[Abstract.]

Convidi Subramania Swamy
Susudranath Araya

HON. P. KESAVA PILLAI.

GOOTY.

19th March 1911.

Dear Sir,

May I beg to know if it is a fact that Subramania Siva, convicted for political offence in Tirunelveli, and Sureshchandra Anga, convicted in Madras for a Sureshchandra offence, are now kept in the Salween Jail in Sagarali wards, as subjects to leprosy. As such they are reported to be treated rather harshly.

May I beg also to know whether any petition has been received for the release of Subramania Siva in the process that he is unwell.

If so what steps have been taken by Government to find out whether such a person could not be granted in favour of the man.

I am yours truly
M. G. S. S. S.

There is no information in the office as regards the transfer of Councils Suresndranath Naya & Subramania Siva to the Lepa annexe at Salem.

From the papers readed in Go N^o 144: 25.1.11 it will be seen that in January last the former was at Bellary while in Go N^o 1583: 27.x.10 he had declined to order the transfer of the latter from Trichinopoly to the Salem jail. They might have however been subsequently transferred under the order of the Dy to the Lepa annexe at Salem. Perhaps the Dy may be consulted.

~~Sub~~ Subramania Siva & his wife Sabarnatha forbais is fast for remission of sentence. These forbais were rejected in Go N^o 1583: 27.x.10 & N^o 1401: 15.9.10. No recommendation for his release on medical grounds has been received from the Jail

OOTACAMUND,

Dear Sir,

Yours O.O. No. 2001-1 of the 18th Instant to hand.

Subramania Siva is at present in the main jail at Salem. I transferred him to the Criminal Lepet annexe at Salem from the Trichinopoly jail, as his transfer was recommended by the Medical Officer. In the meantime G.O.
No. 1583 of the 27th oct. issued, and as Government said that they saw no reason to move him from Trichinopoly to the Criminal Lepet annexe
I took this as meaning that they did not wish him to be confined in

Subramania Siva is at present in the Criminal Lepet annexe at Salem.

Sivendranath Raja

in the Leper ward. But as he was already at Salem, I had him moved to the main jail - Swa is a leper, but I do not think his disease is so advanced as to render him a source of danger to other people. At Trichy he was confined in a cell, and as the continued confinement must have been particularly irksome, I thought it might be well, if he were in the leper annexe, where at least he would have the companionship of others similarly afflicted.

Surendramath Nayya is at Bellary. I have no information as to his being a leper. & If he is, it is strange, as by Subramania Editor of the "Hindu", whom fort released from the Penitentiary, was also a leper. Three lepers out of the few Seditious sent to jail is an inordinate proportion, and suggests some connection between leprosy and Seditious!

Yours Sincerely,
Percival

has been out to be incorrect. Perhaps while informing him of Comdt Subramania Siva ~~he~~ ~~and~~ may be asked as to the source of his information that Siva is being treated harshly at Salem.

This last insinuation may, I submit, be ignored.

2. As to Sundaramath Aiyar, Mr Kesava Pillai may be told that he is not in the Salem jail, but at Bellary. (The fact that Mr Kesava Pillai doesn't even know where the prisoner is confined somewhat discounts the accuracy of his information about the "harsh" treatment accorded to the prisoner.)

3. Apparently the I.C. moved Subramania Siva from Trichy jail to Salem on his own authority between 13.10.10 & 27.10.10 (see papers in G.O. 1583 of 27.10.10). There is no objection to this, but as the prisoner's petition for release was at that time pending before Court, & together with a recommendation by the Medical Officer that he should be moved to the Lepers

Ward at Salem. Perhaps it would have been better if the L.G. had let the Govt know what he was doing. The man is obviously a leper, and perhaps he should now be moved into the leper ward.

I do not know why the Govt. said they saw no reason to order Subramania Siva's transfer from the Trichy jail to the Lepers Ward at Salem, for I cannot find ^{in the paper} any ^{discussing of the} ~~proposal~~. The I.G. may be told that the Govt. have no objection to his being confined in the Lepers ward if that course is considered desirable.

2. We may tell Mr. Kesava Pillai that Subramania Siva is confined in the Salem jail and is suffering from leprosy; that a petition from his wife praying for his release was rejected in Sept. last as the Govt. found no good grounds for interfering with the course of his punishment; that Surendranath Arya is confined in the Bellary jail, and the Govt. have not heard that he is suffering from leprosy.
