Calcutta, Feb. 22, 1808.

General Orders, by the Right Honorable the Governor General in Council.

FORT WILLIAM, Feb. 15, 1808. The Right Honorable the Governor General in Council has been pleased to make the following promotions.

Regiment of Artillery. Captain Lieutenant William Parker, to be Captain of a Company. Lieutenant John Rodder, to be Captain Lieutenant. Lieutenant Fire-worker Thomas Marshall, to be Lieutenant.

J. THORNHILL, AR. Sec. Mil. Dept.

On Saturday was announced the arrival of the Honorable Company's cruiser Nautilus, Lieut. Hamilton, with Dispatches from Bussrah.

The Heads of Public News, brought by this vessel, have been anticipated in all the Papers of Calcutta.

Yesterday accounts were received of the arrival in the river of the Chamchin, a Chinese Junk, stated to be lost from Mirsk, conjectured to be Mercue.

This, we believe, is the first instance of a vessel of that description having visited Bengal; and she will no doubt, attract the curiosity of those who never saw a Junk. At Batavia, Malacca, and Penang, they are very common but none of them ever before ventured thus far. She appears to be under the command of a Portuguese.

The Tay, Captain Meik, from Esqually the 2d instant, is also in the river.

Passenger.—Lieutenant Gordon, H. M. 56th Regiment.

The Fleet for Europe, left Saugor on the 19th, and were out of sight at noon. The winds have continued fresh and very favorable ever since, so that, we trust, they will have a speedy passage to Point de Galle, and from thence, to the shores of Britain—where the numerous Passengers will carry with them the good wishes of the friends they have left behind.

The Cyclops, Captain S. Stout, passed Kedgerree on Thursday, the 17th instant, inward bound. This vessel left Rangoon on the 27th January, and on her passage, saw two vessels standing Eastward, in eighteen fathoms water, off Point Palmiras, on the 13th instant.

Mr. Cabras, late Supercargo of the Portuguese ship which was lost upon the Coast of Ava, in July last, came Passenger by this opportunity. The two vessels seen by the Cyclops, appear to have been the Honorable Company's brig Nautilus, Lieut. H. T. Hamilton, from Bussrah, and the brig Elizabeth, Capt. J. Garret, from Esqually, which place she left on the 1st Feb.

We hear that these vessels spoke H. M. ship Colloden, Admiral Sir Edward Pellew, eighteen leagues to the East of Madras, on the 10th instant, from whence they learnt, that he had destroyed a Dutch line of battle ship, and two frigates, at Batavia.

Lieut. I. Briggs and Lieutenant T. Gorton proceeded as Passengers on board the ship Venus, Captain James Fraser, bound to the Coast and Eastward.

The H. C. ship Windham; and the Euphrates, Country ship, for Bencoolen, quitted their respective Ports, on the 17th current.

The brig Favorite, Captain D. Dundas, failed from Saugor Roads on Wednesday last.

OPIUM.

The Second Sale of the Honorable Company's Opium, being the last for Season 1807-8, took place on Wednesday last.

The Prices, which greatly exceed general expectation, were upon average above 41 Rupees higher than the Prices obtained at the former Sales in December last. This advance is said to have been occasioned by speculations among the Native Merchants, with the view of monopolizing this Article.

Prices on Wednesday, the 17th instant. Benares Opium from 1445 to 1470. Behar ditto, - - - 1520 to 1570.

On Wednesday last, two hundred and two chests of Treasure, belonging to the Honorable Company, and imported by a recent arrival from Bombay, were landed from two of the Pilot Vessels, and conveyed to the General Treasury.

