PREFATORY NOTE

The University of Madras was founded under the Act of Incorporation XXVII of 1857. This Act was in operation until 1904 when, as a result of the Commission appointed by the Government of India in 1902 to examine the working of the Universities, the Indian University Act VIII of 1904 was passed with the intention of re-organising the Universities in India and of enlarging their functions in the matters of University Teaching and of supervision over Affiliated Colleges. This Act was again superseded by the Madras University Act VII of 1923 which was passed by the Legislative Council of Madras, and came into force on the 1st May 1923. The new Act was passed for re-organising the University with a view to establishing a teaching and residential University at Madras while enabling the University to continue to exercise due control over the quality of the teaching given by the colleges constituting the University or affiliated to it. The Chancellor, the Pro-Chancellor, the Vice-Chancellor, the Senate, the Syndicate, the Academic Council and the Council of Affiliated Colleges constituted the body corporate of the University. The Governor-General was the Visitor of the University; the Governor of Madras the Chancellor; the Minister of Education the Pro-Chancellor. The Vice-Chancellor became a whole-time paid officer appointed by the Chancellor from among five persons recommended by the Senate. The Authorities of the University under this Act were (1) the Senate, (2) the Syndicate, (3) the Academic Council, (4) the Faculties, (5) the Boards of Studies, (6) the Council of Affiliated Colleges and (7) such other Authorities as may be declared by the Statutes to be Authorities of the University.

But from a practical point of view, the Act of 1923 did not result in the rapid development of University activities or in the effective furtherance of schemes which were already under consideration. In order to remove certain ambiguities and duplication of powers vested in the various authorities under the Act of 1923, and to remedy the defects observed during its working as also to develop more rapidly along the lines indicated in the preamble, the University of Madras (Amendment)

Act XII of 1929 was passed and came into force on the 29th October 1929. Under the Amending Act, the Council of Affiliated Colleges was abolished and the number of persons to be elected by the Senate to the panel for Vice-Chancellorship was reduced from five to three.

Later the Government of India Act of 1935 brought the University under the jurisdiction of the Central Government and the University Act was accordingly amended by the Government of India (Adaptation of Indian Laws) Order, 1937.

The University Act was further amended by the Government of India (Adaptation of Indian Laws) Order, 1940, bringing the University again under the jurisdiction of the Provincial Government and abolishing the office of Visitor.

The Madras University Act has further been amended by the provisions of Madras Acts III, V, X, XXIX and XXXIII of 1942 and XXVII of 1943. (f) If the surplus of any candidate to be transferred arises from transferred as well as original votes, all the papers in the sub-parcel last transferred to the candidate shall be re-examined, and the unexhausted papers divided into sub-parcels according to the next preference recorded thereon. The sub-parcels shall be dealt with in the same manner as is provided in the case of the sub-parcels referred to in clause (e).

(6) The process directed by this Statute shall be repeated on the successive exclusions of the candidates lowest on the poll until the last vacancy is filled either by the election of a candidate with the quota, or as hereinafter provided.

40. If as a result of a transfer of papers under these Statutes the number of votes obtained by a candidate is equal to or greater than the quota, the transfer then proceeding shall be completed but no further papers shall be transferred to him.

41. (1) If after the completion of any transfer under these Statutes the number of the votes of any candidate shall be equal to or greater than the quota, he shall be deemed elected.

(2) If the number of the votes of any such candidate shall be equal to the quota, the whole of the papers on which such votes are recorded shall be set aside as finally dealt with.

CHAPTER XXIV.

CONDITIONS OF SERVICE OF THE ESTABLISHMENTS OF THE UNIVERSITY

Ordinances.

1. These Ordinances shall be applicable to all superior and inferior establishments of the University not regulated by separate Laws framed in accordance with the provisions of the Act and Statutes Definitions.

1. (1) "Inferior Service" includes all service in the following appointments:—

(a) Service as attenders, peons, head gardener, night watchmen, sweepers, gardeners and chokras and such other posts as may be declared as "Inferior Service."

(b) Service on pay not exceeding Rs. 30.

All other service is deemed to be "Superior Service"

(ii) Permanent Post means a post carrying a definite rate of pay sanctioned without limit of time and included in the cadre of sanctioned posts.

(iii) Temporary Post means, a post carrying a definite rate of pay sanctioned for a limited time.

(iv) Duty includes service as a probationer or apprentice, provided that such service is followed by confirmation without a break.

(v) Lien means, the title of a University servant to hold substantively, either immediately or on the termination of a period or periods of absence, a permanent post to which he has been appointed substantively.

(vi) Officiate:—A University servant officiates in a post when he performs the duties of a post in which another holds a lien. A person may, however, be appointed to officiate in a vacant post on which no other person holds a lien.

(vii) Pay means, the amount drawn monthly by a University servant as the pay which has been sanctioned for the post held by him, substantively or in an officiating capacity and special pay and personal pay, if any.

