MADRAS.

WEDNESDAY, 7th. September, 1803.

The hope, expressed in our last paper, of the continuance of Pracer, and which was generally warranted by the information contained in the English Papers,—has proved iluniary—Howithers have commenced between Great Britain, and, the French and Italian Republics.

On Scarday, loss Despatches Overland, were received by Government, in date to the 4th. of May, and on monder morting, Despatches by the same medium were also received, brigging Lotelligence from England to the 27th of May, and from Venice to the 3d, June.

From the first received Packet we obtained information of the departure of Lord Whitworth from Fenner, and or General Andreosi from England; together with the subjoined message from this M jesty to the British Parliament.

From the Second we learn that Hostillites had actually commenced, in the capture of acceptance of the Commenced o bay with twelve sail of the Line, and Six Fri-gates, with which force he blocked up Brest Harbour.

down. Captain Macamores is above the middle fize, rather float, and of a good figure. His comslexion is darts, his features marked and express. He was dreffed in a dark olive furtout, lined with velvet at the breath. His appearance was altogether elegant and preposeding, and he had every much the air of a man of failion. His deportment was modeft, without betraying any want of firmnefs, and his whole conduct was fairlely correct. He looked very pale, and this, added to the other circumstances, render dhis appearance highly interecting, and made a deep imprefilm in his favour on every perfon in the Court. Lord Najaw fat on the Bench, and Lord Had in the Ordinary's Box during the trial.
