Allegretto

Ah why my fair that pearly tear, that on thy cheek incessant flows, more love-ly far thou dost ap-pear, than does the dew be-span-gled rose.
Why dim the lus-tre of those eyes that do with such resplen-dent beam; loves keen-est dart still in them lies, and o'er all hearts as - serts thy claim. Ah! why my fair that pear - ly tear, that on thy cheek in - ces - sant flows. more love - ly far thou dost ap - pear, than does the dew be -
