

Cabinet of Curcius,

AND
Optic of Zaler.

DOMINICK LAURENCE, Italian, has the honor to present his most respectful salutations to the Ladies and Gentlemen, of his Settlement, and begs to inform them that he has brought with him from Europe the CABINET OF CURCIUS, and the OPTIC OF ZALER, both of which Curcius has attracted the admiration of the capital Cities of Europe, and particularly that of London. The persons who have seen them in Europe can testify to their exact likeness; they are composed of Kings and Princes who have been at Paris, and who were modelled by Curcius. There are also to be seen the unfortunate LOUIS XVI. and his Family, and several other Potentates, &c. The whole done with a Composition that resembles Nature so well, that one would imagine they were alive.

The OPTIC GLASS represents the rising of the Sun and the capital Cities of Europe, in their Natural state and size.—The Illuminations in the Houses are represented so exactly, that the Persons who have been in any of these Places will easily recognize the Houses and the Streets they may have inhabited.

Description of the Articles.

CABINET OF CURCIUS.

The late King of France LOUIS XVI.
His Son, the Dauphin.
His Brothers,—the Count of Provence, and the Count D'Artois.
The Counts of Provence, and Counts D'Artois.
The Dukes of Polignac.
Joseph II. German Emperor.
The Count of North, Emperor of Russia.
Frederick, King of Prussia.
Henry IV. and his Minister Sully.
The Marquis La Fayette, French General.
Count Mirabeau, Member of the first French National Assembly.
The Abbe Maury, ditto.
Pethion, Mayor of Paris.
Voltaire and Rousseau, celebrated French Authors.—The whole exhibited by a Composition that exactly resembles Nature,—they are clothed in the Drapery they were accustomed to wear, and are just at Table.
The Model of the Bastille, below which is the Beheading of Fouquier, Minister of Finance.—This represents a Head, which has just been cut off, the Blood seems to be flowing from it, and running on the Ground.

OPTIC OF ZALER.

The Great City of London, in two parts.—The Lanthorn on the Bridge are represented so well, that they really appear to be Natural.
The Great Church of St. Paul, at London.—This View is particularly remarked for the Brightness of the Mass upon the Walls, and has so natural an Effect, that it is impossible to see it without admiring the Genius of the Artist.
The City of Paris, with its Environs and Beauties.
The City of Rennes, the Lights in the Houses also appear, and the Ladies and Gentlemen are seen in the Balconies.
Ancient and Modern Rome. In the First is seen the Palace of Julius Cæsar, and the great Hall of Inquisition.
The great Hall of Architecture at Rome.
The Temple at Vernezz, and the Iola of a large Ship, (at night.) A Woman is here seen, who having been saved from Shipwreck, is placed near a Fire to be warmed.
The Rising of the Sun.
The Place Navone at Rome.
The City of Venice.
The burning of the Port of St. Phillip.
The Passage of the Alps.
The Illumination in the Park of Versailles on the Celebration of the Marriage of Louis the XVI, with all the Attributes of his Throne.
Upon Calle, belonging to the King of England.
Saint Peter's, at Rome.
Amsterdam.
The famous Hospital of Greenwich.
The City of Naples.

The CABINET will be exhibited on Choultry Plain, in that large, commodious, and airy House and Garden of his Highness the N. B. B., commonly called and known by the name of Mackay's Garden, and he may see three Days in the Week, Tuesdays, Thursdays, and Saturdays, at seven o'clock in the Evening. Many Ladies or Gentlemen would wish to see it in Private, or any other Days of the Week, they will be pleased to signify their pleasure the preceding Evening.

The Tickets for Admission are Two Star Pagodas, and may be had at the Shop of Mr. ARMSTRONG near the North Gate, Fort St. George: and those who would wish to see it in Private, or on any other Days of the Week, the Price of Tickets will be Three Pagodas.

N.B. No Money will be taken at the Door.

Lottery.

THE OWNER of the following Valuable and useful Articles, being about to leave the Settlement, begs to submit to the Public the following SCHEME for a LOTTERY—The whole has been Valued by Competent Judges at Star Pagodas 320.

To Captain SMITH of the ROYAL NAVY.

