Extract of a letter from CANTON, via Bombay, dated 7th. Auguft 1803.

"Some of the Northern Provinces are at preſent in a ſtate of inſurrection; and a ſhort time ſince there was a moſt daring robbery committed in the city of Canton. A band of Robbers armed with two ſwords each, entered the gates and proceeded to a public office where they knew ſilver was depoſited, and very coolly walked off with their booty without being in the leaſt degree impeded.

"Cotton bore a very indifferent price, nor was there a proſpect of its riſing favorable."

The Bengal Papers of the 15th. and 17th. of October, did not reach this preſidency 'till Saturday laſt. From them we have copied the GENERAL ORDERS, on the Reduction of BARROACH, and the following paragraphs.

On Friday accounts were received of the arrival at Kedjaree of the H. C. ſhip Lord Caſtlereagh, Capt. G. Robertſon, from Madras.

PASSENGERS, from Madras,—Meſſrs. Smith, and H. Compton, Capt. Moore, of H. M. 34th. Regiment, and Lieut. Showers of the Artillery, Captain Towers, Lieut. Martin, Cornet Morley, and 29 Non-commiſſioned Officers and Privates of H. M. 8th Regt. Light Dragoons.

The officers of the ſhipping at Saugor were a few days ſince preſented with a novel ſpectacle, a brig was obſerved floating with the tide in ſuch a manner as clearly to indicate that ſhe was her deſtitute of people, or that ſhe had no pilots on board.—In conſequence of which an officer of the Devaynes, as we have been given to underſtand, went on board, and was confirmed in the opinion which had, on the veſſel's firſt appearance, been entertained,—no human creature living was to be found.—It is ſaid that on ſome parts of her deck the marks of blood were ſtrikingly apparent, and that in her cabin were found the blood-ſtained clothes of an European.

As the veſſel's cargo conſiſts of ſalt, it is probable ſhe is laſt from ſome place on the Coaſt of Coromandel, in which caſe we may expect ſoon to be informed of the perſons' names who comprized the crew, if nothing further ſhould tranſpire reſpecting this extraordinary affair.

The veſſel is at preſent in a place of ſafety, to which ſhe was conveyed by Capt. Green of the [illegible] took her in tow.

[illegible] have been received from Batavia [illegible]th. Sept. which mention, [illegible] that ſettlement had remained [illegible] of hoſtilities between Great Britain and France, and that in conſequence of ſuch intelligence, the four Dutch men of war ſtated in our laſt to be taking in cargoes for Europe,) had unloaded, and were ordered to fit out for ſervice. Sailors, however, were not to be got in any number, and it is added, that in conſequence the Dutch government would not be able toget near the complement required to fit out four ſail of the line.

EARTHQUAKE.

Extract of a Letter from Matura, dated 24th Sept.

"On the night between the 31. Auguſt, and the 1ſt of Sept. at half an hour after midnight, a ſevere ſhock of an EARTHQUAKE was felt at this place, which laſted for many minutes; and was violent beyond the memory of man. Probably not a living creature in the place, but was roufed from his ſlumbers by the alarm, and felt its effects. Many of the Pucka buildings were caſt down, and the ZENANAHS, hitherto unviolated by violence, were deſtroyed, and their fair inhabitants took refuge in the ſtreets and in the fields, in habitables which had no effect to conceal, and in an affright which obſcured all charms, fought protection with men, whoſe villages it would otherwiſe have diſgraced them to have beheld.—The night was calm, and enjoyed the full influence of a bright moon; and when the alarm was over, the ſhudder and anxiety of the fair deſtroyed of their confecrated mantions, afforded a pleaſing conſtraſt to their previous ſtrictneſs, and amply confoled their protectors for the deſolation they had ſuffered in their own houſes.

