

1806,

A favorite Song sung by

MR. DIGNUM,

at Vauxhall Gardens,

Written by T. E. Hook.

Composed by MR. HOOK.

Ent.^d at Sta. Hall.

Price 1s

London, Printed by Clementi & Comp.^s 26, Cheapside.

ALLEGRETTO

The musical score is written in G major (one sharp) and 6/8 time. It is marked 'ALLEGRETTO'. The score consists of three systems of music. The first system includes a piano accompaniment with a treble and bass staff. The second and third systems are for the vocal line, also with treble and bass staves. The piece concludes with a double bar line.

Oh what a bustle is London's Metro-polis dashing de-lightful en-

- gaging and gay search all the World round from the Po to Per-se-po-lis

Cities like this will not pop in your way For the

for

Beaux and the Ladies all drest upon gay days in Hyde Park their promenade

piva

keep and Fashions are thriving for great Lords are dri-ving while

AD LIB:

Coachman are snoring a - sleep then high ho this is fe-li-ci-ty these are the pleasures your fancy must fix these are the joys of the gentry of this Ci_ty Joys of one thousand eight hundred and six

for

2

When a Lady's at home all the World go and visit her Gaily squeeze into her rooms full and hot —
 Meet — jostle, can't find her contented they quiz at her, Wond'ring good lack where the deuce they have got.
 They then begin dancing, the hours enhancing,
 Side lights and fine chalk on the Floor
 While still to keep order — and quell each disorder
 The Constables stand at the door
 High ho &c; &c.

3

At the Op'ra they sing but are seldom attended to Ladies their Daughters and Diamonds display,
 Some lounge into Boxes the moment it's ended too
 Not coming there till they're going away
 The moments they sieze — rattle home to green peas
 And chatter as gaily they sup
 For their Daughters they've said, shall neer go to Bed,
 Till just as the sun's getting up
 Then high ho, if this is so clever
 O long may it last their dear fancies to fix,
 May the Country increase — flourish, prosper for ever
 In joys like the joys of -806.