SIR,

"We, the Officers of the Flank Companies of His Majesty's 71st and 73d Regiments, beg leave to express to you and the OFFICERS under your command, our high and grateful sense of the obligations conferred on us, by your very friendly and polite attention, while we had the honor to be on board His Majesty's SHIP DIOMEDI: we are totally unable, Sir, to describe to you our feelings on the occasion: they are indeed only TO BE FELT, such as they are, they will ever remain.

"We beg leave to add, that YOUR cool and collected conduct, as also those of YOUR OFFICERS, during the melancholy situation of the DIOMEDI, from the moment the fluck, till finding all efforts to save her fruitless, you were FORCED to quit her, was such as gives us all the highest opinion, of your humanity, courage, and professional knowledge.

"It may, perhaps be deemed, presumption in us, Military men, coming forward with our opinion on this subject, it is however, a tribute we owe to truth, and as such, we hope you will receive it."

TO THE EDITOR OF THE COURIER.

SIR,

The accompanying Letters are chosen from among a number of others acknowledging in terms of approbation the receipt of Papers published on the importation of America's COCAINS, &c. and although highly flattering to me; yet as I conceive the sentiments they contain may promote the Culture of this Article, as well as its acknowledgement of the honor done me by the Gentlemen whose Signatures the letters bear, you will oblige me by inserting them in your Weekly Paper.

I am, Sir,

Your very obedient Servant,
JAS. ANDERSON.

Fort St. George,
August 17th, 1795.

TO DOCTOR ANDERSON, P. G.

DEAR SIR,

I RETURN you many thanks for your interesting communication which I received yesterday, and have read with much pleasure. The benevolent aim of all your labours must excite a lively wish in every person for their ultimate success and prosperity—I am extremely happy to learn that you have at last been able to obtain the COCHINEAL INSECT FROM AMERICA, and besides the interest which every one must feel in an event which tends to enlarge our knowledge, and improve our Commerce, I cannot but sincerely rejoice personally on your account; knowing how satisfactory it must be to you, and that it will in some measure compensate the many difficulties and discouragements, which have been thrown in your way—That it is to be hoped, you will be able to furnish, and finally to accomplish the useful Work which you have begun.

In the midst of the difficulties and obstructions which necessarily attend the progress of a new undertaking like this, every liberal mind will find a pleasure in reflecting, that an Art once established perpetuates itself, that the most beneficial improvements are also the most lasting, and though their first beginnings are slow and difficult, their after duration is but little affected by the revolutions of power. Even the introduction of an useful Vegetable is an acquisition of which Conquest has never deprived the World—The Cherry Tree which was first transplanted into Europe by a Roman Consul, has long outlived the downfall of the Roman power: but Lacullus, when he adorned his Villa with this useful Tree, little thought that he was doing what would survive the effect of all his victories, and even the greatness of his Country, Inland conformable to History and Experience, will seldom belie our expectation, and it is reasonable to hope that the growth of the Mulberry and Opuntia, with the valuable Insects which feed upon them, will probably continue to awaken Industry and multiply the means of subsistence on this Coast, after the memory of more splendid events, which often only operate to waste and destroy, has been long lost and forgotten, but whatever be the final result, this result must be the earnest wish of every person who is interested in mankind.

Believe me to be with the sincerest respect and esteem,

DEAR SIR, &c.

FRA. DUNCAN.

TO DOCTOR ANDERSON, P. G.

DEAR SIR,

I REQUEST you will accept of my best thanks, for having by a late Tappal favored me with a Copy of your late Publication, in which you mention the World you having succeeded in having imported into this Country the true COCHINEAL INSECT FROM AMERICA.

The satisfaction, Sir, no doubt felt in having conducted to so fortunate a termination a scheme originally dictated wholly by Philanthropy.

fophy, pursued through many discouraging circumstances with unremitting diligence and zeal, and eventually pregnant with benefit as well to the State, as to thousands of our fellow Creatures, must be your best reward, and renders the congratulations of those who have the pleasure of knowing you, but little necessary—I have therefore only to express my hopes, that our Readers, encouraged by this second allusion to your Success, and convinced of the great benefit of at all times disseminating useful knowledge, may in future readily afford you all that support and countenance, which pursuits of such extensive utility are entitled to claim, and for the good of Mankind, to wish that you may long be blessed with health, to enable you to point out and superintend similar enquiries, and that you may frequently enjoy the pleasure of bringing them to equally fortunate terminations.