That the Tigers of Saugor have lost none of their ferocity, was almost fatally exemplified a few days ago in the person of Mr. Ebenezer Tyrer, an Officer of the Honorable Company's Ship Castle Eden, on the following occasion:—

A Bhurr, laden with water for the Castle Eden having through the mismanagement of her people got aground on Saugor Island, Mr. Tyrer went with a Boat's Crew to endeavour to get her off; and for the sake of the walk, leaped on shore, whilst his boat pulled towards the Bhurr; and striking in a little way from the beach, he unluckily came upon the haunt of a large Royal Tiger, who by the noise he made, fortunately gave Mr. Tyrer warning of the danger he was approaching: immediately on seeing the ferocious animal, Mr. T. sprung towards the water, and the Tiger plunged after him, with all the eagerness of pursuit, Mr. T. although an excellent swimmer, observing his adversary gaining upon him, with a presence of mind, which ultimately saved him from the fangs of the monster, dived, & continued under water, as long as possible; when on again raising his head above the surface, he had the pleasure to behold his antagonistic swimming leisurely back to land. The boat coming up, he shortly after got safely on board of her, thus escaping a very imminent danger. Although we have frequently heard of parties within these few years past going on shore for the purpose of shooting on Saugor Island, which abounds with game of various descriptions, a little distance in land, yet we must confess, altho' keen sportsmen, we should not at all be inclined to accompany those adventurous Gentlemen far, with a simple fowling piece; we should not consider ourselves a match for the spotted Sovereigns of that domain, who would probably take personal security for our good behaviour, in not ranging their forests in future.

We understand, that the Ticket which came up a Lack of Rupees on the 8th Day's drawing of the Town Hall Lottery, is divided among three very deserving individuals, all Masters in the Pilot Service.

The Danish East-India Company's ship Admiral Chapman, has been brought into this river within these few days, under charge of an officer from one of His Majesty's ships.

The Admiral Chapman left Copenhagen in May last. She touched at the Cape, and at Tranquebar, and was on her passage from the latter port, to Bengal, at the time she was placed in charge of a British officer. She has on board a valuable cargo, and about forty-five thousand dollars in specie.

The Chapman left the Cape early in October, and brings letters of this date from the settlement. The contents of these, have been some time since anticipated by the Indians, that arrived at this port direct from the Cape.

The corps of Artillery is to be reviewed this morning at Dun Dum, by His Excellency the Commander in Chief.

The first detachment of His Majesty's 67th Regiment has arrived at Dinapore, from Fort William. [Mirror.]

Bombay—February 17, 1808.

Surgeon D. Carnegie, of the European Regiment, to proceed to Europe on furlough with the option of retiring from the service or returning to it.

Lieutenant Robert M. Grindly, of the 7th Native Regiment to be Secretary to the Committee for regulating the embarkation of Invalids and Passengers.

30th January, 1808.

The Honorable the Governor in Council having received information, which he deems authentic, of the death of Captain James Martin of this Establishment, is pleased to direct, that the following promotions take place in the 5th Regiment of Native Infantry, viz.

Captain Lieut. George Brown, to be Captain of a Company, vice Martin deceased.

Lieutenant James Sutherland to be Captain Lieut. vice Brown promoted.

Ensign Peter Kirk, to be Lieut. vice Sutherland promoted.

29th January, 1808.

The Honorable the Governor in Council has much satisfaction in publishing for the information of the Army, the following Extract of a letter from the Honorable the Court of Directors to the Supreme Government in the Military Department, dated the 8th April 1807.

PARA. 181.—"From the want of the selection of the Ordnance and Stores, captured at Broach, we are not able to form a sufficient judgment of the remuneration to be given to the Detachment under Colonel Woodington's Command, employed in the capture of that place, in consideration however of the eminent Services performed by the Detachment and taking it for granted, that the Batta has remained in the Company's possession we have agreed to allow them a donation equal to three months Batta."

February 3, 1808.

The Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to permit Surgeon William Sandwith, ad Member of the Medical Board to proceed to Europe, for the recovery of his Health.

The Honorable the Governor in Council will have great satisfaction in bearing testimony to the merit of Dr. Sandwith and in bringing that Gentleman to the notice of the Honorable the Court of Directors as an able and zealous servant in the line of his Profession; at the same time that in his personal character he is worthy of the fullest commendation.

4th February, 1808.

Lieutenant Colonel Henry Woodington to proceed to Europe on furlough, with the option of essentially retiring from the Service conformably to the existing Regulations.

The Governor in Council will have great satisfaction in communicating to the Honorable the Court of Directors the high sense, entertained by Government of the Professional deserts of Lieutenant Colonel Woodington, as manifested during the long course of his meritorious services in India.