Noorul Niſſa Begum, a beautiful and accompliſhed woman, then pregnant with her third child, to the unſpeakable affliction of her huſband, was unfortunately killed by the falling of a building under which ſhe had run for ſafety,—and another Lady of eminence was oddly put to Death upon a ſuſpicion of gallantry with the perſon who attended her in her flight, though wholly unwarranted by any other appearance of ſuſpicion than the diſordered ſtate of the few garments they reſpectively wore

"In the morning very extenſive fiſſures were obſerved in the fields which had been cauſed by the preceſſion of the night before, though which waters rote with great violence, and continues to run to the preſent date, though its violence has gradually abated. This has been a great benefit to the neighbouring Ryotts, as they were thereby enabled to draw the water over their parched fields.

"The principal Moſque of the place, erected on an eminence, by the famous Ghuneze Khaun, as a token of his triumph over the infidels, and the idolatry, has been ſhattered to pieces, and a conſiderable part of the dome was ſwallowed up during the opening of the earth.

"Several ſlighter ſhocks have ſince occurred.

CALCUTTA,—21ſt. Nov.

We are concerned to ſtate a very melancholy accident which occurred laſt week:—

The Ship Warren Haſtings, in coming up the river, unfortunately ſtruck on a Sand, and heeled over ſo much as to be in imminent danger of being loſt.—Mr. WILKINSON, a gentleman on the Bengal Civil Eſtabliſhment, who was a paſſenger, jumped into a ſmall boat which was along ſide; followed by ſeveral other perſons; but ſcarcely had the boat got clear of the ſhip, when it became involved in the vortex of the whirlpools, went down head foremoſt, and every perſon periſhed, before any aſſiſtance could be afforded.

ST. ANDREW'S DAY.

On Wedneſday Evening, the Sons of Caledonia gave a Grand National Entertainment to the Ladies and Gentlemen of the Settlement, at the Exchange, in honor of their Tutelar Saint

At nine o'clock the Company began to aſſemble—ſhortly after the Right Honorable the Governor and Lady William Bentinck arrived, and were conducted to the Ball Room by the Stewards of the Evening.

The ſit down was led off by her Ladyſhip and Mr. Roebuck one of the Manager's of the Entertainment.

The Supper, as may be naturally ſuppoſed, conſiſted of every luxury procurable in the Settlement, and the Champagne and other Wines, were of a moſt choice and delicate ſelection.

A Committee choſen from the Subſcribers was appointed ſome days previous, for ſelecting Stewards, and making thoſe arrangements neceſſary for the occaſion.

Few entertainments have been given to the Settlement, more deſerving of particular notice, and we may be permitted to add, that the Management could not have fallen into better hands, than of thoſe Gentlemen ſelected for the purpoſe, to whom every praiſe is due for their obliging and hoſpitable attention to the amuſement and gratification of their viſitors.

COLOMBO,—23d. November 1803.

Accounts from Batticaloa, up to the 3d of this Month, inform us, that the Candians and Rebels who had nearly occupied the whole of that Province, had been driven to the Frontiers, by the ſpirited Exertions of Lieut. A. JOHNSTON, of H. M. 19th Regiment, Commandant of the Fort.

Lieut. JOHNSTON had ſeized many Priſoners who had been tried at Batticaloa, and one of them hanged.

The greater part of the Inhabitants had returned to their Houſes, and the Rebel Headmen had fled into the Jungle.

While the Kandians were in poſſeſſion of the Diſtrict they had burned the large Store Houſes at Naypalemoore and other public Buildings; which however are to be rebuilt on an improved plan, and ſuch is the ſtate of returning Tranquility, that meaſures have been taken for the re-eſtabliſhment of the Poſt between Batticaloa and Trincomale, ſo that we may hope in future to have regular Intelligence from that diſtant Province.

We have received Advices that Captain DARRELL and Lieut. JEWELL after their arrival at Trincomale, ſet out on two ſeparate expeditions to clear the Wanny Country of the Enemy, and to reſtore the public Tranquility, in which objects they perfectly ſucceeded, having overcome with the greateſt Perſeverance and Ability the various Impediments which they met with from the heavy Rains and flooded ſtate of the Country.