With the greatest respect and esteem,

I have the honor to remain,

DEAR SIR, &c.

ALEX. KENNEDY.

CORRESPONDENCE.

The Lines from Poondanah, signed S. have been received, and shall certainly appear in the Courier.

Other Favours from Amree and Arcot, are unfavourably postponed to our next Paper.

The Extracts from Sadras, have been received.

The Courier.

MADRAS—August 19th. 1795.

THE RIGHT HONORABLE, the GOVERNOR, we are informed, by accounts from the Northern Circars, arrived at Vizagapatnam on the Morning of the 28th Ultimo—His Lordship embarked immediately after Breakfast, and proceeded to Masur-cotah, where he landed at Noon on the next day, & thence proceeded by land to Ganjam, Rumbah, and Barampore.

On the Evening of the 2d Instant His Lordship arrived at Pandey, in the Vizagapatnam District, and on the 3d, dined at Nopalath from this place he proceeded to Chibole, where he arrived on the 4th, and thence continuing his Route, by the way of Veeragapatam and Visagapatnam—His Lordship returned to Vizagapatnam on the 7th Instant.

It should appear that LORD ROBERT'S second visit to Vizagapatnam, was for a few hours only, as our accounts add, that his Lordship, had left that place, and had arrived at Calicut on the Afternoon of the eight Instant.

The ship Mentor, Capt. Richardson is arrived at Madras from Bombay, with the Company's Super cargoes.

The MONSOON, had set in very mildly on the Coast of Malabar, about the 7th of June, the fall of Rain had been plentiful.

The Dutch Settlement of CHINCHAS, has taken possession of by a Detachment of British Sepoys, Commanded by Lieut. Butler, on the 25th Ultimo, a Royal salute was fired on the English Colours being hoisted on the Flagstaff.

By the Ship ANN, Captain Haigs, from TRINCOMALLIE, which he left on the 12th Instant, we have been favored with the following particulars, in addition to those we had the pleasure of laying before our READERS in our last Paper, respecting the operations of the Fleet and Forces against that Garrison.

COLONEL STUART, having by a Detachment cut off all communication between the upper and lower Forts, remained with the main body of the Troops in the position first taken, until the 10th Instant; when the advanced Line moved considerably forward, and took post within Gun shot of the upper Fort, without the smallest opposition on the part of the Enemy.

A party of MALAYS, commanded by a French Officer, had been surprised and made Prisoners, by a Detachment from the advanced Line; but had been released by Colonel Stuart, and permitted to return to the Garrison.

A Dutch Prisoner, arrested at SEA, has arrived on the ANN—He was sent in charge of Captain Haigs, who has delivered him to proper Officers: he remains in confinement.

On the 11th Instant a Packet was received, by Commodore BARRETT from SINGAPORE, the contents of which were not made known at the time the last accounts came away.

The CATHERINE, Captain Ried, arrived at Nagore on the 12th Instant from Trincomallie; she was despatched for Stores. The CATHERINE anchored here on the 16th Instant.

EXTRACT of a LETTER.

NEGAPATAM, 12th August, 7 P. M.

"This day arrived a very fine Grab Ship from Muleat direct—No News—The Ship was commanded by Captain Coates, anchored here a short time after, from Ceylon—private Letters brought by this conveyance state that Hostilities had actually commenced, and that the first Gun fired by the Dutch had killed two Sepoys—That the Governor, a Swiss, had requested Colonel Stuart not to do any works, but that the Colonel perceiving, in erecting them, had caused his firing—The Captain of the Ship adds that on the eleventh Instant, he plainly heard our Guns open against the upper Fort."

Respecting the above extract, and which is from a respectable quarter, we have to remark, that Captain Haigs of the Ann, who left Trincomallie, on the Evening of the 12th Instant, had not heard a single shot fired prior to his departure.

The Honorable Company's Cruiser, the SWIFT, sailed on Monday the 17th Instant for Trincomallie, having under Convoy, the Mary and Eliza Transports.