The earlier instances thus referred to have already attracted the notice of the Honorable the Court of Directors who were pleased, in the 46th Paragraph of their Letter dated the 8th of April 1789, to direct that some Staff situation might be conferred on that Officer, in consideration of the severe wound he had sustained in his military employment.

Since his last return to India, Lieutenant Colonel Woodington, has further established his claims to the approbation of his Employers, by a series of distinguished and important services, equally promotive of the welfare of his country, and conducive to the increase of his own military reputation.

The Siege of Baroda in 1803, afforded the most satisfactory proof of the judgement, exertion and professional talents of the Lieutenant Colonel, which in the same year were again highly distinguished in the reduction of the valuable fortress of Broach, an event that, viewed in reference to the finalities of the Detachment employed upon the occasion, sufficiently bespoke the abilities that directed, and the gallantry that achieved the conquest, whilst the subsequent and rapid reduction of the strong Hill Fort of Pownagar, and of Champoncer closed this officer's active career in the East with a fine of India.

The record of these memorable occurrences stands severally marked by the most respectable testimonies of approbation, bestowed on the conduct of Lieutenant Col. Woodington by the distinguished authorities, who at the periods in question, exercised a control over the operations of the Field Army of this Presidency, the opinion of Government of which, coincide entirely in the opinion, expressed by Major Gens. Jones and Bellasis, that the Bombay Establishment will sustain a loss in the departure and eventual retirement, of this excellent Officer, whose exemplary and conciliatory conduct in the command of the Subsidiary Force in Guzerat, during periods when such attentions were essentially requisite, forms another very laudable part of the Colonel's conduct, such as the Governor in Council, will not omit to make due and creditable report of, to the Honorable the Court of Directors, inclusive of the several other occurrences above adverted to.

16th February 1808.

It is with sincere concern that Government announces to the Army the death of that very respectable Officer Major General Bellasis, late commanding Officer of the Forces, who departed this life on Thursday the 15th instant, by a very unexpected attack of sudden illness, as he was in the meritorious discharge of his duty at the Military Board, thereby terminating a long career of zealous and faithful services.

In consequence of this much lamented event, the important trust of the Command of the Army devolves on Major General Jones, the remaining Officer on the Staff, who is accordingly authorized to reassume the same immediately.

By the Commanding Officer of the Forces.

The Commanding Officer of the Forces requests the Officers of the Army will wear Crapes, as a mark of due respect, to the memory of the late Commanding Officer of the Forces, Major General John Bellasis, who departed this life on the 15th instant, in the zealous discharge of his duties, after an Honorable career of faithful service of upwards of thirty eight years.

The period of mourning to be one month from the date of the receipt of this order.

Lieutenant Macdonald, of His Majesty's 56th Regiment, Lieutenant Jacobs and Ensign Macquarie of the 86th Regiment, have permission to proceed to Europe on sick certificate, with leave to be absent from their corps and duty, each, for the space of a year from the date of embarkation.

16th February 1808.

It having been reported that Captain J. Grant, of His Majesty's 86th Regiment has obtained permission to proceed to Great Britain on leave of absence from the Regiment, the Honorable the Governor in Council cannot allow him to depart, without being accompanied by this testimonial to the credit, which that meritorious Officer, has done to the British Arms during his service in India, at the Siege of Baroda, the capture of the important Forts of Broach and Pownagar and particularly in the arduous and successful attack of the late Commadore Grant commanded on the 6th of February 1805, at the Siege of Bhurtpoor, on which memorable occasion he most gallantly took the enemy's post, and captured the whole of their guns being eleven in number.

12th February 1808.

The Honorable the Governor in Council is pleased to appoint Major William Campbell, of His Majesty's 78th Regiment, to the Office of Military Secretary to the Honorable the Governor, from the period of Lieutenant Colonel Macquarie's resignation being received and accepted, and in addition to Captain Eyles duty as Aide-de-Camp, he is appointed to command the Governor's Guard with the allowances of the 2d Aide-de-Camp annexed, from the period of the death of the late Captain Macquarie.

We are sorry to announce the capture of the Margaret Brig from Calcutta by a French privateer to the southward of Bancoore on the 8th instant. The particulars of this capture will appear from the following Extract from the Log Book with which we have been favoured.

