

The favorite Song of

SHEPHERD WOULDST THOU,

Sung by MISS WEBBE, at Ranelagh,

Composed by J. Danty.

Pr. 6^d

London Printed by John Bland at his Music Warehouse, No. 5, Holborn.

Where may be had several other Songs, Glees, &c. by the same composer.

Musical notation for the first system, including treble and bass staves with a 'Moderato' tempo marking.

Musical notation for the second system, including treble and bass staves.

Shepherd wouldst thou here obtain Pleasure un-a-lay'd with pain

P. F.

Joys that fruit the ru-ral sphere gen-tle Shepherd

P.

lend an Ear Joys that fruit the rural sphere gentle Shepherd lend an Ear

Artless deed and simple dress mark the chosen Shepherd-ers mark the chosen Shepherders.

F.

Learn to relish calm delight verdant

P.

Vales and Fountains bright Trees that nod on sloping Hills

Caves that echo Caves that echo Caves that echo tinkling rills

If thou canst no charm dis-

F.

P.

close in the simplest Bud that blows go forfake thy

Plain and Fold, join the croud join the croud and

F. P.

toil for Gold Splendor pomp and gay at-tire

Sf. P.

all that bu--fy crouds ad-mire when these pleasures you have known yet at last with me you'll own

F.

Artlefs deed and fimple drefs - mark the

P.

cho - fen Shep - herd - efs mark the cho - fen Shepherdefe .

tr

F.