Accounts from Calcutta, mention that the following Ships were taking in Cargoes, principally Grain, for this Presidency, viz—The two Brothers, K. pling, Carrier, Nash, Dolphin, Hunter, Refugee, Galloway, Eliza, Deane, and Anna and Esca, Capt. Haldane.

By letters received from Calicut we learn that the Commandant of the Dutch Garrison of COCHIN, had positively refused to deliver up that place on the summons of Lieut. Colonel PERRIS, adding that he was determined to abide by the consequences of resistance, and to defend the place to the last extremity.

Lieut. Colonel PERRIS, we are informed had in a engagement encamped, nearly within Gunshot of the Fort, and had written for a reinforcement of Troops, and Artillery, with some heavy Guns,—nor was any doubt entertained but that the place would be forced to yield on the first attack being made by the British Troops: the Garrison was said to consist of only 500 men, including the Malay Artillery, and other Native Troops.

Extract of a Letter from Captain Gibb of the American Vessel the Betsy.

"I shall be happy in your correcting an error which appeared in your Paper of the 25th Instant, respecting the seizure of my Cargo, and the mode of payment offered by the Colonists.

"The Carpoes of all American Vessels, which arrive at the Isle of France, are always put in requisition by Government for the use of the Colony, and are paid for in the produce of the Island, namely, in Sugar Coffee, and Indigo."

The ship Mentor, Capt. Richardson is arrived at Madras from Bombay, with the Company's Super cargoes.

The MONSOON, had set in very mildly on the Coast of Malabar, about the 7th of June, the fall of Rain had been plentiful.

The Dutch Settlement of CHINCHAS, has taken possession of by a Detachment of British Sepoys, Commanded by Lieut. Butler, on the 25th Ultimo, a Royal salute was fired on the English Colours being hoisted on the Flagstaff.

G. O. B. GOVERNMENT.

The following promotions to take place: Capt. George Wright, to be Major, vice Pandywood, deceased, date of Commission 5th August 1795.

Ensign John Stuart, to be Lieutenant, vice Morgan deceased, date of Commission to be lettered hereafter.

Ensign James Patterson, to be Lieut. vice Orrock promoted date of Commission to be lettered hereafter.

Ensign Frederick Pigeon Patterson, to be Lieut. vice The late Graham deceased date of Commission to be lettered hereafter.

Ensign Thomas Spencer, to be Lieut. vice Alexander Leach deceased, date of Commission to be lettered hereafter.

Mr. Charles Oram, Assistant Surgeon, appointed to do duty with the Governor's Body Guard—and 17th Battalion of Native Infantry during the absence of Mr. Dunbar.

PRINCE OF WALES'S BIRTH DAY.

Nagapatam, 19th August, 1795.

"His Majesty's 3rd Regiment, with that attendant politeness, harmony, and hospitality, have ever marked the Corps—commemorated His Royal Highness's Birth-day, with every mark of Honor, Attachment and Respect. Early on yesterday morning, the Regiment paraded under Arms, and fired three Volleys; and at noon, the Guns of the Flag-Staff Battery fired a Royal Salute."

"The Corps was honored in the evening, at a Ball and Supper, (given on the occasion), by a numerous, splendid, and accomplished party, from the adjoining Settlements. A temporary but agreeable suspension, of the lively Country Dances, afforded an exhibition of the most serious, and dignified movements of the Minuet, which was with juifness, and elegance, performed by the Lady who presided, and who as well in her society, as every accomplishment, shines conspicuously."

"Mirth presided at the Dance, and at the Table. Aurora arising, only separated a party, formed with such unanimity, as to encrease the society which pervades every breath, that they may shortly enjoy the same pleasing scene."

On Friday night, about 10 o'clock, an European Centinel, posted at the Adjutant General's Office, in the Fort, fired on the Palankeen Bearers belonging to Mr. Robert Henderson, and killed two of them upon the spot.

The Bearers have been disinclined for the night, were just returning to their habitations, when the horrid perpetrator of this diabolical act, having previously loaded his Piece with six Balls, fired on them as they passed by his Post, one of them fell and instantly expired; nor did the other survive the fatal shot above a quarter of an Hour.

