the Service would be important.

We yet continue in the same situation, the breach made these 15 Days still at Thirty Yards from the walls of the place & never venturing to look up at it. I imagine when we get back to Pondicherry, we shall all set about learning another Trade for that of War requires too much patience. Of 1,500 Seapoys of which it is judged the Army consists I reckon about 800 on the Road to Pondicherry, loaded with Sugar, Pepper, and other Merchandize. As to the Coolies they have all been employed to the same purpose ever since the day that we arrived here.

I shall take my measures from this Day for burning the Black Town & blowing up the Powder Mill.

You will never conceive that 50 French Deserters and about 100 Swiss should thus keep at Bay 2,000 Men of the Kings and Companys Troops who are yet here in being notwithstanding the extravagant accounts which every one gives according to his own fancy of the Slaughter [sic] that has been made of them, & you will be much more surprized if I should tell you that exclusive [sic] of the two fights, and four Battles that we have had, & besides the two Batteries which have failed or to speak more clearly were built awry We Should not have lost 50 Men from the beginning of the Siege to this Day. I have wrote to Mr. de Larche that if he persist in not coming here, let who will get the Money from the Polygars, it shall not be me, & I renounce as I apprized you above a Month ago all Concern directly or indirectly with any thing that relates to your administration, civil or Military. I would rather go & Command the Caffrees of Madagascar than remain in this

I must apprise you that Mr. de Soupire having refused to take the Command of this Army which I offer'd him & which he is authorized to do by the Duplicate of my Instructions transmitted him from Court you must whether you will or not, together with the Council take it upon yourself.