FORT WILLIAM,—14th. October, 1803.

A Diſpatch, of which the following is an Extract, has been received by His Excellency the Moſt Noble the Governor General, from His Excellency the Commander in Chief.

MY LORD,

I have the honor to enclose for your Lordſhip's information, Extract of a Letter juſt received from Colonel Vandeleur, reporting the arrival of Colonel DOUGLAS, Meſſrs. SARTINE and LAFANET, in his Camp.

No French Officer of any conſequence now remains in Sciadiah's ſervice, and thoſe who do, would, I have reaſon to believe, willingly avail themſelves of any opportunity of putting themſelves under our protection.

(Signed) G. LAKE.

Camp, Chenas, October 1, 1803.

GENERAL ORDERS.

By His Excellency the Moſt Noble the Governor General in Council.

FORT WILLIAM 14th OCT. 1803.

The Governor General in Council derives great ſatisfaction from the intelligence, which he has received of the reduction of the Fort and City of Baroach, on the 29th of Auguſt, and of the ability, promptitude, and gallantry with which that important ſervice was accompliſhed by the brave Officers, and Troops, under the command of Lieutenant Colonel Woodington of the eſtabliſhment of Bombay.

His Excellency in Council highly approves the conduct of Lieutenant Colonel Woodington in his judicious and ſpirited exertions for the early reduction of the place, in directing the operations of the Siege, in his ſeaſonable determination to aſſault the Fort; and in the diſpoſition which he made of the Troops under his Command, with a view to ſecure the rapid ſucceſs of that Gallant Attack.

The Governor General in Council ſignifies his particular approbation of the valor and judgment manifeſted by Major Cuyler of His Majeſty's 86th Regiment, throughout the ſervice at Baroach, and in commanding the Storm of the Fort, and by Captain Richardſon of the ſame Corps in leading the Aſſault. His Excellency in Council alſo obſerves with particular ſatisfaction the conduct of Captain Cliffe of the Engineers of Bombay.

To all the Officers and Troops, European and Native, employed on this honorable occaſion, His Excellency in Council ſignifies his high commendation.

The Governor General in Council laments the loſs of Captain W. Semple of His Majeſty's 86th Regiment, killed on the 25th of Auguſt, and of the few brave Men who fell before Baroach. It is a great ſatisfaction however to obſerve that an acquiſition ſo important, ſhould have been ſecured with the loſs of only one Officer, and of ſo few ſoldiers.

In bearing a due teſtimony to the merits of the Officers and Troops, employed in the reduction of Baroach on the 29th of Auguſt, the Governor General in Council remarks, that on the ſame day, diſtinguiſhed by the commencement of the victorious career of the Army of Bengal, under the perſonal command of His Excellency General Lake, upon the frontier of Oude, the Army of Bombay at the Weſtern extremity of the Peninſula of India, effected a ſervice of the moſt arduous nature, with a ſimiliar ſpirit of Alacrity and Courage.

In the courſe of an extenſive and complicated ſyſtem of Military Operations, the glorious ſucceſs of our Arms ſince the commencement of this War has been uniform in every part of India: The able and Gallant Officers and Troops of His Majeſty's ſervice, and of the ſeveral eſtabliſhments of the Three Preſidencies, have been actuated by equal ſentiments of public ſpirit and honor, and have co-operated with equal ardor and ſucceſs in an united effort to accompliſh the full objects of the Alliance.

The Governor General in Council the juſtice of our cauſe, in the unanimity of the Three Preſidencies, and the cordial co-operation of their reſpective ſervants, that the views of the confederate Powers will be ſpeedily fruſtrated by the reſtoration of peace and tranquillity to the provinces of Hindoſtan and the Decan, lately diſturbed by the ambition and violence of the Enemy.

