plea-sing air commands the hearts of all the Fair But none a-dore the Youth like me O Stre-phon fet my bo--fom free O Strephon fet my bo--fom free.

2
 He hails me each revolving Day
 As to his Flock he bends his way
 When Eve returns the faithful Swain
 Flies swiftly back to me again
 With trembling fear he does impart
 The soft emotions of his heart
 And is as fond as fond can be Oh Strephon is the Youth for me.

 He buys me Trinkets at the Fair
 And proves that I am all his care
 The faithful Youth has said beside
 He means to take me for his Bride
 And should he constant prove for Life
 Can I refuse to be his Wife
 Ah no! I'll prove as true as he
 For Strephon is the Youth for me!
