MADRAS COURIER.

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 16th, 1795.

MAJOR ROBERTSON, of His Majesty's Service, arrived at Calcutta on the 29th ultimo, on the Danish Ship Mora, last from the Cape of Good Hope, when she bore the 7th of Sep ember. — The Major is charged with Despatches for the respective Presidencies in India, but their more immediate contents had not transpired, when the last accounts left Calcutta; we have however collected the following particulars from the Bengal Papers, and from a private Letter with which we have been favored, respecting the operations of His Majesty's Forces at the Cape. — The India men, with the Troops on board, from St. Salvador, arrived in False Bay on the 4th of September; where they had been landed from the ships to the number of two thousand five hundred men, and with the Troops brought out on the King's ships, and the Sailors that had been landed from them, formed a body of 60 thousand men, the whole under the command of GENERAL CLARKE. The ships remained in False Bay; but the Troops had proceeded to the investment of Cape Town, the Commandant of which, COLONEL GORDON, it is said, had declared his determination to defend the place to the last extremity.

Previous to the sailing of the Moon, from the Cape, the bird, one of the Company's extra Sugar ships, had arrived from England, whence she sailed on the 14th of July. — The only intelligence brought by that ship, which we have been able to learn, was the accounts of the different Naval Actions which had taken place in June, and which we have already detailed.

On the 30th ultimo, the Honourable Company's Extra Ship, PRINCESS OF WALES, Captain M. B., arrived at Calcutta from England, which she left on the 10th of July. By this ship the following particulars of Domestic and Foreign Intelligence have been received.

Vice Admiral Cornwallis had been at Plymouth, repairing the damages his Squadron received from the French, on the 17th June, and sailed again on the 5th of July, to join Lord Bute, having with him five ships of the line, and three frigates.

The Hon. Captain Lockhart, of His Majesty's ship Thetis, in company with the Huffar, had fallen in (off the Chesapeake) with five sail of French ships, carrying from 30 to 54 guns each, on their main deck, and after a very desperate action, in which the Thetis had a number of men killed, had taken the three largest. The British ships being much damaged in their masts and rigging, were unable to pursue the two others, and they consequently made their escape. — Capt. Cochrane carried his Prizes into Halifax.

In consequence of the great scarcity of Wheat in England, the price of Bread, in London, had been raised in the beginning of July, to one shilling per quarter loaf; — the City of London had subscribed one thousand pounds towards the relief of the industrious poor of the Metropolis; and other subscriptions, to a very large amount, were raised for the same benevolent purpose. Large supplies of Corn were however expected to arrive soon, from Canada, and from the Baltic, which it was hoped would in some degree remove the calamity.

The Calcutta Papers mention, that when the Ship Princes of Wales, left England, the 3 per Cent. Consols were risen to 65, — a circumstance which augurs most auspiciously for the present and future Interests of our Mother Country.

THE AVERAGE PRICE OF SUGAR.

Computed from the returns made in the week ending the 1st July, was 65s. 3d. per cwt. exclusive of the Duty.

The Genoese Ship KIOBHAWEN, which left the Roads on the morning of the 28th. ultimo, has, we learn, since arrived at Tranquebar, with only her foremast standing; she having carried away her Main and Mizzen-masts, during the late dreadful Gale.

Accounts from Chingleput, mention that Garrison, as having suffered the greatest distress, from the late Storm — and that the adjacent Country had been entirely dried up. — The water on the 28th. ultimo, had, even in the Paddy fields, risen to the amazing height of twenty-five feet — Whole Villages were swept away; and the laborious Husbandmen and their numerous families consigned to infant death — The distress of the surviving inhabitants, to the Westward, is written beyond description.

It appears, that the Gale has rose higher this year than has been known within the memory of the oldest natives; and the stream is now as rapid as it usually is in the month of September.

Proceedings on board the Brig JACKALL, Captain Macdonald, between the 11th. of November and the 2d of December 1795.

On the 11th of November the Jackall sailed from Coringa, where she had been under repair, for Vizag and Calcutta — after experiencing heavy Gales of Wind, and strong South-easterly winds; till the 24th. Captain Macdonald found himself in the Latitude of 13 20 N. and about fourteen leagues from the Andaman Islands: at this period the Wind increased to a dreadful storm from N. and N.E. accompanied with torrents of heavy Rain, and the Sea which had risen to an extraordinary height, broke entirely over the Vessel, and swept every thing away before it. In a short time the Boat broke from its lashings, and was washed into the lee scuppers — the Vessel at that time was laying too under a Ballance Main Sail. On the 27th the Cabin Windows were stove in by the Sea, and the dead lights were stove in by the Sea, continuing to feed under the bare poles at the rate of nine and ten miles an hour, till the evening of the 28th, when it was found necessary to cut away the Mainmast, with every Sail and Rope attached to it, but the Vessel having at this time broached too, and there being four feet water in the hold, the Foremast was also cut away — The Seamen now began to despair, and indeed little prospect remained of preservation to any one on board, till the evening of the 29th, when the weather became more moderate; a Studding Sail was then set on the stump of the Foremast, and on the 2d of December the Jackall fortunately anchored in the Roads of Pondicherry.

Captain Macdonald, observed as he approached the Coast, the dreadful effects of the Gale, even on the shore — large Trees, of every description, fragments of buildings, and dead bodies, continuing to float by the Vessel, for many hours, prior to her coming to an anchor.