The Governor General in Council directs that Copies of this order be tranſmitted to the Right Honorable the Governor in Council at Fort St. George, and the Honorable the Governor in Council at Bombay, for communication to the Army of thoſe Preſidencies.

BOMBAY COURIER,—19th.

His Majeſty Ships TRIDENT, TREMENDOUS, Captain Osborne; Captain J. S. Rainier; LANCASTER, Abergill, and ALBATROSS Captain Stuart, arrived in this Harbour the 6th. inſtant.

On Thurſday the 10th. inſtant, Rear Admiral RAINIER landed at the under the acuſtomed compliment of a ſalute Regiment having had the honor of being His Excellency.

His Majeſty's ſhip ST. FIORENZO, Bingham, arrived on Sunday laſt from Madras. Mrs. Bingham and [illegible] The Fox Frigate quitted Madras in company with the St. Fiorenzo; [illegible] touched at the Sychelles, and ſpoke the French Corvette La FLEUR. The Frenchmen immediately on the appearance of His Majeſty's ſhip Bingham took poſſeſſion of the Corvette. Fleche was the name of the Veſſel, a fine Sloop, Capt. Collier, during the laſt war, mounted 16 guns; but on the approach of the Fox Frigate ſhe was ſcuttled and ſunk; the French however again merely to experience the ſkill and decided reſult of the Engliſh.

On the ſame day the Ship Thomas Meſſon, anchored in the Harbour from Muſcat, where ſhe had been ſtrongly fitted up by the French frigate [illegible] guns: the Atalanta completed with 32 guns, failed on the 13th. ultimo; but on the 17th. ultimo; but at ſome diſtance off that Port, the Commander avowed his intentions of attempting the Capture of the Raheimſha [illegible] remained until the frigate diſappeared, when ſaid that the Captain deſigned to ſtand for Head and proceed along the coaſt to Muſcat, which he was very inquiſitive in making inquires from the Frenchmen in the ſervice; the Atalanta may be known by having 3 Ports of a ſide, very little ſheer, a black painted White and ſet. Her [illegible] generally are; is very Taunt with [illegible] trees, her ſides were painted yellow [illegible] of Muſcat; the commander made an offer that he be authorized to take the Raheimſha [illegible] her anchorage off Muſcat, which was refuſed; they brought preſents for which were returned; and intended to eſtabliſhed a Reſident at Muſcat; but not allowed to hoiſt the French flag [illegible] on board the frigate—nor had the [illegible] an audience with the Imaum.

Extract from a country letter dated 4th Inſt. "Our Botella Dera [illegible] in with a French ſhip between Ve [illegible] and Mangerole which detained the [illegible] tow, and then diſmiſſed her, keeping Koda, Fakeer Muhomed, and Cra [illegible] with four of the Claſſecs; this ſhip is large and has 1200 men, and two guns, [illegible] theretore take care of your inſu [illegible] Northward."

The Frenchman enquired of the [illegible] boat concerning the whole Coaſt, ſaid he had a Factory in Cutch, if he could get proviſions and water ſhould he go there:—He ſailed laſt from Bombay. He ſteered along the Coaſt towards Scindia paſſing the Cutch Gulph [illegible] in with him the 28th ultimo.

The King of JOHANNA his Father [illegible] arrived on the Raheimſhaw and ſaluted him with a Salute of Nine Guns.

A letter from Muſcat dated [illegible] conveys intelligence that ABDUL WAHABEE, had died and left his eldeſt ſon Saud [illegible] and ſucceſſor; but his brother backed by the army, and another ſon near Bagdad have refuſed to acknowledge the eldeſt ſon, and they are expected to go to war. In the list of those Officers who particularly distinguished themselves, I cannot omit the names of Lieutenant Wallace of His Majesty's 29th Regiment, who was entrusted with the command of a battery of Gallopers, nor that of Lieutenant Dixon of the 6th Regiment Native Cavalry, who was employed in the same service.

