A Spruce little Drummer so bon - ny and gay, the parchment at least ev'ry day I shall drub to the Sound of the Fi_fer we'll both march a way and wake all at morn with my rub a dub dub rub a dub dub rub a dub dub and wake all at morn with my rub a dub dub.

wake all at morn with my rub a dub dub.

2

If Drummer dont suit me a Fife I shall be Or shoulder my Musket as boldly as you, No two in the Camp half so social as we,
 As we jig it away to my too,too,too,too,

3

We both shoud live safely I'll venture to say No danger or fight e'er our courage shall rub,
 For if danger approaches well both run away,
 And leave at a distance the rub, a, dub, dub.
