Amendments and resolutions—

A Member may bring in an amendment to a resolution under discussion, incorporating the substance of another resolution of his, lower down in the agenda, provided it is relevant; if the amendment is passed, the other resolution will not be allowed to be discussed to the extent to which the decision on the amendment covers it lvii 197

When discussion has taken place on a resolution and an amendment thereon, the resolution as proposed to be amended may be put to vote, and, if it is carried, the original resolution will not be put lvii 170-171

Budget motions—

Discussion of the merits of a cut motion as compared with other motions is out of order lxi 361

Speaking on proposals of the Retrenchment Committee, hon. Members can refer only to proposals included in the particular demand under discussion and not to proposals relating to other demands lxi 277, 296

Debate—

A member, who is less proficient in English than in his vernacular, may make his speech in English as it will be helpful to the Council to understand his arguments in English lvii 172

When a motion relating to the conduct of certain revenue officers is under discussion, it is wrong to make a general review of the whole situation relating to revenue settlement policy of Government lviii 318

Questions—

A question cannot be put to a non-official member on a business of the Council for which he is not responsible lvii 30

Questions and Answers—