(viii) Special Pay means, an addition of the nature of pay to the emoluments of a post or of a University servant granted in consideration of the specially arduous nature of his duties or of a specific addition to the work or responsibility.

(a) to save him from a loss of substantive pay in respect of a permanent post due to a revision of pay or to any reduction of such substantive pay otherwise than as a disciplinary measure; or

(b) in exceptional circumstances on other personal considerations.

(x) Substantive Pay means, pay as defined above, other than special pay or personal pay to which a University servant is entitled on account of a post to which he has been appointed substantively.

(xi) Average Pay means, the average monthly pay earned during the twelve months immediately preceding the month in which the event occurs which necessitates the calculation of average pay.

*Note:—*According to the definition of “Average Pay” the average is to be taken of the monthly pay earned during the twelve complete months immediately preceding the months in which the leave is taken and for this purpose “the twelve months immediately preceding” shall be interpreted literally. Thus a University servant who has been on leave from 23rd March 1922 to 22nd July 1922 inclusive is granted leave from 4th February 1923, his average pay shall be calculated on the pay earned for the periods from 1st February 1922 to 22nd March 1922 and 23rd July 1922 to 31st January 1923.

(xii) Presumptive Pay of a Post when used with reference to any particular University servant means, the pay to which he would be entitled if he had held the post substantively and had been performing its duties; but it does not include special pay unless the University servant performs or discharges the work or responsibility, in consideration of which the special pay was sanctioned.

(xiii) Time Scale of Pay means, pay which subject to any conditions prescribed in these rules rises by periodical increments from a minimum to a maximum.

(xiv) Leave Salary means, the monthly amount paid to a University servant on leave.

(xv) Leave on average (or half or quarter average) pay means, leave on leave salary equal to average (or half or quarter average) pay.

(xvi) Month means, a Calendar month. In calculating a period expressed in terms of months and days, completed calendar months, irrespective of the number of days in each, should first be calculated and the odd number of days calculated subsequently.

*Note:—*In calculating a period of three months and 20 days from 25th January, 3 months shall be taken as ending on 24th April and the 20 days on 14th May. In the same way the period from 30th January to 2nd March, shall be reckoned as one month and 2 days because one month from 30th January ends on 28th February.

General.

2. The power of creating and abolishing appointments, temporary or permanent, in the superior and inferior establishments of the University, is vested in the Syndicate.

Whenever required, the Registrar may, with the sanction of the Vice-Chancellor, engage temporary clerks, for periods not exceeding 3 months, on a salary not exceeding Rs. 50/- per mensem.

3. Appointments to clerical posts shall ordinarily be made from amongst candidates whose age does not exceed twenty-five at the time of appointment. The Syndicate, however, shall have power to grant exemption in special ease

4. No person may be substantively appointed to a permanent post without a medical certificate of health from a Gazetted Medical Officer.

5. (a) Two or more University servants cannot be appointed substantively to the same permanent post at the same time.

(b) A University servant cannot be appointed substantively to a post in which another University servant holds a lien.

(c) A University servant when appointed substantively to any permanent post acquires a lien on that post and ceases to hold any lien previously acquired in any other post.

6. (a) A University servant shall not be transferred to a post carrying less pay than the pay of the post on which he holds a lien except on account of inefficiency or misconduct or at his own request.

(b) A University servant shall begin to draw the pay and allowance attached to his tenure of a post with effect from the date when he assumes the duties of the post, and shall cease to draw them as soon as he ceases to discharge these duties.

(c) If a University servant takes charge of a post in the afternoon, he shall for purposes of calculation of pay and allowances, be regarded as having taken charge of it on the subsequent day.

7. Appointments to, promotions in, and suspension or dismissal from, the superior establishment shall be made by the Syndicate on the recommendation of its Establishment Committee. In the case of the inferior establishment, these shall be made by the Vice-Chancellor on the recommendation of the Registrar, but an appeal shall lie to the Syndicate in the case of dismissals from the inferior establishment. All cases of dismissal by the Vice-Chancellor shall be reported to the Syndicate.

8. After 5 years continuous absence from duty—either with or without leave—a University servant shall cease to be in the University employ.

9. A whole-time University servant may be employed in any manner required by proper authority without claim for additional remuneration nor may he accept additional employment or any employment without the previous sanction of the Syndicate.

Pay

10. (a) If a University servant is appointed to hold full charge of one or more posts in addition to his own as a temporary measure, the additional pay which may be granted to him shall not exceed one-fifth of his substantive pay in respect of each additional post in addition to his pay.

(b) If a University servant is appointed to discharge only the current duties of one or more posts in addition to his own as a temporary measure, the additional pay which may be granted to him shall not exceed one-tenth of his substantive pay, in respect of each additional post in addition to his pay.

