The first system of music features a vocal line on a single staff and piano accompaniment on two staves (treble and bass clef). The key signature is one sharp (F#) and the time signature is 2/4. The piano part consists of a rhythmic accompaniment with chords and moving lines.

I've liv'd a life of some few years I'm fifty four to morrow one for each mile I shed three tears and mingled joy with sorrow.

The second system continues the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are printed below the vocal staff.

The third system continues the vocal line and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are printed below the vocal staff.

I've liv'd.

Now wi- ser grown I scorn to cry tho' tears are wet and I am dry so if a drop I've in my eye if a drop I've in my eye it's only when the Glasses ring and jug jug jug the Bottles sing its' only when the Glasses ring and jug jug jug the Bottles sing and jug jug jug the Bottles sing and jug jug jug the Bottles sing.

The friend I trusted lack a day most scurril-ly a - bus'd me, the wife I married ran away with him who thus had us'd me: my grief too big to let me cry could only tell me sorrows dry. so if a drop was in my eye 'Twas when I heard the glassessing.

Yet think not tho' some folks are bad,
I'll usage sets me fulking;
From dutys call old Mats the Lad,
Who never was foal ofa: fculking.
While Love for Britain wets my eye,
Like every far my best I'll try,
To thrash her foes and when I'm dry,
Drink all her friends, her Queen, & King,
While jug jug jug the Bottles Sing.