The whole of my Staff upon this, as upon every former occasion, are entitled to a large share of praise and for my warmest gratitude. The zeal which they displayed upon this memorable day, is too plainly proved by the enclosed returns of the Killed and Wounded. I have sustained a great loss by the death of Major William Campbell the deputy Quarter Master General, and by that of my Aide-de-Camp Lieutenant Duval, of His Majesty's 19th Light Dragoons, who was a young man of great promise.

Herewith I have the honor to enclose returns of Ordnance and Colours which were captured upon this occasion.

I have the honor to be, My Lord,
Your Lordship's most faithful and humble servant,
(Signed) G. LAKE.

Head Quarters, Camp near Safwaree, 2d. Nov.

P. S. In the hurry which I wrote my dispatch of yesterday's date, I fear I did not explain to your Lordship, that the Enemy's Corps which we have defeated, consisted of the whole of the Fifteen Regular Battalions which had been four from the Deccan, under the Command of Monsieur Dudernag; and two Battalions of the same discription which had escaped from Delhi; I therefore have the satisfaction of congratulating your Excellency, upon the annihilation of the whole of the regular Force in Sindiah's service commanded by French Officers.

LONDON.—14th. May.

The Emperor of Morocco has demanded from the House of Austria, in consequence of its now possessing the Territory and Navy of the State of VENICE, the tribute which was formerly paid to him by that Republic.

Some Troops have been ordered to march from Petersburgh, towards the frontiers of Turkey, in the neighbourhood of Semlin. This measure has appeared necessary, in consequence of the Vicinity of Belgrade, where it is apprehended that some troubles may break out.

Private Letters from Holland speak of a strong disposition to resistance against the interference of France having been recently evinced in several parts of the Batavian Republick, Frenchmen are stated to be openly insulted, and placards posted denouncing the Government, which is charged with being in treaty with the Cabinet of the Thuilleries, to annex the Dutch territory to that of France under the authority of a Sub-Consul.

The anniversary of the Sudden Death of the late Emperor Paul, was celebrated at Petersburgh, by the Royal Family, with the solemn and mournful performance of those religious Services which the Greek Church allows to be performed for the dead.—The day following that of the Emperor Alexander's accession to the Throne, was set apart to pass over without any festive celebration.

The owners of estates in Russia are now permitted, by the Ukase, to grant liberty as well as property to their boors.

At Friburgh, where the Landaman D'affry was insulted, an order has been published that every person passing through the streets, in dark evenings, after nine o'Clock, shall be arrested, and that wherever more than four persons are found standing together in the streets in the evening, they shall be dispersed.

HOUSE OF COMMONS,

FRIDAY, 20th. MAY.

The Right Honorable WILLIAM PITT appeared for the First time this Session in the House, and took the oaths and his seat.

THURSDAY,—26th. MAY.

The House, accompanied by an unusual number of Members, proceeded with their Speaker, in State to St. James's, where His Majesty, on the Throne, was graciously pleased to receive the Address.

The Speaker, on his return, signified, that he had waited upon the King with the Address of the House, to which His Majesty was pleased to give the following most gracious answer:

"Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I return you my warmest thanks for this very loyal and dutiful Address, and I am highly gratified with the assurance it contains, of your firm and loyal support in maintaining the honour of My Crown, & preserving the dearest rights, and interests of My people."

A Message from the Lords acquainted the House, that their Lordships had agreed to the Militia Families Bill, and to the Amendments made in the bill for preventing frivolous and vexatious Arrests.

Mr. Fox gave notice of bringing forward his motion to-morrow; relative to the tender made by the EMPEROR OF RUSSIA, for MEDIATING the differences between the two countries.

LONDON,—24TH. MAY 1803.

By letters that we received yesterday from St. Petersburgh, dated the 5th of April, we learn, that a considerable squadron of Russian ships of war are fitting out at Revel, with all possible expedition. A brother of Capt. Portlock of the British Navy, is appointed to the command of the flag ship, of 130 guns, the name of…

Sir S. SMYTH has taken a very rich French merchantman, and sent her into the Downs.

