

The Rose Bud
— A BALLAD —

as Sung with universal applause by

M^{rs} Blane
— at — Stairhall

Composed by

J. F. BURROWES.

at Stat^e Hall.

Price 1/6

London Printed by Goulding Phipps & D'Almaine, 117 New Bond St.
Likewise may be had of Goulding Knevelts & C^o. N^o 7 Westmorland Street Dublin.
& James Stevens Glasgow.

Where may be had. "Oh let me seek some silent Grove" a Ballad.

Moderato

mezzo

cres

f

dim:

With Henry wand'ring thro' the Vale, a Rose Budmet our View, Its Fragrance scented ev'ry - Gale like, In - nocence it Grew. Dear

Emblem of a Virtuous Heart long long may thy Beauty Flourish Not mine the Hand to pluck thy sweets Then cast thee by to perish Not

p

p

f

pp

cres

pp

cres

f

p