By account from Hyderabad, we learn that the event of a reconciliation between his Highness the NIZAM, and the Prince ALLY JAH was daily expected at the capital. — Letters further state, that Meer Ally had ordered his Highness's Troops to halt at Rungore, about 30 Miles distant from Dapor; until a definitive answer should be received, and it was expected it would be a favourable one from Malik Ila, to the overtures with which he had been charged.

On Wednesday last, the adjourned Sessions of Oyer and Terminer, and General Gall De. livery, assembled at the Town-Hall, and proceeded to the trial of Ahmed Khan, for Parjany; who, after a trial of some hours, the Prisoner was acquitted, and discharged. The Court then adjourned to today, the 16th Instant.

INDIA GAZETTE — November 30.

On Friday night last as Captain Haig, of the Hon. Company's ship Woodcock, and Mr. J. Colvin, were crossing the River at low water, the Boat in which they were, got aground on a low sand that runs out some distance from the opposite shore. Hearing the approach of the Bann, and finding some difficulty in getting the Boat off, they were induced to endeavour to reach the shore, by wading through the mud; but they had got only a very short distance from the boat, when they were overtaken by the Bann, which came on with great rapidity, and bore them both away before it. Mr. Colvin for some time kept Capt. Haig, who could not swim; but being soon fatigued, he was forced to quit him, to save his own life. Their cries being heard from the shore, a Boat put off, which took up Mr. Colvin, almost exhausted; but Captain Haig was seen no more.

The four battalions of Native Infantry, ordered to march to the Southward, are expected to arrive about the 12th December.

On Saturday last at the Mount Cantonments, Lieut. AYRELL, Fort Adjutant of Fort St. George.

A Young man of Probity and Honor, whose Zeal and Activity in the line of his profession were at all times conspicuous. His many friends will long and universally lament his Death. Generous and Liberal minded he ever claimed their best regard, while the warmth of his heart extended him to the society of those who had the happiness of knowing him intimately.

On the 4th Instant, LIEUTENANT-COLONEL M. P. STIRLING, of His Majesty's 74th Regiment, and commanding PONDICHERY.

A Gentleman whose Politeness of Manners enticed a preparation of his Mind, established a friendly Disposition of his Mind, established a better long Acquaintance.—The unrestrained Efforts of the best Medical Abilities were unable to procure a Life whose Prospect of Felicity and Compensations had but recently commenced; and the philosophic Mind, anxious to contemplate any Infirmary where the uncertainty of labatory Experiments had been more unfortunately exemplified.—The recollection of his many Virtues can never be effaced from the Memory of those who had the Happiness of knowing him intimately, and can never be forgotten by his many admirers.

On the 28th of August, at Addiscombe, with all Military Honors, and attended by the Gentlemen of the two Garrisons.

MADRAS COURIER

Extraordinary.

WEDNESDAY, DEC. 16th, 1795.

As the ARRIVAL of an INDIAMAN, from GREAT BRITAIN, is at all times an event of peculiar importance to every BRITISH INHABITANT of INDIA, we lose not a Moment in the present Instance, in laying the desired information before our Readers.

THIS Morning arrived, and anchored in the Roads, the Honorable Company's Ship, the BARRINGTON, CAPTAIN ROBINSON from England.

She failed from Spithead on the 10th of July, in company with five other Indiamen, whose arrival may be hourly expected.

PASSENGERS.

LADY WATSON,
MRS. ST. JOHN,
MISS WATSON,
SIR JAMES WATSON,
HON. LT. COLONEL ST. JOHN,
SIR FREDRICK HAMILTON,
The Honorable Mr. ELPHINSTONE,
Mr. WATSON,
MR. ADAM,
MR. HOUGHTON,
MR. WILLSON,
MR. LONG,
MR. JNO. WATSON,
MR. PRICE,
MR. SCOT,
MR. COLT,
MR. RAND,
AND
CAPT. WILCOCK,

The BARRINGTON touched, on her Passage at Rio de Janeiro, whence she failed on the 23d of September.

The principal heads of information we have yet obtained by this conveyance, are all highly gratifying.

They assure us of the HEALTH of HIS MAJESTY and his august Family; and of the increased popularity of His Majesty's Ministers.

The British Funds were daily rising in value, and the Nation in consequence.

Commerce, uninterrupted by the feeble efforts of the Enemy, was increasing, at every Port of Great Britain.

The late scarcity of Grain, is said to have been in some measure alleviated by the arrival of great quantities of that necessary Article, from Koningsberg and Dantzic.

The TRITON and RODNEY, for Madras, were two of the Ships which left England in company with the Barrington.

Accounts from the Continent, mention the Armies and FLEETS of SPAIN, and the Army of the EMPIRE, as being greatly augmented, and on the point of commencing hostilities against the common Enemy; no Action of consequence had however taken place by Land or Sea, at the period of the Barrington's departure.

Certain of the Swiss Cantons are represented as being in a state of Rebellion, Anarchy, and Confusion.

The above are the only particulars we are yet enabled to lay before our READERS.—but as there are four sail in sight to the Northward, which are also conjectured to be Indiamen; we trust to procure a more ample detail of Intelligence on their arrival, which will probably take place during the course of this Day.