11. The initial pay of a University servant who is appointed to a post on a time-scale of pay shall be regulated as follows:—

(a) The initial substantive pay of a University servant who is appointed substantively to a post on a time-scale of pay shall be regulated as follows:—

(i) if he holds a lien on a permanent post,

of greater importance than those attaching to such former post, he shall be entitled to draw as initial pay, the stage of the time scale next above his substantive pay in respect of the old post;

- (b) when appointment to the new post does not involve assumption of such duties or responsibilities he shall draw as initial pay the stage of the time-scale which is equal to his substantive pay in respect of his old post, or if there is no such stage, the stage next below that pay plus personal pay equal to the difference and in either case, shall continue to draw that pay until such time as he would have received an increment in the time-scale of the old post or for the period after which an increment is earned in the time-scale of the new post whichever is less; subject to the proviso that should the minimum pay of the time-scale of the new post be higher than the substantive pay in respect of the old post, he shall draw that minimum as initial pay.

- (ii) Should the conditions prescribed in clause (ii) be not fulfilled, he shall draw as initiate pay the minimum of the time-scale:

provided that both in cases covered by (i) and (ii) should he have previously held substantively a post or officiated in the same post or a permanent or temporary post on the same time-scale, the initial pay shall not be less than the pay other than special pay which he drew on the last such occasion, and the period during which he drew that pay on such last and previous occasion shall count for increment.

Note:—Should, however, the pay last drawn by the University servant in a temporary post have been inflated by the grant of premature increments the pay which he would have drawn but for the grant of those increments shall, unless otherwise ordered by the authority competent to create the new post, be taken for the purpose of this proviso to be the pay which he last drew in the temporary post.

(b) The pay of a University servant who is appointed to an officiating post shall be regulated as follows:—

- (i) The initial pay of a University servant who does not hold any post when appointed to officiate in a post shall be the minimum of the time-scale of pay applicable to that post.
- (ii) When a University servant has been appointed to officiate in another post he shall not draw pay higher than his substantive pay in respect of his permanent post unless the post to which he has been appointed to officiate involves the assumption of duties and responsibilities of greater importance than those attaching to his permanent post; where a post involves the assumption of duties or responsibilities of greater importance, his pay shall be regulated in accordance with Ordinance II (a) (i) (a) supra.
- (iii) Subject to sub-clause (ii) above and Ordinance 20 (c) a University servant officiating in a post shall draw the presumptive pay of that post provided that should the presumptive pay of the permanent post on which he holds a lien by at any time greater than the presumptive pay of the post in which he officiates he shall draw the presumptive pay of the permanent post.

12. When a University servant officiates in a post, the pay of which has been fixed at a rate personal to another University servant, the Syndicate may permit him to draw pay at any rate not exceeding the rate so fixed or, should the rate so fixed be a time-scale, may grant him initial pay not exceeding the lower stage of that time-scale and future increments not exceeding those of the sanctioned scale.

13. The Syndicate may fix the pay of an officiating University servant at an amount less than that admissible under these Ordinances.

14. *Pay of Temporary Posts:—*When a temporary post has been created which may have to be filled by a person not already in service, the pay of the post shall be fixed with reference to the minimum that is necessary to secure the services of a person capable of discharging efficiently the duties of the post.

15. When a temporary post has been created which will probably be filled by a person who is already a University servant, its pay shall be fixed by the Syndicate with due regard to—

- (a) the character and responsibility of the work to be performed, and
- (b) the existing pay of the University servants of a status sufficient to warrant their selection for the post.

16. It shall be competent for the Syndicate for adequate reasons recorded to place a University servant at any stage of the time-scale.

17. The holder of a post, the pay of which has been changed, shall be treated as though he were transferred to a new post on the new pay; provided that he may at his option retain his old pay until the date on which he earns his next or any subsequent increment on the old scale, or until he vacates his post or ceases to draw pay on that time-scale. The option once exercised shall be deemed to be final.

Increments

18. An increment shall ordinarily be drawn as a matter of course unless it has been withheld. No University servant shall be given his increment unless in the case of a clerk the head of his office, or, in any other case, such superior officer as may be prescribed for this purpose by the authority empowered to sanction the increment, signs a certificate to the effect that the work and conduct of the University servant in question during the period which counts for increment have been such as to justify the grant of the increment. An increment may be withheld from a University servant if his conduct has not been good or his work has not been satisfactory. The authority competent to appoint a University servant is empowered to withhold increments from him. In ordering the withholding of an increment, the withholding authority shall state the period for which it has to be withheld and whether the postponement shall have the effect of postponing future increments.

*Note:—*1. The order withholding an ordinary increment in a time-scale must specify the period for which it has to be withheld if the order is to be operative. Should the order not state that the withholding of the increment shall have the effect of postponing future increments, it shall be assumed that the University servant's pay has been restored to what it would have been had his increment not been withheld from the next natural date from which he would have drawn an increment.