Extract from the Brig Margaret's Log Book from Calcutta bound to Bussrah.

MONDAY, FEB. 8, 1808.

At 1 P. M. the small vessel that was seen in the forenoon to windward standing to the S. E. wore and stood down towards us upon our weather quarter, having a suspicious appearance. We fired a shot at her either to tack or close no nearer; when she shewed English colours, and continued heaving us, we fired a second shot, upon which she hoisted a French Ensign and pendant and fired a shot at us, when we immediately opened our fire of round and grape and continued a running action for upwards of three hours; finding she neared us, bore up before the wind to get our stern chasers to bear upon her, from her well directed fire she hulled us twice and put a number of shot through our sail, &c. In the evening the breeze freshened, we kept the wind on our quarter with all sails drawing endeavouring to make our escape in the night, altering our courses as the wind shifted, however, it being clear moonlight he observed all our motions, and (Signed) H. WILSON, Commander.

On taking possession of the Margaret the Frenchman instantly exchanged vessels and proceeded to the Isle of France on board of the Margaret, giving up the Felucca to Capt. Wilson.

In addition to the above particulars we learn that the privateer had previously taken a vessel from Cutch, the crew of which had been secured on board the Felucca by being placed in irons below. But this circumstance not having been made known to Captain Wilson when he and the Margaret's crew were put on board, no provision was made by him against an attack which the Cutch people made upon him and his crew, and in which they succeeded. Before they had been on board long, the Cutch people rushed up the fore hatchway armed with pikes and cresces and overpowered Captain Wilson and the crew and driving them to the forecabin kept them there for 6 days on the allowance of about a pint of water and a small portion of biscuit for the 24 hours.

Captain Wilson and the rest afterwards got on shore at Danou.

BOMBAY GRAND MASKED BALL.

On Monday evening last, one of the most superb and elegant entertainments which India has ever witnessed, was given by a party of Gentlemen at Mr. Warden's Banquet, on the Esplanade, as a farewell compliment to Mrs. Corkran and Mrs. Jones. To those who were present it is unnecessary to speak of the taste as well as magnificence which marked this distinguished testimony of individual respect, so much in unison with the sentiments of the community at large.

The entrance, (which was approached from a distant gate directly opposite, the intermediate space being walled in, to increase the effect of the fit & coup d'oeil) consisted of three grand Arches supported by transparent Pillars, on the tops of which four beautiful Antique Urns were placed. The Arch on the right bore the Initials of Mrs. Corkran and that on the left, those of Mrs. Jones; while the center supported an entablature on which was inscribed in large resplendent characters, Omnia vota, pariter perfoluit, a classical and appropriate motto, which if expressed in English ('the votive wishes of all, carried into effect by a few') would not have been suited to the space, nor possessed the terse and inscriptural appearance of the Latin.

From this Arch a path, illuminated by festoons of lamps, partially hid by artificial leaves, extended itself in a straight line toward a magnificent Rotunda, measuring 40 feet in diameter, with 12 Pillars 18 feet high of the Tuscan order, supporting a Dome the height of which in the center, measuring from the ground, was upwards of 40 feet. From this lofty point a very large and brilliant Chandelier was suspended, which, with the addition of a chain of lights running round the interior of the circle, completely lighted up the whole of the superb expanse; and threw a blaze over a Pedestal; on which was placed a full length statue of Euphrosyne; facing the grand approach. The sides of the Pedestal, were ornamented with the following inscriptions from the Allegro of Milton.

IN FRONT.

In Heaven's temple Euphrosyne, And by men, heart-reversing mirth.

ON THE REVERSE.

Haste thee Nymph, and bring with thee, Jest, and youthful jollity.

ON THE RIGHT.

Sport that winks'd ease divides, And laughter holding both his sides,

Pomp, and fest, and revelry, With Mirth, and antique Pageantry.

On the ground between Pillars, large Jars were placed filled not only with the flowers which more peculiarly grace the Chapel of the Indian Flora, but likewise with Rose vees in full blossom and Mignonette diffusing on every side the delightful fragrance of an English Parterre.