The two frigates, the La Pique and Carolina, lately arrived at Cove, are ordered to be victualled and stored for foreign service with the greatest expedition.

A brig belonging to Guernsey, and a pilot boat belonging to Deal, have been captured at Calais; the former of which was driven in by stress of weather.

A convoy is immediately to be provided for the Merchant-ships bound to the Baltic.

A rich ship from Surinam has been captured by the Diamond frigate, and sent into Portland Roads.

CONSTANTINOPLE,—9th. April.

The French General Lepautre, is arrived here from Petersburgh, with dispatches for General Brune, Ambassador of the French Republic to the Ottoman Porte. A report has since been circulated, that some disputes have arisen between Russia and the Porte, which threatened to terminate in hostilities. However, there is no sufficient reason to credit this report.

ST. DOMINGO.

A letter from St. Croix, dated April, 3d. says,—"There are the most unpleasant accounts from St. Domingo. The whole of the south part is now in a state of insurrection, and the country in all directions destroyed by fire. Argain has been taken by storm, and is now in the possession of the Blacks. A reinforcement has put the Cape in a respectable state of defence only. You will scarcely believe, although no less true, that a very large quantity of Muscovado sugars has been sent from hence to the Cape, where they are worth from fourteen to eighteen dollars per cwt."

LONDON,—26th. May.

It is again strongly reported on the Continent, that the King of Prussia has agreed to give the French troops a free passage through his States, to take possession of Hanover; while, on the other hand, a negotiation is said to be carrying on between the Court of Berlin and the Hanoverian Government, for the purpose of preventing the French from entering the Electorate.

A letter received from on board the Active frigate, dated Leghorn May 1st. 1803, states, that the idea of a war had throw the English Merchants at that place into great confusion, and that they were embarking their property on board of vessels which lay under the protection of the guns of the Active.

Private letters by the Dutch Mail state, that the money lately advanced by the Batavian Republic, to pay the arrears of the French Troops in Holland, was only paid in consequence of General Montrichard having threatened, in case of non payment, to march 20,000 men to Amsterdam, and seize its Bank!

PORTSMOUTH,—21st May.

Orders were received this morning for all the ships at this port, to take on board eight months provisions, fo that no ship need return into port, if it should be necessary to detach a squadron from the Channel Fleet.

Several prison ships are ordered to be immediately commissioned. On Sunday last the Magnificent, of 74 guns, went into Dock at low water. No ship has ever before done the same. She will go out again on Monday, completely ready for commission. There are at present no less than six fail of the line, and two frigates, in the basin and docks; and the exertions made to get them ready were never surpassed, perhaps never equalled.

The Prince of Wales, of 98 guns, Captain Gifford, & Orpheus, of 32 guns, Captain Hills, this day went out of harbour to Spithead. The Britannia, of 100 guns, Capt. Kitto; Windsor Castle, of 98 guns, Capt. Durham; and Royal Sovereign, will go out on Monday. FOR THE MADRAS COURIER.

SOME years ago, as Mr. Love, a young Gentleman, then first Officer of a Country Ship, was discharging the Cargo of the Vessel at Calcutta, he received, on Christmas-day, what is commonly called a LAWYER'S LETTER, written at the request of his Sircar, or Dubash, RAMBONE, and to which he sent the following immediate, prompte, he way of answer:—

Good Mr. Lawyer, I've received your Chit,
And really Sir, I think it mighty odd,
That you to me in such style have writ,
I think it very strange!—I do by G——!!

I wish the subject and the style were better,
For such fad stuff before I never saw;
I thought myself above a Lawyers Letter,
Indeed above the Letter of the Law.

