PREAT BRITAIN AND INDIA

"Has Viceroy joined the Congress?—The British stampede before Indian Nationalism makes Loyalists given to an article by "A Loyalist" published in the "Rov's Weekly" of Delhi. "Roy's Weekly" of Denn.
The article is a summing-up of the present position so far as loyalists are concerned—

of Nations. The writer says that the British Government in India have let down the loyalists who have defended them, suffered odium and public ridicule on that ac-count, and were held up by Congressmen as reactionaries and traitors to the country. They were used as a cat's out of the fire, and after this object was achieved, they re given the cold should But loyalists have remained loyal to the British Crown and the British Empire not and the British Empire not because they wanted to sacrifice the interests of the country to foreigners, but because they think that because they think that the best interests of India require British friend and require British friend-ship, co-operation, and help. That loyalty is now waning The "Loyalist" of "Roy's Weekly" writes:

"I wonder whether anyone in responsibility ever realises that very soon the British shall not have a single friend India. The loyalis loyalists? They are rapidly dying.
We are driving those who trusted the British, who openly said that it was the Divine Hand that brought the British and the Indian together, to exclaim: 'The British---it is like relying on a reed if you trust them. They have thrown us over-board. How can we trust these people?' The British have already alienated the true loyalists who stood by them at great sacrifice. Can the average Britisher during the height of the non-co-operation move-ment? The lovalists were

"He spoke on truth and "He spoke on truth and patriotism with the vehemence of Gandhiji himselft. Who could have said, at the first glance, that the following words were uttered by the Viceroy of India:

'Don't be afraid to fly the flag of your ambitions and of your ideals at the very top of your mast. Your performances will not climb as high as your ideal. But if you try to hide the gap between what you would like to be and what you are by lowering your just a bit, you may take it performance too come down with a run and the gap between aim and achievement become wider than

It would seem as though was an exhortation in favour Complete Independence Referring to the policy of the representative of His Majesty the King-Emperor, "Loyalist" says;

"What has Lord Linlith-"What has Lord Linlith-gow not done already? By lifting the ban on the Frontier Gandhi---he has done it as a conces-sion to Gandhiji---the loyal Frontier Govern-ment has been blown up. He has seriously en-dangered the safety of India by placing at the gate the wily Congress-men who might open it to any enemy of British

"Loyalist" feels that the prestige of the Government has been considerably lowered by the Viceroy's invitation to Gandhiji, and says the posi-tion has been made worse by his other talks with Con gress leaders:

"As if the humiliation of sending for Gandhi is not enough, Lord Linlithgow is busy inter-viewing Bhulabhai Desai and Satyamurthi-poisonous creatures that give the Istomach ache to such an Imperialchampion as Sir

James Grigg. I can understand if the politicians ask for an interview —they do not. Not only that: they would still be absent from all social functions, as if ap-proach to the Viceroy is pollution or contamina-tion. In the face of the Congress glorifying their orthodox segrega-tion from the Govern-ment House in the headquarters quarters and in the presidencies, we see the Viceroy inviting these sworn foes of Imperia-

"I feel that by accepting Ministerships our principle is not material-ly altered. Congress Committees should not maintain official rela-tions with Government Officers. They should not take part in function arranged by the Govern functions ment. This holds good for the Ministers as well. Ministers should see the Government officers only for their Departmental duties. For others the original conduct should continue,"

In other words, Congress would treat British officials in India as it has treated them in the past —as untouchables—but British Government would such slavish servience to the Congress that one wonders under which Government India is now. "We are the rulers" Congressmen say, and "Lo-valist" adds:

THE LEADER'S APPEAL

In response to the suggestions of Partymen, the Directors of the "Justice" newspaper have decided to convert Rs. 100 shares into Rs. 10 shares, so that it may enable most of our Partymen, who have not already taken shares, to become shareholders of the Party's paper.

It is usedless on my part to point out the useful and invaluable service that "Justice" has been doing all these years to the Party and the general public, nor is it necessary for me to stress at any length the desirability of Partymen supporting the paper and becoming shareholders. They all know that owing to the fact that "Justice" is a party paper, it has not been financially successful. The future of the paper depends, in an increasing measure, on the support of Partymen and sympathisers and well-wishers of the Party. The Directors feel that the continuance of the paper as an efficient and up-to-date daily requires at least Rs. 50,000 for the present.

I therefore appeal to all Partymen and others who have the interests of our Party at heart to become shareholders at an early date. Those who desire to do so may kindly write to the Hony. Secretary, "Justice," Madras.