The effect of an order withholding a particular increment will be that the University servant shall remain on the same pay without any increment for the period for which that order withholds the increment.

Note:—2. (a) Where it has been proposed to withhold an increment in a University servant's pay as a punishment the authority inflicting the punishment should, before the order is actually passed, consider whether it will affect the University servant's pension and, if so, to what extent; and should it be decided finally to withhold the increment, it shall be made clear in the order that the effect of the punishment on the pension has been considered and that the order is intended to have this effect.

(b) The above Ordinances are not applicable to stoppages at an efficiency bar.

Note:—3. Should a University servant be suspended for misconduct neither the period of suspension nor any period of service preceding the suspension shall be allowed to count towards the period necessary to earn an increment.

Note:—4. In cases of suspension on account of imprisonment for debt or for reasons other than misconduct the period of service preceding the suspension may be allowed to count for increments but not the actual period of suspension.

These Ordinances shall be applicable to all University servants who are on incremental scales of pay whether the increments accrue annually or at other intervals.

19. Where an efficiency bar has been prescribed in a time-scale, the increment next above the bar shall not be given to a University servant without the specific sanction of the authority empowered to withhold the increments.

*Note:—*On each occasion in which a University servant is allowed to pass an efficiency bar which had previously been enforced against him, he should come on to the time-scale at such stage as the authority may fix for him, subject to the pay admissible according to the length of his service.

20. The following provisions prescribe the conditions on which service counts for increments in a time-scale:—

(a) All duty in a post on a time-scale counts for increments in that time-scale.

(b) Service in another post, whether in a substantive or officiating capacity, service on deputation and leave other than extraordinary leave count for increments in the time-scale applicable to the post on which the University servant holds a lien provided that the Syndicate shall have power in any case in which it is satisfied or for any other cause beyond the University servant's control to direct that extraordinary leave shall be counted for increment under this clause.

Note:—1. A period of overstay of leave does not count towards increments.

Note:—2. Leave taken during the officiating service of a University servant on a time-scale of pay does not count for increments in that time-scale.

Whenever increments are drawn for officiating University servants in respect of the posts in which they officiate, a note should invariably be made in the increment certificate to indicate whether any leave was taken during the period of approved service for which an increment has been claimed.

Note:—3. Officiating service in a lower time-scale will not count for increment in the substantive post on a higher scale without the specific sanction of the Syndicate in each case.

(c) Should a University servant while officiating in a post or holding a temporary post on a time-scale or pay, be appointed to officiate in a higher post or to hold a higher temporary post, his officiating or temporary service in the higher post shall, if he is re-appointed to the lower post, count for increment in the time-scale applicable to such lower post.

(i) The period of officiating service in the higher post which counts for increment in the lower post shall be, however, restricted to the period during which the University servant would have officiated in the lower post but for his appointment to the higher post.

(ii) This clause shall also apply to a University servant who is not actually officiating in the lower post at the time of his appointment to the higher post, but who would have so officiated had he not been appointed to the higher post.

Note:—

(1) The intention of the Ordinance is to permit a University servant to count officiating service in a higher post as service for increment in a lower post, should he be re-appointed to the lower post, and is not merely an alternative to the Ordinance which permits such officiating service to count for increments in the higher post.

A University servant can also count this officiating service in the higher post for increments in that post should he be subsequently appointed to it either in an officiating or permanent capacity.

(2) The above Ordinance can also be applied to officiating servants without substantive appointments.

(3) For the purpose of the above Ordinance it is necessary that re-appointments to the lower post on reversion from the higher officiating or temporary post shall be immediately in continuation of the duty in the higher post. Any interruption due to leave or reversion to the permanent post will not deprive a University servant of the concession of counting his service in the higher post for increments in the lower post, if appointed thereto subsequently.

(4) Should a University servant while officiating in a post be appointed to officiate in a higher post, his officiating service in the higher post will, provided he is re-appointed to the lower post, count for increments in the lower post even though his officiating pay in the higher post is less than his officiating pay in the lower post.

(5) In order to allow the period of officiating service in a higher post to count for increment in a lower post a certificate to the effect that the University servant would have officiated in the lower post had he not been appointed to officiate in the higher post, should be obtained from an Officer of the University appointed in this behalf.

21. The Syndicate may for adequate reasons recorded grant a premature increment to a University servant on a time-scale of pay.

22. Personal Pay.—Except when the authority sanctioning it orders otherwise, personal pay shall be reduced by any amount by which the recipient's pay may be increased, and shall cease as soon as his pay is increased by an amount equal to his personal pay.

Reduction

23. The authority which orders the transfer of a University servant as a penalty from a higher to a lower grade or post may allow him to draw any pay, not exceeding the maximum of the lower grade or post, which it may think proper.

24. Should a University servant be, on account of misconduct or inefficiency, reduced to a lower grade or post, or to a lower stage in his time-scale, the authority ordering such reduction shall state the period for which it shall be effective and whether, on restoration, it shall operate to postpone future increments and, if so, to what extent.

