

12. / 11

1

BRITANNIA TRIUMPHANT

A NEW SONG

Written by T. H. in honor of the Victories obtained by England during the last twelve months

MUSIC BY

R. Hudson
for a Bass Voice

Entered at Stationer's Hall.

Price 1^s.

LONDON. Printed by LONGMAN CLEMENTI and Co: N^o 26 CHEAPSIDE.

RECIT:

Of' has BRITANNIA'S rap-tur'd Muse. Exulting

6

rais'd the welcome strain, Of' has she sung and still shall sing, BRI.

6

Maestoso

TANNIA on-ly rules the Main. Volti

6

2^d VerseLively
not fast

With ea-ger hope She saw brave HOWE, Pour his dread THUNDER on the FOE, pour his dread THUNDER on the FOE. Sym. 'Till soon proud France was forc'd to Bow before the HEROE'S vengeful blow.
 no Chords Sym:

3^d Verse

Then, Then, from the Trumpet's hollow Throat,
 Re-echo'd o'er th'ex-tensive plain, re-echo'd from &c.
 Joyous she breath'd the glorious Note,
 BRITANNIA on-ly rules the Main.

4th Verse

Lefts anxious now by Vic'try grown,
 She saw again our flag unfurl'd;
 Again, she saw the FOE bend down,
 Before the Fire which JARVIS hurl'd.

5th Verse

See, see as the Clouds of Smoke dis-perse,
 Rise from the ruin'd fleets of Spain;
 Once more the heart inspiring Verse,
 BRITANNIA ONLY rules the Main.

6th Verse

But hark! a-gain the Cannons roar

And DUNCAN now leads on the fight, DUNCAN now &c.
'Till he too, proves, as heretofore,
The SEA is ever BRITAIN'S right.

7th Verse

The VANQUISH'D DUTCH beheld with shame,

Their well form'd line disolv'd in twain;
And ENGLISH SEAMEN loud proclaim,
BRITANNIA ONLY rules the Main.

8th Verse

And dar'st thou yet Vain FRANCE, to Cope
With the huge Bulwarks of our Isle;
See, then, thy last expiring hope

Bury'd by NELSON in the NILE.

9th Verse

With Joy let ev'ry heart now beat,

And not a sin-gle Note re-frain, not a single &c.
While EGYPT'S SHORES the lay repeat
BRITANNIA ONLY rules the Main.