RAMBONE I know to be an errant knave;
You are—I hope—a very honest man,
And you'll some little time and trouble save,
By kind adoption of a liberal plan:

At present,—being rather short of pelf,
And this a joyous time with all our nation,
I beg that you'll discharge the debt yourself,
And I'll esteem it, Sir,—an obligation.

Or, if you'll wait to see what I can do,
I'll try my interest with a generous friend,
Who in the space, of a short Week or two,
My happily the needful succour lend.

But should you both these modest boons refuse,
And to my honest wishes adverse prove,
Curst be the Lawyer by the forlghtly Muse,
By all the tuneful Nine—and hateful Love.

So, Mister Fss, my Jail-denouncing lad,
Pray from the bead all further doubts remove:
At present, I have nothing more to add,
But am,—Your Humble Servant,——

RICHARD LOVE.*

* Mr. F— to whom the above was addressed, was much pleased with the young Sailor's Letter; (who he declared—he had never received such an answer to an application for money, since he had practised as an Attorney") and read it to a large Company assembled at his House to eat their Christmas Dinner,—who, finding the Debt to be under 500 Rupees, with a liberality truly Indian—discharged it by a Subscription at the Table, which not only satisfied the Claims of the Sircar, but put an additional 500 Rupees into the empty pockets of the poetical Defendant.

IMPERIAL PARLIAMENT.

THE MILITIA.

The Secretary at War called the attention of the House to the subject which he gave notice of moving this night, relative to the Militia. His intent was to ask leave of the House for permission to bring in a Bill to render more effectual the embodying and equipping them. The subjects it would go to embrace were, first, to complete the quota which each county was bound to provide; and the next was for facilitating the raising of the Supplementary Militia, whenever his Majesty might deem needful to call them out. Although the measures adopted in the last Session of Parliament went a great length to accomplish that, in some counties it might be by had raised three times, yet that was their corn all the counties, and I say, that it appeared from all counties, that confidence failed. His first proposition would be, that the Deputy Lieutenants will provide, for their substitutes without inquiry. He proceed further with as to not wait the time at present allotted for that purpose, whether these vacancies happen from desertion, or ought else. The second proposition means to submit was, to alter the law with respect to assessments, and that from henceforth the Commanders shall be empowered as obliged to certify quarterly to the Sessions of the County, instead of yearly; and lat instead of the regiment having to wait, as was the case, a whole year, the applications from the respective Commanders shall be decided every three months. The next proposition he should invite the attention of the House to was that which he should urge with much earnestness to their consideration, and that was to prevent the frauds so much practised, by persons receiving bounties from one regiment, deserting it, and repeating the same mal-practice in other regiments; in fact, doing that which, among that description of persons, was termed "Going the Grand Tour." To remedy this evil for the future, it is proposed to empower his Majesty, by his Royal proclamation, to fix a day for the return of deserters of every description, and upon their return to their duty on the prescribed day, to receive them; but when the parties do not choose to avail themselves of that indulgence, to have lists published, descriptive of their persons, empowering the Magistrates, Constables, and other to apprehend them, and in that all be sent to serve his Majesty as likewise found by experience under the size which is now held be received into the Militia found beneficial to the service impression it becomes expedient whose height shall not be two inches into the Militia, her propose, that the penalty reased from 10l. to 15l. It was also a part of the intended Bill to authorize his Majesty, in the event of necessity, to embody the whole of the Militia, without calling on Parliament for the purpose, as the law at present requires. Upon a scale of reciprocity, and for the benefit of the service at large, he also was of opinion that it would meet the sense of the House when he acquainted them that it was intended by the Bill to prevent seafaring men being received into the Militia, and if Militiamen be in the sea service, to have them returned from thence to their respective corps; and with respect to promotions, that under the degree of Field Officers was to be regulated from the mode pursued in the Line. He then moved for leave to bring in a Bill "for more speedily completing the Militia, and for amending and explaining the laws relative to the disciplining and embodying the same."