Note:—An authority ordering the temporary reduction of a University servant shall expressly state in the order that the period for which the reduction has been ordered will be exclusive of any interval spent on leave before that period has been completed.

Dismissal and Suspension.

25. The pay and allowance of a University servant who has been dismissed or removed from service shall cease from the date of such dismissal or removal.

26. A University servant under suspension shall be entitled to a subsistence grant at such rates as the suspending authority may direct, but not exceeding one-fourth of the pay of the suspended University servant.

27. When the suspension of a University servant has been held to have been unjustifiable or not wholly justifiable, or when a University servant who has been dismissed or removed or suspended has been reinstated, the Syndicate may grant him for the period of his absence from duty—(a) should he be honourably acquitted, the full pay to which he would have been entitled, if he had not been dismissed or removed or suspended; and by an order to be separately recorded, any allowance of which he was in receipt prior to his dismissal or removal or suspension; or (b) if found guilty or not wholly justifiable, such proportion of such pay and allowances as the Syndicate may fix.

In cases falling under clause (a), the period of absence from duty shall be treated as a period spent on duty. In cases falling under clause (b) it will not be treated as a period spent on duty unless the Syndicate so directs.

Note:—1. A University servant who has been committed to prison either for debt or on a criminal charge shall be considered as under suspension from the date of his arrest, and therefore, entitled only to subsistence grant until the termination of the proceedings against him, when, should he be not dismissed, an adjustment of his pay and allowances shall be made according to the conditions and terms prescribed, the full amount being given only in the event of the University servant being considered to be acquitted of blame or (if the imprisonment was for debt) of its being proved that the University servant's liability arose from circumstances beyond his control.

Note:—2. The amount of subsistence grant, if any, already drawn shall be deducted from the pay and allowances or proportion of them which may be granted to him.

Note:—3. The grant of pay and allowances or a proportion of them does not cancel any officiating arrangements that may have been in force while the University servant was under suspension or dismissal.

Note:—4. In deciding whether any pay and allowances should be granted to a University servant in temporary employ, the period for which the temporary post has been sanctioned shall be taken into consideration.

28. Leave may not be granted to a University servant under suspension.

Retirement

29. The date of compulsory retirement of a University servant, shall be the date on which he attains the age of 55 years. He shall not be retained in service after that age except on public grounds, with the sanction of the Syndicate, which must be recorded in writing; but he must not be retained after the age of 60 years except in very special circumstances.

Note:—This Ordinance does not apply to University servants treated as in inferior service for purposes of pension.

Leave

30. Leave is earned by duty only.

31. A University servant who has been dismissed or removed from University service, and has been reinstated, shall be entitled to count his former service for leave.

32. Leave cannot be claimed as of right. When exigencies of University service so require, discretion to refuse or revoke leave of any description is reserved to the authority empowered to grant it.

33. The Vice-Chancellor, or in the absence of the Vice-Chancellor, the Registrar shall have power to grant leave of absence to all members of the establishment according to these Ordinances.

The Vice-Chancellor shall have power to entertain substitutes in leave vacancies of inferior University servants up to the limit of the 1-10th of the cost of the establishment for inferior servants in the University.

34. (a) Leave ordinarily shall begin on the day on which transfer of charge has been effected and end on the day preceding that on which charge has been resumed.

(b) When the day immediately preceding the day on which the leave begins or immediately following the day on which the leave expires is a holiday or one of a series of holidays, the member of the staff may leave his station at the close of the day before or return to it on the day following such holiday or series of holidays.

35. A University servant on leave may not take service or accept any employment without obtaining the previous sanction of the Syndicate. This Ordinance does not apply to casual literary work, or service as an examiner or similar employment.

36. All orders recalling a University servant to duty before the expiry of his leave shall state whether the return to duty is optional or compulsory. If it is compulsory, the University servant shall be entitled to travelling allowance to Madras but will get only leave salary up to the date he joins his post. If the return is optional, he shall be entitled to no travelling allowance.

37. A University servant who has been granted leave on medical certificate may be asked to produce a certificate of physical fitness before he returns to duty, by the Head of the Office. A similar certificate may be required in the case of any University servant who has been granted leave for reasons of health, even though such leave was not actually granted on a medical certificate.

When leave applied for is on medical certificate, the certificate shall be from a Gazetted Medical Officer or a Honorary Medical Officer of equal standing: the University servant, may, however, be asked to appear before the Surgeon of the District on requisition.

38. A University servant who remains absent after the expiry of his leave shall not be entitled to leave salary during the period of such absence, and that period shall be debited against his leave account as though it were leave on half average pay, unless his leave is extended by the authority competent to sanction the leave.

Wilful absence from duty after the expiry of leave may be treated as misconduct.

