Allegretto

2

Thus for Men the Wo-men fair, Lay the cunning cun-ning snare,

Lay the cunning cun-ning snare, while like fish the Men will rove And with beau-ty fall in love And with beau-ty fall in love.

What is beauty but the bait, Oft-re-pented when too late,
What is beauty but the bait, Oft-re-pented when too late,

what is beauty, what is beauty, what is beauty but the bait.
what is beauty, what is beauty but the bait.

Sy ^h 3

oft re-pent-ed when too late, oft re-pent-ed when too late.

oft re-pent-ed when too late, oft re-pent-ed when too late.

If too rash you seize the prize,
 Now display'd before the Eyes,
 How you'll rue when all is past,
 Hymens Hook which holds you fast,
 Ere you Marry then beware,
 'Tis a blessing or a snare.

For the German Flute.
