

a tempo

Worship, his Honour, his Grace, a Hunting con - - ti - nual - ly go, all ranks and de - grees are en - gag'd in the Chace, with hark forward, Huzza, Tally ho - -

- - all ranks and de - grees are en - gag'd in the Chace, hark forward, Huzza, Tally

Sy Ho. Tally ho Tally ho Tally ho Tally ho Tally ho Tally

ho Tally ho - - - Hark forward huzza Tally ho - - - Sy

2

The Lawyer will rise with the first of the Morn
 To hunt for a Mortgage or Deed;
 The Husband gets up at the sound of the Horn
 And rides to the Commons full speed;
 The Patriot is thrown in pursuit of his Game,
 The Poet too often lays low;
 Who mounted on Pegasus flies after fame,
 With Hark forward, Huzza, Tally Ho.

3

While fearless o'er hills and o'er Woodlands we sweep Tho' Prudes on our Pastime may frown, How oft do they Decency's bounds over-leap
 And the Fences of Virtue break down;
 Thus Public, or Private, for Pension, for Place,
 For Amusement, for Passion, for Shew,
 All Ranks and Degrees are engag'd in the Chace,
 With Hark forward, Huzza, Tally Ho.

For the German Flute, or Guittar.

Con molto Spirito

Ye Sportsmen draw near and ye

Sportswomen too, who de-light in the Joys of the Field, who de-light in the Joys of the Field, Mankind tho' they blame are all eager as you, and no one the contest will yield - - - , and no one the contest will yield.

Adg^o His Lordship, h

Worship, his Honour, his Grace, a Hunting con-ti-nual-ly go, all ranks and de-grees are en-gag'd in the Chace, with hark forward Huz--za Tally ho - -

all ranks and de-grees are en-gag'd in the Chace, hark forward Huz--za Tally

ho, Tally ho, Tally ho, Tally ho, Tally ho, Tally ho, Tally

ho, Tally ho - - - Hark forward Huzza Tally ho - - -

ho, Tally ho - - - Hark forward Huzza Tally ho - - -