39. (a) Casual leave may be granted up to a limit of 15 days in a Calendar year; but absence on casual leave shall be treated as duty for the purpose of calculation of other leave. A single period of absence on casual leave shall not exceed seven days; casual leave may be combined with Sundays or other authorised holidays provided that the resulting period of absence from duty does not exceed ten days.

(b) Subject to the following Ordinances a University servant who is called to attend office on a holiday, except as a punishment, shall be granted another holiday called compensation leave in its place when opportunity occurs :—

- (i) Such holidays may not be taken by a University servant without the previous permission of the authority competent to grant his casual leave.
- (ii) Not more than ten such holidays in all may be taken in a Calendar year and no such holidays shall be taken after the expiry of 6 months from the Public Holiday for which it is substituted. It will, however, be within the discretion of the Head of an office to call on the University servant affected to take such holiday on any date within 6 months which the Head of the Office finds to be convenient.
- (iii) Not more than seven such holidays may be accumulated and a lower number may be fixed at his discretion by the Head of the Office.

- (iv) Such holidays may be combined with casual leave or other authorised holidays, provided that the total period of absence from duty does not exceed ten days.

Note:—The above Ordinances regarding compensation leave do not apply to the servants in the University Library.

(c) The Registrar shall have power to grant casual or compensation leave to members of his staff. In respect of clerical and menial establishments in the Departments this power may be exercised by the Head of the Department.

(d) Special casual leave (quarantine leave) not counting against ordinary casual leave may be granted to a University servant when he is directed by the Head of the Office to absent himself from duty owing to infectious disease in his house.

(Note:—When the University servant himself catches the infection, regular leave under the University Ordinances must be taken for the period of absence.)

40. A leave account in the forms prescribed [vide Appendix A (1)] shall be maintained for each University servant in terms of leave on average pay.

• 41. (a) The leave account of a University servant who entered service prior to 1—1—1922 shall be credited with

- (i) the privilege leave at credit on 1—1—1922;
- (ii) $1/12$ th of the period spent on duty or on privilege leave prior to 1—1—1922 (towards furlough); and
- (iii) $2/11$ th of the period spent on duty subsequent to that date.

and
- (ii) half the period of leave on half average or quarter average pay.

(d) The maximum amount of leave which may be granted expressed in terms of leave on average pay shall be the privilege leave at credit on the 1st January 1922 plus 1/11th of the period spent on duty subsequent to that date plus 2½ years, including period credited under (ii) above.

(e) The maximum amount of leave on average pay inclusive of any furlough on average salary taken under the rules in force prior to 1—1—1922 which may be granted to a University servant in superior service shall be four months at any one time and in all the privilege leave due on 1—1—1922 plus 1/11th of the period spent on duty subsequent to that date, plus one year out of the 2½ years referred to in clause (d) provided that the additional one year will be permissible only if the leave is on medical certificate.

The maximum of four months referred to above may be extended up to 8 months in the case of leave on medical certificate.

(f) In the case of University servant in inferior service the maximum amount of leave on average pay inclusive of any furlough on average salary taken under the rules in force prior to 1—1—1922 which may be granted to a University servant shall be four months at any one time and in all the privilege leave due on 1—1—1922 plus 1/11th of the period spent on duty subsequent to that date.

42. (a) The leave account of a University servant who entered service on or after 1—1—1922 and prior to 4—9—1933 shall be credited with 2/11th of the period spent on duty.

and

(e) The maximum amount of leave on average pay which may be granted to a University servant in superior service shall be four months at any one time and in all 1/11th of the period spent on duty plus one year out of the 2½ years referred to in clause (d) provided that the additional one year will be permissible only if the leave is on medical certificate.

The maximum of four months referred to above may be extended up to 8 months in the case of leave on medical certificate.

(f) In the case of University servants in inferior service the maximum amount of leave on average pay which may be granted shall be four months at any one time and in all 1/11th of the period spent on duty.

The following Ordinances shall apply to those who were entertained prior to the 4th September 1933.

43. (a) Save in the case of leave preparatory to retirement leave not due may be granted subject to the following conditions:—

- (i) on medical certificate without limit of amount; and
- (ii) otherwise than on medical certificate for not more than three months at any one time and six months in all reckoned in terms of leave on average pay ;
- (iii) leave not due may in no case be granted unless the sanctioning authority has been satisfied that, as far as can be reasonably foreseen the University servant will return to duty and earn it; and
- (iv) the leave when granted shall in all cases (subject to the University servant's wishes) be allowed to stand including cases in which the University servant fails to earn it by subsequent duty.

44. The maximum period of continuous absence from duty on leave granted, otherwise than on medical certificate, shall be twenty-eight months. This period shall in no circumstances be exceeded by a University servant who is on leave preparatory to retirement.

45. (a) Extraordinary leave may be granted in special circumstances (1) when no other leave is by Ordinance admissible, or (2) when, other leave being admissible, the University servant concerned applies in writing for the grant of extraordinary leave. Such leave shall not be debited against the leave account. No leave salary is admissible during such leave.

