THE SUBSCRIBERS to the COURIER are respectfully informed that all money due to that Press prior to the 1st May 1811, and since the 1st Feb. 1812, is the property of MR. UNDERWOOD, the present EDITOR. It is therefore requested that no bills (except such as have been contracted between 1st May 1811 and 1st Feb. 1812, during which period of nine months the COURIER was in other hands) be paid, except they bear MR. UNDERWOOD'S Signature, or that of one of the following persons who are duly authorized, at their several Stations, to receive money and grant receipts on account of the COURIER Press.

Mr. COLLINS, Seringapatam.
Mr. JOHN STEWART, Bellary.
Mr. FRENCH, Masulipatam.
Mr. D. JOHNS, Seringapatam.
Mr. LUKE REDDY, Hyderabad.
Mr. THACKER, Trichinopoly.
Mr. BOXLEY, Bangalore.
Mr. SAWYER, Palamcottah.

The regular Paper will continue to be published every TUESDAY, and all ADVERTISEMENTS inserted therein will be charged as heretofore. A SUPPLEMENT will continue to be published every WEDNESDAY and FRIDAY Morning, which, besides any Local Intelligence, will contain such ADVERTISEMENTS as may be sent for insertion therein; the charge for which will be 3 fanams per line.