In a line with the approach the path extended towards the folding door of a spacious Ball Room, hung round with Mirrors, and having the floor painted after a beautiful design, by a Gentleman artist of the first celebrity in works of that description.

From this apartment, the line of light was continued through a broad verandah, and from thence along a projecting space with a circular roof, towards the sea gate, making in all an extent of our line from front to rear of 575 feet.

On each side of the projection above mentioned but extending in length considerably beyond it, supper tables for the reception of about 350 persons were placed, the view of which was completely hid from the other parts of the grounds by temporary partitions, while Pillars concealed by the elegant leaf of the cocoon and wreathed with garlands, supported a roof entirely covered with colours of different nations. At the upper part of one of the tables, a whole length picture of Britannia was placed, and at the other a corresponding portrait (painted by Lambert a pupil of Hopper's) of the immortal Nelson.

Having noticed some of the principal objects occurring in the course of the center walk, we now retraced our steps to the Rotunda, from the right of which a path diverged, and passing a shrubbery on one hand (in which was stationed a Band of music in Masquerade uniform) opened suddenly into a magnificent promenade 40 feet in breadth and 400 long. Here, as the probable scene of most festivity, every thing that was either amusing in itself, or likely to be the source of amusement by drawing forth the humour of the several characters, and affording scenes for their display, was collected. In particular a range of shops, provided not only with contents but supported owners, appropriate to each. Among these we remarked the tasty Boutique of a Miller, kept by Miss Frill, late Pupil to Mrs. Florence of Cranburn Alley, and the quantity of Caps, a la Greque, a la Turque, a l'Egyptienne, Trafalgar, &c. would not have been unworthy of that celebrated thoroughfare. Sheeva and son, who kept a shop for old cloaths, seemed as if they had transported themselves and the articles around them, direct from Monmouth-street. Madame Noyeau from the Rue St. Honore did ample justice to French confectioners, and the Patisseries, Matrimonies and other Sweetmeats, which her sign announced, appeared in a more inviting, because a more substantial form, on the shelves within. A bow window crowded with Caricatures came next; and Timothy Razor incircled by the few remaining Bobs which the state of the times had left him, shined excellently for a Penny, and dressed Hair for two pence, in the shop adjoining; while Moll Wollop, over the way opened Melton oysters with Billingsgate dexterity. An admirable Hedge Ale-House kept by Joe Boufface at the sign of the Sun, with the best beer under it, on the one side, and a Boot full of mischief, on the other, formed the extremity of the walk; and one of the best groups of the evening was a select party taking a luncheon at the door, with the Landlord and Landlady.

Turning the corner of honest Joe's Mansion, an open plot presented itself embosomed in trees and shrubs, except where an exhibition of Wild Balls, with lively representations of the several animals, caught the eye on one side, while an arched gate way on the other opened to the Beach below, where a number of Bunder boats were stationed with fire works in each, the effect of which, when a steam of light revealed the objects before obscured, and answering Rockets shot into the air from the sea beat point of Malabar Hill in the half desecrated distance, can more easily be conceived than described.

In the course of this display a Balloon was filled, and began to ascend in majestic state, but an unfortunate rent occasioned by an intervening branch put a stop to its farther progress. This, and the failure of a China Dram, owing to some accidental exposure to damp, were the only disappointments of the evening; and these had they been greater, would have been soon forgotten on retiring at the sea-gate, and taking a direction to the right, where a Serpentine walk seemed as if cut out of a forest, so great was the number of trees of all kinds collected together, interspersed with shrubs, and studded with flowers.

A ter passing under a capital transparency of Harlequin, this walk conducted to a Hermit's Moss-grown cell, on entering which the appropriate inscription struck the eye.

When time who steals our years away Shall seal our pleasures too, The memory of the past will stay, And all its charms renew.

Proceeding farther, an Umbrageous recess presented itself, in the depth of which, dimly illuminated by two painted lamps, a transparency was discovered of a ship unrolling its sails. The Motto here was also classical, a prayer of safety to which every heart was responsive, and which will never cease to be repeated till that safety is known to be attained.

In the continuance of the walk, it passed on a humble cottage, covered with the ch and overgrown with ivy, and winding on in curves, which the hand of nature seemed to have formed, joined at length the left of the Rotunda.