(b) A University servant retained in service after the date of compulsory retirement shall earn leave on average pay at the rate of 1/11th of duty, performed after that date and shall be allowed to add thereto any amount of leave which could have been granted to him

Provided that when a University servant takes leave and,

- (ii) the leave taken does not exceed one month, his average pay for the purpose of this rule may be taken to be the pay which he would draw in the permanent post held substantively by him at the time of taking leave, should this pay be more than the average pay as defined in these Ordinances.

48. After continuous absence from duty on leave for a period of twenty-eight months, a University servant shall be entitled to draw only leave salary equal to quarter average pay.

49. Leave may be granted to a University servant without a lien on a permanent post while officiating in a post or holding a temporary post provided that the grant of the leave involves no extra expense to the University. On this condition a University servant may be granted:—

service qualifying for pension and includes periods of leave.

75. Time passed under suspension pending enquiry into conduct shall count as service provided the suspension has been immediately followed by reinstatement, but time passed under suspension adjudged as a specific penalty shall not count.

76. Should a University servant who has been suspended, pending enquiry into his conduct be reinstated, but with forfeiture of any part of his allowances for the period of suspension, this period shall not count unless the authority who reinstates the servant (the Syndicate or the Vice-Chancellor, as the case may be) expressly declares at the time that it shall count.

83. Should a University servant applying for an invalid pension be sixty years old or upwards no certificate by a Medical Officer shall be necessary; it shall be sufficient should the Head of the Office certify that the applicant is incapacitated for further service. Otherwise, incapacity for service must be established by a medical certificate attested by a Medical Officer of a rank not less than that of a District Medical Officer or District Surgeon.

84. A University servant who has submitted a medical certificate of incapacity for further service, must not be retained in active service pending a decision on his application for pension nor can he obtain leave of absence. Without the special orders of the Syndicate, service after the date of such medical certificate shall not count for pension.

85. A superannuation pension may be granted to a University servant in superior service entitled or compelled by Ordinance, to retire at a particular age.

86. A University servant in superior service who has attained the age of 55 years, may, at his option retire on a superannuation pension.

87. A retiring pension may be granted to a University servant who has been permitted to retire after completing qualifying Superior Service for thirty years.

88. The amount of pension that may be granted shall be determined by length of service as set forth in Ordinance 91. Fractions of a year are not taken into account in the calculation of any pension admissible to a University servant under these Ordinances.

89. Pensions fixed in rupees shall be calculated to the nearest anna, that is, where the exact amount works out to six pies or more, it should be taken to the next higher anna, amounts below six pies being disregarded.

*Note:—*This Ordinance applies to all pensions granted under these Ordinances.

90. (a) The full pension admissible under the Ordinances shall not be given as a matter of course, or unless the service rendered has been really approved.

Note:—1. If, during the last three years of his service a University servant has been absent from duty on leave with allowances, or having been suspended, has been reinstated without forfeiture of service, his emoluments, for purposes of ascertaining the average, shall be taken at what they would have been had he not been absent from duty or suspended, provided always that his pension must not be increased on account of increase in pay not actually drawn.

Note:—2. If, during the last three years of his service, a University servant has been absent from duty on leave without allowances (not counting for pension), or suspended under such circumstances that the period of suspension does not count as service, the periods so passed should be disregarded in the calculation of the average, an equal period before the three years being included.

Note:—3. Except as provided in Notes 1 and 2, only emoluments actually received can be included in the calculation. For example, when a University servant is allowed to count time retrospectively towards increase of pay, but does not receive retrospectively the intermediate periodical increments, these intermediate increments are not reckoned in the calculation.

94. In the case of inferior establishment payment of pensions and gratuities shall be regulated by the following Ordinances:—

(i) For inferior qualifying service, gratuity or pension shall be regulated as follows:—

95. (a) The Syndicate shall have power to sanction as compassionate gratuity to the heirs of University servants who die while in service a sum not exceeding half-a-month's substantive pay including special pay and personal pay last drawn for each year of service.

(b) If a person who is under the Pension scheme dies after he has retired from service, and the sum actually received by him on account of pension are less than the gratuity admissible to his family under (a) above for the period of service put in by him, a gratuity equal to the deficiency may be granted to the legal heirs of the deceased. This benefit will not be admissible if the person had commuted a portion of his pension before his death.

Commutation of Pensions.

96. These Ordinances shall apply to University servants who are in receipt of pension from University Funds.

97. A University servant to whom these Ordinances apply shall subject to the conditions hereinafter specified be allowed to commute for a lump payment any portion, not exceeding one half of the pension granted to him by the Syndicate, provided that the expenditure involved can be met from the sanctioned budget grants.