A few nights after the arrival of the JACKALL BIRD, from Trincomallie, the Lafcas belonging to her, rose upon the Officer then in Command—hoisted out the Boat, and having Plundered the Vessel of every portable Article, left her, and seizing the Boats fall, stood to the Northward—they have not since been heard of.

Two Vessels, under Danish Colours, arrived at Tranquebar from the Coast of France, on the 12th Instant; one of them after a passage of only twenty six Days.

The Ship Hops, Captain McKenzie, arrived at Calcutta, from Rangoon, on the 5th Ultimo: Captain McKenzie, left at Rangoon, the Ships Anna, Gilmore, Pleasant, Mearns, and Favorite Newton. The Asia, Captain Hudson, left Rangoon in company with the Hops.

The ship building by Captain Gardner; was nearly ready to Launch, and the Peacock and Favorite expected to fall from Rangoon in a few days after the Hops.

A large Malabar Ship, formerly the Avon was lost in attempting to work out of the River, and her Cargo plundered by the Burmahs.

The Viper Cruiser, has returned from Bombay to Bussorah, in order to attend the orders of Mr. MANISTY, who we understand, was in hourly expectation of an Overland Packet from England.

P E A C E.

BETWEEN FRANCE AND THE GRAND DUCHE OF TUSCANY.

It has been agreed and resolved between the Representatives of the people, composing the Committee of Public Welfare, and M. Xavier Count Carletti, Envoy Extraordinary from the Grand Duke of Tuscany, as follows:

I.—The Grand Duke revokes every act of adhesion and union to the coalition of powers against the French Republic.

II.—The two States will entertain towards each other sentiments of peace and good understanding.

III.—The Grand Duke will scrupulously observe the neutrality, in the footing on which it was established, on the 6th October, 1793; the present treaty will be submitted to the ratification of the National Convention.

Up on the above Treaty being presented by Merlin de Douay, in the name of the Committee of Public Welfare for ratification: Rouzeur rose and said: however, the present committee may be to the confidence of the nation in this path in which I am to follow, I cannot but approve of its decisions; I cannot but approve of the plan which its present Committee, only you have conferred to the Committee, only the executive duty that to yourselves essentially belongs to making Peace or War; it should be then submit to you a Treaty for ratification, but discussion, I propose by way of amendment that it be decreed.

"The Representatives of the French in virtue of the unlimited powers which they have received from the Nation, accept the Articles of Peace proposed between the Committee of Public Welfare, and the Grand Duke of Tuscany. The Convention charges its Committee with the execution, and publication of the present Decree." Jabrun—Tuscany demands Peace. It is glorious and becoming in her to thus to Europe an example of moderation, and to the coalition; let our conduct emulate her candor, I support the project with the amendment of Rouzeur.

Merlin de Douay call to mind the Law of the 7th Fructidor, which repels in the Committee the duty of Foreign negotiations; he cites the constitution which appoints the province of ratifying treaties to the Legislative Power; he concludes with remarking that in the present instance, the Committee has viewed itself in the situation of the executive Council; Agar Doss supports the project of the Committee, but in the course of his speech, he observes that Tuscany is an insignificant power, and that its annual revenues, do not equal the monthly expences of the French Republic; this observation is loudly repeated, and the Orator called to order.

Merlin de Douay observes, that the Committee of Public Welfare, should feel no rule for its conduct, but the public interest. Now the unity of conception, the celerity of execution, the necessity for secrecy, all conspire to direct the Committee in what it has done; a discussion upon the principles of the treaty would serve only to justify the calumnies of those, who say, that France has no Government, as if the Government were not in the National Convention. The Plenipotentiary of the Grand Duke, should naturally present himself to the Committee of Public Welfare, since he is charged with foreign negotiations. The Committee should treat and submit the result of its labours to the Convention: this it has done, and the treaty which has been read is only projected the question that remains for discussion, is whether it is consistent with the interest and duty of France to grant peace, upon which I presume there will be no doubt. I vote for the adoption of the decree.

The discussion being closed, the President puts to the vote the adopting of the Decree, which is carried by an immense majority. The Assembly and the tribunes uniting in the cry of Vive la Republique.

SWALLOW PACKET.

