MADRAS GAZETTE

particularly after the reiterated prohibitions which I had made to him, not to make a hazardous expedition in person, since he was provided with every necessary. I immediately ordered the General of Brigade, Barrie, to take the command of Ciudad Rodrigo: he has set out with a convoy of corn destined for that place.

Head-quarters at Leon, Nov. [illegible] 1811.

MONSEIGNEUR,—I had the honour of informing you of the dispositions which I had made for the purpose of re-occupying the Asturias. I had every reason to persuade [illegible] the insurgents would make every effort to defend the [illegible] of Pajares.—Accounts announced to me, that they had thrown up entrenchments in several advantageous positions, which circumstance induced me to support in person the General Bonnet, charged with this expedition. I supported it with three battalions of voltigeurs, the division Dumoustier, and a portion of the cavalry of the guard.

On the [illegible] I found the enemy posted at the pass. Our voltigeurs dashed forward, the enemy struck with terror, made a weak defence, the entrenchments were forced in an instant, the enemy lost, [illegible] This first blow being struck, I ordered the [illegible] to be occupied in force; and Gen. [illegible] towards Puente Pierro [illegible] [illegible]
