WHEN LOVE HATH CHARM'D

A Favorite Ballad

with an Accompaniment for the Piano Forte,

Composed by Mr. Denby.

Pr. 6^d

London Printed & Sold by Preston & Son at their Wholesale Warehouses 97. Strand.

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It begins with a piano introduction marked 'Grazioso' in the left hand. The vocal line starts with the lyrics: 'When love hath charm'd the Virgins Ear she hides the tender thought in vain how oft a blush a sigh a tear betrays the sweetly anxious pain how'. The score includes various musical notations such as trills (tr), slurs, and dynamic markings like 's.' (sotto) and 'f.' (forte). The piano accompaniment features a steady bass line and a more active treble line with chords and melodic fragments.

For thee a mutual flame I own thy Joys thy sorrows both are mine thy

Virtue all my Soul have won that boasts a passion pure as thine that boasts a passion pure as thine

No

more shalt thou my coldness mourn I trust the tear that dims thine Eye I see fair truth thy lip a dora and hear her Voice in ev--ry sigh I see fair truth thy lip adorn and hear her voice in evry sigh