WE lose not a moment in communicating to our READERS, the very pleasing Intelligence of the Arrival of the long-expected PACKET from England, by the Honourable Company's SHIP the SWALLOW, together with such further heads of Intelligence, as we have been enabled to collect, —a further detail, if such may be obtained, we shall not fail to lay before our Readers, as early as possible tomorrow Morning.

THIS Day, about three o'clock P. M. the Honourable Company's Ship the SWALLOW PACKET, CAPTAIN CLIFFORD, arrived and anchored in the Roads.

The SWALLOW sailed from England on the 2d of January, and arrived at the CAPE OF GOOD HOPE with DESPATCHES from the Honourable the Court of Directors for Mr. PRINGLE, the British Resident at that Settlement. — At the Cape the Swallow remained nearly Six Weeks, when she sailed for the Island of St. Helena.

On Captain Clifford's arrival at St. Helena he found there His Majesty's Ship the SCEPTRE, the ARNISTON, and several other Indiamen.

The Arniston having brought to the Island, Intelligence of the Dutch War, it was found that GOVERNOR BROOKE had taken measures for an EXPEDITION against the CAPE of GOOD HOPE, and was himself embarked on board the Sceptre, for the purpose of reducing that important Settlement.

Captain Clifford having informed GOVERNOR BROOKE that a FLEET of DUTCH SHIPS, had left the Cape on their Voyage to Europe, and Intelligence having also been received at St. Helena that a Squadron of British Men of War, were on the point of sailing from England, under the Command of ADMIRAL ELPHINSTONE, for the reduction of the Cape, the Governor directed the SCEPTRE, SWALLOW, GENERAL GODDARD, and some other Ships, whose names we have not ascertained, to proceed to Sea in search of the Dutch Squadron.

In a few days after the departure of this little Squadron from St. Helena, the SCEPTRE, SWALLOW, & GENERAL GODDARD, having by some means, parted from the other Ships, were so fortunate as to fall in with the DUTCH FLEET, mentioned by Captain Clifford, consisting of eight sail of Merchantmen; no resistance, we believe was made on the part of the Hollanders, and we have the pleasure of adding that the whole were taken possession of by the British Ships — THREE of them proving to be DUTCH INDIAMEN, richly laden, and of an immense value.

The SWALLOW sailed from St. HELENA on the 24th of June.

The EXPEDITION from St. HELENA, against the CAPE, as far as we could learn, was by no means laid aside, it being the determination of Governor Brooke, to proceed with the Troops under his Command, against that Settlement, soon after the departure of the Swallow.

The Public PACKET, brought by the Swallow, was landed this afternoon, we are sorry to add that severe indisposition did not permit Captain Clifford, to come on shore.

Whether the PACKET abovementioned was that originally intended to be forwarded by the Swallow from England, or whether it was one of a later date, by the ARNISTON, we have not been enabled to ascertain.

The SOPHIA AUGUSTA, a Danish Ship which sailed from these Roads, for Europe, on the 1st of March, had arrived at the Cape of Good Hope, before the Swallow left that place for St. Helena. Mr. HUGH JONES, and Captain SATER, were Passengers on the Sophia Augusta.

SIR CHARLES and LADY OAKELEY, with the other Passengers on the Phoenix, Camden, and Dutton, had left St. Helena in good health, and are doubtless long ere this arrived in England.

The destination of the Squadron commanded by Captain Blanket, yet remains uncertain, but as we learn that two complete Regiments of Infantry, one of which, the 78th, and under orders for this Country, had been embarked on the Squadron, and that the Ships were loaded with Military Stores of every description, there can be but little doubt, respecting the object of the Voyage.

The hurry of the moment, and the necessary assortment of Letters, prior to their delivery, does not permit us to speak with certainty, respecting the Transactions of Europe—the general outline received is, that the WAR continued to be carried on with unabated VIGOR, and SUCCESS, on the part of GREAT BRITAIN, but with no prospect of its speedy termination.

Intelligence has been received from Trincomallie, that a Dutch Vessel, from Batavia, had been captured by the Squadron commanded by Commodore Raubert, and having on board 200 Men and Officers; and Specie to the amount of 10,000 Dollars.