To the worthy Inhabitants of the Town and District of Mahim, MY FRIENDS,

It is indeed with high satisfaction, I receive your address of this date, on the occasion of my departure for England.

My own bosom has long convinced me, that I have done my best—that my duty towards you has been conscientiously discharged; and, under these pleasing impressions, I should in silence have quitted you.—But thus to receive a spontaneous testimony of your approbation, couched in terms so very flattering, so very cordial to my feelings, and at a moment too, which, in the course of human events, must for ever separate us, is what I cannot sufficiently appreciate, or too sincerely thank you for.

During a period of eight years which it has been my pride, to watch over the peace of your Town and District, I have had the comfort to witness you, a progressively improving and opulent body, quietly and safely enjoying the well earned fruits of your industry; and, it would be an injustice in me, were I not here to declare, that such has been the result of your own obedient and exemplary conduct.

Accept then, my I, of my kind acknowledgements, for this mark of your approbation, and with them, my sincerest wishes, for your continued prosperity, your uninterrupted peace, and happiness.

With these sentiments I take my leave of you, and beg to subscribe myself,

Your faithful and obliged Friend (Signed) JAMES FISHER.

1.—Your Address with which I have just been favoured, merits my warmest acknowledgements, and will be remembered by me, to the latest hour of my life, with most pleasing, and heartfelt satisfaction.

2.—To be thus flattered, by the approbation, esteem, and good wishes, of so numerous, and so respectable a body of the Inhabitants of this populous Island, after having presided over the Police department, for so many years, is to me a source of happiness, which must ever give rise to the most glowing reflections.

3.—That I have so well succeeded, in my endeavours to promote the comforts of, and afford protection to this settlement at large, is not so much to be attributed to my own energy and exertion, as to the prompt and zealous assistance, I have uniformly experienced, from the heads of your respective Cits, and above all, to that mild, orderly, and inoffensive conduct, which (with but few exceptions) is so general an attribute of the native characters in this community.

4.—When enjoying the retirement from public duty, which I now seek for, in the Country that gave me birth, I shall always anticipate with pride, and satisfaction the progressive prosperity, and happiness, of the Inhabitants of Bombay, for many individuals of whom I have a high respect and from whom I have received repeated marks of kindness and attention.

5.—May health, independence and every other earthly blessing attend you, is the sincere wish of, Gentlemen,

Your faithful and Obedt. Servt.

Horse Guards July 6, 1867.

His Majesty has been pleased to grant his most gracious permission to the 75th Regiment to assume, in addition to any other Devices or Badges to which it may be entitled, and to bear in the Colours, and on the Appointments of the Regiment, "Royal Tyger," with the word "India" supercribed, as an honorable and lasting testimony of the distinguished services of that Corps in India, during a period of nineteen years.

By Order of his Royal Highness the Commander in Chief.

HARRY CALVERT, Adjutant General.

THE TIMES, — SEPTEMBER 1.

Extract of a letter from a mercantile house in Philadelphia, dated the 17th July, 1867:—"In a conversation yesterday with the Cashier (National Bank,) we were much surprised and concerned to hear him say, he had orders from the Sec. of the Treasury (Gallatin) not to buy any 8 per cent. Stock, standing in the names of foreigners, or which might have been by them transferred to Citizens since the day of his letter (16th current) by advertisement. The Cashier has been buying this Stock since January last, at certain limits, and has actually bought a large quantity; his present price 102½ of property of Citizens. —In this new instruction you will see hostility strongly marked towards your Government; and in case the application for the redress of the murderous act committed recently by the British Squadron in our waters be not immediately granted, you may perceive that firm measures here will be adopted against British property, in whatever shape it may be found.

The gallant Capt. M'Leod, who fell lately in Egypt, was one of the fifteen who are to receive medals for their services at Maida. He commanded the 7th Regiment, which, with the 81st, formed Brigadier-General Ackland's Brigade, the first that supported the charge made by the Light Infantry Battalion, and which so soon turned the left flank of the enemy.

