"GROWTH IN THE KNOWLEDGE OF OUR LORD"
MEDITATIONS FOR EVERY DAY OF THE YEAR, exclusive of those for Festivals, Days of Retreat, &c.

ADAPTED FROM THE ORIGINAL OF THE ABBÉ DE BRANDT
BY A "DAUGHTER OF THE CROSS".

"Growth in the Knowledge of Our Lord" seems likely to be a most useful addition to our books of Meditations, and carries out thoroughly what it aims at.

✚ CHARLES, ARCHBISHOP OF GLASGOW.

My dear Sister,—I have read, and have used several of the "Meditations" which you sent me to examine. They appear to me to be very sensible, solid, and to the point. They are also conveniently short, and at the same time suggestive. The adaptation is well done, and I hope you will finish the work you have got so far on with.—God bless you.—Your faithful and devoted Servant,

✚ HERBERT, BISHOP OF SALFORD.

These "Meditations" are rendered into genuine English. . . . Doubtless God will bless this work, and by it lead many to holy thoughts and actions. May it be fruitful, and increase the glory of God, of our Redeemer, and His holy Mother.

✚ LEO MEURIN, S.J., BISHOP OF BOMBAY.

REVIEWS.

"The praise, though high, bestowed on these excellent Meditations by the Bishop of Salford is well deserved. . . . Intended for Religious, they will be found equally useful for others also . . . being full of well wrought-out assistance. The language, like good spectacles, spreads treasures before our vision, without attracting attention to itself. Very clear type, and good paper are external advantages, but deserve mention and a word of praise."—Dublin Review.

"These Meditations are adapted from the French original of the Abbé de Brandt. The title "Growth in the Knowledge of our Lord," conveys to the reader some idea of the contents. We are happy to be able to recommend these Meditations to our readers. They are full of pious thoughts, none the less attractive because they are old, from which all in the various relations of life can derive much profit. The Meditations have the advantage of being short. They relate chiefly to the Life of our Lord, and naturally include various incidents in the sorrows and joys of His Blessed Mother. We like specially in vol. i. the Meditations on Silence, in p. 32; on Confidence in God, in p. 30; on Christ Adoring His Eternal Father, in p. 56; and on the Excellency of the Religious Vocation, in p. 131. The second volume offers a very suggestive Meditation on the Value of Good Thoughts, and many on the Passion. The book is drawn up on the system of St. Ignatius, and a colloquy is attached to the close of each Meditation. We are glad to see that this important point is not lost sight of in these volumes, and we wish them every success."—The Month.

"The true test of a book of Meditations is use. Our holy faith presents an almost unlimited number of topics suitable for meditation, and as there exist varieties of tastes, needs and states of life, and differences in length of time and manner of making meditation, we consider this work a real addition to the few really good books of Meditations we have in English. The following seem to be some of its special merits: there is variety, and variety in order, daily meditations on the life and mysteries of our Lord, special Meditations for Feasts and for all Thursdays, Fridays, and Saturdays, on the Blessed Sacrament, the Sacred Heart, and the Blessed Virgin, and for monthly retreat days; the subject for meditation is divided into two points, and the second point has a true and logical connection with the first—a great merit. We are not asked to meditate on three or four different subjects; the Scripture quotations are not turned and twisted to make so many extra points, but exemplify and impress, as they should do, the real point; finally, the treatment is solid, just, and sufficiently ample. It is excellently gotten up by the publishers."—Catholic World.

"These Meditations have been adapted from the French to meet a want that is widely felt of suitable Meditations for daily and occasional use. The work has been skilfully done by a member of the Community of the "Daughters of the Cross" at Bury. The English is easy and vigorous, and this, in a devotional book is a matter of no small importance, as it renders the book attractive as well as useful to educated readers, and adds vividness and reality to the sacred pictures presented to the mind in the Meditations. . . . The method of St. Ignatius is followed. Each Meditation opens with a few words from Holy Scripture, and concludes with a "thought for the day," the latter being always concise and very happily chosen. Of the tone of the Meditations it is impossible to speak too highly."—Catholic Times.
