

DAMON AND PHILLIS,

Pastoral Dialogue,

Sung by Miss Daniels, & M^r Dignum, at Vanxhall Gardens.

Composed by M^r Brooks.

The Words by M^r Fox

Pr. 1st

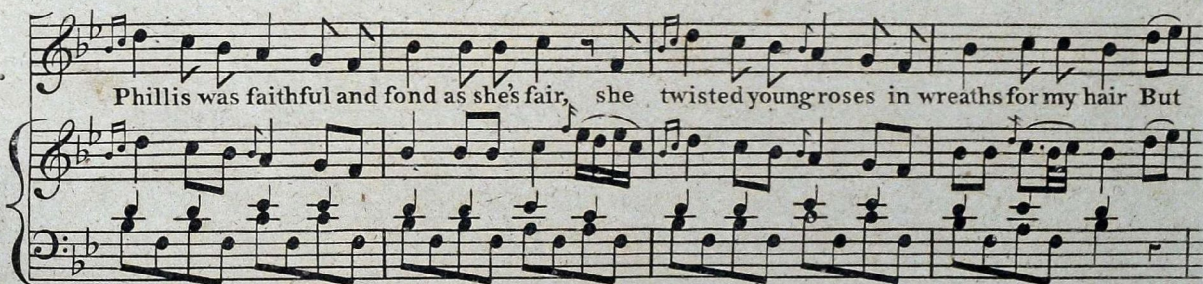

London Printed & Sold by Preston, at his Wholesale Warehouses, 97, Strand.

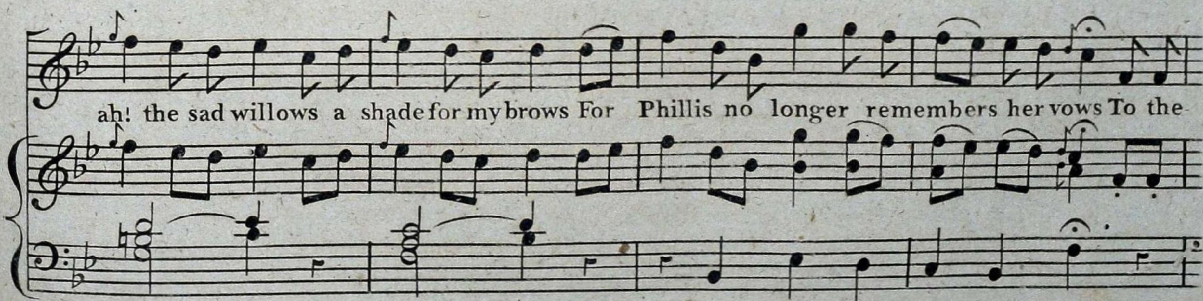

Allegretto

8. When

Phillis was faithful and fond as she's fair, she twisted young roses in wreaths for my hair But ah! the sad willows a shade for my brows For Phillis no longer remembers her vows To the groves with young Colin the shepherdess flies while Damon disturbs the still plains with his sighs

Sym

for

2

PHILLIS - Bethink you false Damon, before you upbraid,
 When Phoebe's fair Lambkin had yesterday stray'd,
 Thro' the woodlands you wander'd, poor Phillis forgot,
 And drove the gay rambler, quite home to her Cot,
 A swain so deceitful, no Damsel can prize,
 'Tis Phoebe, not Phillis, lays claim to your sighs.

3

DAMON - Like summer's full season young Phoebe is kind,
 Her manners are graceful, untainted her mind,
 The sweets of contentment her Cottage adorn
 She's fair as the rose bud, and fresh as the morn,
 She smiles like Pomona, these smiles I resign,
 If Phillis were faithful, and deign'd to be mine.

4

PHILLIS - On the Tabor young Colin, so prettily plays,
 He sings me sweet sonnets, and writes in my praise,
 He chose me his true love, last Valentine's day,
 When birds sat like bridegrooms, all pair'd on the spray,
 Yet I'd drive the gay Shepherd far, far from my mind,
 If Damon the rover, were constant and kind.

5

DAMON - Fine folks my sweet Phillis, may revel and range,
 But fleeting's the pleasure that founded on change
 In the Villager's cottage, such constancy springs,
 That peasants with pity may look down on Kings,
 To the church then let's hasten, our transports to bind,
 And Damon will always prove faithful and kind.

DUETTO.

3

PHILLIS

To the church then lets hasten, our transports to bind and Phillis will allways prove

DAMON

To the church then lets hasten, our transports to bind and Damon will allways prove faithful and kind To the church then lets hasten our transports to bind and Phillis will allways prove faithful and kind To the church then lets hasten our transports to bind and Damon will allways prove faithful and kind.

faithful and kind.

Sym.