When I was at home in my Fa-ther's snug dwelling, three lovers had all my fa-vor to sue, the world of the Joys of E-lection were tell-ing, thinks

I, I'll e'en make an E-lection here too.

The first of my Swains was pro-posed by my Fa-ther, because he was rich and had plen-ty of Pelf, My Dame pro-posed one, but the one I lik'd ra-ther, was him In-de-pendent, who of-fer'd him-self, for

I fix'd on a day when their claims all advancing,
 My Choice might be known as my Conscience spoke true.
 A great show of hands Henry's favor enhancing,
 A Poll was demanded for t'other sad two.
 The first talk'd of Gold, and his bags of fine Guineas,
 The second descended from some Lordly Tribes,
 But I cried them both down, and call'd out with the ninnies
 Who suffer themselves to be barter'd for bribes.

For high and low &c. &c.

At the close of the Poll when the Votes were all reckon'd,
 The numbers stood thus on each candidate's part,
 The first had my right hand my left had the second,
 But Henry alone had a vote from my Heart.
 'Twas a spot that return'd him because it approv'd him,
 Let Scrutiny come it will place him more high,
 The Man of my Choice I've tried him and prov'd him,
 His favors I'll wear ne'er to change till I die.

For high and low &c. &c.
