In March, the Fifth Edition of

MR. FORSTER'S LIFE OF GOLDSMITH.

With additional Notes and Illustrations.

In Two Volumes.

"Goldsmith has been fortunate in his biographers. Within a few years his life has been written by Mr. Prior, by Mr. Washington Irving, and by Mr. Forster. The diligence of Mr. Prior deserves great praise: the style of Mr. Washington Irving is always pleasing; but the highest place must, in justice, be assigned to the eminently interesting work of Mr. Forster."—LORD MACAULAY.

"An elaborate and splendid review of Goldsmith's life and literary career."—THOMAS DE QUINCEY.

Primitive Man. Translated from the French of LOUIS FIGUIER, and illustrated with thirty Scenes of Primitive Life, and two hundred and thirty-three Figures of Objects belonging to Pre-Historic Ages. Demy 8vo, 12s.

From the "Daily News."

"The design, in this as in other works from the same pen, is to familiarise the large outer public with the general principles and results of science, leaving to the professedly scientific those minute details which only tend to weary, confuse, and daunt the ordinary reader."

Mammalia. Their various Orders and Habits, popularly illustrated by typical Species. Taken from the French of LOUIS FIGUIER. With two hundred and sixty-seven Engravings. Demy 8vo, 16s.

From the "Daily Telegraph."

"Freely translated from the French of its accomplished and fertile author, the handsome volume is adorned with nearly 300 wood engravings. . . . The language throughout is graphic and interesting, and, in accordance with the professed object of the book, no more than the inevitable use is made of scientific technicalities."

Glenmâhra; or, The Western Highlands. With Illustrations. Crown 8vo, 6s.

By SIR RANDAL ROBERTS, BART.

(THE FORESTER.)

Author of "The River's Side," etc., etc.

From the "Pall Mall Gazette."

"Glenmâhra, moreover, has been written with a distinct purpose, and the inexperienced sportsman who thinks this season of renting a Highland moor, or of paying an innkeeper for permission to use a gun, will do well in the first place to profit by the knowledge of the Forester."

The Arts of the Middle Ages, and at the Period of the Renaissance. By PAUL LACROIX (Bibliophile Jacob). Beautifully illustrated with nineteen Chromo-lithographic Plates, and four hundred Woodcuts. In one volume, roy. 8vo, 31s. 6d.

The "Times," April 23rd.

"All we need add to this notice is, that in these chapters, as well as in the final one on printing, the reader will find most readable accounts of all those arts and processes, accompanied by excellent engravings. We see that under Bookbinding, the author has reproduced a print of the seventeenth century, showing how in the Library of Leyden all the books were chained to the reading-desks. Some such precaution might well be adopted by the fortunate owners of M. Lacroix's pretty book, for its interest and beauty are such as to make it just such a volume that a literary friend with a convenient memory might borrow, and then forget to return."

Curiosities of Toil and other Papers, by DR. WYNTER. Author of "Our Social Bees," "Curiosities of Civilisation," &c. 2 vols., crown 8vo. 18s.

From the "Observer."

"The articles vary in length and character, and treat of almost every subject, from the Use of Sewage to Venice, and from Fish Culture to Suicide. Dr. Wynter writes in each case with an interest so keen that, in spite of ourselves, it becomes infectious. He seems to combine the characteristics of at least three schools of writers."

Iron-shoes and Horse-shoeing; their Origin, History, Uses, and Abuses. By GEORGE FLEMING, R.E., F.R.G.S., &c. In demy 8vo, two hundred and ten Engravings. 21s.

The "Times," Nov. 18, 1869.