98. Notwithstanding anything contained in Ordinance 97, the Syndicate may in its discretion refuse commutation of pension in the case of pensioner who has been guilty of grave misconduct which would in their opinion have justified the withholding of his pension.

99. Applications for commutation of pension shall be made to the Registrar, University of Madras, who will place them before the Syndicate for necessary action.

100. (i) No commutation shall be sanctioned unless such medical authority, as may be prescribed in this behalf by the Syndicate, certifies that the pensioner's bodily health and prospects of duration of life are such as to justify commutation.

written or oral, put to him in connection with his medical examination, the Syndicate may cancel the sanction at any time before payment is actually made; and such a statement or suppression may be treated as grave misconduct for the purpose of Ordinance 98.

101. The lump sum payable on commutation shall be calculated in accordance with the table of present values appended.

*Note:—*For the purpose of calculating the lump sum payable on commutation the age in the case of impaired lives shall be assumed to be such age, not being less than the actual age, as the certifying medical authority may direct.

102. Commutation, when sanctioned, shall take effect on a date to be specified in the order. Such date shall be the first of a month and ordinarily be about one month later than the date of the order; and all calculations shall be made with reference to the date specified.

Payment of the commuted portion of the pension shall cease from the date specified and the sum payable on commutation shall be paid on that date or as soon afterwards as possible.

The applicant may withdraw his application by written notice despatched at any time before his medical examination is due to take place.

103. A commutation once given effect to cannot be rescinded, that is, the portion of a pension commuted cannot be restored on refund of its capitalized value.

In the case of an applicant who has been granted an invalid pension, the grounds of invalidating or the statement of the medical case shall be communicated to the certifying medical authority before the certificate is signed. A copy of the medical report or reports, if any, relating to an applicant for commutation of pension, shall always be communicated to the certifying medical authority when a medical report is called for from him on a subsequent application for commutation.

The fee for the medical examination shall be Rs. 12/- whether the medical examination is conducted by a single Medical Officer or by a Medical Board and shall be paid by the applicant to the Medical Officer direct. He shall also bear the expenses of the journey to appear before such medical authority as the Syndicate may direct.

107. It shall be open to the Syndicate to send an applicant for commutation before a Medical Board for a second examination, in which case the fee for such examination shall be borne by the University Funds.

108. A pensioner whose application for commutation of pension has been rejected either on the recommendation of a medical authority that he is not a fit subject for commutation of pension or for the reason that he has declined to accept commutation on the basis of addition to the actual age, as recommended by the medical authority may be allowed one re-examination by a Medical Board at his cost, provided that an interval of not less than one year has elapsed between the first medical examination and that of the second. The Medical Board re-examining the pensioner shall be furnished with a copy of the report of the medical authority which previously examined him.

109. For purposes of commutation the forms and table of values shall be as in Appendix A (2).

(b) The subscriber shall intimate the fixation of the amount of his monthly subscription in whole rupees before the end of the preceding year, except during the year when he first elects to come under this scheme.

(c) A subscriber may, at his option, not subscribe during leave. He shall intimate his election not to subscribe during the leave by written communication to the head of his office before he proceeds on leave. The option of a subscriber intimated under this clause shall be final. Failure to make due and timely intimation shall be deemed to constitute an election to subscribe.

(d) A person employed on probation may elect to subscribe to the Fund during the period of probation.

115. The University shall contribute to the account of each subscriber at the rate of nine pies in the rupee of the actual pay drawn by him.

The amount of contribution payable by the University shall be calculated after the end of each year and credited to the subscriber's account rounded to the nearest whole rupee (eight annas or more counting as the next higher rupee).

APPENDIX D.

UNIVERSITY LIBRARY, MADRAS.

In November, 1903, a proposal was received by the Government of Madras from the Madras University that a legacy of Rs. 25,619 bequeathed to it by the will of the late Mr. William Griffith, dated September 9, 1897 and received by the University on October 25, 1901, should be utilized for the establishment and organization of a library in connection with the University; and that the University should be associated with the management of the Connemara Public Library with a view to making that a University as well as a Public Library. The Government agreed to the proposal and allowed the University the use of the Connemara Library buildings for the deposit of its books, provided that these books, while remaining the property of the University, are available to the general readers of the Connemara Public Library.

The Local Government in their order No. 202, Law (Education), dated 6th February 1923, accorded sanction to a reorganization of the Library finances under which all the financial resources intended for the University Library hitherto shown in different accounts have been merged into a single consolidated account called the "Library Account." As a result of this, the Library has a funded capital of about Rs. 4,11,100 in Government Securities and in deposits in the Central Urban Bank earning an annual income of about Rs. 20,100. In addition the Library receives an annual recurring grant of Rs. 43,500, thus having a total annual income of about Rs. 63,600 towards its upkeep and maintenance.

Under Section 19, clause (1) of the Madras University Act of 1923 (as amended by the Madras Act XII of 1929), the Syndicate will manage the University Library.