According to the last Report of the Commissioners on the Nabob of Arcot's Creditors, the amount of the claims in the list formerly presented to the House of Commons, and in that contained in the report which has just been made, aggregate amount of the claims is, 8,888,953/17s. 1d.

The Earl of Pembroke, it appears, had nearly been taken prisoner by the French. His Surgeon, not so fortunate, fell into their hands.

The Gazette of Munich announces the death of the Prussian Minister Count Haugwitz.

The Havlem Journal, under the head of intelligence from Paris, states, that an eminent French General and Sovereign Prince is intended to be King of Greece.

Baron Hardenberg was, at the desire of Bona-parte, dismissed from the Prussian Ministry, and the portfolio of the foreign department has been entrusted to Count Von der Goltz, a soldier, hitherto unknown to the diplomatic world.

The powder magazine which lately blew up at Luxembourg, contained nearly 30,000lb. of powder. Upwards of two hundred families have been ruined by this explosion.

Lord Bolton died lately at his seat at Hackwood Park, in the 61st year of his age. He was Lord Lieutenant and custos Rotulorum of the County of Southampton, and Governor and Vice-Admiral of the Isle of Wight, &c.

Lately as his Grace the Duke of Montrose was exercising his regiment (the Stirlingshire Militia), in the neighbourhood of Dumfries, the horse took fright, while his Grace was in the act of mounting, by which he was thrown forward upon the ground with such violence, as to dislocate the joint of his right shoulder. The luxation was immediately reduced, and we are happy to say that his Grace is doing extremely well, and is not likely to experience any bad consequence from the accident.

DISPUTE WITH AMERICA.

Admiral Berkeley's Order for Searching the American Frigate, the Chesapeake: dated Halifax Nova Scotia, June 1, 1867, and addressed to the respective Captains and Commanders of His Majesty's Ships and Vessels on the North America Station.

By the Hon. G. C. Berkeley, Vice-Admiral of the White, and Commander in Chief of his Majesty's ships and vessels employed in the River St. Lawrence, along the coast of Nova Scotia, the Islands of St. John and Cape Breton, the Bay of ———, and at and about the Island of Bermuda, or Summer Islands:—Whereas many seamen, subjects to his Britannic Majesty, and serving in his ships and vessels, as per margin,* while at anchor in the Chesapeake, deserted and entered on board the United States frigate, called the Chesapeake, and openly paraded the streets of Norfolk, in sight of their Officers, under the American flag, protected by the magistrates of the town, and the recruiting officer belonging to the abovementioned American frigate, which magistrates and naval officer refused giving them up, although demanded by his Britannic Majesty's

6. That amongst the numbers raised in the first six months of 1805, are included 3,089 raised by Officers recruiting for rank.

7. That the men raised under the Additional Force Act, were for Home Service only, and might be of any height, not less than five feet two inches, and of any age between 18 and 45.

8. 9. That by recruits raised by ordinary recruiting, are meant men raised either at the head-quarters of regiments, or by the Recruiting Districts, late under the superintendance of the Inspector General.

10. That according to the War Office Return of Recruits, for whom bounty has been drawn as raised at the head quarters of Regiments in Great Britain, and the Inspector General's Return of the numbers raised by the recruiting districts, the produce of the ordinary recruiting was, during the first six months of

12. That the number of men who deserted from the Army at home was, during the first six months of

1805	1 in 10
1806	1 in 10
1807	1 in 12

LORD CASTLEREAGH'S PLAN.

1. That the increase of 8,256 men, as stated, in the Regular Army, between March 1806 and March 1807, has been produced by 2,908 men received from the Irish Militia, and 3,542 under the Additional Force Act—Total 6,450 men—without which aids (deducting our losses in Egypt and South America, viz. 2,185 men, which appear in the effectives of the army on the year 1807) the army would have decreased, under the regulations established in June 1806, in the number of 379 men.