"Mr. Fleming, in a handsome volume, collects all the evidence on the subject of shoeing, from the observations of Xenophon, 'that excellent cavalry officer,' to the most modern investigations and discoveries. He has contrived to arrange the heterogeneous mass so as to be a clear statement of the case for and against the antiquity of nail-shoeing, and he has commented upon it ably and pleasantly. His book forms altogether the most complete resumé of its subject that has yet been made, and the conclusions he arrives at are cleverly and fairly drawn. . . . We have not space to follow Mr. Fleming's account of horse-shoeing in the Middle Ages—we hope our readers will get the book and study it for themselves. Mr. Fleming has searched out the history of the art, wherever it is to be found, from the peat mosses of Sleswig to the Tartar tombs of the Obi. His book is thoroughly interesting and instructive, and in following his subject he introduces much curious collateral matter which will be new to most of his readers. But his work is not merely the history of horse-shoeing, for the last five chapters treat most thoroughly of its theory and practice. . . . Most careful and explicit are the rules and directions Mr. Fleming gives us on all the processes of shoeing, from removing the worn-out iron to laying down carefully the clinches of the new one—we have not space to quote them, but all who have horses of their own, or are interested in the subject, should buy the book, and study them for themselves."

New Tracks in North America. A Journal of Travel and Adventure, whilst engaged in the Survey of a Southern Railroad to the Pacific Ocean, during 1867—8. New and cheaper Edition, in 1 vol. demy 8vo, with twenty Chromes and numerous Woodcuts, 18s.

The "Times," Dec. 25th.

"We have read Mr. Bell's book with great pleasure. He tells his story clearly, intelligibly, and modestly; and he introduces us to a region of North America with which Europeans are very slightly acquainted. For an account of the wonderful capabilities of these provinces, to which one longs to transport some 500,000 Englishmen—for we should not suffer from their departure, and abroad they would become our best customers—for an account of these and other kindred matters, we must refer the reader to 'New Tracks in North America.'"

The "Academy."

"It belongs to a high order of modern books of travel. It teems with solid matter and pleasantly imparted. The personal narrative is well-told or worked up for effect, but depends for its interest on the important incidents; and the views on social conditions are of a high order."

Five Weeks in a Balloon. A Voyage of Exploration and Discovery in Central Africa. Taken from the French of JULES VERNE. With sixty-four Illustrations by RIOU. Post 8vo, 7s. 6d.

The "Daily News," May 16, 1870.

"Not the least attractive features of the book are its illustrations by the French artist, M. Riou. They have been cut on the wood by French engravers also, and their union of fantastic drollery and picturesqueness reminds us of some of the earliest, and less ambitious, designs of Gustave Doré. In number they amount to sixty-four, and the artist has shown much ingenuity in varying them. Beautiful bits of tropical scenery occur in some, in others the balloon is seen sailing through cloud, or mist, or bare bright heavens; while in others again, the vast machine is beheld torn, rent, or dragged out of shape by the several mishaps incidental to aeronautics. In fact the balloon itself is quite a character, and the character is capably sustained."

The Agricultural Labourer: a Handbook. 1. Extent and Effect of Field-Work upon Women and Children.—2. Food and Wages.—3. Cottages and Allotments.—4. Education.—5. Hiring.—6. Injurious Influences: the Public-House, Poaching.—7. Beneficial Influences: Clubs, Co-operation.—8. Large and Small Farms.—9. General Summary. By T. E. KEBBEL, Esq., Barrister-at-law. Crown 8vo, 6s.

From "Land and Water."

"In conclusion, Mr. Kebbel sums up the condition of agricultural work and workmen, selecting from the preceding pages his own views most noticeable. He acquits himself of his task most admirably, and we have seldom seen an author so successful in blending compilations with original matter, or so impartial in reviewing the subjects he treats upon. His book is one that ought to be in the hands of every landlord and tenant."

A FRESH FIELD FOR TOURISTS.

Try Lapland; a Fresh Field for Summer Tourists. By ALEXANDER H. HUTCHINSON, Captain R.N. With a Map and Illustrations. Second Edition, crown 8vo, 6s.

From "The Athenæum."

"We have nothing but praise for this modest and useful little volume, which aims at exhibiting within a brief compass the charms of a new district for the autumn holiday-maker. It is pleasantly and cheerfully written. There is no pretence whatever about it, and it is so obviously honest and matter-of-fact in its statements that tourists, who have had experience of the rose colour which is sometimes used in painting little-known countries and scenes, will be disposed to rely upon this account as a fair and trustworthy one."