Colonel Porter said a few words respecting the families of Militiamen, and made a few observations upon the points, when,

The Secretary at War replied, that it was also intended to have the soldiers sworn as to their place of abode, their occupations, and the number of their children, if any, as the information thus had, in the first instance, would not only operate as a preventive to fraud, but be an indirect means of ascertaining their probable biding place, in cases of desertion.

Mr. Windham was a decided enemy to the multiplication of oaths, whether they were to be taken by Militia men, or by other men. The introduction of oaths upon all occasions the most trifling, and often times the most unnecessary, tended universally to the reduction of morality, for the more experienced the ignorant were in using them, the stronger they grew in applying them; for the suppleness of their conscience would be increased by the frequency of their use. He would rather advise the penalty to be taken and the oath to be left out. He wished therefore the clause, as mentioned by the Right Hon. Gentleman, might not be introduced in the Bill.

The Secretary at War replied to the objections started by Mr. Windham. And leave was give to bring in the Bill.

PLYMOUTH,—21st May.

Came in from a cruize, the Doris, of 36 guns, Capt. Pearson, and Revolutionaire, of 44, Capt. Lock.

The wind having been mostly at E. N. since the Channel fleet sailed, there is no doubt of its being on its station off Brest yesterday at noon, when Admiral Cornwallis will effectually blockade the port of Brest. Just came in from [illegible] left them all well on their station, a Alarm lugger, one spoke the Diamond, of guns, Capt. Elphinstone; Sylph, 18, Captain [illegible]; and Hazard, of 18, Capt. Neeve, all well, on their cruizing ground; had not then made any capture.

Orders came down this day, to fit up the prisons at Mill Bay, for the reception of prisoners of war. This day, part of the King's Dragoon Guards marched into Dock to be quartered, viz. the 1st or Royal Dragoons marched for Bristol.

COWES,—22d May.

Yesterday Rufus King, Esq. late Minister from America to this Court, with his family, embarked on board the John Morgan, J. Coward, master, for New York. Five Dutch ships, with their cargoes, are detained, by order of the Admiralty, at this port.

YARMOUTH,—22d May.

The Penelope frigate sailed from hence the 19th inst. with sealed orders for Lord Keith. A French vessel, a prize was sent into the roads this morning, and another is seen just entering by St. Nicholas, with an English Cutter in company.

DOGS OF HONOR.

The Prefect of Calvados lately represented to the Minister of the Interior that a man who was fishing on the Banks of the Orne was seized with a fit of giddiness and fell into the River when it was high tides and the current strong; very fortunately the keeper of the Military Prison happened to pass by at the moment accompanied by two strong and well trained dogs, who immediately obeyed their master's orders by plunging into the stream when the poor man was upon his last struggle and these two animals having fished for the fisher himself succeeded in bringing him athore, where he got rid of his fright and a few pintsof water which he had swallowed. This act of Humanity says the Prefect in the concluding paragraph does equal Honor to the keeper and the dogs.

Our Correspondent in Paris adds that the First Consul, always anxious to reward merit wherever it be found, has issued an Arrete, which will be made public when carried into effect, decreeing to each dog A Collar of Honor. They are also destined to be elected members of the Legion of Honor; but as Divers are not admitted they are to be introduced as Chasseurs. Their residence will be fixed at Malmaison, where their principal employment will be to beat all the bushes every day that are within [illegible] of the place, in order to relieve the National Gend's armerie stationed there for the purpose of raking all the hedges and thickets with the bayonets to convince the Grand Hero that they conceal no Conspirators, or infernal machines. The Superintendent of the dog kennels has been ordered to marry the Dogs at the next public fete to two white virgin females of their species, which are to be given away by Madam LECLERC, and two niches are to be reserved for the fruits of their union in the French Pantheon. The keeper of the Prison is to be appointed Governor for life, and to have the privilege of chosing his successor. We see with pleasure that Bonaparte can reward as well as punish. Sic virtus evehit ardent.