That the regular army has been progressively increasing, previous to the establishment of the new system of levying men, as follows; the amount being,

On the 1st July 1804	141,740
Ditto 1805	162,997
Ditto 1806	175,997

3. A. That the number of recruits raised quarterly for the Regular Army, between the 1st March 1805, and 1st March 1806, when the repeal of the additional Force Act was determined on, was (exclusive of foreign and colonial levies, and of men transferred from the militia) as follows:

Quarter ending	1st July 1805	1st Dec. 1805	1st Jan. 1806	1st April 1806	Number raised.	Rate per Annu.
1st Quarter ending	1st July 1805	4,865	-	-	19,460	-
2d Ditto	1st Dec. 1805	4,858	-	-	17,008	-
3d Ditto	1st Jan. 1806	4,792	-	-	19,160	-
4th Ditto	1st April 1806	6,096	-	-	24,384	-

3. B. That the number of men raised as above, between the 1st April 1805 and 1st April 1806, was 20,003; the number between July 1806 and July 1807, 17,689, being 2314 less than in the former year; whereas the number of boys included in the 17,689, exceeded by 1,076, the number included in the 20,003, the preceding year's produce.

3. C. That while the number of men obtained for regular service, including men transferred from the Militia (and exclusive of foreign and colonial levies) was, between July 1805 and July 1806, 33,693 men; between July 1806 and 1807, 20,681, being 13,012 men less than in the preceding year exclusive of the services of the men raised in the latter year being determinable in seven or ten years, according to the terms of their enlistment.

3. D. That whilst the number of men levied in the latter year was less than in the former, as stated in the preceding regulations, an annual additional charge of £450,000 increased Pay and Pensions to the Army, has been incurred, as an encouragement to induce men to enlist, being at the rate of about 25 pounds per man on the number of men raised within the year; and which expense must be hereafter largely increased, in proportion as the pensions on 14. and 21 year's service come into operation.

3. E. That during the former year the Recruiting Parties did not exceed in number 405; that in the latter year they have been increased to 1,113, exclusive of above 400 extra Recruiting Officers; and from 8th December 1806, 54 second battalions have been recruiting, under an intimation, that if they did not raise 400 men in six months, the Battalions would be then reduced, and the Officers placed on Half Pay; which extraordinary increase of the number of Recruiting Parties must be considered not only as highly prejudicial to the discipline and efficiency of the Army, but, as so much expense incurred for the levy of men, as distinguished from the performance of Regimental Duty.

3. F. That whilst the number of men raised as above for the Regular Service, has in the latter year been reduced, the proportion of desertions in the army serving at Home has been rather increased, the proportion being, in the five successive half-yearly periods, as follows;

Period	Desertions in Army at Home
Jan. 1805 to July 1805	1 in 194
July 1805 to Jan. 1806	1 in 152
Jan. 1806 to July 1806	1 in 275
July 1806 to Jan. 1807	1 in 243
Jan. 1807 to July 1807	1 in 236

4. That the expense of Levy Money for General Service has been reduced—for Cavalry, from 19l. to 15l. 4s. 6d.; and for Infantry, from 22l. 8s. to 18l. 12. 6d. But the term of Service for Life, or Service for ten and seven years, which supposes two additional periods of enlistment, and consequently two additional bounties in the course of a service of 21 years, exclusive of the additional pay and pensions above referred to

6. That among the number raised in the first six months of 1807, being 11,411 men, 8,035 have been raised by the 54 Second Battalions; that is, by Officers recruiting to avoid reduction.

7. and 8. That, with the exception of 6,242 men transferred to Garrison Battalions all men raised under the Army of Reserve and Additional Force Acts have been since enlisted into the line, being of the age and height required by his Majesty's Regulations; and amongst the men so transferred to Garrison Battalions, are included all men who did not choose to enter for General Service, without reference to age or height.

11. That the men volunteering from limited to unlimited service, from the 1st July 1806, to 1st January 1807, received 10 guineas bounty for only extending their service from local to general service; whereas before that period (the bounty being the same), the men transferring themselves to the line, exchanged their service, not only from home to foreign service, but from service limited in point of time to service for life; and the men in the latter period, who refused to transfer their services, were ordered to be drafted into garrison battalions.

THE Races which took place here on the 29th ultimo, and terminated yesterday were not so well attended as might have been expected from its central situation, and the trouble that had been taken to complete one of the best courses on the coast. The greatest harmony subsisted throughout and much praise is due to the Stewards for the excellent breakfasts provided on the days of running under their directions, at which the Band of the 2d of the 15th attended,
